From Thursday's Daily— Altar Society Meets—

A large crowd, comprised largely of immediate members, attended the business-social meeting of the St. John's Altar society Wednesday afternoon. Hostesses comprised Mrs. Rudolph Iverson, Mrs. John Hobscheidt, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Hiber, Mrs. Emil Lorenz, Mrs. Emil Ptak, Mrs. Robert Rea, Mrs. E. G. Ruffner, Mrs. Dan Reichstadt, and Mrs. Herman Reichstadt.

Highlights of the business session included the submission of a report on the recent D.C.C.W. meeting, which was held in Douglas, Monday, April 29. This was given by Mrs. Fred I. Rea, second vice-president. The ladies of this society are to serve the 1940 Junior-Senior banquet Saturday evening, May 11 at the American Legion hall.

The social hour was spent in playing bingo. Mrs. Robert Rea and Mrs. Dan Reichstadt serving as the callers. Prizes for this game were awarded to Mrs. Elmer Elliott, Mrs. Elmer Bennett, and Mrs. Frank Bestor. Mrs. Francis Toman received the special prize.

Mrs. William Woolcott, president of the Altar society, served as the leader of the afternoon.

Presbyterian Federation—

Members of the First Presbyterian Church Woman's Federation met in the sanctuary of the church for their regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon, and this meeting was presided over by Mrs. William Robertson, the new president. The meeting was preceded by a prayer led by the missionary chairman, Mrs. Glen Valery.

The usual business was discussed and among this was included a number of reports—particularly one on the recent Presbytery at Hebron, Nebraska. Mrs. Oliver Meisinger and Mrs. Wylie Sigler, assisted by Dr. Harry G. McClusky, submitted the report.

A program followed the society's meeting and Miss Shirley Walling and Bruno Reichstadt each sang a solo number. Miss Ruth Westover accompanied Bruno and Mrs. J. R. Reeder served as accompanist for Miss Walling. Miss Westover also played a piano solo. The vocal and piano solo numbers were heard in conjunction with the observance of Music Week, which begins Sunday, May 5.

Refreshments were served by members of Circle 2 of which Mrs. Hilt Martin is chairman.

From Friday's Daily—

Theater Party Tuesday—

Miss Helen Ulrich, daughter of Mrs. Ewald Ulrich and a teacher at the Cullom school, celebrated her twenty-first birthday Tuesday, April 30 and in honor of the occasion a theater party was tendered Helen. The guest of honor and her guests were special guests at a birthday luncheon at Mrs. Ewald Ulrich's home immediately following the theater party.

Have Interesting Meeting—

The Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church held a very pleasant meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Dora Fricke on North 6th street. The study program was in charge of Mrs. John E. Schutz, who had as her subject that of "Silent Missions," the church schools and work with those who are mutes in carrying the message of the church.

During the afternoon Miss Catherine Conis gave a most interesting presentation of the story of the Easter service of the Greek Orthodox church, its traditions and the ceremonies that mark this important event in the Christian world.

Miss Fricke served dainty and delicious refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

From Saturday's Daily—

Mrs. Gobelman Hostess—

Greeting her guests in her Golden Spike costume, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman entertained the members of her bridge club—the Delta Deck Bridge club—Thursday evening, May 2. The party took place in the dining room of the Hotel Plattsmouth. Fruit blossoms decorated the room in the hotel.

Card honors were awarded to Mrs. Lora Lloyd Kieck, Soes Amelia Martens and Mathilda Soennichsen.

Married on West Coast—

The many friends here will be interested to learn of the marriage of Mrs. A. E. Stewart, formerly of this city. Mrs. Stewart was married on Friday, April 12th at Los Angeles to Mr. Fred R. Cortes, and they will make their future home in the California city.

Mr. Cortes is the manager of the Hillcone steamship line, one of the large marine companies on the west coast.

Attend Sorority Reunion—

The annual Delta Delta Delta state reunion opened Friday evening with a picnic at the home of Mrs. J. E. Thomson. Mrs. Fred Haas of Omaha, state vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. I. E. O. Pace, state president. Among the many who attended the picnic supper and today's meetings included Mrs. William Robertson and Mrs. Searl S. Davis. The program for today was scheduled as follows: Meeting at the chapter house, 11 a. m.; luncheon, 1 p. m.; meeting, 2 p. m.

