

VISIT AT HOWELLS

Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal have returned from Howells, Nebraska, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal, Jr., of Omaha to Howells where the party were guests of relatives of Mrs. James Rebal, Jr.

SETTLED IN NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Long, who moved to Plattsmouth from Nelson recently, are now settled in their new home, which was formerly the Claude Smith home on Locust street. Their daughter, Miss Loris Long is the commercial instructor at the Plattsmouth high school.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vandervoort, II with their son, Paul III, departed for the west coast where they will make an extended visit. They are stopping first at Burbank, California, where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bulin, the former a brother of Mrs. Vandervoort.

ATTEND STOCK SHOW

Among the many parties from this city who attended the stock show at Omaha Sunday afternoon was one composed of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Valtery and daughter, Gertrude, Wayne Gorton and Charles E. Brinkman. They were joined at Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. John Koop. They enjoyed very much the display of fine animals and the extensive entertainment afforded.

HERE TO VISIT FRIENDS

Mrs. Nora O'Brien and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Shicoine, of Salk, Iowa, are here to enjoy a short visit at the home of Mrs. Georgia Creamer and old friends in and near this city. They are former residents of this community.

While here they attended the funeral services for Mrs. Charles McGuire held Saturday at the St. John's church, they being old time friends.

TO WINTER IN NEBRASKA

Mrs. Anna Allen arrived in Nebraska from the west coast and plans to spend the winter season in this city with her daughter, Mrs. O. R. Wilcox and family, and in Omaha with her three sons, Charles, D. F., and W. S. Allen.

LUKASEKS LEAVE

Mrs. Frank Lukasek and sons left for their home in Kingfisher, Oklahoma after spending the past three weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Janca in this city.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.
