SCHOOL NOTES

Dist. 40 (Sunny Side School) School started September 2 with Mr. Neil Lancaster of Plattsmouth as the teacher. Following is the enrollment of our school: 8th Grade—Mildred Dietl, Patricia Stander and Delores Wood. 6th Grade—Jackie Wiles and Joyce Wood. 5th Grade—Kenneth Stander, Dorothy Wiles and Ruth Wood. 2nd Grade—Paul Stander. 1st Grade—Avis Wood. Our teacher, Mr. Lancaster, brought his portable radio-phonograph and we enjoy it. He also bought some rhythm band instruments, and we have organized a band with Joyce Wood as the leader. We enjoy very much to play in it. In our school room we have flowers, house plants, and some tadpoles which we are watching with interest.

Elmwood News

Bob James and Neil McCrory left Monday morning for Peru, where they will attend school this year at the State Normal college. Mrs. Anna Leckner, son Joe and daughter Hilda, of Nebraska City, were guests at the home of Mrs. Leckner's sister, Mrs. Henry Hohman, on Sunday. Miss Doris Stander is a student in the Plattsmouth high school, making her home with her aunt, Miss Palczek during week days and spending her week ends at home. Circle four of the entertainment committee of St. Patrick's church held a meeting recently to perfect plans for their annual chicken dinner which is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, October 6, in the town hall. Mr. and Mrs. John Carper and Mrs. Paul Kirk and children spent Sunday in Omaha visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Carper. Mrs. Kirk expects to leave in a couple of weeks for New Jersey to join her husband, who is employed there. Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lovell and four children of Chappell, Neb., were over-night guests at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth. Later they drove to Omaha to visit another uncle, Frank H. Stander and daughter, Lily. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bergman announce the arrival of a son on Monday, September 9, who is to be named Edward Francis. Mrs. Bergman was formerly Rosemary Stander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stander and a graduate of Plattsmouth high school. Sincere congratulations to the happy young parents and to the grandparents as well. This is Mr. and Mrs. Stander's first grandchild and the second for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergman. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mochenhaupt and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth drove to Avoca last Friday. The ladies attended a Deaneary board meeting of the D. C. C. W. at the home of the president, Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser, and the men visited with their many friends in town. Monthly Pinochle Party Mrs. Joseph Miller of Louisville and Mrs. Hugh O'Brien entertained at the monthly pinochle party given by St. Patrick's church the second Wednesday of the month. A number from Louisville and Murdock attended and prizes went to Mrs. Theodore Harvaux for high score and Miss Leona Darvaux for low score. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the card games. Tendered Farewell Party The Birthday club gave a farewell party to one of their members on Tuesday, honoring Mrs. O. E. McDonald, who leaves this week for Murray, where she and her husband will reside on a small farm owned by them in that vicinity. Delicious refreshments were served and a suitable gift was given to the guest of honor. Best wishes follow this estimable couple to their new home. Sought to Ride a Calf While Keith Krecklow and Billy Mochenhaupt were attempting to ride a young calf, they became entangled in a rope and fell, Keith striking on his shoulder. While no bones are broken, it was badly bruised and has been quite painful, necessitating his arm being kept in a sling. School Dismissed for Fair School was dismissed Friday noon so as to give the school children an opportunity to attend the Cass county fair that had been in progress for three days. Mrs. Adams Honored at Shower Mrs. Melvin Adams of near Eagle, the former Miss Berdyne Clark, who was recently married, was honored by friends with a lovely shower given at the church basement Friday afternoon. A large crowd was present to offer best wishes and present Mrs. Adams with lovely gifts for her home. Delicious punch and wafers were served after the gifts had been opened. To Elect Officers Today Women of the church are to meet at the church this (Monday) afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the women's organization of the church. This is a historical event and all the ladies are urged to attend. To Give Program For Rally day in the local church, which comes the first Sunday in October, the entire Sunday school will have a definite part. Each class is being asked to contribute to this important event. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. The program is to commence at ten o'clock. Club Luncheon The Women's Reading club opened their club year with a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Cook with Mesdames Charles Godby, Don McKinnon and Martin Zoz assisting. The meeting was held on Thursday afternoon. After a bounteous meal, the ladies spent the time with cards. A large crowd was present. Celebrate Wedding Anniversaries Three Banning couples who have wedding anniversaries on September 6, gathered at the J. W. Banning home Sunday to celebrate the occasion. The honor couples were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Banning, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Banning, the latter two from Union. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters of Nebraska City; Miss Pearl Banning, of Union; Lucian Banning, of Union, and Hallas Banning, of Lincoln. These folks who make up the entire Banning family, enjoyed a most pleasant celebration and a luscious meal. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Banning have been married 24 years, but the writer did not learn the number of years for the other two couples. Friends extend congratulations to all three couples.

Fairview Picnic

The twelfth annual picnic held at Fairview was attended by about fifty people. Mrs. Arlo Pratt presided as president over the business meeting. Awards were made as follows: To the family coming from the greatest distance, the W. W. Renard family, of Sioux City, Iowa; to the oldest member, John James; to the youngest member, Marilyn Mendenhall; to the woman who attended school here at the earliest date, Viola Daugherty, in 1881; to the latest teacher, Miss Evelyn Schow. Myrtle Robertson of Eagle paid tribute to our deceased member, Etta James. Edith Robertson composed the following poem in Etta's memory: She walks among us even yet, The friend who's gone above; Her hand has touched our heart strings, And struck the chord of love. She spread the sunshine as she lived; To all she was a friend. Her lifetime spent in service Was a wealth of love to lend. She left to us a monument Of faith and loyalty— In reverence let us bow our heads; God bless her memory. —Clista Schlanker, Sec'y.

Elmwood Band Holds Picnic

Members of the Elmwood band and their families, with Bud Clements as leader, enjoyed a picnic supper at Antelope park. At the Y. M. C. A., three records were made and pictures taken of the band. Everyone enjoyed this event to the fullest extent.

Twins Prove Affinity

ROCKVILLE, Conn. (UP)—George and Henry Gackeler are twins in every sense of the word. They're 55, do the same sort of work, find identical enjoyment and have the same likes and dislikes. So it wasn't unusual when George went to a hospital for an operation that Henry had to have one, too. The Plattsmouth Semi-Weekly Journal (Monday and Thursday) cost no more than the smallest partial home-print weekly published in this territory—$2 for an entire year.
