Christmas night shortly after 9 o'clock an auto crash at Avery hill, south of Omaha, terminated a pleasant holiday visit for Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Vallery of this city and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Matschullat of Lincoln.

Mr. Vallery is at the St. Joseph hospital where his wife is also being cared for. He is suffering a severe gash over the right eye, a double fracture of the right arm, a small fracture of the left arm, and may have suffered possible internal injuries as he is still only partially rational.

Mrs. Vallery has a severe cut over the right eye as well as a bad cut on the right arm and also scalp injuries.

The condition of Mr. and Mrs. Vallery was reported this noon by the United Press as "fairly good."

Mr. and Mrs. Matschullat are at the Nicholas Senn hospital, Mrs. Matschullat suffering severe scalp wounds and cuts. Mr. Matschullat seems the least injured of the party of four although badly bruised and shaken up in the crash.

Mrs. Noxon was riding in the car driven by Eugene Gardner of Omaha, who had with him his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Noxon.

The accident occurred, it is claimed as the Vallery party was returning from Omaha, Mr. Matschullat driving. They came up the hill as the Gardner car approached from the south on the west side of the road. Seeing the approaching car Mr. Matschullat was unable owing to a large snow bank to get onto the shoulder and sought to avoid an accident by swinging to the east side of the road. Mr. Gardner also swung his car to the east side, they crashing headon.

Mayor and Mrs. Arnold Lillie received a call from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Engeling, from San Francisco where Harvey is now stationed with the U. S. navy. It was some time before the identification of the members of the party was learned and Glen Vallery, brother of Frank, hastened to Omaha to find them at that time in what seemed a very critical condition.

Glen and Charles Vallery were at Omaha this morning to visit the brother and report that the condition of Mr. Vallery will not permit setting the arm at this time.
