

Damage Suit is Given to Jury in District Court

Members of Jury Receive Issues in Case on Wednesday Afternoon at 5 O'Clock.

From Thursday's Daily—The jury in the Laune case returned its verdict at 2 p. m. this afternoon which was sealed and will be opened by Judge Wilson at the convening of court Tuesday.

The damage suit of Charles B. Laune of Ashland against John Finkle of Weeping Water and A. O. Moore of Ashland, was submitted to the jury at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening and who deliberated on the case since that time.

The case is the outgrowth of an auto accident four miles north of Murdock on August 6, 1939 when a car driven by Mr. Finkle coming north from Weeping Water and a car driven by Mr. Moore, going west on the Louisville-Greenwood road, collided at the intersection.

The car driven by Mr. Moore was from the Laune Chevrolet Co., of Ashland of which the plaintiff is the owner.

The plaintiff seeks to recover the cost to the car in damages as the result of the accident.

RECOGNIZES LOCAL PLAYER

Gregg McBride, veteran sports writer of Lincoln, who made a bad pick of the winner in the Plattsmouth-Nebraska City football game last Friday, placed one of the local boys on his week's outstanding player list. This was James Yelick, whose smashing attacks in the Nebraska City game proved one of the big features.

TO VISIT SISTER

Robert Traudt departed Friday afternoon for Sioux City, Iowa, where he will visit his sister, Joan, who is a patient at one of the hospitals in the Iowa city. He expects to return Sunday and resume his school work.
