nephew, Francis Libershal, lieutenant of the U. S. Engineers who has been here for the holidays. In addition to the guest of honor the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Libershal, Theodore and Mary Irene.

Hold Week-End Party

Attorney and Mrs. William A. Robertson and family have had a busy week-end entertaining guests.

Saturday evening the Robertsons entertained at dinner Miss Betty Rohrbaugh and Jack Rohrbaugh, Lincoln, guests of Miss Rachel Robertson. Following the dinner party, the Rohrbaughs and Rachel attended the Yale Ball at the Blackstone Hotel in Omaha. The ball is an annual social event given by the Omaha alumni and students of Yale.

Sunday Betty, Rachel and Jack were dinner guests of George Grimes, Omaha. Mr. Grimes' son is a student at Yale.

Late Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphey and daughter, Vesta Lee with Miss Jessie Robertson returned to Lincoln after spending the holidays with relatives.

An over-night guest at the Robertson home was Lieutenant John Diekerson of Fort Ord, California. Lieutenant Diekerson was en route to California after spending the holiday season at St. Paul, Minnesota, with his parents.

From Tuesday's Daily—

First Wedding in Church—
When Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sullivan were married in Los Angeles, California, Thursday, December 26, they had the distinction of being the first couple to be married in the newly-built Immaculate Heart of Mary church in that city. The first mass was celebrated in that church Christmas day. Mrs. Sullivan was the former Anita Koehnke. Mrs. George Koehnke is expected to return to Nebraska the middle of January. Relatives revealed she may come to Plattsmouth for a visit.

Twins Honored Monday

Monday afternoon Dian and Dena Reichstadt were honor guests at a birthday party given for them by their mother, Mrs. Dan Reichstadt. Fourteen guests were present. Games were played in which Joan Hall was winner. The twins received many lovely gifts from their little friends. Birthday cake and ice cream were served.

Announce Engagement

A surprise was given Miss Elaine Handley at her home Monday afternoon, when a group of girls who were former neighbors and childhood playmates tendered her a china shower, honoring her approaching marriage to Hugh Stander, Jr.

The afternoon was spent informally at games and reminiscences. After the serving of delicious refreshments, having given Elaine much "good advice," the girls departed wishing her happiness and success in her new home.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Guests at Hudson Home—
Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson and family had as guests at dinner today City Attorney and Mrs. J. Howard Davis and family.

Entertains at Carrs

Mrs. Robert Cappell entertained her club—the Inklers—at the Pete Carr apartment yesterday afternoon. Guests formed two tables of bridge. Mrs. Henry Starkjohn was high scorer, and Mrs. Fred Lugsch was runnerup.

Carrs Entertain at Foursome

In addition to the annual New Year's eve dance, sponsored by Plattsmouth firemen, individual and group parties took place last evening. Among the group entertainers were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carr, who hosted Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Yelick at a watch-night party. Games were played and a luncheon served.

DEATH OF MRS. PETER JANDA

From Monday's Daily—
Mrs. Peter Janda, 62, of Wilber, died last evening at 9:30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Swoboda, in the west part of the city. She had been in failing health for the past two years, a sufferer from chronic lymphatic leucemia, a rare blood disease.

Mrs. Janda came here in November to visit with the daughter and family and to be close to Omaha where she had been taking treatments.

The deceased lady had been a life-long resident of Nebraska and was one of the well known and highly respected residents of the Wilber community. The body was taken last night to the old home community to await the arrangements for the funeral, the last rites being probably Wednesday or Thursday, depending on the arrival of relatives from distant points.

Mrs. Janda is survived by the husband; three sons, Joseph and Fred of Wilber, Bill, a member of the U. S. coast guard stationed on the east coast; two daughters, Mrs. Olga Hynek of Wilber and Mrs. Louis Swoboda of this city.

NO DANCE AT EAGLES HALL THIS SATURDAY

In courtesy to the Holy Rosary sponsored dance to be held at the American Legion building Saturday night (now being advertised in the Journal), the regular Saturday night dance at the Eagles hall will not be held this week. These dances, with the Rhythm Aces, local orchestra, have been gaining in popularity each week and will be continued regularly after this week.

Their ad will be back in the Journal again next week.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pace over the county will be pleased to learn that Mr. Pace is reported as being somewhat improved following a slight stroke suffered recently. He is now able to be up and around the home and it is hoped may soon be restored to his normal health.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES

Judge W. W. Wilson was here Monday for a short session of the district court and at which he entered a decree in the tax foreclosure case of the City of Plattsmouth vs. John Flynn Co., et al, with the exception of one defendant, Margaret Bauer.

Decree of divorce was also granted Henrietta M. Bishop from John S. Bishop and the prayer of the petition for the restoration of the maiden name of the plaintiff was granted by the court.

RECEIVE PLEASANT NEWS

Monday afternoon Mayor and Mrs. Arnold Little received a message from their son, Harvey Eggeing at San Francisco, announcing that an eight pound, six ounce son had arrived at the Eggeing home to join the family circle. This was a very pleasant message and brought a great deal of happiness to all of the family. This is the first child in the Eggeing family.
