

Murray

Wm. Sporer had Sunday dinner with his son, Chester and family.

Charles Garrison was a business visitor in Murray Tuesday morning.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore attended the funeral of D. C. West at Nehawka, Tuesday.

Robert Kiel visited Saturday and Sunday with friends at Bradshaw, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. Ed Tuttle were shopping in Omaha Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Gleason of Kansas City visited over the week-end with John Gleason and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiseman of Weeping Water visited with Mrs. Eugena DeLes Darnier Sunday.

Earl Mrasek is making good headway with their bungalow which is to be an all modern five-room house.

Rev. and Mrs. A. K. Stewart from Omaha spent Monday evening with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Nell Stewart.

Mrs. A. F. Seybert came down from Plattsmouth to assist Mrs. Phillip with her housework and peach canning.

At the King Korn Carnival flower show Mrs. Herman Richter received first prize on her beautiful bouquet of Cockscomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamilton visited with Mrs. Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rouse and family Sunday.

Mrs. W. S. Forbes from Brunswick, Neb., spent Thursday of last week visiting with her niece, Mrs. Ray Burton.

James Latta attended the sale of Mrs. Sarah McCulloch Monday, that place being the birthplace of James 72 years ago.

Mrs. Margaret Todd and son Dick, Mrs. Everett Spangler and children, Charles and Charlene, were Lincoln visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Harry Nelson and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Peter Johnson at Nehawka, Mrs. Johnson is Mrs. Nelson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Redden attended the funeral of Wm. Hicks at Nehawka Monday. Mr. Hicks is an uncle of Mrs. Redden.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Armstrong and their two boys from Omaha were spending Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Norman DeLes Darnier.

John Frans has been having a very serious case of poison ivy which has kept him from his work the past week but at this time he is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wilson spent the day Sunday in Omaha, going up to see the new life insurance building where their daughter, Mildred works.

Mr. and Mrs. Ern Carroll and mother Mrs. Margaret Carroll were visiting at Lincoln Monday and Tuesday at the home of Albert Lillie and wife.

Ernest Read and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Read and family from Cedar Creek were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Richter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell and family visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. John Parkening at Cullom. Mr. Parkening is brother to Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Vantine sold her property in Murray to Frank Burgmen. Mr. Burgmen's son, John and family who reside here will move into the home, now owned by his father.

The ladies of the Christian church are having an all day meeting, vanishing the new built-in cabinets which were built by James Gruber, and is a very nice piece of work.

Mrs. E. H. Riggs from Brewster, Neb., and Mrs. Jennie Frans were visiting at the homes of John Frans and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wohlfarth drove a new 1941 Chevrolet down to Murday Tuesday. While Otto had many calls to make Mrs. Wohlfarth visited with her mother, Mrs. Phillip Kell.

Mrs. Sarah Brooks and son, Sam were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Anna Rhoden. They enjoyed a nice dinner of fried chicken and other good things to eat. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Rhoden are sisters.

Mrs. O. A. Davis, Mrs. Brubacher, Mrs. Margaret Brendel, Mrs. Wm. Seybolt, Mrs. Wm. Minford attended the Eastern Star initiation at Plattsmouth Tuesday night. After the meeting a banquet was served.

Mrs. Charles Boedecker gave a party in honor of her little daughter, Nancy Jane, who was three years old September 20. Many of her little friends were there to enjoy the afternoon, also the nice luncheon that was served.

L. L. Lewis and family, J. D. Lewis, E. M. Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead from Syracuse, Mrs. John Shurger and son, Wilson, Mrs. Bollman of Omaha had a picnic dinner Sunday along the Missouri river. All had a good time.

Ten "natives" of Murray who had been attending the King Korn Carnival at Plattsmouth Saturday night boarded the midnight train, all enjoying the ride back to Murray, which was very unusual and they all got a thrill from the M. P. ride.

Olin Morris and wife are moving their household goods Friday to the farm of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mead. Olin and wife are planning to build a new house in a few weeks. With two new houses going up, Murray looks like it is on the "boom."

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles went to Falls City Sunday to visit the oil wells, but on account of the rain they didn't get to view them as much as they would have liked. Mr. and Mrs. Nickles report the wheat crop in that part of the country looks fine, being up about three inches tall.

