

Death of Jesse Baldwin at Lincoln on Sunday

Former Resident of Plattsmouth for a Great Many Years—Burial Here on Tuesday.

Jesse Eli Baldwin was born Sept. 18, 1867, in Clarke county, Iowa, and passed away at his home in Lincoln, Nebr., June 2, 1940, suffering a heart attack.

He was united in marriage Feb. 11, 1894 at Plattsmouth, Nebr., to Miss Almira Emzella Jones, eldest daughter of Mr. J. R. Jones of that city.

To this union was born ten children of whom Twyla Ellen died March 23, 1900 and Virginia Blanche February 10, 1915.

Surviving are his wife and four sons, Clays A., of Des Moines, Iowa, Lawrence O., of Fremont, Nebr., Walter E. and Paul C. Baldwin of Lincoln, Nebr.; four daughters, Mrs. L. W. Wilson of Woodburn, Iowa, Mrs. Franz Westefeld of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. J. C. Stone of Plattsmouth, Nebr., and Mrs. R. E. Millbern of Lincoln, Nebr.; four grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Lucinda Barger of Los Angeles, California.

The earlier part of Mr. Baldwin's life was spent in ranching in Wallace, Kansas.

It was during Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin's pioneering days in the west that Theodore Roosevelt on his presidential campaign, asked to eat dinner in a "sod house."

Mr. Baldwin offered his hospitality of their home and joined in the Campaign Jubilee Barbecue. In 1921 Mr. Baldwin moved his family to Plattsmouth, Nebr., where he was affiliated with the Plattsmouth Lighting Co., under Superintendent Weber, also electrical engineer for the Iowa-Nebr. Light & Power Co., under Supt. Rea. In later years Mr. Baldwin was employed by the Plattsmouth Water Co., where he remained until moving to Lincoln, Nebr., in 1932.

He was ever willing to render his services for the benefit of fellowmen, often holding the "switch" open to aid a doctor who had asked that he might have light past the midnight hour, in the earlier days of engineering.

In the past five years he had been in failing health. Mr. Baldwin was a member of the "Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints."

Funeral services were held at Castle Roper & Matthews mortuary, Tuesday, June 4, at 1:30. Elder Earl Oehring in charge.

Interment at Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth, Nebr.

NEPHEW OF STEFAN WINS A COMMISSION

From enlisted man on the old naval cruiser Omaha, to an officer's berth on the new U. S. S. Omaha is the record of Karl Henry Stefan of Bellevue.

His uncle, Congressman Karl Stefan, announced in Washington Saturday he had been informed his nephew will be given the Omaha assignment when he is commissioned as ensign this week at the United States naval academy. Young Stefan was appointed to Annapolis while serving as enlisted man on the old Omaha.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stefan of Bellevue, now are in the east and with a daughter, Mrs. H. A. White of Denver, will attend the graduation exercises next Thursday.

Young Stefan will be the congressman's second nephew to hold a naval commission. The other is Harold "Hunk" Larson, formerly of Omaha, who was a football star in his days at the academy.

The forthcoming ensign is remembered here as Mrs. Henry Starkjohn's nephew—his mother and Mrs. Starkjohn are sisters.

Stefan attended Bellevue high school and the naval academy preparatory class, Hampton Roads, Va. He served as an enlisted man in the regular navy before entering the academy. He was appointed to the academy by the secretary of the navy after competitive examinations.

He stood in the first third of his class at the end of his second class year. He received numerals in plebe and battalion cross country and in varsity swimming, and awards in varsity gymnasium, participated in battalion swimming, and was a member of the Lysistrata cup crew on his first class cruise. He was a member of the boat club and the French club. He hopes later to go into aviation.

MANY VISIT MASONIC HOME

Sunday there was a very large number of visitors at the Nebraska Masonic Home, from Omaha, Lincoln, Chadron and other places over the state.

Sunday evening the residents of the infirmary and their nurses had a delightful picnic party on the spacious lawn. Four long tables, each seating ten, were arranged and here the refreshments were served. The menu comprised sandwiches, pickles, coffee, ice cream and strawberries.

Those unable to walk out for the picnic were wheeled in their chairs to take part in the festivities and enjoy the outdoors for a time.

MRS. PROHASKA ILL

The many friends of Mrs. Eleanor Prohaska will regret to learn that she is very gravely ill at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha. She was taken ill suddenly on Monday, developing a pneumonia condition, making necessary her being taken to the hospital. With her advanced age the attack has been very severe.

RETURNS TO LINCOLN

Searl S. Davis was at Lincoln for a short time Monday to look after some matters of business and also taking his son, Stephen Davis, back to that city and to complete his final work at the University of Nebraska for the term. The final examinations and tests are being held this week.

Legion Juniors Trim Sidney by 10 to 0 Score

Joe Phillips Hurl's Great Game to Set Down Iowa District Champs—Strikes Out Twelve.

