From Thursday's Daily—
Columbus Discovered America—
 Christopher Columbus sailed across the ocean and discovered America on October 12, 1492, and on October 12, 1940 (448 years later), over thirty young people rode over the Cass county highway in two racks filled with straw and discovered they were the recipients of a good time that evening. Such was the straw-riding party and scavenger hunt given by the hostess, Miss Mildred Engelkemier and hosts, Elmer, Clarence and Forrest Engelkemier at the Henry Engelkemier home near Murray. Henry Vinduska, Joe Puls, and Marian Baker were awarded prizes in the hunt.

Before "Grandfather Clock" struck 12 the guests were served a luncheon.

Local People Return from a Southern Trip

City Attorney and Mrs. J. H. Davis and Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson Have Delightful Time.

Friday afternoon City Attorney and Mrs. J. H. Davis and Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson returned home from a most pleasant motor trip that carried them as far south as the Gulf of Mexico.

On their way to the south they motored through Missouri and Arkansas, the way lying through the Ozarks, now beautiful in the touch of autumn colors.

Reaching Baton Rouge, they enjoyed a visit with relatives and had the opportunity of visiting the state capitol which was erected under the regime of the late Huey Long, also the great Standard Oil refinery, one of the largest in the world.

In New Orleans the party enjoyed a guided tour of the old French quarter, one of the picturesque places in the southland, as well as the modern city.

On their swing through Mississippi, Alabama, and Florida they had the opportunity of seeing two of the great crops of the south, sugar cane and cotton, passing great fields of cotton where colored pickers were gathering the crop at the time, also visiting cotton gins and seeing the cotton baled and ready for the market.

Going north through Tennessee and Kentucky they also found many tobacco farms, another of the great staple crops of the south.

The going was excellent and the fall weather found ideal to witness the full beauty of the hills and mountain sections of that part of the south.
