

SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily—

Dinner-Theater Party—

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lillie and daughter, Rose Marie entertained Theodore and Dorothy Svoboda at a 6 o'clock dinner and theater party this week. At the time of Rose Marie's christening Theodore and Dorothy served as the child's godparents.

Naomi Luncheon Wednesday—

Twenty-six ladies attended the covered dish luncheon at 1 o'clock at the First Methodist church parlors Wednesday afternoon, when members of the Naomi circle met for their business-social meeting.

Highlight of the business session was the discussion of plans for a white elephant sale.

Mrs. Hallie Perry served as chairman for the afternoon program, which consisted of a number of musical numbers.

To the accompaniment of Mary Jean Hatt, Maxine Graves sang the solo number, "Beside the Still Waters."

Mary Jean Hatt played two piano numbers, "Falling Waters," and "Song of India."

A piano solo, "The Peasant Dance" was given by Clementine Woster.

Ruth Farmer was heard in a reading when she gave her version of "Casey at the Bat."

For the devotionals Mrs. Ed Thimman read the inspirational and lovable poem "The Old Violin," which is so rich in its meaning.

Entertain at Dinner—

Guests at the dinner party last evening which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Eyrone Cohn in honor of Vincent Smith and Eugene McNair of Sheridan, Wyoming, were Rosalyn Mark and June Griffin. The two boys are guests at the Cohn home and plan to leave tomorrow for Wyoming.

Wyoming Guests Entertained—

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Mark entertained at a seven o'clock dinner Tuesday honoring Sheridan friends. Those attending the dinner were Vincent Smith and Eugene McNair of Sheridan, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cohn, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Green, Miss June Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Mark and Rosalyn Mark.

The young men are returning to Sheridan Friday, taking up their work after a short vacation to Nebraska.

From Friday's Daily—

Picnic Supper Thursday—

Garfield park proved a splendid setting for the picnic supper given by members of the M.A.O. club in Plattsburgh on Thursday evening. Eleven members—Mrs. Aubrey H. Duxbury, Mrs. R. C. Shellenbarger, Mrs. Glen Vallery, Mrs. Fred Worth,

Mrs. Frank Horsak, Mrs. Milo Farney, Mrs. Charles Manners, Mrs. John Woest, Mrs. Elmer Lohnes, Mrs. Leslie Niel, and Mrs. Cass Sylvester—and one guest—Mrs. Roy Avis of Council Bluffs, Iowa—enjoyed the 5 o'clock outing. Everyone brought a covered dish and the luncheon was served in buffet style.

A short business meeting took place in connection with the picnic luncheon. Mrs. Duxbury will be the new leader and Mrs. Glen Vallery was chosen as the new president.

Attends Party—

The birthday party which was tendered Donna Lee Sprick last week was also attended by Lorene Henrithson, whose name was inadvertently omitted from the list of guests. Lorene is a very close friend of Donna Lee.

Circle Has Luncheon—

A 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon and a short business meeting was enjoyed by the First Methodist church Dorcas circle members Thursday afternoon. The combined business-social meeting took place in the church parlors. Mrs. Fred Howland, circle chairman, presided.

To Be Married This Month—

Announcement was made recently of the approaching marriage of Miss Cleo Marie Koukal, only daughter of Mrs. Ruth Koukal and the late John Koukal, to Warren F. Wheeler, Louisville, son of Eugene Wheeler and the late Mrs. Ethel Wheeler.

The wedding will take place Saturday morning, August 31 at 7:30 at the St. John's church.

The affianced couple have chosen Mr. and Mrs. C. Walter Sikora as their attendants.

Farewell Party Tendered—

The members of the Sunowa Camp Fire girls and their mothers gave a picnic Thursday at 6:30 at the Country club in honor of Mrs. Loy Fisk, their swimming instructor who is moving to Nebraska City. After cooking their supper over the outdoor fireplace, all gathered at the table, the girls choosing their partners by matching small bathing suit favors. Before being seated the Camp Fire girls sang the grace.

Mrs. Fisk was presented with a miniature model of an old-fashioned bathing suit full of silver money, gift of the appreciative mothers whose daughters were her pupils. The Camp Fire girls voted her an honorary member of their Sunowa group and she in turn said they would be welcome in her new home any time.

After the above ceremony songs were sung and charades played, the mothers entering into the spirit of the occasion and having as much fun as their offspring.

At a late hour the party regretfully broke up and mothers and daughters traveled homeward with many pleasant thoughts of the good time had by all.

