

AVOCA NEWS

M. H. Lum was a business visitor in Omaha last Thursday. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendle were shopping in Lincoln Thursday afternoon. Cemetery Kensington met with Mrs. Robert Mickle last Friday afternoon. Fred L. Carsten was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Edna Young and Frank Jones of Lincoln were Sunday guests of Frank Betts. Mr. and Mrs. John Busch, Wichita, Kansas, visited relatives and friends in Avoca last week. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin attended the Apple Harvest festival at Nebraska City Friday. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ruhge are the proud parents of a fine baby son born Friday, October 4. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Saunders of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were Sunday guests of Henry Franzen. Henry Franzen has been remodeling the John Emshoff home and is also building a new granary. Wm. Wulf returned Friday from a visit with his son Lloyd and wife of San Francisco, California. Mrs. J. Zimmerman and Oscar and Mrs. Wm. Gollner were shopping in Lincoln last Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linhardt, Jr. and son John were Sunday guests of Mrs. Mary McCaig at Elmwood. Elmer Hallstrom and Oscar Zimmerman served free watermelon to shoppers in Avoca Saturday night. The picture show under the management of Norval Bothwell, of Elmwood, was well attended last Friday night. Mrs. Mary Louise Kenwood and daughter Mary Lou, of Omaha, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zaiser. Mrs. Wilfred Greenrod and daughter Jacqueline spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Harry Abker, at Nebraska City. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hile and daughters of Beaver Crossing were visiting her mother, Mrs. Caroline Marquardt Sunday. Vern Rawalt of Lincoln was visiting his mother, Mrs. V. P. Rawalt and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Marquardt. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. F. Ruhge, Anna Ruhge and Mrs. Wm. Morley were visiting at the home of John E. Ruhge at Talmage. The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Albert Sill and Mrs. Fred L. Carsten last Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hill and son of Lincoln were Saturday guests of M. H. Lum. They also visited the Lum Jungle, and enjoyed it very much. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaefer and family of Elmwood and Fred Bartell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin. Claude Hollenberger, who is employed with the Steckley Seed Co., attended the Pawnee county fair several days last week, displaying hybrid seed corn. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Greenrod and daughter Lillian Ebeler of Nebraska City and Matt McCann of Dunbar were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann Sunday. Anna Marie Sellings and Mrs. George Shackley have been elected delegates to the state convention of Nebraska Federated Women's clubs to be held at Norfolk October 16, 17 and 18. Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Hall, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer and Mrs. Caroline Marquardt attended the state Congregational church convention last Tuesday and Wednesday at Garland, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ruhge accompanied by Mrs. Harold Harmon of Weeping Water left last Thursday for a visit in western Nebraska. Fred Ruhge of Cook is caring for the farm while L. C. is away. A number of young people from here attended the Catholic Youth Congress meeting last Sunday at the Cornhusker hotel in Lincoln. Petronella Cullen was the official delegate of the Holy Trinity parish. Clyde Bognard went to Shenandoah, Iowa, Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Averil Thomas and family. His father, William Bognard, who had been visiting with them during the past week, returned home with him. Mrs. J. J. Cullen and Miss Phyllis Straub attended the board meeting of the Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at the Cornhusker hotel in Lincoln last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Cullen was appointed Youth chairman for the Lincoln diocese. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sill, Mrs. Albert Schutz, Mrs. Harry Mickle, Mrs. Elmer Hennings and Miss Bertha Neumeister attended the flower show in Omaha Tuesday. This was a part of the Ak-Sar-Ben live stock and horse show, and comprised a very fine showing of fall flowers. Project Leaders Meet Mrs. Fred Haverman, Mrs. Leo McCann and Mrs. Elmer Corbin held a meeting last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Corbin. It was decided at the meeting to discontinue the project club. Returns to Florida Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom and family and Mrs. R. L. Propst were dinner guests at the Wm. Propst home in Ralston. The dinner was given in honor of Mr. R. L. Propst before he leaves for his home in Lake Worth, Florida. Attended C. Y. O. Convention Misses Katherine Sheehan and Norma Welte and Leo and Paul O'Brien attended the Catholic Youth Organization congress at Lincoln last Sunday and Monday. The convention opened Sunday morning with a solemn Pontifical Mass, followed throughout the two days by business and social meetings. It was closed by a dance in the ballroom of the Cornhusker hotel on Monday evening. Those who attended report a very fine time and much valuable information received.

MANLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stander were Plattsmouth visitors last Wednesday. Mrs. Edward Murphy, son Lloyd and Miss Alice Reese of Lincoln were visiting friends in Manley last Sunday. Rudolph Bergman was a business visitor in Lincoln last Wednesday. During his absence, Mrs. Bergman had charge of the store. Mrs. Lawrence Erhart and daughter Shirley are spending a week with Mrs. Erhart's mother, Mrs. Meyers, at her home in Avoca. Dale and Gerald Stander, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stander, were in Omaha last week, having swine entered in the Ak-Sar-Ben live stock show. Mr. and Mrs. John Palecek and Mrs. Palecek's mother of Omaha visited Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stander Sunday and also attended the dinner in the hall. Miss Lizzie Bauers has entered St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha for observation and treatment. Her many friends are hoping for her speedy restoration to health. Orris Schliefert drove to Plattsmouth Thursday evening to receive instructions from the County Clerk regarding the registration to be held on Wednesday, October 16. Robert O'Brien, member of the U. S. navy, is here from California, where he is stationed, to spend a ten day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Brien. Mrs. Lesley of Greenwood spent last Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Mike Sheehan. Mrs. Lesley is recovering nicely from an eye operation performed a short time ago at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln. C. E. Mockenhaupt, who suffered a severe heart attack last Thursday, has completely recovered from the effects of same. Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Mockenhaupt and daughter Shirley of Alvo spent Sunday with her father. Mrs. Theresa Rauth returned to her home in Dunbar Tuesday after a few days spent with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth. While here she also attended the chicken dinner sponsored by the ladies of St. Patrick's church. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hohman are spending the week in Plattsmouth, guests of Mrs. Hohman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Koubek. On Wednesday Mrs. Hohman and Mrs. Koubek drove out to attend the afternoon card party. Mr. and Mrs. William Rau attended the Ak-Sar-Ben live stock and horse show in Omaha last Sunday. As local Ak-Sar-Ben ambassador, Mr. Rau was among those honored with the presentation of pocket pieces during the course of the show. Mrs. William Sheehan, Sr. and Mrs. John Sheehan were hostesses for the monthly card party at the Manley hall. Mrs. Anton Aueserwald was the winner of first prize with a score of 7750 and Mrs. Mike Sheehan received the consolation prize. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Murray school played a return engagement with the Manley football team last Wednesday, resulting in a score of 26 to 6 in favor of the home team. The Philpot school team

