

GAGGED AND SHOT

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 12 (UP)—Firemen who rushed into a home to put out a fire today discovered a spiritualist mother and her eight-year-old son shot to death. The mother had been gagged.

The victims were Mrs. Alma Katzenmiller, 36, and her son, Noel, 8. The coroner said both appeared to have been killed by a shotgun.

Police believe the slayer might have attempted to destroy evidence of his crime by fire. Peter Katzenmiller, the husband with whom Mrs. Katzenmiller conducted spiritualist seances for pay, was not located immediately. Police records showed he was given a dismissal in 1937 and last year on charges by his wife and son, Peter Junior, that he had pointed a gun at them.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

A COLLEGE GRAD SELLS SERVICE—We service-station men like the ladies—and it is not for pecuniary reasons alone. They are without doubt the most considerate and the pleasantest of all our customers. To have their tires checked in a driving rainstorm would never enter their heads; often they apologize for getting gas when it's cold and rainy. They really appreciate what we do for them; they make us want to do it again.—R. S. Francis, Jr., in the Rotarian Magazine.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

THIS "ROLLING HOME" BUSINESS: The development of trailer travel is nothing more than a latter-day form of an instinct that has actuated mankind for thousands of years, the impulse to migrate, change its scenic background, and try to fit itself into new and strange environments. It is also a curious illustration of the fluid state of all old established standards, folkways, and habits.—Ernest Elmo Calkins in the Rotarian Magazine.

SALINE TREASURER ARRESTED

CRETE, Neb., Nov. 11 (UP)—Saline County Attorney Emil Eret said today that George Shestak, county treasurer since 1933, was being held in jail on embezzlement charges.

Eret announced a private auditing service, making its annual check, had discovered shortages of an undetermined amount and that he had filed charges in county court. Shestak surrendered voluntarily.

Delicious home made Mince Meat (made by ladies of St. Mary's Guild) available again this year for early delivery. Leave orders at the Journal office or Bates Book Store.

ROTARIANS ENJOY TRAVELOGUE

Tuesday at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club the members had a very pleasant treat afforded them in the showing of motion pictures by E. J. Weyrich, whose skill and artistic appreciation in photography has brought him a state-wide reputation. Mr. Weyrich showed colored pictures of his past summer motor trip through the west and southwest. The scenes were varied and in the coloring gave the audience a fuller appreciation of the beauty of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and Bryce Canyon. Mr. Weyrich had visited also the famous Yosemite national park where the wonderful scenery and famous falls have made it a world known spot. Mr. James G. Mauzy was the leader of the afternoon and presented the guest of honor with his very much appreciated pictures.
