From Monday's Daily—
Tender Stork Shower—

A stork shower was given for Mrs. P. C. Biggerstaff at the home of Mrs. P. J. Wheeler Friday afternoon, May 24. Games served to pass the afternoon. Lunch was served by Mrs. Colby and Mrs. Wheeler. Those present were Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Dora Trively, Mrs. Harry Henton, Mrs. Dave Toman, Mrs. Maynard Ramge, Mrs. Ernest Elliott,

Mrs. Bud Nickles, Mrs. Elmer Elliott, Mrs. Leroy Elliott, Mrs. Edward Bayley, Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger, Mrs. Ernest Bantner, Mrs. Alvin Ramge.

Honor Miss Evers—

Mrs. Milo Farney and Mrs. Frank Horsak gave a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon honoring Miss Opal Byers at the home of her mother, Mrs. June Byers, who will be married in the near future to Mr. Henry Chappell. The home was beautifully decorated with iris and tulips.

Games were played and the prizes went to Mrs. L. L. Kocian and Mrs. Byers.

Opal received many beautiful gifts and all those present gave her their favorite recipe. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Announce Engagement—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Lindsay of Lodi, Wisconsin, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Kingsley Lindsay, to Mr. R. Arthur Hermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hermann of Osceola. Miss Lindsay is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Delta Gamma. She was for a time supervisor of music in the Plattsmouth high school and for the past five years has been with the music department of the McCook high school. Mr. Hermann is also a graduate of Nebraska and member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He is engaged in business at McCook.

Entertain for Newlyweds—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grassman on Marble street, was the scene Sunday evening of a very lovely buffet supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harley Minniear, whose wedding took place Saturday evening. The centerpiece of the dining room table was a wedding cake baked by Mrs. Harley Meisinger of Omaha, aunt of the groom. Miniature wedding cakes were used in the decorative plan of the smaller tables.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Meisinger and children, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGrath, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gamblin, Nebraska City; Mrs. Gertrude Gamblin, Glenwood; Wayne Gorton, Lincoln; John Kopp, Omaha; Mrs. E. A. Hitt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Minniear, Mrs. Nettie Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bourne, Earl Taylor, Miss Margaret Anne Vallery, Miss Gertrude Vallery, Miss Marie Vallery, Mr. and Mrs. Grassman and sons, Robert and Donald, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Minniear.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Junior W. C. Picnic—
The members of the Junior Woman's Club met at Hotel Plattsmouth early last evening and drove to Plamora Park for an evening's entertainment. First an outdoor wicker roast and picnic lunch was enjoyed. This was followed by short hikes, songs, and a social chat. The dance pavilion at Plamora Park was reserved for the remainder of the evening. Much fun was derived from this outdoor social meeting. The committee in charge of the arrangements were: Winifred Hatt, Wilma Hutchison, Mary Rosenkrans, Marjorie Lohnes, and June Vallery.

The plans for the June meeting will be made by Catherine Anthes.

Irene Anthes, Margaret Bauer, Marjorie Bourne and Naomi Day. The date, time, and place will be announced later.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Neighbors children helped Len Ray Shellenberger celebrate his eighth birthday Tuesday evening with a wicker roast in the yard of his home. Many nice gifts were received and all had a lively time playing games.

Daughters Visit Parents—

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Otto, Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christwiser were Sunday guests of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferris. Mrs. Otto, who has been quite ill for some time now, has returned to her home at Auburn following her stay here at the Christwiser home where she was cared for.

Farewell Party Sunday—

A farewell gathering of fifteen young people attended the dinner party at the Hotel Plattsmouth Sunday evening for Miss Norma Bryant, who in company with her parents, is to leave for North Platte soon. A 6:30 dinner was served and later the group motored to Omaha where they held a dancing party at Peony Park.

Picnic Staged Tuesday—

Twenty-six adults and nine children participated in the picnic held at the Country Club last evening—a gathering which included only members of the First Methodist church Married Young Peoples' class. They drove to the golf grounds shortly after 7 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the event comprised Mrs. Willard Brink, Mrs. Everett Newton, and Mrs. Edgar Newton. The picnic dinner was served in cafeteria style and proved to be most appetizing. Games were played and a wicker roast enjoyed.

Hold Birthday Gathering—

On Sunday, May 19th, at the beautiful home of Mrs. Georgia Creamer, south of this city was held another very much enjoyed birthday dinner. The members of the party came with well filled baskets and with the many good things provided by Mrs. Creamer made a sumptuous dinner that was appreciated to the utmost by all of the group.