The Plattsmouth Junior Legion team for the second straight Sunday came out victorious in its baseball games. Yesterday the victim was Sidney, Iowa, last year and until Sunday an undefeated ball club. The final score was 10 to 0 in favor of Plattsmouth. Joe Phillips, on the mound for Plattsmouth, gave the Iowans only six hits, no two in the same inning, and all were singles. Hatton gave up twelve hits, five of which were for extra bases. Phillips struck out twelve while Hatton fanned eleven Platters.

Plattsmouth scored one run in the first inning when Chovanec led off with a single to center. Noble and Parriott both flied out but Phillips doubled. Boring Chovanec all the way from first. In the second the Platters were muffed but again in the third they scored once. Nielson got a life at first on the shortstop's error. He was forced out at second by Chovanec. Chovanec went to second on a passed ball and scored again when Parriott hit a ball the third baseman could not hold on to.

In the fourth Lutz singled, took second on an error and came home on Pete's long two-base blow. For Plattsmouth's third score. In the fifth the deluge really hit as Plattsmouth filled the bases when Noble and Parriott both singled and Phillips was hit by a pitched ball. Lutz then laid down a beautiful bunt that scored Noble and left the bases still fully populated. Hitt's double scored Parriott and Phillips, putting Lutz on third. Lutz then scored on a fielder's choice. The score at this point was seven to nothing but Plattsmouth wasn't through yet.

In the sixth Noble singled and scored on Parriott's double. The seventh was scoreless but in the eighth Chovanec singled and came home on Noble's long triple. Noble later scored on a fielder's choice. Final score: Plattsmouth 10; Sidney 0.

The most spectacular play of the game came in the eighth inning when Chovanec made a leaping one-handed catch of Potter's line drive.

VACATION SCHOOLS BEGIN

The summer religious schools, which are conducted by a number of Plattsmouth churches, have begun instructive periods, and a large attendance is marked for each.

The Daily Vacation Bible School at the First Presbyterian church began this morning at 9 o'clock. Classes are held for the beginners, primary, juniors, and intermediates, or ages up to and including those of thirteen years. A tuition charge of 15c is being made, or two for 25c in one family. The teachers are Miss Pearle Staats, supt.; Mrs. Maybelle Gorder, intermediates; Miss Margaret Iverson and Mrs. Carl Ofe, juniors; Miss Marjorie Tidball, and Miss Dorothy Jean Turner, primary; Miss Harriett Goos, beginners; Miss Eleanor Giles, play director.

The Summer Religious Instruction School for the children of the Holy Rosary church began Memorial day with a mass celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula. Two of the Ursuline Sisters of the St. John's parochial school—Sister Mary Celestine and Sister Mary Oda—are serving as instructors for the class, which meets in the church club room. Regular classes begin at 9 a. m. following each morning's mass, which is celebrated at 8 a. m. The instruction period will climax with special services Sunday, June 9 when a number of the children will receive their first holy communion.

Children's day services will be observed June 9 at the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, and at this time the church will enter into a joint service with the Sunday school. New members will also be received into the church membership.

WEeping WATER PAPER UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

The Weeping Water Republican, which in the past three years has been conducted by Claire Wolfe, assisted by Mrs. Wolfe, has been disposed of to new ownership. The plant and equipment has been purchased by Mr. Welch, who was formerly engaged in the newspaper work at St. Joseph, Missouri. The Republican is one of the best known papers of the county.

PLAY GOLF AT RALSTON

A group of the Plattsmouth golfers were at Ralston Sunday where they played over the course near that village. Frank Horsak setting the pace with a 75 on a par of 70. Other members of the party were Dr. R. P. Westover, Fred Howland and Milo Farney.

THIRD BOYS' STATE

Nearly three hundred Nebraska high school boys will assemble in Lincoln next Saturday for a week's study of government. The boys, all juniors, will be camped on the University of Nebraska campus.

The occasion is the third annual Cornhusker Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion. For the purpose of studying government machinery in action, the boys will set up and operate model state, county, and local government. They will elect their own officers, unicameral representatives and court officials.

Major Lawrence "Biff" Jones, is in charge of the camp. The program opens Saturday with an address by State Commander Eugene Nutzman. Boys will be assigned to political parties Saturday night. The primary campaign and elections will take place Sunday, with general elections and inauguration of those chosen Monday.

ATTEND CHURCH CEREMONY

Wednesday evening, May 28 a group of Plattsmouth people—Mrs. Charles Gradoville, Sr., Edward Gradoville and daughter, Mrs. John Blotter and son, Miss Theresa DeMuth, Mrs. Timothy Kohoutek, Theodore Svoboda, Norene Kaffenberger, and Mrs. Pauline Todd—were in Omaha where they attended the ceremony for the crowning of the May queen on the St. Mary's high school grounds. Assisting in the ceremony was Miss Agnes Ptacek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ptacek and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gradoville.
