Nehawka

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Switzer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemon and D. C. West were Nebraska City visitors Sunday evening.

Lyle Kruger is working at Palmyra this week assisting with the painting of the home of Fred Guede, both inside and out.

Fred Schumacher and family were visitors in Plattsmouth and Omaha last Monday, having some business matters to look after there.

Parker Christwiser of Plattsmouth was a business visitor in Nehawka last Monday, where he was having his auto overhauled at the Clarence Hansen work shop.

Verner Lundberg has become the new representative of the Iowa-Nebraska, looking after meter reading and collections. He succeeds James M. Palmer, who recently resigned.

The quarterly conference of the Nehawka Methodist church will be held this coming Saturday and Sunday, with the district superintendent here to conduct the services. All are urged to be present.

Andy Anderson of Omaha, brother of Albert Anderson of Nehawka was a visitor here Saturday while en route home from Weeping Water, where he had attended the dedication program of the new fair association auditorium and presented a new silk flag to the fair board.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Kuntz were in Omaha last Sunday, where they were accompanied by their daughter Miss Oriah, together with Imogene Pollard, Joan Kropp and Dorothy Sands, the latter four going to Camp Brewster to enjoy a week at this well known girls' camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Freese York and son, Don, of Cushing, Oklahoma, arrived in the city Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don York, parents of Mr. York.

Mr. York has been the manager of the McLennen's store at Cushing, one of the large chain firms operating in the southwest, for the past few years. On Saturday night, July 13th, the building that housed the McLennen store caught fire at an early hour, the result being the destruction of the building and a $500,000 loss.

Since the fire Mr. York has been enjoying a vacation and may be located in Texas in the future where a large number of the stores are located.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guede at Palmyra last Sunday, attending a celebration incident to the birthday of Mrs. Kruger. Lawrence Kruger and family of Nebraska City were also present. The date also marked the 36th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger, who were married at Plattsmouth on August 3, 1904, and who were made special guests of honor of the children.

Still Confined to Bed
Miss Nannie Warden, who was so severely injured several weeks ago and since her return from the hospital has been at the home of her parents, Hugh Warden and wife, returned to her home in Nehawka last Sunday, where she will still be confined to her bed for some time yet. However, she is making good improvement, the nature of her injuries being such that it will take a long time to effect complete recovery.

Taken to Hospital
Stuart Rough was taken to St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City in an ambulance last Friday. His condition has been such lately that it was deemed best to have him placed under the expert care provided at that institution. Friends hope he will respond to the treatment there and start to improve.

Assisted with the Singing
Among those who are members of the Cass County Women's Chorus residing in this vicinity and who were at Weeping Water Saturday to sing at the dedication program of the new Cass County Agricultural association auditorium were Mesdames Herbie Kuntz, E. J. Nutzman, Wm. Brandt, Jr., and Carl Balfour.

Purchases New Truck Chassis
Verner Lundberg, who drives one of the school buses, has purchased a new truck chassis. It is customary for the contract driver to furnish this part of the equipment while the consolidated school district provides the bodies. Although the board feels they would like to have a new bus body to go with the chassis, the lack of finances to purchase it at this time makes necessary the utilizing of the old body, so the beauty and performance of the new chassis and motor will be obscured behind the old body.

Accompanied Mother's Body East
George C. Sheldon departed Saturday for Ellenberg Depot, New York, whither he accompanied the body of his mother and where final funeral services were held and burial made on Monday afternoon of this week. The remains now rest beside those of the father and husband, who passed away two years ago.

Delivered Excellent Flag Tribute
As a part of the dedicatory program of the new community building at Weeping Water last Saturday, a fine silk flag was presented to the fair board by Andy Anderson, former Weeping Water boy, now making his home in Omaha. He found difficulty in obtaining the silk flag, as none were available in Omaha and one had to be sent out from Chicago. Appropriate to receiving the gift, Mrs. Ray Norris was selected to pay tribute to the flag and did so in a most touching and eloquent manner, as she related the story of its inception and all this national banner of ours stands for. Many an eye was dim as she closed her talk with the audience standing to repeat with her their "Allegiance to Old Glory."