From Saturday's Daily—

Jean Hayes Tendered Shower—

In courtesy to Miss Jean Hayes, whose forthcoming marriage to Dr. George Sayles of Fort Dodge, Iowa is to occur this month, Mrs. Marjorie Ann Speece of Bennet, Nebraska, entertained at her mother's home last evening. The occasion was a bridal shower, which was attended by school mates of Jean. Assisting Mrs. Speece in the serving were her two sisters, Mrs. Albert Kraeger and Mrs. Leonard Brothers.

The numerous gifts that Jean received were contained in a wishing well and were presented to her in that manner.

Honored on Birthday—

Eleven girls attended Phyllis Kaffenberger's birthday party Friday afternoon—a party she gave in observance of her seventeenth birthday. Phyllis' birthday doesn't occur until tomorrow, however, she gave the party yesterday. Guests of Phyllis were Betty Jo Libershal, Betty Read, Verona Toman, Frances Solomon, Phoebe Taylor, Shirley Walling, Mary Jane Tschirren, Ruth Westover, Blossom Burcham, Betty and Bernice Halmes. Due to illness Dorothy Jean Turner was unable to attend.

The birthday luncheon comprised ice cream and spiced iced tea. Assisting Mrs. Fritz Kaffenberger in the serving was her daughter, Miss Norene Kaffenberger.

The girls spent the afternoon playing games and the prizes were awarded to the three highest winners—Betty Halmes, Blossom Burcham, and Shirley Walling. The gifts that Phyllis received were numerous and useful.

Legion Auxiliary Juniors Meet—

Friday afternoon the members of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary were disappointed in not being able to join in a swimming party at Merritt's as planned, but had a very pleasant indoor picnic.

The ladies of the Auxiliary had prepared covered dishes that formed the basis of a fine picnic supper served at the American Legion building where the event was staged. Eight of the girls were present as guests of the Auxiliary.

The members enjoyed several fine piano numbers given by Ruth Westover and Dorothea Mae Duxbury, two of the talented young musicians of the Junior Auxiliary.

Mrs. A. H. Duxbury, newly installed president, presided, and the members had a very interesting discussion of plans for the state convention of the Auxiliary to be held Sunday to Tuesday at Norfolk. Attending from here will be Mrs. Duxbury, Mrs. E. O. Vroman, Mrs. Robert Cappell, Mrs. Edgar Creamer, Mrs. Fay McClintock, Mrs. Edgar Glaze.

LOCAL LADIES VISIT

MRS. MORGAN FRIDAY

From Saturday's Daily—

Yesterday afternoon five sisters of the Rebekah Lodge motored to Omaha and visited with Mrs. Kate Oliver Morgan, who is at the Immanuel hospital at this time. The ladies found Mrs. Morgan very cheerful, but reported that she is still in a very nervous condition. Mrs. Morgan is a member of the Rebekahs.

The ladies who made the trip were Mesdames William Ofe, Perry Coffman, Mary Taylor, George Hall, and Miss Hermia Windham.

HAS PLEASANT VISIT

Mrs. C. A. Rawls on her visit to the west coast, had a very delightful time in visiting, with her children and grandchildren, as well as seeing a great deal of the country from the mountains and valleys of Idaho to the southern California sections.

She spent some time at Twin Falls, Idaho, where her sister, Mrs. D. R. Churchill and family reside, finding many very interesting spots in that part of the west. En route to the west she was met at Pocatello, Idaho, by her son, R. G. Rawls, of Butte, Montana, who came there to join the mother for a short visit before he continued on west. At Salem, Idaho, she was a guest of a granddaughter, Mrs. Lois Rawls Gwartney for a few days.

Turning her journey southward Mrs. Rawls joined her son, Noel B. Rawls, now one of the superintendents in the large olive plant at Lindsay, California, the largest plant in the world, now a very busy place. She also stopped with a brother, Arthur Holmes, located at Santa Monica and with Mrs. Emma Hesser Van Cleave, at Pasadena. Mrs. Van Cleave is an old school day friend of Mrs. Rawls, the ladies having a fine time in renewing old acquaintances.

PROJECT LEADERS MEET

Wednesday afternoon a large number of the group project leaders of this section of Cass county, met at the home of Mrs. John Woest, the chairman. The meeting was in the nature of training study and brought out a great deal of interest. There were some twenty here from Union, Nehawka, Murray, Plattsburgh and vicinity.

The members very regretfully received the resignation of Mrs. Woest who has served so splendidly as the chairman in the past year. The resignation was due to the fact that the Woest family is leaving the city.

