From Thursday's Daily—

Stork Shower Wednesday—
A stork shower tendered her by Mrs. Glen Larsen honored Mrs. George Glass Wednesday afternoon at the Glass apartment at the Frank Read home, 1524 Oak street. Eleven guests attended—Mrs. Dillard Wales, Mrs. Walter Olson, Mrs. Albert Schiessl, Mrs. James Larsen, Mrs. Harry Albin, Mrs. Dale Ray, Mrs. Eugene Lester, Mrs. Edwin C. Clasen, Mrs. Frank Read and daughter, Ardythe, and Mrs. Ernest Duncan.

The ladies enjoyed the social hour in playing bingo and a kitchen ware set was awarded to Mrs. Jim Larsen. The gifts the guest of honor received were numerous and of a large variety.

A luncheon concluded the afternoon gathering.

From Friday's Daily—

Another Bridge Hostess—
Mrs. Roy Knorr, Mrs. Emil Wurl, and Miss Laura Melsinger won the awards at the bridge party given by the latter at the home of Mrs. Orville Kintz last evening. Reservations for two tables were made.

Foursome Dinner Party—

A foursome chicken-dinner party was served in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christwiser at the E. J. Ferrie home Thursday afternoon. Although suffering painfully from rheumatism, Mrs. Ferrie served as a cheerful hostess.

Aileen Lowson Has Birthday—

Sixteen close friends and classmates of Aileen Lowson, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James Lowson, helped her celebrate her seventh birthday Thursday afternoon. The party was given at the First Methodist church parsonage following the children's educational period. The guests played games and later were served a birthday luncheon by Mrs. Lowson, who was assisted by another daughter, Ruth.

Guild Members Meet—

The young ladies of the Needlework Guild were entertained at the A. R. Johnson home, when Miss Juanita Johnson entertained.

Pinochle Hostess—

Guests at Mary Holy's pinochle party last evening were Mrs. I. L. Koelan and Miss Eleanor O'Brien. Guests comprised two tables and Marie Horn and Eleanor O'Brien won prizes.

Bridge Hostess—

Mrs. Henry Goos entertained at two tables of bridge Thursday afternoon, and Mesdames Roy Knorr and Henry Schneider were guests. Card honors went to Miss Minnie Guthmann and Mrs. Frank Cummins.

Hold Dinner-Dance—

The Young Republican club of Cass county had a very pleasant social evening at the Hotel Plattsburgh Thursday, the event being a dinner dance. After the delicious dinner the members of the group, some twenty-five in number, spent the evening in dancing. The club had as guests of the dinner Attorney General Walter R. Johnson and William A. Metzger, non-partisan candidate for the state legislature.

Honored at Shower—

Mrs. Edna Hansen was honored at a miscellaneous shower Thursday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Perry Minnlear. The afternoon was spent in playing games and contests. Those winning prizes were: Mrs. Walter Steinkamp, Mrs. Frank Cheval, Mrs. V. E. Handley, Mrs. Jack Reno and Mrs. Doran Bowman of Union. At the close of the afternoon the bride was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts in a large jack-o'-lantern made of crepe paper. There were fifty guests present. Hostesses were Mrs. C. O. Carlburg, Mrs. Otto Pitz and Mrs. Perry Minnlear.

Indian Summer Party—

Eldora Shellenbarger entertained a group of close associates—most of them her campfire club members—at an Indian Summer party between the hours of 5 and 8 p. m. Thursday. Each guest arrived at the Shellenbarger home costumed in a fashion pertaining to Indian summer. A prize for the outstanding costume was given, and Margaret Heineman was the lucky winner.

The dining table at which the guests and Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt were seated was elaborately arranged in the fall colors. Indian teepees comprised the favors, real leaves were used for place cards, and an Indian scene surrounded by leaves centered the table.

To Attend Football Game—

The football game at Lincoln between the Cornhuskers and Indiana tomorrow will be attended by a large number of Plattsmouth's population. Among the persons who plan to attend are:

Mrs. J. A. Donelan will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Karl Brown of Papillion to the game. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knorr plan to meet their son, Bill and daughter, Jean at the game, and all four plan to return home together. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burdick will attend; Superintendent and Mrs. Lowell S. Devoe and daughter, Marjorie will also meet their son, Stephen and take in the game. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt also plan to be among the attendants. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. John Sattler, Jr. to the game will be Mrs. H. L. Becker of Peoria, Illinois, John Toman, Edward Gradoville and son, Edward, Jr. are another of the group who have reservations.

Another group planning to "yell" for the Nebraska team will be Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thimgan and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider.

From Saturday's Daily—

Rev. Lowson Surprised—
A group of very close friends of Rev. and Mrs. James C. Lowson surprised them last evening, when they arrived at the Methodist church parsonage and helped Rev. Lowson celebrate his birthday. Over twenty were served the birthday luncheon following the social hours. The Methodist church minister was presented with a gift as a token of heartfelt congratulations from the group in attendance.