Home from Vacation
Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kinner, Mrs. Henry Hibard of Nebraska City, Mrs. Whitewett and son Billie and Mrs. Walter J. Wanderlich, who have been in Colorado, spending some ten days at Masonic Park, have returned home. Their trip was made at a most opportune time to get away from the oppressive heat in Nebraska—days in which the mercury clung way above the hundred mark, while they enjoyed delightfully cool days and cooler nights.

They were camped about three miles from where Carl Schneider and others from Plattsmouth were located.

Looked Pretty Big
A. D. Keetch of near Nebraska City was in Nehawka with a load of tomatoes and other vegetables which he was offering for sale, and while here told of inspecting a corn field near Nebraska City in which he saw one stalk of very thrifty corn, having a total of seven shoots, all nicely silked out and giving promise of producing seven good ears of corn—which in farm parlance is a lot of corn from one stalk. In fact, some fields have not produced one good ear in seven years, others haven't produced one good ear from seven stalks in any of the past seven years, so now they're talking about something when they have one stalk producing seven good ears in one year.

The recent rains have been of much help to the corn crop, however, and farmers are smiling once more, as the promise is for the best yield since 1932.

TELLS OF OLD RESIDENT
The writer while at Weeping Water Saturday at the auditorium dedication had the pleasure of meeting Frank Mayes, of Omaha, who gave information concerning members of two of the pioneer families of this city. The information was to the effect of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Wilson, II, the former a son of Lloyd B. Wilson, formerly of this city.

Lloyd B. Wilson, Sr., is the president of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., who started his career as an operator at the Bell Telephone exchange in this city. He was a son of the late Frank H. Wilson, the mother, Mrs. Carrie Bennett Wilson, still living in Omaha. He is a grandson of the late Captain L. D. Bennett, pioneer merchant, who was first engaged with the firm of Bennett & Lewis and later with John D. Tutt in the firm of Bennett & Tutt.

Members of these two families were very prominent in the life of the community for many years. The Bennett family have all moved from this locality, altho of the Tutt family there remains Mrs. Virginia Frady of this city and Ed S. Tutt, of Murray.

Murray

Mrs. O. A. Davis was an Omaha visitor last Monday.

Ray Burton has been in Omaha this week, painting a house for a party residing there.

Fred Lutz, Harvey Gregg and Harold Gregg transacted business in Lincoln last Saturday.

From the feeding yards of Boedeker and Cottingham east of Murray, there have been shipped three car loads of stock during the past three weeks.

Dick Todd is visiting his uncle, Verner Perry, at Big Springs, Neb., leaving last Wednesday morning for the west. He expects to be gone for about ten days.

W. O. Troop has been feeling poorly the past few weeks, and while he is slightly better at this time, he is still far from being in his usual good health.

George Nickles, who has visited a good number of farms says the rains have done a lot for the corn, which is now filled with shoots that will make a good crop.

A party who has been residing on a farm southwest of Murray, where he was working, last week moved to town and is occupying the property formerly occupied by Mr. McCulley.

Joseph F. Staska, former agent of the Missouri Pacific in Murray, who is now located at Nebraska City and employed by the same road, was in Murray Monday looking after business matters and visiting friends.

An adjuster was here Saturday to adjust the hail damage losses to crops insured with the Boedeker agency of Murray and on Monday the checks in settlement of same were at the bank ready for delivery. That is making quick disposition of the matter and a lot different than some years ago when it took most of the summer to get a hail loss adjustment settled.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis and daughter, Mrs. Fern Andaker, both of near Laurel, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cisney for the past month, departed last Sunday afternoon for home. As a pleasant farewell, Mr. and Mrs. Cisney gave them a delightful dinner last Sunday at which there were present a brother of Mrs. Lewis, W. O. Troop, her sister, Mrs. Anna Rhoden, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Watson and their little one. A very pleasant time was had.

At this time Tommy Watson and wife are also returning to their work of broadcasting over the radio, after a pleasant vacation spent with relatives.