Celebrates 6th Birthday
Gary Hild, who is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hild, and is a student in Murray school, celebrated his 6th birthday Wednesday. His class of the 2nd grade, nine in number, was invited by Gary's mother, Mrs. Henry Hild, to the farm where they enjoyed a weiner roast from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Sunday School Class Meets.
Mrs. Nell Stewart's Sunday school class met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. H. Gilmore. A very interesting lesson was had. The leader, Mrs. Charles Spangler, who is also president of the class, presented the lesson. Members present were Mrs. Eugena DeLes Darnier, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Nell Stewart, Mrs. Charles Spangler, Mrs. A. G. Long, Mrs. W. G. Boedecker, Mrs. John Ferris, Mrs. Anna Rhoden, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore. Guests present were Mrs. D. Ray Frans from Union, Mrs. Herman Wohlfarth and Mrs. Olin Morris. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Gilmore served a very delicious lunch.

Wins a First Prize.
Mrs. Margaret Todd had the honor of winning first prize with her collection of bells in the hobby show at the King Korn Carnival in Plattsmouth last week. They say Margaret is the "proudest lady in the state of Nebraska" and right she has, for she has a very interesting line of bells and she received a $1 bill for a prize. We think with the dollar she received that next year for the King Korn Carnival Margaret will have more bells.

We can furnish you with Rubber Stamps made to order at a price considerably below that you have been paying. Prompt service if you need stamps, see us.

Weeping Water

Miss Evelyn Moore spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pool were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pool, of Wabash.

Miss Marjorie Moore has enrolled at Peru, expecting to take a teacher's course of study at the State Normal.

Mrs. Hugh Poore, of Des Moines, spent Monday and Tuesday at the home of Mr. Poore's uncle, Theodore Davis and Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Domingo, of Lincoln, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Domingo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Domingo.

The R. C. Tankerslys have bought the home of R. C. Fry, retired Missouri Pacific agent. Mr. Fry expects to make his home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Nina Champlin, of Hastings, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Dora Ranney, this week. Thursday evening they visited at the E. M. Ruby home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hitchman, and Mrs. Ray Clark and daughter, Mary, all of Lincoln, were visitors at the Lloyd P. Wolcott-home Sunday evening.

Mrs. L. R. Reasoner returned on Wednesday from Kansas City, her former home, where she went to attend the Richardson county fair, and enjoy a visit with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham spent Sunday evening at Nehawka visiting with Mrs. Hollis Aiken, of Santa Monica, Cal., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Philpot.

Miss Olive Marie Klaubundt, of Blair, niece of Mrs. Elmer Michelsen, has just returned home from a three weeks trip to the western coast. She will assist in the variety store for a while.

Mrs. Jennie Dawson and daughter Daisy Dean, of Hoagland, Nebraska, left Sunday after a week's visit with relatives and friends. She was called here by the death of a relative, Harold Philpot.

Visitors at the Methodist church parsonage this week are Rev. and Mrs. Lenker's daughter, Mrs. Floyd Skavdahl, her two daughters, Carrie and Carol Ann, and Mrs. Leslie Dunn, all of Harrison, Nebraska.

Miss Doris Marshall spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall. She was accompanied by Miss Patricia Rosenbaum, of Harvard, Nebraska. They also attended the picnic at Valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Leonard, of Chinook, Montana, are the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall. Sunday they all attended a family picnic at the home of another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weiss, of Valley.

The playlet, "Lee Ling Missionary" was given Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational Women's association. It was directed by Mrs. L. H. Behrends. Hostesses were Mrs. J. R. Shannon, Miss Edna Dudley, Miss Agnes Rough and Mrs. Homer Jameson.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner McKinnon, of Alvo, and Miss Helen Gorder, of Grand Island, were guests of Mrs. Fred Gorder Sunday. Mrs. Gorder returned home with Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, who expect to leave soon for Detroit, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields went to Louisville Sunday morning. There they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. George Tinker, of Polk, and drove to Omaha, where they spent the day with Mrs. Shields' daughter, Mrs. Claude Reece. Mrs. Tinker is the mother of Mrs. Shields.

Not only the members of the Methodist church, but the entire community are rejoicing over the fact that Rev. W. D. Lenker is to remain as pastor of the local church. He will care for both the Nehawka and Weeping Water churches as he has done during the past few years.

Bernard Ruby of Nebraska City came after his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby, Sunday and took them to Nebraska City for a fine dinner, after which they took the river drive south, greatly enjoying the beautiful scenery. Returning to Nebraska City, a movie was enjoyed before returning home.

The first meeting of the Weeping Water Woman's club will be held Tuesday evening, October 1, at the Auditorium, when a covered dish dinner will be served at 6:30 with a program afterwards. The teachers of our school and the husbands of the club members will be guests of the club.

