SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily— Social Workers Flower Club— The flower club held its annual Christmas party last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James E. Warga. All club members but three attended. A guest of the club was Mrs. Wallace Terryberry and son. After a short business meeting, an exchange of Christmas gifts and an appropriate entertainment by Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger and Mrs. Robert Rea featured the seasonal event. Christmas carols were also sung. The holiday theme was tastefully expressed in the usual colors from decorations to the lovely luncheon served by the hostesses. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Mumm with Mrs. Peterson assisting.

Will Spend Holiday in South— This morning Miss Rachel Robertson departed from Lincoln in company with Miss Mineola West for San Antonio, Texas. Miss West will visit with relatives in that section of Texas and Miss Robertson as a house guest of Miss Patricia Green, daughter of Major and Mrs. J. T. Green, formerly with the ROTC at the University of Nebraska, at Fort Sam Houston. Miss Green was a student at the university until the transfer of her father south, and is a sorority sister in the Delta Delta Delta of Miss Robertson. The Christmas holiday season is very colorful at Fort Sam Houston, the largest army post in the U. S. A., many social events marking the period from Christmas to New Years. Among the events planned for Miss Robertson by her hostess is a dance at the officers club.

Federation Christmas Party— The First Presbyterian church Women's Federation met at 2:30 p. m. yesterday at the church Fellowship room for their annual Christmas party. A committee, which comprised ladies from all circles, served as hostesses for the occasion and a very large attendance was present. Mrs. L. L. McCarty was chairman of the committee. The Fellowship room was very neatly and artistically decorated in conformity with the Christmas holidays. The red and green color scheme was used throughout the decorations of the room and in the luncheon that followed. Mrs. Harry G. McClusky was in charge of the arrangements and proved her ability in arranging the interior decorations.

Mrs. Glen Valley, missionary chairman, served as program chairman and Mrs. Wiley Sigler was in charge of the old-fashioned playlet that was presented during the afternoon. The party commenced with devotional and the singing of numerous Christmas carols by the group. Mrs. Wiley Sigler served as the accompanist for the group. The skit "Last Rehearsal" was enacted by a group who were dressed in the old-fashioned costumes. Santa Claus, one of the most expected visitors at this time, dropped in on the group during the afternoon and presented each with a gift as a token of Christmas greetings. Guests at the party brought a Christmas gift (foodstuff), which will be turned over to the Associated Charities in brightening the Christmas spirit for those who are less fortunate. At the conclusion of the party, which was an event of merriment and enjoyment, the committee served refreshments. Aid Society Entertains— Mrs. John Micin, Mrs. M. B. Allen, Mrs. Wilbur Mansfield, Mrs. David Robinson, and Mrs. E. G. Ofc served as hostesses at the First Christian church Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon. Around forty were served. Mrs. Everett Gooding served as program chairman and it was preceded by the group singing of Christmas carols. A reading was given by Miss Norma Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spangler. The title of her reading was "Going Home for Christmas." Miss Evelyn Gooding was heard in a piano solo, "Silvery Echoes." Miss Norma Spangler sang a beautiful solo, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem." Miss Gooding serving as her accompanist. The Plattsmouth high school girls' sextette which comprises Misses Maxine Graves, Billie Sylvester, Aileen Reed, Dorothea Duxbury, Gertrude Clويد, and Wilma Nolte, sang two numbers. A luncheon was served by the committee in charge at the conclusion of the program.

Club Members Hold Party— The Thursday afternoon II bridge club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Ofc for their Christmas party. Two tables of bridge players— Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., Mrs. John Sattler, Mrs. Herbert Schuetz, Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, Mrs. L. S. Pucelik, Mrs. Carl Schneider, Mrs. C. H. Martin, Mrs. Carl Ofc—entertained themselves by playing cards. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Schneider were awarded the prizes. The exchange-of-gifts feature was carried out by the club members. Naomi Circle Party— Mrs. S. J. Millon, Mrs. Agnes Moore, Mrs. John Leyda, and Mrs. H. B. Perry served as committee members for the Naomi circle's Christmas party, which was held at the H. B. Perry home at 915 Granite street yesterday afternoon. Guests of the circle were Mrs. Fred Howland and Mrs. George Brinklow. A Professor Quiz contest on Biblical issues took place with Mrs. Edgar Glaze as the leader. The guests arrived with their season's gift and they enjoyed exchanging them later in the afternoon. A luncheon was served at the climax of the society's December social event.

