Superintendent E. C. Stimbirt and family visited in Lincoln over the week end with Mrs. Stimbirt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crow. Despite the extremely hot weather, they enjoyed their visit.

Miss Elizabeth Jane Sheldon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vilas P. Sheldon, who has been staying in Lincoln, visited at home over the week end, and enjoyed meeting many of her girl chums.

While Elmer Stoll was working with some machinery about the farm, he suffered a severe injury to one of his ankles. It was thought for a time that the member was fractured, but after being cared for by the family physician, he has been resting much easier.

Home from Iowa Visit

Mrs. James Palmer, who has been spending the past week at the home of her son, Quinton Palmer and wife at Avoca, Iowa, where she assisted the family in getting located in their new home, was brought home Sunday by her son and wife. Quinton is well pleased with his work in the Iowa town.

Mrs. Palmer tells of a neighbor of the folks in Iowa having a number of acres of bronson berries, which are much in demand and are bringing a good revenue, as the yield this year is exceptionally good.

Death Result of Sunstroke

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Helms, who reside near Auburn, but formerly made their home here, were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Charles Christwiser. While they were enjoying their visit a message came telling of the death from sunstroke of a brother of Mrs. Helms, causing them to hasten back to Auburn.

Returns to Work in West

Lyle Krueger has returned to Lexington, Nebraska, to resume his work of helping to install rural electrication lines in that vicinity. He was employed by the company when they put in the lines here and later accompanied them to Lexington, but returned home recently and was working here when the call came to go back to work out there.

Enjoyable Picnic Party

Messrs and Mesdames Leo Switzer, Henry Theile and Nelson Berger, together with Mesdames Una Tucker and Mollie Berger, who are here from Los Angeles, for a visit with relatives and friends, made up a picnic party last Sunday, that enjoyed the cooling shade of a park and consumer their share of good things to eat, as well as scads of ice water and cold lemonade.

Funeral of Edward P. Shumaker

Funeral services for the late E. P. Shumaker were held last Saturday, and interment was in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery not far from where he had resided.

Mr. Shumaker was one of the hard working farmers of the community, and his death last week was most untimely and unexpected. He was found slumped over a fence, where he had been doing the chores on the farm, evidently having passed away while in the midst of his work.

Home from Vacation on Farm

Kenneth Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, who has been spending the summer on a farm near Talmage at the home of an uncle and family, returned home last Saturday. While there, Kenneth assisted with the farm work and got a good taste of out-of-door life.

Suffers from Heart Attack

Charles Chappell, who lives just across the street north of the Herbie Kuntz blacksmith shop, where he has been keeping house for himself, has not been in the best of health for some time, and was particularly bad last Monday morning, with an acute heart attack. When he first arose in the morning he was feeling fair, but was taken with the attack which continued throughout the day. The excessive heat has made his condition the more serious, and at times it is very difficult for him to breathe.

Enjoyed Friendly Social Service

During the time Rev. W. D. Lenker, pastor of the Nehawka and Weeping Water Methodist churches, with his family and a group of young people from the Bible school, were vacationing in Colorado, there was no preaching service at the Nehawka church. Last Sunday evening, the young people here held a social friendly service in which nearly a score participated. It was a most enjoyable service.

Visited with Stuart Rough

Stuart Rough, who has been ill for some time, enjoyed a visit from his brother, Alexander Rough, of Lincoln, and two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Donelan of Lincoln and Mrs. Crane of Louisville, Kentucky, who drove down from the capital city, where Mrs. Crane has been visiting her sister and brother. The hot weather has been hard on the patient and he was compelled to remain in bed, but enjoyed the visit from his kin folks a great deal.

Weeping Water

Mayor Troy L. Davis was a business visitor in Omaha Monday, making the trip in his car.

Earl Oldham was a visitor in Omaha Tuesday, taking a partial load of cream and poultry, as well as some stock for the farmers, which he delivered to the yards in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough and Miss Agnes Rough were in Lincoln last Sunday, where they visited the brother of Arthur and Agnes, Alex Rough, as well as their sister, Mrs. J. J. Donelan.

Tony Sudduth and family were in Murray last Sunday, where they attended a family reunion of the Sudduth family. A more complete account of this will be found in the Murray department.

Mrs. Florence Sudduth of Dunnegan, Mo., who came to attend the Sudduth family reunion at Murray Sunday was a guest at the home of her son, Tony Sudduth and family, as well as of her daughter, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bickford and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cappen were in Omaha last Sunday, going to visit Mrs. Guy Smith at the St. Joseph hospital. She has been there for some time, while her strength is being built up for a major operation she will undergo in the near future.

Eugene Nutzman, of Nehawka, state commander of the American Legion, was a caller in Weeping Water Tuesday, having business to look after and also taking time to see how American Legion affairs are progressing here. "Gene" is getting ready for the state convention which will be held at Norfolk August 18, 19 and 20.

Painting County Bridges

Harry Allen of Elmwood was in Weeping Water Tuesday, looking after business matters. Mr. Allen, who is a painter, has been painting some of the bridges over the Weeping Water creek, both east and west of town. This time the bridges are being painted white, as this is considered much better than the customary dark color used in the past. Night drivers find they show up a great deal better.