Mrs. Marion Mintord of Murray, was selected as the chairman to succeed Mrs. Woest.

Miss Jessie Baldwin, Cass county home agent, was present and gave a very interesting talk.

TO LEAVE FOR DENVER

From Saturday's Daily—

Mrs. P. Y. McPetridge is leaving Sunday for Denver, Colorado, where she will attend the International convention of the Railroad Signal Men of America. The convention dates are August 18 to 24. Mr. McPetridge plans to leave for Colorado Monday or Tuesday, and he will join his wife in attending the convention.

HERE FROM McCOOK

W. J. Taylor, of McCook, Nebraska, is in the city, joining Mrs. Taylor in a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Duda in the west part of the city. For the first time in a number of years all of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Duda have been home to spend a short time with the parents.

HERE FROM KANSAS CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mason and children of Kansas City are here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bridgewater and Mrs. Maggie Mason. They were accompanied by Mrs. Drury Sanders, a sister of Mrs. Bridgewater.

ATTEND FUNERAL FRIDAY

Mrs. Edward Donat, Sr., Henry Donat, Plattsburgh, and Mrs. Nettie Blackmore of Omaha, were in Ne- hagh, Nebraska, Friday, where they attended the funeral of Anton Svehla, brother-in-law of Mrs. Donat and Mrs. Blackmore. Mr. Svehla was buried from the Catholic church at Neligh and the interment took place in that city.

Mr. Svehla, who was in his fifties, took sick suddenly Thursday, August 8. His cold later developed into pneumonia, and he died en route to a hospital Wednesday, August 14.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Fannie and two children. Mr. and Mrs. Svehla formerly lived in Schuyler, the home town of the latter. Mr. Svehla was engaged in farming.

VISITING IN COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wagner, Thyra and Veda Baumgart, and Wilbur Claus are in Colorado, where they are enjoying a vacation period. A telegram sent to relatives here yesterday morning stated they were on Pike's Peak. En route home the Plattsburgh group plans to stop off at a few places and visit with relatives and friends.

COUNTY COURT HAPPENINGS

Friday in the county court Judge A. H. Duxbury had several hearings in probate cases as follows:

Final hearings were held in the Martin Nelson and Emma McCarroll estates.

Hearing on claims in the William Lockie estate and that of William F. Rosenow, deceased, of Alco were held.

YOUNG MEN LEAVE

From Friday's Daily—

Harry Shiffer accompanied Ambrose Claus to Minneapolis, Minnesota last evening, where the latter drove on a business trip. Both young men plan to be back in Plattsburgh tomorrow. Ambrose is employed as a trucker in this city.

Community Building Club

ELECTED AUGUST 17

1543 Warren Tulene... $25 PAID

This Week - $25

NOW IS THE TIME TO SOW

Blue Grass and Lawn Mixtures

3 lbs. 85c

BROME GRASS $12.00 per 100 pounds

ALFALFA $12.00 to $14.50 bu.

TIMOTHY $2.85 per bushel

WINTER RYE 60c per bu.

PASTURE MIXTURE 11c per pound

RED CLOVER $11.75 per bushel

SWEET CLOVER $3.60 per bushel

We buy farm seeds and trade our seeds for your seeds and grain.

Edward Bartling Seed Co.

Nebraska City, Nebr.

Hot Weather Specials!

Shampoo & Finger Wave Dried...40c
Permanent Waves...$1.50 and Up
Hotel Plattsburgh Beauty Shop

With Every Tall Glass of Refreshing

PABST BEER
Hot Dog Sandwich Free
Hotel Plattsburgh Bar

PUBLIC SALE

As we are moving to Colorado Sept. 1, will sell at public auction on farm 9 miles southwest of Plattsburgh; 6 miles west and 1 mile north of Murray beginning at 11:00 a. m. on—

THURSDAY, AUG. 22

50 HEAD OF LIVE STOCK AND ALL FARM MACHINERY

20 thoroughbred Holsteins including fine 4-year-old 'Man-o-War' herd sire. 7 head of horses. 23 head shoats and bred sows. All stock in fine condition.

Complete line Farm Machinery, including a good field ensilage cutter and good tractor equipment. You will find the things you're looking for at this sale. Many items space does not permit listing in this advertisement.