SOUTH BEND

Mrs. Albert Blum drove to Omaha Friday. Mrs. Mollie Neuman spent Friday at the J. L. Carnicle home. Mrs. F. J. Knecht was a business visitor in Nehawka Wednesday. Lawrence Duerr was a Thursday afternoon caller at Martin Zaar's. Mrs. Bill Haynie called on her sister, Mrs. Hugh Vargas, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Campbell were visiting relatives in Elmwood Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Mooney and sons were Nebraska City visitors on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carnicle spent Sunday evening in Ashland at the Joe Peterson home. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Schwartz called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carnicle Thursday. Mrs. George Thimghan and children called on her mother, Mrs. Alice Kirtell Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell and daughters of Omaha were Sunday callers at Cora Campbell's. Thursday evening callers at the Paul Reinke home were Mr. and Mrs. William Blum and Herbert. Week-end guests at the Merrill Nauman home were Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Axthehn and family. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Blum were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Zaar. Sunday evening callers at the F. J. Knecht home were Mrs. Sadie Shrader and son, Gerald, of Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell, Marjorie and Betty Lou of Omaha visited Mrs. Cora Campbell and Russell Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fosberg drove to Weeping Water Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. T. V. Hansen and family. Sunday evening supper guests at the V. D. Livers home were Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Livers, Darlene and Charlene of Ashland. Harry Long was in Lincoln Tuesday on business. While there, he called on his grandson, Sam Long and also Bill Rosencrans. Mrs. Alice Kirtell went to Lincoln Sunday evening and returned Tuesday. Her son John has been ill, but is improved at this time. Leo Morrison and Miss Virginia Brant and Lloyd Towle were Sunday afternoon callers on Lloyd's grandmother, Mrs. Helena Timm. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Frahm and son were Sunday dinner guests at the J. L. Carnicle home. Supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peterson of Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Neuman and sons and Mrs. Mollie Neuman were Sunday evening callers at the V. D. Livers home. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dill and son were dinner guests. Paul and Pauline Proctor were week-end guests of relatives in South Bend. They stayed with their grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Streight. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Proctor, came for them Sunday evening. Mrs. H. Zamzow of Ashland and Mrs. Otto Dettman and daughter, Elsie, of Lewellen, Nebr., were Sunday guests of Mrs. Helena Timm. Mrs. Zamzow is a sister and Mrs. Dettman a niece of Mrs. Timm. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Vargas and Shirley Ann were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richards and family at Meadow. The dinner was given in honor of Hugh's birthday. Glen Weaver was a week-end guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Eula Lackey at Minatare, Nebraska. His nephew, Kenneth Lackey, returned to his home after having had a nice visit with his uncle and grandfather, Fred Weaver. Mrs. Jason Streight, Mrs. M. E. Bushnell, Mrs. Walter Thimghan and Mrs. Axel Zaar were among the women from South Bend precinct who attended the republican tea given by the republican women of Cass county, in Louisville Tuesday afternoon. They report a very pleasant and instructive program. Mr. and Mrs. Fosberg had a pleasant surprise Friday when their nephew, Oscar Nelson, Jr., of California, and his mother, Mrs. O. F. Nelson and Mrs. M. E. Sandy called. Mrs. Fosberg accompanied the group to Omaha, where they enjoyed visiting relatives. Mrs. Fosberg returned Wednesday on the Rock Island. Sunday dinner guests at the V. D. Livers home were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Livers of Cherryvale, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Livers and daughters of Ashland; Mrs. Jennie Livers of Burr Oak, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Hendrickson of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dill and Jamie. Mrs. George Braun and Mrs. F. J. Knecht drove to Lincoln Tuesday. At noon they were luncheon guests of Mrs. Knecht's son, Bill Rosencrans,

Greenwood

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Casey spent Sunday in Omaha. Mrs. Blatler of Adams spent last week at the Earl Iden home. Mr. and Mrs. Elton Keller were in Lincoln Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Peters visited at the Kahler home in Lincoln Thursday evening. Miss Lucille Reece of Ashland was a Thursday night supper guest of Mrs. Elton Keller. Mrs. Joe Kyles spent two days of last week in Alvo with her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Kinney. Deal-a-Deck Pinochle club met with Mrs. Jim Armstrong Thursday. A delicious lunch was served. Miss Verna Busche and Joe Whitlock were united in marriage at Shenandoah, Iowa, Thursday, October 2. Mr. and Mrs. John Downing and Mr. and Mrs. P. Clymer were visitors in Omaha Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kelly and Mrs. Ery McNurlin attended the Ak-Sar-Ben live stock and horse show last Sunday. Misses Margaret, Thelma and Mamie Holka visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holka, last Saturday night. Mrs. Gaye Wright entertained Louis Wright and family at a birthday dinner Sunday. It was Aaron Wright's birthday. Mrs. Hazel Clouse and Mrs. H. Brehta entertained the Dorcas society Friday. A nice crowd attended and a delicious lunch was enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. William Buck and family returned Saturday from North Dakota, where they had been called to the bedside of Mrs. Buck's mother. She was greatly improved when they left for home. Homecoming Day Yesterday (October 13) was home coming day at the Christian church, combined with a district missionary rally. Services were held both morning and afternoon, with a basket dinner at noon. Although written before the meeting, we are safe in saying there was a good attendance. Husbands Guests The L. C. C. entertained their husbands at a party Friday night at the L. C. Marvin home. Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Downing assisted. There were nine tables. Five hundred was played. A nice lunch was served. COUPLE PAST 90, WED 75 YEARS CARROLTON, Ga. (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Gerley, both past 90 and married 75 years, were the oldest couple attending a half-century party honoring couples married more than 50 years. Eighty-eight couples were present. Subscribe for the Journal.