A deal was completed Monday which made Clair Wolfe the owner of the Shield's cleaning establishment. Owing to poor health Mr. Shields has decided to take a complete rest for a year. They will

UNION ITEMS.

King Clark is visiting with the home folks.

Lucian LaRue has returned to his home in Los Angeles.

Betty May Austin was home from Falls City over the week end.

Mrs. Frank Boggs was a passenger to Nebraska City Thursday.

Mrs. M. A. Cross was a guest at the home of Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary Sunday.

A. L. Becker and Jack Francis took a load of wood to Lincoln Saturday forenoon.

Henry Ruhman was celebrating his 70th birthday anniversary Sunday, Sept. 22.

Donald McCarthy, who is attending Doane college at Crete, was home over the week end.

Earl Freeman and family of Avoca were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Midkiff.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin and Darrell Ervin attended a Sunday evening show in Nebraska City.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter drove over to Shenandoah last week and secured a quantity of seed wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chapman and Helen Lillian were guests Friday at the C. H. Whitworth home.

Charles Good and family of South Sioux City were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson.

Dr. J. L. Barritt and family of Kingman, Arizona, arrived for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Maria Barritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pell and family of Omaha were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clarence.

M. S. Briggs was in town for a few minutes on Wednesday. He said that his arm was apparently getting along fine.

Sunday dinner guests at the A. M. McCarroll home were the families of Clifton Garrison, Neils Madsen and Fred McCarroll.

Harley Kearney is visiting at the home of his uncle, Ivan Balfour. He is on a furlough from his naval station in Honolulu.

Visitors at the H. H. Becker home this week were Mrs. Teten and daughter of Talmage and Elsie Joutz of Colorado Springs.

Rev. E. P. Boeber of Cedar Bluffs, was an over-night visitor at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Griffin, on Thursday.

A child's handkerchief with some money tied in the corner was found by Frank Bauer, who would like to return it to its owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schiele of Bellevue were Sunday evening visitors at the P. F. Rihn home. The gentlemen are stepbrothers.

William Barritt has enrolled as a student in the University of Nebraska. His sister, Marion, is attending the Union grade school for the present.

Rev. L. R. McQuahey has been appointed to the pastorate of Craig and Alder Grove. The new minister at Union and Wyoming will be Rev. J. T. Sawyer.

Frank Bauer and Gus Splitz were visiting their friend, Jack Roddy, on Sunday afternoon. Anyone wishing to call on Jack in Nebraska City, may find him at 811 3rd Corso.

Mrs. Tillie Hargus was visiting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Leo Finkle, who is greatly improved since her operation. However, she is not yet able to discard her wheel chair.

Mrs. May Finlayson returned to her home in Omaha Friday, having visited during the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Hastings and her brother, John Childester.

Virginia and Geraldine Atteberry played "Jesus Loves Me" as a piano duet during the Baptist Sunday school hour. Virginia and Ruby Everett received their three months attendance pins.

Mrs. G. S. Upton was celebrating her 89th birthday on Wednesday, September 25. She was given a card shower by the ladies of the Baptist Missionary society of which she is a member.

A public bingo party will be given Saturday night at the Banning hall. It will be under the management of the new Union American Legion post, organization of which has been completed since the state convention at Norfolk a month ago.

REUNION AT NORTON HOME

The Edward K. Norton home was a happy place this last week as they had a reunion with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Norton, of Norton Gables Farm, Bellemead, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton, Barbara and Doris, of Bellemead; Mrs. Gail Sturm and baby, and Miss Edith Norton, of Scottsbluff, and Richard Dowler, a grandson, also of Scottsbluff, who came to enjoy the visit.

The out-of-town guests divided their time between the home of their parents and their two sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Wiseman and Mrs. Oscar Dowler, of Manley. Mr. and Mrs. George Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton left Monday for home.

CENTER VALLEY CLUB

East of town there is a community club known as the Center Valley Community club. This club meets once a month and they are always planning something different to keep their program interesting. They discovered that six of their members celebrated their wedding anniversaries either in August or in September, so Friday evening they held an anniversary party in the basement of the auditorium, with seventy-five present. Dancing and games of all kinds were enjoyed until a late hour, when lunch was served. As Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson's anniversary came on Saturday and as they had been married the longest—45 years, they were presented with a gift. The other couples who were guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. J. Zaloudek, 27 years; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Sperry, 20 years; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, 20 years; Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Brown, 10 years; and Mr. and Mrs. Renos Anderson, 2 years.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Sixty relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson Sunday to help them celebrate their forty-fifth wedding anniversary, which came on Saturday, September 21. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were married at the home of Jacob Domingo, on the farm where Oscar Domingo now lives, and they have lived continuously in this community since their wedding day, and have a host of friends who congratulate them on this happy occasion.

