MRS. SAFARIK IMPROVING

Following her operation Saturday morning, December 16 for the removal of her gall bladder at the St. Catherine's hospital, Omaha, Mrs. Joseph Safarik is said to be showing the necessary improvement hoped for today. Mrs. Safarik was taken to the Omaha hospital Monday, December 11 but was not operated on until the following Saturday.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Paul Wohlfarth returned home Sunday from the hospital at Topeka, Kansas, where she has been taking treatment. She is now feeling much improved and it is hoped will enjoy more robust health.

VISIT AT OMAHA

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wurga and little daughter Miss Ruth Wurga motored to Omaha one day last week to look after some business. They also visited with friends for a short while.

DEATH OF PIONEER LADY

On Saturday Mrs. Martha Celeste Reed, member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, died at the age of 79 years, leaving as her only survivor Miss Irma Hunt, of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Reed was a daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. John Black, residents here in an early day, her father being a physician and later a banker in the organization of the Bank of Cass county.

Mrs. Reed was twice married, first to H. H. Hunt and in later years to Byron Reed of Council Bluffs, both of whom have preceded her in death. She was a sister of the late Mrs. P. E. Ruffner, Mrs. E. A. Kirpatrick, E. A. and Robert W. Black, all of whom have preceded her in death and leaving her as the last of her immediate family.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Burket chapel in Omaha and interment made at the Forest Lawn cemetery in Omaha.

Mrs. Reed was an aunt of E. G. Ruffner of near Mynard.

RAPHAEL JANDA HERE

Although he failed to arrive in Plattsmouth in time to attend the funeral services for his grandfather, Frank Janda, who was buried Monday morning, Raphael Janda arrived in this city yesterday afternoon. The son of Mrs. Josephine Janda, Raphael is spending the time with his mother, his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lillie and little daughter Rose Marie. He will return to his home in Kansas City, Missouri tomorrow.

BRIZENDINES HAVE DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brizendine are the proud parents of a daughter born to them Monday, December 13 at their home in this city. The little one was named Beverly Ann. The mother was the former Theresa Altschaffl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Altschaffl.