Many Applicants for CCC Camp

Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday, bringing seven young men from Plattsmouth and Greenwood for entrance to the camp here. There are a good number of young men out of work now who seek the opportunity of enrolling in this work. We did not learn if all the applicants passed their health examinations satisfactorily and were admitted.

Much Interest in Soft Ball

Last week there was played a most interesting game of softball between two evenly matched feminine teams, with a large turnout of the fans to see the girls perform. This week another out-of-the-ordinary game was scheduled, between the business men on the north and south sides of Main street. Again there was a large attendance, showing the interest in softball here. We did not learn the score of either of these games.

Home from a Fine Trip

Last Tuesday morning the group of eight young ladies, members of the Junior Mission of the Methodist church, and the pastor and family, who had been on a trip to the west, arrived home, tired out but happy. Rev. and Mrs. Lenker chaperoned the group and combined their vacation with that of the young ladies. Most of their time was spent at Palmer Lake, where the weather was perfect, combining just the right proportions of sunshine, rain and temperature. The Junior Mission is an Auxiliary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the church.

Many Attend Sudduth Reunion

Among those from Weeping Water and vicinity who attended the Sudduth family reunion at Murray last Sunday were Daniel Sudduth and family, Carl Nickles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Manuel Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nickles and son and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Sudduth and daughter Doris.

Getting Ready for the Fair Those who have in hand the making of preparations for the annual Cass county fair are now actively at work. One of the first and most important details is the matter of advertising, and the preparation of the fair books is now under way.

With the new community building now completed and ready for occupation for the first time in its entirety, it is planned to make this year's fair outstanding. The fair board is better equipped than ever before to take care of exhibits and the other attractions that go to make a fair successful.

The fair, as usual, will be held the second week in September, one week after the state fair and one week before the Plattsmouth corn carnival.

Keep the dates in mind and be prepared to enjoy yourself. Weeping Water will do its part to entertain you abundantly.

WEeping WATER BOY WINS HONORS ON ART COLLECTION

WEeping WATER, July 24 (By Special Correspondence)—Dr. Fred Colbert, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Colbert, and a former Weeping Water boy, has recently won honors with his 139 piece collection of drawings and paintings at the California Physicians Art Association exhibit at the California medical convention. Dr. Colbert also had pictures on display at the Golden Gate exposition at San Francisco. He has won particular attention with his southwestern landscapes.

Another field of interest to Dr. Colbert is the collecting of historical antiques. When he was visiting here last year, he secured some of great interest which had been in his family from early pioneer days.

Death of Frank W. Miller

Frank W. Miller passed away at his home at 4237 Farnam street in Omaha, Sunday, July 14, 1940, at 12:45 p. m.

Mr. Miller had been in poor health for nearly two years. His last illness was of three weeks duration. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Nellie Beach Miller, Omaha; one daughter, Mrs. Madeline Miller Lemere, Seattle, Washington, and one son, Beach Miller, Washington, D. C.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 17, at Burket's Funeral Home, Omaha. The body was cremated.

Mr. Miller was a resident of Weeping Water a number of years ago and the family are well known in Cass county, where they have many friends who extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

Other Weeping Water News

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Hollingsworth and son Ferril, of Shreveport, Louisiana, were guests at the Congregational parsonage Monday night and Tuesday, visiting their friends, Rev. and Mrs. John Kemp.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Steckley motored to Ohio last week and on their return brought Mrs. Steckley's mother, Mrs. James Teegarden and her sister, Mrs. Eva Mathe home with them for a visit with old friends here. Word was received from William Teegarden that he expected to take a plane for the east within a few days so that he may be here for a visit while his mother is here.

The annual ice cream social held on the church lawn by the ladies of the Congregational church Monday evening drew a large crowd. The Weeping Water band under the direction of Dr. L. N. Kunkel, gave one of their fine concerts and every one enjoyed visiting and meeting their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wallick, Martha Jane and Charles, left Wednesday evening for St. Paul, Minnesota, at which place they will be joined by Mr. Wallick's uncle, Curtis Askew, and all will go to White Bear Lake for a week's vacation. Mr. Askew is auditor for the Great Northern railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hite are vacationing this week. Mrs. Hite is at the home of her parents at Eagle, and Mr. Hite is fishing in the lakes of western and northern Nebraska.

Lowell Ronne returned Monday from a week's trip to South Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Uffelman, of Syracuse, were Weeping Water visitors Saturday evening.

John Day, of Bradenton, Florida, is spending a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day.

Miss Edna Ranney, of Peoria, Illinois, was a visitor at the home of her uncle, J. M. Ranney and Mrs. Ranney, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt, accompanied by Cecil and Earl Amick and Mrs. Minerva Coolman, of Mynard, were called to Haddam, Kansas, last Wednesday to attend the funeral of their uncle, R. B. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wiles and their two children, Pauline and Clyde, spent the past week at the home of Mr. Wiles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wiles. Mr. Wiles is an instructor in the Deadwood high school.