Forrest Leonard
OWNER

Free Sound Picture
'The River'
ACP PROGRAM
Thursday Aug. 22, 8 p. m.
MURDOCK SCHOOL
Friday, Aug. 23, 2:30 p. m.
PLATTSBURGH LEGION HALL
Friday, Aug. 23, 8 p. m.
WEEPING WATER AUDITORIUM

SOENNICHSEN'S
Black & White
WE DELIVER — PHONE 23 AND 24
National Shredded Wheat
2 Boxes 19c

National Biscuit 100% Bran, per pkg. 10c
Pork and Beans 10c
Macaroni or Spaghetti 19c
Nellie Gray Dill Pickles, 1/2 gallon jar 25c
Shurfine Pure Vegetable Shortening 47c
COMET California Sardines 10c
Butter-Nut All Wheat Pancake Flour, 4-lb. bag ... 25c
FIRST PRIZE Peas 19c
Full Standard Corn No. 2 Cans... 3 for 23c
Whitney Crab Apples, at their best, bu. 50c
HUNT'S SUPREME Peaches 19c
SHURFINE Coffee 23c
Green Apples, market basket 25c
LIGHHOUSE Cleanser 10c
Big Lunch Assortmt. Cookies 25c
KELLOGG SPECIAL—1 Corn Flakes and 1 Pkg. Rice Krispies—both for 19c
Jar Rings 10c
ECONOMY Fruit Jars 59c
Jar Lids 19c
Complete with Lids and Clamps

FRUITS FOR CANNING
Bartlett Pears, home grown, bu. $1.50
Plums, large home grown, mkt. basket 25c
Fresh Italian Prunes, lug 75c
Colorado Peaches now here at a very low price
WHEATIES Pkg. . . 10c
THE BREAKFAST OF CHAMPIONS
Delicious Served with Firm, Ripe Bananas
BANANAS 4 lbs. . 25c
CAROLINE OR Mil-Nut 25c
Honey 10c
Minced Ham, piece or sliced, lb. 10c
Shoulder Beef Steak, lb. 22c
Slab Bacon, per lb. 19c
AD FOR TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

HINKY DINKY
TENDER MEATS at Savings!
SPARE RIBS Lean, Meaty 19c
PORK LIVER Young, Tender 15c
PORK CHOPS Selected Rib Cuts 17c
HAMBURGER Freshly Ground Beef Cuts, 2 lbs. 27c
COLD CUTS Fancy Assorted Baked Loaves, Lb. 17c
SUMMER SAUSAGE Thüringer For Lb. 19c
MINCED LUNCHEON of Ring Bologna Per lb. 12c
PIGS FEET Swift's Vinegar-Pickled 14-cz. Jar, 15c; 9-oz. Jar 10c
LOW GROCERY PRICES!
PRUNES Full Flavor, in syrup, No. 2 1/2 can 11c
TOMATOES Standard Quality 4 No. 2 cans 25c
VINEGAR Older or White (bring container) Gal. 21c
PEN-JEL Fruit Pectin Per Pkg. 10c
COFFEE Sunrise Mellow Lb. 12c; 3 lbs. 35c
GRAPE-NUTS Tasty Cereal Reg. Pkg. 11c
TISSUE Seminole "Cotton-soft" 4 Lge. Rolls 23c
FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES!
PEACHES U. S. No. 1 Arkansas Elberta Freestone, Quart Basket 15c
Ring Packed Full Bushel Bskt. . . $1.98
ORANGES California Juicy Sunkist 252 Size, 20c dozen; 220 Size 29c
PRUNES U. S. No. 1 Fresh Washington Italian, for Canning, 16-lb. box 75c
LETTUCE Fresh, Solid California Large 5-Doz. size Heads, each 5c
CABBAGE Fresh, Solid Green Per lb. 1c
(Plattsburgh, Tues., Wed., Aug. 20-21—Right to Limit Reserved)

POULTRY PRICES
We will pay the following Cash Prices for Poultry Tuesday and Wednesday
HEAVY BREED SPRINGS, LB. 14c
Leghorn Springs, lb. 12c
HEAVY BREED HENS, LB. 12c
Leghorn Hens, lb. 9c
PLATTSBURGH CREAMERY
LOWER MAIN ST. PHONE 94

ONLY $2.45
Ask to see Style 561 as sketched
Smart Surprise . . .
... Surprising in its daring style . . . new innovation . . . the Suspended-Arch Wedge combined with the novelty of the open-toe tie. And it's so amazingly low priced that we won't be the least surprised when you say, "I'll take it!" Note its scalloped front, and the tiny triangular cutouts and perforations that give added smartness!
FETZER SHOE CO.
Quality Footwear - Shoe Repairing