Garnette Clair Married—

Announcement was made in this city today of the recent marriage of Miss Garnette Clair to Mr. Glen W. Coble. The young people were married in Lincoln on Saturday, October 5, and are now making their home in Whitman, Nebraska.

Mrs. Coble, who was a grade-school teacher, taught a number of years in Plattsmouth. At the Central building she taught fourth-grade pupils two years, and taught at the Wintersteen Hill school.

Entertains Inkler's Club—

Mrs. Raymond Larson served as hostess to the Inkler's Card club members this week. The setting for the party was at the Carr apartment, where the guests comprised two tables. A special guest was Mrs. John Hatt. Card honors went to Mrs. Emmons Ptak and Mrs. Fred Lugsch. The luncheon was served at the Carr delicatessen and luncheonette immediately following the card-playing.

Club Hostess Thursday—

At the Carr apartment Thursday afternoon Mrs. Henry Starkjohn entertained at two tables of bridge. Among her guests was included Mrs. George Swatek of Lincoln. First prize went to the Lincoln guest and second prize went to Mrs. Cyril Kalina. Mrs. John Hadraba was awarded the Ace of Spades gift. Mrs. Carr and her assistants served the ladies of the club a luncheon in the main dining room of the building.

Celebrate Birthdays—

Four years ago this month four Plattsmouth mothers were made happy because each gave birth to a daughter. On October 1 Anita Spidell was born to Mr. and Mrs. Faye Spidell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strough's daughter was born on October 6; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hula became the parents of a daughter on October 11, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill's little girl was born on October 19—all in 1936. All were born almost a week apart.

The mothers all took notice of the incident and gathered together each year following the daughters' birth, when a mother and her daughter entertained the remaining group. The last of these to entertain was Mrs. Anton Hula, who served as hostess at a birthday party for her daughter, Joan and the other group Friday afternoon.

Guests at the party were Mrs. Faye Spidell and daughter, Anita, Mrs. Ralph Hill and daughter, Jackie Lu, Mrs. Josephine Strough and daughter, Shirley Mae, and Miss Anna Jirousek.

Party for Miss Hallahan—
In courtesy to Miss Margaret Hallahan, who has been a house guest at the John Cloidt home this week, Miss Minnie Guthmann and Mrs. Cloidt tendered the San Diego, California visitor a party at the latter's home, 1311 Main street Friday evening. Guests at the Cloidt home numbered eighteen—Mesdames Frank Bestor, Edgar Creamer, Ruth Koukal, William Swatek, Elmer Webb, Anna Zitka, John Hadraba, Elizabeth Melsinger, Charles Petersen, Cyril Kalina, Fred Rea, Edward Kelly, Frank Mullen, L. S. Pucelik, Misses Eleanor O'Brien, Genevieve Whelan, Mrs. Albert Ulrich, Plattsmouth, and Miss Margaret Hayes, Rulo, Nebraska.

The two hostesses entertained their guests at five tables at cards—pinochle and bridge. Card prizes were awarded to Mrs. Koukal for her high score in pinochle, and Mrs. Bestor for her high score in bridge. A guest prize was given to the honored guest.

The ladies enjoyed the luncheon, which was served by the hostesses, very much.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES

Judge W. W. Wilson was here Wednesday to hold a session of the district court and taking up several matters demanding the attention of the court.

In the case of Ethel Shropshire vs. Ross Shropshire, a decree of divorce was granted the plaintiff from the defendant.

In the case of Herman Wegener vs. Sophia Mann, the court confirmed the referee's sale.

In the case of Philpot vs. Cook, the demurrer of the defendant was overruled by the court.

ATTEND FOOTBALL GAME

From Saturday's Daily—
This morning Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen and Mary Rosencrans departed for Lincoln where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pollock Parmele and family, later attending the football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pickens were also at Lincoln this afternoon to see the Hoosiers and Nebraska clash in one of the best intersectional contests of the day.

GOES TO VETERANS' HOSPITAL

Two of the Plattsmouth war veterans, Clifford D. Shaffer and Seybert Little, are now at the Veterans' hospital at Lincoln for treatment. Both have been in poor health and Wednesday Mr. Shaffer developed a case that required that he be taken at once to Lincoln for hospitalization.

RIVERVIEW CLUB

Mrs. Harrison Gayer entertained the Riverview club at her country home with Mrs. Helen Ganaway as co-hostess.

Most members were present and several visitors were also present.

Our meeting opened by reading the collect in union. Roll was called, discussion was had for making a quilt top and it was decided that one would be made. We all sang "Happy Birthday" to our hostess, Mrs. Gayer, who had the day before this meeting celebrated her birthday.

After the business meeting we turned the remainder of the time over to Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, afternoon program leader. Mrs. Gayer had a very interesting subject on trees and pictures of them with a contest to see who knew their trees best and the winner was Mrs. Georgia Creamer and a tie of three for being less informed on trees.

Cards were played during the remainder of the time. A very delicious lunch was served by our hostess, Mrs. Gayer and Mrs. Ganaway.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Slagle and Mrs. Velma Kuhns will be the associate hostess on Nov. 12.
