From Monday's Daily—To Celebrate Golden Wedding—
On Thursday, February 15th, Mr. and Mrs. George McCavigan, former Plattsmouth residents, will observe their golden wedding anniversary with a reunion dinner and open house at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Anson A. Maher, 3809 E. 63th street, Kansas City, Missouri.

Henrietta Schmidtman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidtman, was born October 12, 1861, at Gibson, Wisconsin, coming to Plattsmouth in 1884 to the home of her sister, Mrs. Gus Pitz. Her father, and three sisters, the late Mrs. Pitz, Mrs. John Ledgway and Mrs. Henry Schmidt, of California, were all residents of Plattsmouth, where her brother, William Schmidtman, Sr., is still living.

Mr. McCavigan was born July 18, 1862, at Carlisle, England. In May, 1886 he came to the United States, locating at Plattsmouth where he was employed by the Burlington for a great many years. He made his home here with his cousin, Archie Adams.

(On Decoration day, 1885, Mr. and Mrs. McCavigan met, their romance culminating in marriage on February 15, 1890. Mr. and Mrs. McCavigan and their daughter resided in Plattsmouth until 1901 when they moved to Kansas City where they have since resided.
While here Mr. McCavigan was engaged as a lettering painter at the local shops, while at Kansas City he has been engaged as a painting contractor.
Besides the daughter they have five grandchildren, Mrs. Arthur Allen, 6904 Kensington; Anson A. Janet Helen, Willa Ruth and Dee Maher, also two great grandchildren, Arthur Anson and Larry Dean Allen.

Misses Estelle and Caroline Baird Saturday evening. Card honors went to Miss Clara Weyrich and Mrs. Cress. Assisted by her sister, Miss Caroline Baird, the hostess served a luncheon, which was carried out in the Valentine motif.
Mrs. Troop Hostess—
Mrs. Charles Troop served as hostess to the members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Monday afternoon. A large number of members were able to be present.
The February meeting was devoted to honoring the memory of Frances Willard, founder of the union. Mrs. D. S. Sumner served as chairman for the program, which comprised studies in the life of Miss Willard. A review of Frances Willard's life was characterized by Mrs. Joseph Wiles; Mrs. George Farley enacted the turn in her life; exhibits of Miss Willard's in the Library of Congress were told by Mrs. Stephen Wiles; a five-cent stamp carrying her picture, Mrs. Ernest Giles, Mrs. D. S. Sumner read a poem.

Woodman Circle Meets—
The Woodman Circle met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rozina Ripple, where a very pleasing attendance of the members were present to take part in the business and social meeting.
It is hoped to have the district convention of the Woodman Circle meet here this year and the members of the group discussed the possible plans for the meeting. This district comprises Lincoln, Omaha, Fremont, Columbus and Plattsmouth, bringing several hundred here for the meeting. The exact date for the meeting has not been set as yet.

Following the business session the members of the group enjoyed games of various kinds at which a great deal of pleasure was derived.
Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostess.

From Tuesday's Daily—Convocation at High School—
Students at the Plattsmouth high school enjoyed a convocation in the school auditorium at 9 a. m. today. The Dorothy Bennett players from Omaha enacted the playlet "Smilin' Through." This play was presented several years ago by P. H. S. class of 1928. Mrs. Clement Woster had the leading part at the time. The players this morning comprised four persons.

Anniversary Party—
Saturday evening a delightful anniversary party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Vallery, in which the relatives of Mrs. Vallery came to celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary, which is February 12. Mr. and Mrs. Vallery received two dozen American Beauty roses and several pieces of electric appliances as gifts from the group.
Miss Helen Slatinsky entertained the group with her accordion, singing and playing the latest song hits. Pinochle took up some of the time, and in the playing, high score went to Albert Janda and Mrs. Roy Saylor and low to Thomas E. Beesley and Miss Helen Slatinsky.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Beesley, Joyce Ellen and Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saylor of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Janda and Janet Carol of Omaha, Miss Helen Slatinsky of this city, Robert Ulstrup of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. P.

Candle-Light Tea Sunday—
Another of the most charming social events during this winter season was the candle-light tea given by Mrs. D. E. Waller in her parlment at the Coronado Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5. Mrs. Waller served as hostess at the Valentine tea, which served as an appreciation to the many friends who aided in composing her Wonder Box a few months ago. Guests at the tea included over sixty.
The tea table comprised Mrs. Waller's beautiful lace cloth with a large bowl of pastel-shade sweetpeas as the centerpiece. At each end of the table stood three red and white candles. Mrs. Waller's three nieces poured the tea, Miss Virginia Lee Abbott being attired in a pale-blue formal; Miss Dorene Little, in a flame-colored formal; and Miss Phyllis Ray in a peach formal. All three are from Omaha.
Out-of-town guests at the tea included Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mueller, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hourigan and son, Jack, Mrs. J. T. Little, Mrs. Louise Schmidt, Mrs. Grace Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Abbott, Wayne Abbott, Miss Mildred Trutna.

THE NINTH SCOUT LAW: "A Scout Is Thrifty"

He plans for savings so as to more than take care of his spending—he saves his money so that when he needs it he will have it. The Scout Law trains boys to be better men, to have a greater chance of financial stability and success in life. Being thrifty is a rule that every individual should observe no matter how small or how large his savings may be. It bespeaks success.