Minnie Guthmann Entertains— Mrs. Russell Harris of Omaha, and Mrs. Mead of Portland, Oregon were the out-of-town guests at the semi-monthly session of the Thursday afternoon I bridge club yesterday. who returned home from Germany which met at the home of Miss Minnie Guthmann. Miss Dora Fricke, safely recently, was able to be present with the group. Mrs. Carl Brown of Papillion and Mrs. R. W. Clement were awarded the prizes. Mrs. Mead is a house guest of Mrs. Henry McMaken at Omaha. Entertained at Imperial— A large family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Campbell of Plattsmouth on December 17. A delicious basket dinner was served, prepared by all. The remainder of the afternoon was spent enjoying music and games. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sztzman, Steven, Richard and Leona; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Nedrow and Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clary, Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss and Don; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drapes and Lloyd; Mr. and Mrs. John Splitz, Betty and Wayne and Mrs. Elsie Keep. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shopp also were callers in the afternoon. The guests of honor planned to leave the following day.

Klasy Bridge Party— The members of the Klasy Bridge club met last evening at the Hotel Plattsmouth dining room for a 6:30 dinner. The dining table was the center attraction at the hotel last evening, tall white tapers, a large candle placed in the center, and small lighted candles, as place cards were used. Bridge was played following the dinner and Mrs. Henry A. Schneider received the first prize; Mrs. Frank Bestor, second; Mrs. Frank Gobelman, third prize; Mrs. Emmons Ptak, Ace of Spades prize; and the special prize and honor prize was awarded to Miss Laura Meisinger. Through the compliments of Joseph Lapidus, the owner of the Hotel Plattsmouth, hot chocolate was served to the group at the close of the card-playing feature. Many and beautiful gifts of large variety were received by the ladies in the exchange-of-gifts event which took place in the dining room where a small decorated tree was placed. Large packages which were neatly wrapped were placed around the huge Christmas tree in the center of the hotel lobby were later drawn by the members. Mrs. Frank Gobelman and Mrs. L. W. Egenberger had charge of this extra and enjoyable feature.

Entertained at Dinner— Thursday Misses Kathryn and Alice Jayne Grosshans entertained a group of their young friends at a very charmingly appointed dinner at the Grosshans home north of this city. The home was bright with the Christmas decorations and which were carried out in the table appointments. After the dinner the jolly party motored to the city and enjoyed bowling and closed the evening with refreshments at the Taste Shop. Those attending were Misses Shirley Mason, Shirley Jacobs, Rose Mary Steppatt, Margaret Ann Pitz, Vada Brothers, of La Platte and the hostesses, Misses Kathryn and Alice Jayne Grosshans. C. Y. O. Christmas Party— The Holy Rosary church C. Y. O. boys met with Joseph and Frank Kvapil last evening for their Christmas party at the Kvapil home at 1562 Main street. Guests at the occasion included James Kozak, Leonard Kalasek, Bernard Knoeflek, Bernard Kubicka, Albin Chovanec, Charles Kozak, John Aschenbrenner, Matthew Sedlak, John Slatinsky, Frank Aschenbrenner, Louis Kratochvile, Terrance McKenna. The group enjoyed the evening in playing pinocle and six games of the "ever popular" card sport was played. John Aschenbrenner was the winner of the first prize; Joseph Kvapil, second; and Bernard Knoeflek, consolation. Two special prizes were awarded to James Kozak and John Aschenbrenner were the winners of these. At the close of the card game the boys were all served a luncheon by Mrs. Frank Aschenbrenner. Mrs. Joseph Kvapil and Miss Mary Jane Kvapil. Group singing followed the luncheon and a number of favorite Christmas hymns and miscellaneous songs were sung without accompaniment. Terrance McKenna led the singing. Sophomores Hold Party— The members of the sophomore class of the local high school enjoyed a very delightful social time last evening at the high school gym, the event marking the opening of the party were that of a Christmas scene. A very entertaining program was arranged and presented by the class members, this opening with a piano solo by Wilbur Claus. A clever skit was presented by Bill Hula and Jerry White, which was much enjoyed by the group of classmates. Willa Sylvester gave a vocal solo as a part of the program and Dorothea Mae Duxbury a very artistic piano number in the musical portion of the entertainment. Wilma Nolte gave a reading, "1940 Resolutions" for the class members that was much enjoyed. The members of the party had a fine talk by Milo Price, class sponsor, and Mr. Price was presented with a gift by Ralph Hill, the class president, as a token of the esteem felt for the sponsor. The group enjoyed games for some time and later the refreshments that had been provided for the occasion by the committee. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and which brought to a close a very delightful occasion. The committees arranging the event were: Refreshments—Gertrude Clويد, chairman; John Soennichen, Maxine Graves. Entertainment—Dorothea Mae Duxbury, chairman; Willa Sylvester, John Slatinsky, Bill Clويد. Choir Holds Party— A very enjoyable time was had at the Fritz Kaffenberger home last evening when Misses Winifred, Virginia, and Phyllis entertained the choir members of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church at a Christmas party. The committee in charge of the affair was Mrs. Otto Pitz, Misses Virginia Kaffenberger, and Kathryn Tschirren. Guests at the party included Mrs. John Weost, Mrs. Wiley Sigler, Mrs. Otto Pitz, Mrs. George Klingner, Misses Helen Horn, Phyllis Speck, Kathryn and Mary Tschirren, and Edgar Kief. To the accompaniment of Mrs. Wiley Sigler the group all participated in singing the numerous Christmas carols, choir rehearsal preceded the group singing. Bingo was played later in the evening and Miss Winifred Kaffenberger received the first prize; Miss Phyllis Kaffenberger, second; and Mrs. John Weost, consolation. Mrs. Weost led the bingo. Mrs. Wiley Sigler also was awarded a prize for a game which was played by the group. The committee of three served refreshments at the close of the affair. Following the custom at all Christmas parties the exchange of gifts took place.