Henry Heebner to Weeping Water
Uncle Henry Heebner, who has been ill at his apartments in the Berger house in Murray, was taken to Weeping Water Friday by Edward Knabe, a nephew, and placed under the care of a skilled nurse at the Rest Haven hotel. It was impossible to give him the care here he will receive there and it is hoped he will improve there.

Looking Over the West
Arthur Jennings, who has been in the employ of Sterling Ingwerson, and Harold Hamilton, departed for Oregon last Monday morning, and expect to visit a number of places in the state and look over the advantages which this commonwealth has to offer. They expect to remain about three weeks and compare the climate and opportunities offered there, to determine what the chances are of making their homes there.

Attended Wedding Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher were in Auburn last Sunday, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Brubacher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lash and also attended a wedding in which the principals were Miss Francis Wrightsman and William Rarick, both of Auburn. The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Methodist church at four o'clock Sunday afternoon with a hundred of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties who were guests.

at a reception at the church parlors. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and daughter, Miss Beverly Ann and Prof. and Mrs. L. M. Hauptman, of Lincoln.

The bride is a cousin of Mesdames Brubacher and Hauptman.

The bridal party will spend some two weeks in Colorado, after which they will make their home in Auburn.

Girls Go to Camp Brewster
Last Sunday four young ladies of Murray and vicinity went to Camp Brewster, where they will remain for a week. Those going were Imogene Meisinger, Beverly Brubacher, Charlotte Spangler and Charlene Spangler.

Met with Painful Accident
While Fred Drucker was passing from Main street to the walk near the Tutt & Brubacher store, he stepped on a broken board which was covered over with dirt and had been rained on, making it very slippery.

As a result he slipped and fell head-foremost to the nearby concrete. In the fall, Mr. Drucker was quite severely injured, a laceration extending along one of his little fingers, together with a severe abrasion on one of his elbows, an injury to his knee and some bruises about the body.

An X-ray was taken to determine if any bones had been broken, but none were found fractured. However it will be some time before Mr. Drucker is up to par.

Business Visitors Here
G. M. Minford of Omaha, accompanied by Charles Mutz, also of Omaha, were looking after business in Murray Monday. Mr. Minford has been unable to get around much and only then with the aid of crutches or a cane. He was pleased to have the opportunity of meeting with his friends for a short time while here. He reports the health of Mrs. Minford as being very good. Mr. Mutz, who has been with the steel works in the construction of buildings in the Omaha government as well as private structures, has recently turned to his trade of carpenter and is employed on Omaha school buildings of late. He acted as driver for Mr. Minford and also enjoyed meeting many old friends here.

Building New Cafe Here
B. C. Cohn, who operates the New-Way lunch and tavern at Plattsmouth is having a new building erected here between the Tutt & Brubacher store and that of Mr. E. C. Taylor, in which he expects to operate a business similar to that at Plattsmouth, with Wilber Lang as the local manager.

J. A. Scotten has the contract for the erection of the building and with a force of workmen is making good progress. The building will be enclosed and under roof by the end of this week and so far completed that it can be occupied by the end of the coming week.

Those assisting Mr. Scotten with the work are A. A. Young, Harry McCulloch, Fred L. Hild and John Frans. All of them were as busy as bees, when we visited Murray the first of the week.

Eightieth Anniversary
August 18, the United Presbyterian church at Murray will celebrate its eightieth anniversary with a home coming and special anniversary service. The anniversary service will open at 2:00 p. m., preceded by a fifteen minute organ and piano prelude by Jane Boedeker and Florabel Mead. R. Foster Patterson, of Tarkio, Mo., will give the address of the afternoon. Mr. Patterson, it will be recalled, was one of the Plattsmouth high school instructors for some years prior to his acceptance of the Tarkio college position. Many former members and friends are planning to attend these special services. A basket dinner will be served at noon.

TO VISIT IN MINNESOTA
Sunday evening Miss Fience Erown, daughter of City Treasurer and Mrs. M. D. Brown, departed for Mora, Minnesota. She will enjoy several weeks visiting with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Peterson and family, until school time.