Passes Twelfth Birthday—

Miss Phyllis Taenzler, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Taenzler, celebrated her twelfth birthday yesterday and in honor of the occasion her mother tendered her a dinner party at which a group of her close friends and relatives attended. Dinner guests included Ruth Woest, Ann Martin, Marjorie Devoe, Phyllis Bourck, Betty Jean Schick, Bonny Hamlin, Plattsmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Colwell and daughter, Caroline, Glenwood, Iowa.

A theater party followed the birthday dinner.

Methodist Federation—

Milo Price, Plattsmouth's new postmaster who was chosen in January to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Frank Cummins, spoke before the Woman's Federation of the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon. A large group filled the church parlors eager to hear the address and partake of the fine luncheon served by a committee from Naomi circle—a circle that has Mrs. John Hatt as its chairman.

The major portion of the business session was taken up in the discussion of the plans and arrangements made for the serving of the banquet to the Plattsmouth Woman's club members in the church parlors Monday evening, May 6. Other important points were discussed.

In general Mr. Price, who was formerly social science teacher in the local high school, addressed the ladies on the work and management of the postoffice department.

In carrying out their part in the national observance of Music Week, the ladies heard Miss Mary Jean Hatt play the beautiful piano solo number, "The First Waltz." To the accompaniment of Mrs. Don Seiver, group singing took place with Mrs. Gladys Glaze serving as the leader.

Committee members selected from the Naomi circle later served a luncheon.

P. E. O. Meeting—

Chapter F, P. E. O. were delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clement Wester, a very large number taking advantage of the pleasant weather to attend.

In honor of music week, the ladies of the chapter enjoyed a program of group singing, led by Mrs. E. H. Wescott, Mrs. L. S. Devoe being at the piano. The songs used were those that had been sung at the state convention at Lincoln.

The members also received the reports of the state convention given by the delegates, Mrs. P. T. Heinemann, chapter chairman, and Mrs. L. S. Devoe. These covered the highlights of the convention in an excellent manner.

At the close of the afternoon, the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Crabill, served refreshments.

TRAILER HOUSE BURNS

From Thursday's Daily—

This morning at an early hour the trailer house owned by John Curtis and parked near the Missouri river bridges, was burned to the ground by a fire of unknown origin. The trailer house was occupied by the W. E. Mason family but none of the family was in the structure when the fire broke out.

The fire was discovered by other residents and the alarm given, and in endeavoring to get into the trailer to try and secure some clothing Mrs. Lucille Harris suffered slight burns. The structure and its contents, was all destroyed and without insurance.

TO ATTEND LUNCHEON IN LINCOLN TUESDAY

Mayor Arnold J. Lillie and several members of the council will attend the Public Affairs luncheon of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, in response to an invitation from Mayor Campbell of the capital city. Howard Hunter, a deputy WPA commissioner, of Washington, D. C., will speak on matters of interest to the towns that will be represented.

SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Littleton Bethards, shoemaker at 613 Main street, was the victim of a heart attack Wednesday afternoon, shortly after 4 p. m. Upon the arrival of a customer, Dick Case, Mr. Bethards made his way to his sewing machine where he collapsed. Dr. R. P. Westover was summoned immediately and administered first aid. He was later taken to his home on Orchard Hill.

UNDERGOES TONSILECTOMY

Miss Marie Read, who has been engaged as waitress at the Hotel Plattsmouth Coffee shop, was operated upon Wednesday for the removal of her tonsils. She came through the ordeal nicely and after a short rest at the family home near Cedar Creek, expects to resume her work.

MUSIC WEEK OBSERVANCE

From Saturday's Daily—

Starting tomorrow and continuing to next Sunday, the people of the United States are called upon to join in the observance of music week, a week dedicated to the study and enjoyment of music and its influence.

The president of the United States, governors and municipal heads have joined in the movement to make this the greatest observance yet held for music.

Here in Plattsmouth the week is to bring a wealth of entertainment and enjoyment in many well arranged programs that will start with the choral presentations of the churches Sunday, followed by programs each day and evening with school offerings, a great public sing on Wednesday night on South 5th street.

The musical talent of Plattsmouth embraces a large number of persons, whose development is due to the increasing interest in and participation in things musical. Let us continue this interest and make even larger strides in the developing of the musical teaching and appreciation among the residents of the community. Those who are sponsoring the music week program are entitled to every way possible in making it a great and outstanding success. Let all in the community join in making next week a memorable one.

BISHOP STEWART DIES

CHICAGO, May 3 (UP)—Bishop George Craig Stewart of the Chicago Episcopal Diocese died last night of a heart attack while he was being driven to a south side church where he was to instruct a confirmation class. He was 60.

