From Wednesday's Daily—Rotary Has Frolic—Last evening the Rotary club was host to their ladies in a dinner party and evening of frolic at the Hotel Plattsouth. The members of the club and their ladies had planned an excursion on the placid waters of the Missouri river, but the arctic breezes of late Tuesday caused this to be postponed.

Mrs. Haupt Surprised—In remembrance of her birthday, which occurred on Friday, April 26, Mrs. Augusta Haupt, sister of Mrs. John Woest, was the victim of a "complete surprise" party tendered her by a group of her closest friends and neighbors. The party, which took place Friday afternoon, was headed by Mrs. P. Y. McFetridge, and the ladies present included Mrs. Glen Valley, Mrs. Elmer Lohnes, Mrs. Leslie Niel, Mrs. I. L. Kocian, Mrs. Phillip Hill, Mrs. R. B. Keller, Mrs. Cass Sylvester, Mrs. W. H. Puls, Mrs. P. Y. McFetridge, Mrs. John Woest, Mrs. Fred Worth, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Augusta Haupt.

Cards were played, pinocle being the chosen game. A gift from the group was presented to the guest of honor. A birthday luncheon, prepared by Mrs. Woest, was served. The birthday cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. McFetridge.

Feather Stripping Party—Mrs. Hermie Svoboda entertained a selected group of friends at a feather stripping party Sunday afternoon. Games were played and a luncheon was served. Due to the kitchen shower, which was also in progress at the Holy Rosary church rectory, the group convened early and dismissed early.

From Tuesday's Daily—Honored on Birthday—Last evening a party of some sixteen of the school friends of Charles Groeshans gathered at the family home on highway No. 75, south of this city, to join in the observance of his birthday anniversary. The evening will be most pleasantly remembered. In honor of the birthday the guest of honor was presented with a large number of very pleasing remembrances.

At a suitable hour refreshments were served, these featuring a large and handsomely decorated birthday cake.

Kitchen Shower Sunday—The kitchen in the parish rectory of the Holy Rosary church has been recently renovated by its decoration and modernization. The work having been completed a kitchen shower was tendered by the parishioners Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 4. Receiving the guests at the shower was Miss Theresa De-moth. Many useful and valuable gifts were presented at the shower, a number of them coming from parish organizations and groups.

Scavenger Hunt—Last evening the members of the Junior Woman's club held their social meeting at the Hotel Plattsouth, enjoying the thrills of a scavenger hunt that proved a source of much fun and excitement for the young ladies.

The party was divided in five groups and sent out to search for the various articles demanded as a part of the hunt. The ladies proceeded over the city in search of the articles which were then assembled at the hotel.

The winning groups were: one, Irene Anthes, Anne Kuleke, Lawanna Kelley, Lillian Schmitt; two, June Vallery, Juanita Walden, Mildred Walden.

The committee in charge was the officers of the club: Edith Solomon, Marion Olson, Marie Nolting, Gertrude Vallery.

At the close of the evening of fun and entertainment the group enjoyed a "Dutch treat" at the Coffee Shop.

From Wednesday's Daily—Rotary Has Frolic—Last evening the Rotary club was host to their ladies in a dinner party and evening of frolic at the Hotel Plattsouth. The members of the club and their ladies had planned an excursion on the placid waters of the Missouri river, but the arctic breezes of late Tuesday caused this to be postponed.

Instead of the boat ride the group enjoyed a delightfully arranged dinner party at the hotel as a fitting opening of the unusually pleasant evening. During the dinner party Miss Helen Slatinsky, senior of the Plattsouth high school, gave several delightful songs and accordion accompaniment.

President Knorr of the Rotary placed the entertainment features of the evening in the hands of Mrs. Fred I. Rea, Rotary Ann chairman and Mrs. Russell Reeder had charge of the music of the evening.

The high school faculty furnished a large part of the fun with their band, "The Corny Seven" as they were presented, costumed in a manner that attracted much attention and with a real hill-billy effect. In this group were L. A. Gerner, J. R. Reeder, Vernon Waterman, Harold Heustis, Mr. and Mrs. David Fowler and Miss Harriet Porter.

Mr. Gerner and Miss Porter were also presented in a clever skit, "A Bicycle Built for Two," adding a great deal to the interest of the evening.

Miss Slatinsky also gave two fine accordion solos as a part of the music of the evening.

After the program the members found that many pleasant diversions had been arranged for their entertainment.

For those who were devotees of the dance the committee had arranged a very pleasant period of the evening while for others cards served as the diversion. In the bridge games Mrs. Carl Ofe was the winner of high score, in pinocle Mrs. E. H. Spangler and in the Chinese checker games Mrs. H. G. McClusky proved the most skillful.

Mrs. R. A. Bates, whose late husband was one of the charter members of the local club, was a guest of the evening.

Pilnys Showered Tuesday—A charivari shower was evidenced at the Vincent Pilny, Jr. home, 1618 Main street last evening when a group of young people gathered together and tendered the newly-wedded couple a surprise. Among those who showered the couple with "blustery noises" were Mr. and Mrs.

John V. Svoboda, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Svoboda, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knoffek, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Janda, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koubek, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Meisinger, Misses Rose Janda, Mary Holy, Dorothy Svoboda, and

Mrs. Harold Lillie. The evening at the Pilny home was spent in visiting and enjoying the old-fashioned good time. The showerers were well compensated for their efforts in obtaining "benevolences."
