home and work. They will be missed as they have made their home here for many years.

Mesdames Georgia Creamer and Lou Woulfe, sister and friends of Mrs. J. T. Carper, who make their home near the Lewistown community were calling on their friends here last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Ruhman who has been poorly for many months and has been kept to her home and bed a greater portion of the time is reported as feeling much improved and is about again, which is a great pleasure.

A number of the men in the vicinity of Union were over to Weeping Water on last Monday receiving instruction as to the best manner of carrying out the provisions of the various farm programs.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robb of Lincoln were in Union last week, attending the last sad rites of Mrs. R. E. Foster, held at the Methodist church in Union last Saturday morning, with interment in the East Union cemetery.

The fire fighters of Union have divided themselves as to their residence into two groups to form a baseball game, allowing Main street to be the line of cleavage and were playing a game a few nights ago. How the game went we have not been informed.

Last Monday Messrs. Paul Griffin and Postmaster Leslie Everett went to the river and threw their hooks in and waited, we don't know how long but we did not hear of them pulling out any fish. However Mrs. H. W. Griffin was called in from the farm to look after the cream station while they were away. Better ask the boys how many fish they bagged.

Mrs. A. R. Smith of Dunbar and Mrs. Walter Marcel of Nebraska City were here last Monday calling at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and also visiting the West Union cemetery where they have friends sleeping. They have visited here and at the cemetery every year since 1895. Mr. Smith formerly conducted the hotel on lower main street where the Becker building now stands.

Enjoyed Family Get-Together.

The Robert Willis family were enjoying a reunion at the home of Clarence Willis last Sunday, when they enjoyed a very fine visit and an excellent dinner. There were there for the occasion Mrs. Robert Willis and son, Albert of Plattsmouth as well as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vallery, who were accompanied by Mrs. Ray Becker.

Enjoyed Family Dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Midkiff were host and hostess to the remaining members of their family at a dinner last Sunday, when all enjoyed the get-together. There were there for the occasion Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Freeman, Oscar Midkiff and Glen Davis.

Visited Here with Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Browne of Spokane, Wash., formerly making their home here but living in the west for a number of years, were wanting a new automobile, and while Mr. Browne went to Detroit, the wife came to Union for a visit. Mr. Browne will return via Union with the new car and picked up the wife, when they will return to their home in the west.

Troy L. Davis the Speaker.

For many years Rev. W. A. Taylor has been the guest speaker at the observance of Memorial day at the Wabash cemetery, Rev. Taylor having ministered to the Baptist church at Wabash for a number of years, but his delicate health has compelled him to forego the speaking, as heretofore. This year Troy L. Davis of Weeping Water made the address, and made an excellent address.

Memorial Service at Wyoming.

Memorial services were held at the Wyoming church and cemetery last Sunday, when the Rev. McGaughey, pastor of the church there and at Union, delivered the oration and was assisted in the conduct of the services by the choir of the Union church. Mrs. Anna M. Hargus of Union also accompanied those who conducted the services.

Murray

John L. Young was in Nehawka Monday where he had some business matters to look after.

Alvin A. McReynolds was over to Plattsmouth last Saturday attending to business and visiting friends.

Mrs. J. E. Gruber is assisting in the nursing of Grandmother Mary Nickles and also with the housework at the Nickles home.

C. D. Spangler and Dr. G. H. Gilmore were in Plattsmouth late last week attending a meeting of the Cass County Historical society.

Ed C. Taylor, the grocer was in Plattsmouth last Sunday, spending the week-end with his two daughters who make their home there.

Mesdames Elmer Philpot and John Murdoch were called to Plattsmouth last Saturday where they were looking after some business matters.

Wm. Obernulte was a visitor in Murray last Monday morning looking after some business matters and conferring with George E. Nickles.

Searl S. Davis of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray last Monday morning, having some business matters to look after with Wm. Sporer, Chester Sporer and family and Wm. Sporer were in Nebraska City last Friday where the men had business to look after and the wife and kiddies were looking after some shopping.

Mrs. Grace Chambers, who has been in Chicago visiting with her daughter, Mayone Chambers for some time, arrived here late last week, and early this week departed for her home at Denver.