After the dinner the members of the group spent the time in visiting and with group singing. Mrs. Forest Shrader at the piano providing the accompaniment for the songs. Those who enjoyed the day were: Mrs. Alma Yardley, Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Mrs. Lulu Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader, Mrs. Verna Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Shrader, Bobbie, Marilyn and Yvonne, of Mondamin, Iowa, Mrs. Harry Albin, Delbert, Marylyne and Jonan, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gauer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kaffenberger and Devonne Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rea, Mrs. Isabel Gerlock, Shrader and Georgiann, Mr. and Mrs. Shrader Rhoden, Alex Campbell.

The next family gathering will be a family reunion held on Sunday, August 4th, at the home of Mrs. Lulu Wolfe, and members of the family are urged to note the date.

Informal Dinner Party—

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Herold of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who are here visiting with Mr. Herold's mother, Mrs. Henry Herold, Sr., and his aunts, Misses Mia and Barbara Gering entertained at an informal dinner three couples, close friends and associates of Mr. Herold.

Blue Italian linens and floral bouquets of cornflowers adorned the dining table at the Gering home. Seated at the table participating in the honorary dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Soennichsen, Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown, Papillion; and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Herold. Bridge playing followed the dinner party.

Former Local Young Man Joins the Benedicts

Thomas Joseph Patterson and Miss Mary Elizabeth Vannoy Married at Morgantown, W. Va.

The following from the Morgantown (West Virginia) Post tells of the marriage of a former Plattsmouth young man, Thomas Joseph Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of Morgantown, and a granddaughter of the late Thomas M. Patterson and Mrs. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fetzer. He is a nephew of Mrs. William Schmidtman, Sr., and H. F. Goos.

"The early fall wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Vannoy to Thomas Joseph Patterson, both of this city, was revealed to a group of her friends at a dessert bridge party given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Beatrice Vannoy, last night in the Governor's Suite at the Hotel Morgantown.

"The ceremony was performed quietly Sept. 28, 1939, in the Mt. Lebanon Presbyterian church at Pittsburgh, Pa. Officiating was the Rev. W. S. Dove.

"Announcement of the date was made on placecards used for the serving of the dessert course. On the front were white daisies and the inscription, 'Daisies will tell.' The reverse side read 'Mary Lib and Tom—Sept. 28 '39.' Bridal appointments were accented.

"Bouquets of snapdragons in pastel shades were used in the rooms where the guests were received by the bride, Mrs. Patterson, her mother, Mrs. Vannoy, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. M. Patterson.

"Bride games were played at five tables. At the close the prize for high score was presented to Miss Betty Jane McWhorter, while Miss Eleanor Lowe received the second high prize. Mrs. Frank DeVille won the galleping prize.

"The bride, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Vannoy of Jackson street, was educated in the local schools, graduating from Morgantown high school and from the University in 1938. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority. For the past two years she has been teaching in the county schools.

"The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson of North Spruce street, Mr. Patterson graduated from the Philadelphia high school at Wheeling and from the University. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is associated with Commercial Credit at Fairmont, where he and his bride will make their home in the near future."

ATTENDS CONVENTION

L. L. Horton was at Omaha Monday where he was in attendance at the meeting of the Nebraska State Funeral Directors association.

VISIT AT LINCOLN

Sunday a group of the members of the Monsignor M. A. Shine council of the Knights of Columbus were at Lincoln where they participated in the initiation staged by the Fitzgerald council of that city. The members of the K. of C. and the candidates received communion at 9:30 at the St. Mary's cathedral followed by the communion breakfast at the hall of the cathedral. The initiation was at 1 o'clock at the Odd Fellows hall. The banquet was held at 6:30 at the Lincoln hotel and very largely attended by many of the leaders in the clergy and the Knights of Columbus.

In the party were County Attorney and Mrs. Walter H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Woolcott, John M. Meisinger and Frank A. Neugebauer, grand knight of the local council. While the gentlemen were attending the ceremonies the ladies visited for the day with relatives and friends.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt, County Treasurer John E. Turner, Miss Helen Hunter, and Judge A. H. Duxbury were at Weeping Water this afternoon to attend the funeral services of Henry Mogensen. Mr. Cloldt is to sing at the service.

DEATH OF INFANT

The newly born child of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brittain died Monday shortly after its birth. The infant was taken to the Wabash cemetery where it was laid to rest. The Horton funeral home had charge.