He was head of the diocese and director of a suburban Evanston, Ill., church, one of the wealthiest and most fashionable in the Chicago area. He had been bishop since 1930.

He was born at Saginaw, Mich., where he attended elementary schools. He first entered the Methodist ministry and was pastor of several Chicago churches before he turned to the Episcopal ministry in 1902. He served as a chaplain in France during the World War.

ROMANIES ON MOVE

Wednesday afternoon, Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Sheriff Emery Doody were called out to the vicinity of the Oreapolis viaduct, where a party of gypsies were camped. There were three large cars with tents and a large number of adults and children in the party that had made camp. The Romanies were ordered to be on the highway by 6 o'clock in the evening, and accordingly broke camp and set out to go elsewhere in search of a stopping place.

MARRIAGE AT PARSONAGE

Late Wednesday afternoon the Methodist parsonage was the scene of the marriage of Clarence John Kuenning, of Palmyra, and Miss Myrtle Louise Nelhart, of Omaha. The groom and his family are old time friends of the Lowson family, attending church at Douglas at the time of the pastorate of Rev. Lowson.

The marriage vows were blessed by Rev. Lowson and witnessed by the mother and brother of the groom.

SUNOWA CAMP FIRE

We met at the library and made May baskets. We sold them for a nickel apiece. This will go to pay for our honor beads. However this will not be enough to pay for everything so we will sell candy for it.—Eldora Shellenbarger, scribe.

NEW UNIFORMS ARRIVE

The police force assuming office May 1st, appeared last evening in their new uniforms and caps. The uniforms are similar to those of the former police, dark blue with the military caps and silvered buttons. They make a very nifty appearance.

PARK BOARD ORGANIZES

The city park board, recently appointed by Mayor Arnold J. Lillie, met this week to organize for the year. George Conis will continue as chairman and Robert Wurl becomes the secretary-treasurer, succeeding John Cloidt. Rea F. Patterson is the third member of the board. Conis and Wurl have served during the past two years, while Patterson is a new member.

This board has an important work to perform in the care and beautification of the parks of the city, and has been able in late years to do a very good job of it on limited funds available for that purpose.

MABEL WHITE RETURNS

Following a six weeks' stay in the Clarkson hospital, Omaha, Miss Mabel White returned to Plattsmouth Wednesday afternoon. She was taken to the home of Mrs. Perry Coffman, who will assist in caring for Miss White. Although not feeling quite so well today, Miss White is said to be slowly recovering from her recent illness.

MOVES TO OMAHA

Sergeant and Mrs. George Trotter and daughter, Beverly, who have been making their home in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Sedlak, parents of Mrs. Trotter, are now moving to Omaha. They have secured a very pleasant home in South Omaha which will be nearer Fort Crook where Sergeant Trotter is stationed.

NAME CAUSES CONFUSION

Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger of south of this city, has been caused some annoyance in the last few days by reason of confusion of her christian name with that of another lady involved in some litigation. This statement is made to avoid any misunderstanding on the part of the public.

RETURN TO CALIFORNIA

Earle Koebler, John Palmer, and Miss Charlotte Palmer left for South Gate, California Tuesday after spending a week in Plattsmouth. Mr. Koebler was called to this city by the death of his father, Henry Koebler, who died Tuesday, April 23. The trip from and to California was made by auto.

RECUPERATING HERE

Dr. J. S. Gunglial, of Dunlap, Iowa, is here to enjoy a visit with his old friend and associate, Dr. W. S. Eaton and family. Dr. Gunglial has just recently undergone an operation at Omaha.

RETURNS TO WORK TODAY

WILL ERECT NEW HOME

G. O. Schwenneker, well known carpenter and contractor, has purchased the property on Pearl street, just west of the residence of the Don Cramer family at Seventh and Pearl.

Mr. Schwenneker is expecting to tear down the old house, one of the oldest residence properties in the city and erect in its stead a new and attractive home.

The property purchased is one of the old landmarks in the city, erected many years ago by the early settlers of Plattsmouth. It was for a long period of time owned by the Methodist church and used as a parsonage by the church.

SEEK RELEASE FROM VILLAGE

An action was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court today in which Mary A. Todd, widow; Melvin R. Todd, and Alice M. Rathe are the plaintiffs and the Village of Union, the defendants.

The plaintiffs ask that real estate owned by them be set outside the corporate limits of the village, the land being used exclusively for agricultural purposes and not platted into town lots.