Lawrence Smith has been busy at the lumber yard of late in the manufacturing of a fancy fence for the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles which will be used at the home in Murray.

Martin Sporer was in Murray last Monday and was spraying the apple trees for his father, Wm. Sporer, who was pleased to get the trees sprayed as they generally bear a good many apples.

Charles Dill and wife of Gandy in the western part of the state, arrived in Murray last week to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Alice Austin, and have remained to visit with friends for a number of days since.

There will be a meeting at the school house in Murray on June 10th of the patrons of the Murray district to look after such business as may come before the meeting. All interested should make it a point to be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Leffler, living near Weeping Water were visiting in Murray on Monday morning of this week and as Mr. Leffler has not been feeling the best he was consulting their family physician, Dr. R. W. Tyson as to his health.

Robert Welton, the manager of the north elevator and the family were down to Nebraska City last Sunday where they were visiting for the day at the home of Mrs. Ray E. Frederick and family for the day and a very fine dinner which was served by Mrs. Frederick and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fiveash departed early this week for Humboldt, Iowa, former home of the couple and especially Mrs. Fiveash, her mother being buried there. Their object for the trip at this time is to put in best condition that portion of the cemetery where the remains of the mother rest.

Tommy Watson and wife with their little one arrived in Cass county and have been visiting at the home of the parents of Mrs. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cisney, after which they departed for Springfield, Mo., where they will be employed on the broadcasting station of that place as entertainers.

Chester Sporer and father were in Nehawka Thursday of last week looking after business matters, and were accompanied by Henry Heebner, who formerly made his home in Nehawka and for a number of years conducted the Farmers Elevator. He was able to meet many of the friends of the other years.

Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, who has not been in the best of health for some time past and last week was in Omaha where she underwent a clinic, remaining for some three days, has been feeling somewhat better since. However it is expected that she will have to return to the institution later for further treatment.

Wm. Sporer will probably in the course of a few weeks depart for Long Beach, California, where he will visit for a time. He has two sisters in the coast city whom he desires to visit and will spend some time there visiting with the sisters and a number of friends.

Eugene Gruber, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gruber who is a member of the United States navy, now with his ship at Honolulu, writes he is enjoying life there and that it is expected they will remain there for some time to come.

Leo Gleeson, son of the Missouri Pacific agent at Murray, who has been making his home in the section house at the Missouri Pacific yards in Murray while he has been out of employment, as he was layed off from firemen duty on the road some time ago, was called back last Monday to Kansas City where he will be placed in firemen service again.

Attended School Picnic.

With the closing of what is known as the Stull school, some four miles northwest of Plattsmouth, which occurred last week, it was arranged to hold their school picnic, on Sunday afternoon, and many attended the celebration of the end of the school year. Mrs. Charles Stull had been a student of this school during her schoolgirl days and with the husband and Mr. Wm. Sporer, his father, made a party attending the picnic. A very pleasant time was had and Mrs. Sporer was able to meet many of her schoolday chums.

Has Nice Visit With Friend.

Mr. Hansen, making his home near Norfolk, but for many years making his home over near Weeping Water, where he was a farm hand, and became acquainted with Wm. Sporer, which was before Mr. Sporer came to Murray and before he was married, has been visiting in Cass county.

Mr. Hansen worked, among others, for Mr. Sporer, and when they met the other day at Nehawka, a brother of Mr. Hansen said to Mr. Sporer, do you know that man?" Mr. Sporer looked at the stranger, for he was indeed a stranger, and said no. However, Mr. Hansen said, "I know you, you are Wm. Sporer," and when he was told who the other man was, he remembered, although it had been 54 years since they had seen each other. They enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Funeral of Mrs. Austin.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alice Austin was held Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Austin had been ill for the past year and had been kept to her bed during that time. She passed away Monday of last week. The funeral was held from the Murray Presbyterian church, and was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Archibald Stuart of Omaha, son of Rev. Neill Stuart, pastor of the Murray Presbyterian church. Mrs. Austin had been a member of the Christian church in the northern part of the state and was a devoted follower of the lowly Nazarene. Those to sing at the funeral were Delbert Wohlfarth, John Dalers and Herbert Greer. The interment was at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery north of Nehawka.