ALVO

Miss Smock is visiting at the August Johnson home for a few days. Miss Grace Muenchau spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau. She is a student at Peru Teachers' college. The former Miss Lola Rueter, who was married recently, is to be honored with a miscellaneous shower on Friday afternoon at the church basement. Miss Katherine Edwards, who is in training at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards returned home from Denver the latter part of the week after spending a few days visiting their son Boyd and wife, who reside in the Mile High city. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook left for Chicago Tuesday, where they will spend a few days with their two children, Mrs. Roger Williams and husband, and Wesley Cook and family. Club Elects Officers The S. O. S. club held a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ellis Mickle Tuesday afternoon. After a bounteous dinner, the members gave their garden reports and elected officers. Those elected were Mrs. Dinges, president; Mrs. Rehmeier, vice president; Mrs. A. B. Stroemer, secretary and treasurer. This closes the club year for the season and they will hold no more meetings until spring. Entertains Club Mrs. August Johnson delightfully entertained the Reading club members at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mrs. Copple gave an interesting paper about Mrs. Wendell Willkie and Mrs. McNary. Miss Smock, who is a house guest at the Johnson home, gave several entertaining readings. A large crowd was present to enjoy the afternoon and very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Program Well Attended The Rally Day services and program Sunday morning were well attended. The Sunday school sponsored a program during the Sunday school hour. Each class participated and made the service a very fine one. The theme "Help the Church School Make Their Church to Grow" was well carried out. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and garden flowers. P. T. A. Meeting On Wednesday evening, October 16, at 8:00 o'clock at the school house the public will have the opportunity of hearing a most interesting and entertaining address by Dr. Lyman of the University of Nebraska. Dr. Lyman is an excellent speaker and always greatly enjoyed by his audience. Remember the date, Wednesday evening of this week, October 16, and be on hand to hear this entertaining and well informed speaker. Attend Church Wedding Several relatives of this community attended the wedding of a former Alvo girl, Miss Nadine Kerr, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Lovett of Lincoln who became the bride of Mr. Legg in a simple but beautiful church wedding Saturday evening at the Brethren church in Lincoln. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hardnock, Lyle Miller family, Archie Miller family, Ellis Mickle family and Harold Nickel family. Miss Iris Miller was bridesmaid. Mrs. Legg's friends wish her and her husband much happiness. We can furnish you with Rubber Stamps made to order at a price considerably below that you have been paying. Prompt service if you need stamps, see us.

WABASH NEWS

Mrs. L. R. Stanley was a Lincoln visitor Wednesday, calling on her daughter, Mrs. Fred Patzel. Henry and Rueben Knap are busy cutting sorgo in the vicinity of Nehawka. The boys have been very busy this season with the harvesting of this crop. Mrs. H. H. Gerbeling is suffering from the result of a severe fall which occurred a few days ago. She is slightly improved at this time, but is still very lame. Charles McKinstry, who has been employed on the Dave Martin farm has finished his work and is at home. Charles is getting ready for a big corn husking spree. Ralph Richards is busy hunting some calves which escaped from his pasture recently. The calves were trucked here from Omaha and in their strange surroundings strayed away. Hobert Henson is very busy and has been for the past three days. Hobert is filling a large silo with the assistance of his neighbors. Oscar Domingo is furnishing the cutter for the job. Harold Richards, a member of the National Guard, reports to home folks that he is now in service at the state capitol building, his duties coming under the selective service department. Lester Bosworth, the Wabash mail messenger, was a passenger on the Missouri Pacific Saturday, paying the neighboring town of Weeping Water a visit and attending to some business affairs as well. W. L. Murfin is improving the appearance of the village by burning weeds and cleaning up in general around his place. This kind of work is commendable in most of our towns in the fall as well as spring, but is more often neglected at this season. The Marshall elevator is a busy place these days as Mr. Marshall is storing corn under the government contract and the time is at hand when the crib room is needed very much on the farms, making it necessary to move corn under seal to new storage places. Constructed Cattle Barn Louis Wendt, with the assistance of his father, August Wendt, Sr., and two brothers, Fred and August, Jr., have been building a new and much larger cattle barn, using material from the old one and some additional material. Besides affording a place for the cattle, the new barn provides a place for the storage of an abundance of feed, both hay and grain. PARROT GOES ALONE TO SCHOOL PITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP)—Like Mary's lamb, Polly the parrot goes to school. Owned by John D. Ryan, Jr., the 52-year-old parrot appeared alone at school one day and was ushered in by the principal. BRITISH PRISONERS PATRIOTIC LONDON (UP)—Women prisoners in Aylesbury Gaol are giving a quarter of their "pay" to help buy a Spitfire plane. They earn upward of 20 cents a week and their contributions range from 2 to 6 cents weekly. See the goods you buy. Get color descriptions are alluring enough, but how about the goods when you get them?

