I. C. O. F. INSTALLS
Monday evening the young and aggressive Platts-mouth lodge motored to Louisville and conferred a degree on a couple of candidates. Next week Louisville is coming to Platts-mouth for further degree work. It is with pleasure we note the renewed activity of the various fraternal organizations following the summer season—a clear indication of the good will among men in the U. S. A. It is on such good will and mutual understanding that democracies come into being and continue to exist.

On Tuesday evening the Rebekah lodge of Platts-mouth celebrated their 59th year and invited the I. O. O. F. members for a fine program and luncheon.

Jack Erittain, whose reputation as a steeple jack remains unchallenged despite his age, had a very interesting picture of himself in the World-Herald, as well as one showing him standing upright on the face of the clock in the court house tower. Grant and Schuyler Hackenberg.

the presidential twins also were caught in the pictures. They were named for President U. S. Grant and Vice-President Schuyler Colfax.

ATTEND CARNIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. August Keil and family of near Cedar Creek were in the city Saturday to attend the closing day of the big entertainment feature that has become one of the best in the west. While in the city Mr. Keil called at the Journal to renew his subscription to the Journal and to order the paper sent to his daughter, Miss June, now teaching at Butte, Nebraska.

SUFFERS FALL MONDAY

As Mr. Henry Jacobs, proprietor of the Jacobs Cafe, was descending a flight of steps Monday morning, he accidentally fell and injured himself. The injured man was later taken to the office of Dr. R. P. Westover, where it was found that he had sprained his right wrist, right elbow, right shoulder, and right knee. Mr. Jacobs was very fortunate in not receiving a fracture.

AN APPRECIATION

To all members of my committee participants in the program and all other associates and workers, I express my appreciation for your cooperative spirit and assistance in the presentation of the King Korn Carnival program. Your faithful service and good will were primarily responsible for the success of our program.

WALTER H. SMITH, Program Chairman.