From Saturday's Daily— Mrs. Mumm Hosters— The Tuesday afternoon pinocle club met yesterday for their social event at the Fred Mumm home. Club members present included Mrs. Frank Guthmann, Mrs. W. H. Puls, Mrs. Val Burkel, Mrs. Henrietta Ofc, Mrs. L. B. Egenberger, Mrs. John Schutz, and Miss Minnie Guthmann. Mrs. Guthmann and her daughter were the prize winners. Jitters Jitter Yesterday— The Nu-Fu Jitter card club jittered last evening at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bourne, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bulin. The club's Christmas party was held in the recently-established recreation room in the top room of the Bulin home. All of the club members were present and each brought a gift which was exchanged. Miss Gertrude Valley and Mrs. James Randolph were the prize winners. Cass County People Hurt in Auto Accident Mrs. F. H. Stevens, 46, of Elmwood in Critical Condition at Lincoln Hospital—Others Injured From Thursday's Daily— Mrs. F. H. Stevens, 46, Elmwood, was in "very critical" condition at Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln today along with five other persons, all seriously injured, as the result of a terrific head-on automobile collision a mile west of Eagle, Neb., yesterday. Dr. H. B. Morton said of Mrs. Stevens, wife of Rev. F. H. Stevens, 46, of Elmwood: "I never saw anyone as generally battered in an accident and still alive." Her injuries included extreme scalp, face and body lacerations, bone fractures of the nose, face, right arm and hand, the left knee and both ankles. In the Stevens car, besides Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, were their daughter, Rosemary, 5, and Ed Bornemeier, 55, of Elmwood. Stevens had fractured ribs and knee cap, and Bornemeier head and face injuries including a broken nose. The girl, while cut and bruised, was least seriously injured of all. In the other car were Alex Soderland, 56, Lincoln, driving, and Mrs. Marie Stell, 39, Lincoln, who received lacerations, possibly fractured ribs, and other injuries. E. L. Haley of the state safety patrol, who investigated the collision, said both machines had apparently been moving "right down the middle of the pavement" and struck with a "sickening force." Both engines were pushed through the dashboards. RETURNS FROM STUDIES From Thursday's Daily— Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker of Murray were in Omaha this morning to meet their daughter, Miss Jane Boedeker, who is returning from Cincinnati, Ohio, where she has been attending the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, one of the leading musical schools of the United States. Miss Boedeker has made music her life work and ranks as one of the most brilliant young pianists of the west today. She has studied in Paris with some of the leading pianists of the old world and this season has been at the Cincinnati school. She will enjoy the holiday season at Murray with her parents and brother, C. H. Boedeker, II and family. From Friday's Daily— Walter J. Wunderlich, Nehawka banker and Louis W. Ross of that place, were here today to look after some matters at the court house.

Edward Hadraba, who has been at Kansas City for a short time visiting with friends, has returned home to spend the holiday season. Community Building Club ELECTED DEC. 23 1079 Allan McClanahan $50 Not Pd. 1741 Henry Krejci $25 Not Pd. Next Week — $50 - $50