Elmwood News

Another very much needed rain (about a quarter of an inch) was received Wednesday night. The women of the Christian church will meet on Wednesday, October 16 to give the church a thorough house cleaning. Cecil Hollenbeck, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. L. Hollenbeck, called at the Wilson Gilmore home last Wednesday afternoon. The first meeting of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Howard Capwell. A good attendance is reported and plans were made for the coming year's work. A letter has been received from Raymond Kunz stating that he had been at Pasadena, Calif., but was back in San Diego at the time of writing. He had also visited Hollywood and Beverly Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bain and son Dean called at the Lewis Hollenbeck home last Sunday morning. They were on their way to Nebraska City for dinner. They report A. W. Neihart as well as usual and working every day. Redecorating Post Office The rooms occupied by the post office are being redecorated this week. Pete Lynn is doing the job. This will make a very nice improvement. Father and Son Banquet Last Tuesday evening there was held in the basement of the Methodist church the annual Fathers and Sons' banquet, with an attendance of around 70. An exceptionally fine banquet was served by a group of the church ladies after which all enjoyed a program of songs and toasts. LeRoy Cook was toastmaster. Corn was the theme of the evening. County Agent Waldo was present and spoke on the subject. Basket Dinner Sunday All members as well as friends of the Methodist church are invited to a basket dinner at the church basement next Sunday, October 13. This event is in honor of Rev. Lind and family. Home from Eastern Trip Mrs. Emily Gonzales returned last Sunday from a two weeks' vacation trip. She spent the time with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gonzales, at Washington, D. C. She reports a very interesting and enjoyable time. Accident Occurred Saturday An accident occurred at the corner three miles west of Elmwood last Saturday, when the Standard Oil truck driven by Verlie Fleischman and another car driven by Jim Schlancker collided. The truck was traveling west and the other car south at the time. The force of the collision overturned the truck several times. Donald Elliott, who was riding in the truck, was thrown out and received a cut on the head. Both drivers escaped serious injuries. Subscribe for the Journal.

FOR SALE or Rent

Seven Room, All-Modern Home
Sited in good residential district. Terms reasonable. Call Phone No. 6
During the Day or No. 643 at Night!

Just Arrived THE FOLLOWING NUMBERS IN SHEET MUSIC 35c 3 for $1.00

- Your 20 Favorite Sheet Music Hits
- Blueberry Hill
 - Can't Get Indiana Off My Mind
 - Ferryboat Serenade
 - God Bless America
 - I'll Never Smile Again
 - I'm Nobody's Baby
 - Love Lies
 - Only Forever
 - Our Love Affair
 - Practice Makes Perfect
 - Shout! Wherever You May Be, 'I am an American'
 - Sierra Sue
 - Six Lessons from Madam La Zonga
 - The Call of the Canyon
 - The Nearness of You
 - That's for Me
 - Trade Winds
 - When the Swallows Come Back to Capistrano
 - Whispering Grass
- Buy Them for Your Piano Today!

BATES BOOK STORE

NOBODY expects to be in an accident—but nevertheless the number of automobile accidents are increasing every day. The only safe way is to carry complete insurance protection.

Seari S. Davis
OFFICES: 2ND FLOOR
Platts, State Bank Bldg.