A fine basket dinner was served and the afternoon was spent visiting and reminiscing. Two sisters and two nephews from out of town were present to enjoy the occasion with them. Mrs. Neils Robertson, of Miller, Nebr., a son-in-law, and her two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Art Atkins, of Kearney, and Mrs. Lenora Spillmier of Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Snell of South Omaha, Mrs. Henry Snell, another sister of Mr. Anderson, was present.

Another sister living in Chicago was unable to attend.

COLBERT HENEGER

Miss Agatha Colbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Eugene Colbert, and Glen Heneger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heneger, were united in marriage Friday afternoon, September 20, in Union, at the home of Rev. W. A. Taylor, who performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of both families. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Don Philpot. The bride was attired in blue with a corsage of pink roses. Her attendant wore a frock of cinnamon brown with a corsage of peach colored gladioli. At the close of the ceremony the bride and groom left immediately for Iowa, Kansas, where they spent the week-end, returning home Sunday evening. A reception was held at the bride's home Tuesday evening when thirty guests were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Heneger will make their home on the Wm. Baly farm southeast of town. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Colbert, of Hastings.

EASTERN STAR-KENSINGTON

The Eastern Star Kensington held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday with Mrs. Floyd Cole, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinds, in Lincoln. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon after which the afternoon was spent visiting. Everyone present reports a most delightful meeting.

DIVORCES DROP, MARRIAGES UP

ST. LOUIS (UP)—For the first time in years court officials have noted a drop in divorce cases. At the same time the number of marriage licenses issued has shown a marked upswing.

ASSIGNED CHARGE AT PENDER

Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Kunkel were visiting Friday and Saturday with their daughter, Mrs. Howard Snodgrass and family. They will visit relatives at Oregon and St. Joseph, Mo., before taking charge of their new pastorate at Pender, the county seat of Thurston county.

BIRTHDAY SUPPER

A birthday supper in honor of Mrs. Jennie Frans and David Kendall was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reu Frans in Syracuse Sunday evening. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans and James, Mrs. David Kendall and children, Robert, Suzanne and Rodger and Mr. and Mrs. Burford of Hot Springs, Arkansas.

AT GREAT LAKES STATION

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Witherow have received word from their son, Elmer H. to the effect that he had reached the Great Lakes naval training station along with 87 other new recruits. His camp, which is about 50 miles north of Chicago, is just across Paradise Creek from that of John Neal.

Elmer says the fellows are swell and he thinks he will like the navy fine. His chief concern is whether he can keep in contact with his hammock and whether Nipper, his dog, will get his daily bone.

COLBERT-HENEGER WEDDING

Wedding bells have resounded again at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, proclaiming the marriage of two popular young people of eastern Cass county, Miss Agatha May Colbert and Lester Glen Heneger, both of Weeping Water.

The ceremony took place at 1:30 p. m. on Sept. 20 and the nuptial vows were solemnized by Rev. Taylor. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Don Philpot. The bride is a leader of the younger set in Weeping Water and is loved and respected by all who know her. The groom is a man of sterling worth and of virtuous character.

The newlyweds will make their home on a farm south of Weeping Water and to them is extended congratulations and best wishes from a host of friends.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Colbert (parents of the bride), Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heneger (parents of the groom) and son, Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dotz and two daughters, Winona and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eidenmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colbert and son, Reginald of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Colbert and Sue, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Stoch, Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiele and Mr. and Mrs. Don Philpot.

"BAD NEWS," SAYS MEAL CHECK

WELLFLEET, Mass. (UP)—The waitresses at one Cape Cod restaurant now present customers with the meal check enclosed in an envelope on which is printed: "Here is the bad news."

The Plattsmouth Semi-Weekly Journal (Monday and Thursday) cost no more than the smallest partial home-print weekly published in this territory—$2 for an entire year.

CAR Insurance

IF--
You Should have a Car Accident

You would appreciate the expert service of this dependable agency in making a prompt settlement.

CALL OR SEE

INSURANCE AND BONDS
DUXBURY & DAVIS
PHONE 16
PLATTSMOUTH

FOR SALE

Improved 30 Acres, Improved 45 Acres, Improved 60 Acres, Improved 80 Acres

Can Give Possession March 1
BETTER LOOK AT THEM

PHONE 99
PEARL & DAVIS