Mrs. Margaret Crain, of Louisville, Kentucky, came to attend the reunion of the Stuart Rough family at Nehawka two weeks ago and remained for a visit with relatives, spending the past week visiting with her cousins, Miss Agnes Rough and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

Saturday afternoon was a busy time for Judge A. H. Duxbury at the court house, a sudden boom in the marriage market causing the court to perform the happy ceremony for two out-of-the-city couples.

Charles Richard Woods and Nelda Dye, both of Bellevue, plighted their vows in the early part of the afternoon, returning at once to their home at Bellevue.

Later in the day Russell Fallon and Fern Wallen, of Elkhorn, Nebraska, were married by Judge Duxbury at his office.

E. P. LUTZ ILL

E. P. Lutz has been confined to his home in the Coronado apartments for the past few days as the result of illness. He was taken ill Friday afternoon after returning from a business trip to Omaha, since that time being confined to his bed. It is hoped that he may soon show an improvement.

VISITS OLD COLLEGE FRIENDS

Miss Margaret Fedde, of the home economics department of the University of Nebraska, was a visitor here Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis, friends from the days when they were students at Nebraska U. Miss Fedde is on her way to Chicago where she is taking a special course at the University of Chicago.

ENJOY OUTING AT SIOUX CITY

Mr. and Mrs. John Alwin and Miss Wilma Pickard of this city, with Mrs. Maude Bunch and Miss Hazel Burley, of Omaha, were at Sioux City over Sunday. They were the guests of friends and relatives. They report a good rain in the vicinity of Mondamin, Iowa, and Onawa, but none south of these points on their journey homeward.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Mary May Troop, who was at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha over Saturday and Sunday, returned home Monday afternoon. She was taking treatment there and feels much benefited. Miss Chloe Norris, of Blair, is looking after her care. In her illness Miss Catherine Anthes has been looking after the care of the shop.

"Weighing Consequences" (A Principle of Temperate Living)

Prov. 1:7-10; Isa. 5:11, 12; 18-23; Gal. 6:7-9.

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction." This verse stands out as a motto, or key-note, both of the whole book and of the whole subject of which the book treats. The writer seems to say, I give you the right to enter the house of knowledge, showing you the chambers, stored with rich treasures. But as you approach the portal, note well the inscription above it: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge." The house is not a palace, but a temple. They only who reverence the Deity, who inhabit it, are admitted within the shrine. It is the temple of God; yet not that only, but of Jehovah, the God of Israel, the God of revelation and of covenant. To recognize this is the beginning, the necessary condition, the essential prerequisite of knowledge. Those who seek knowledge in any other spirit or by any other path really "despise wisdom and discipline," and in so doing show themselves to be not wise men, but "fools."

Who is the Lord? My creator, my preserver, my redeemer. What then is his fear? My relationship to him. "In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." No one has true knowledge unless they know God, acknowledge that man is made in the image of God, intended for fellowship with God, and ultimately must stand before God.

Man cannot understand the world around him, unless he first realizes that the world is made by God. The Father becomes a teacher, giving instruction to the inexperienced. The instruction of the Father and the Law of the mother are to be accepted with childlike submission and unquestionable obedience. Here is where the modern child and parent differ; children do not obey their parents, and consequently often land in prison. Too often parents obey not God's law and set a bad example for the children, then the parents reap the harvest of sorrow and shame. This applies also Isaiah's teaching! For drinking fathers will see their sons—yes, today, even their daughters, and the mother, also—frequenting the taverns. And why shouldn't they? Ought not parents set the example? Other vices and bad habits come under the same condemnation. Under the influence of strong drink, in the backroom of saloons, political slates are put up. This is partly the cause of rotten politics. No good ever came out of a drink shop—it is hell's kitchen and whatever comes out of it smells like the devil and is as bad as it smells. How can these conditions be changed? Not by law; that has been tried! Only by changing the nature of man, and that is the work of God through the church and Sunday school and church members setting a good example.

The drink evil is almost as old as the human race; will it always be with us? No, the day will come when the world will be full of knowledge of the Lord, then this curse will disappear. Until that time the war will go on—the victory will be our Christ's and his co-laborers. They will share in the glory of the final overthrow of the forces of evil. The law that operates in nature—of sowing and reaping. This seems to be so simple that it hardly needs an explanation; but thousands act and live as if they would prove that that is a doctrine of some old fogey.

But do we have to prove that Paul's statement to the Galatians is true? Any twelve year old boy on the farm knows it is true that whatsoever a man soweth that will he also reap. Our present life is the seed time, of an eternal harvest. We know that seed produces oft thirty, sixty and an hundred fold. We have examples in the scriptures. Jacob lied to his father, Isaac, saying: "I am thy son, Esau." In later years the life of his sons lied to him, saying: "We found this (bloody) coat; see if it is thy son's coat." See the harvest of an over indulgent father, Eli; see the record of his sons (1 Sam. 2:12-17); and the harvest (Chap. 4:10-18). Who has not seen or heard of men who live intemperately, indulging in the excesses of immorality and who as a result of their acts invariably come to grief, losing health, manhood, self-respect, courage, becoming cowards and then frequently suicides.
