

BASKETBALL STATISTICS

Although statistics are available for only one game in regard to the accuracy of the Blue Devils' shooting from the court, the North High game gives a fairly accurate percentage of shots made and missed.

Table with columns SA, SG, PCT for players: Davis, Noble, Yelick, Martin, Larson, Shiffer, Hilt.

In the three games thus far this season the Blue Devils have made a fairly bright record. Following is a summary of the free throws made and missed.

Table with columns FT, Good, PCT for players: Yelick, Larson, Davis, Shiffer, Martin, Noble, Hilt.

By adding the two the Platters have had 95 shots and have made 88 of them for a 40 per cent average.

Statistics by Bernard Ulrich and Leo Allen.

SOCIAL CIRCLE MEETS

The December meeting of the Lewiston Social Circle was held at the home of Mrs. George Thompson.

A roast chicken dinner for the club members and their families was enjoyed at noon.

December birthdays honored were those of Mrs. Eva Becker, Mrs. S. Y. Smith, Miss Bertha Nickles and Mrs. Ben Albin.

Mrs. Will Minford the group chairman was present and spoke briefly to the club members.

The January meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Ezra Albin.

Club Reporter

PINOCHLE TOURNAMENT

An exceptionally large crowd was present at the pinochle tournament last evening, and guests numbered seven tables.

Hot dogs and coffee were served. The tourney was staged at the Recreation Center, where each Thursday evening pinochle is played.

The highest scorers in each division were Mrs. Frank Konfrst, who won on her score of 5820, and Harry Plybon, who scored 5660.

Numbered among the newcomers last evening were Myrtle Brzozdine, Frank Kalasek, Ira Clinkenbeard and Harry Plybon.

PUBLIC SALE

Having decided to quit farming, I will sell at Public Auction on our farm 5 1/2 miles northwest of Nehawka; 5 1/2 miles east of Weeping Water, 6 miles west and 2 1/2 miles south of Murray, on—

FRIDAY, JAN. 10

Starting at 10:00 with Luncheon on Grounds

17 Head of Cattle

Good young Guernseys—Six milch cows, six heifers, three to freshen soon; three steers, bull and calf.

Nine Head of Hogs

Eight Hampshire brood sows, 275-lb. avg. wt., to farrow in April. One Duroc Jersey boar, wt. 225 lbs.

Farm Machinery, etc.

A most complete line of good farm equipment, including J. D. tractor, 12 tons good alfalfa hay in barn. Six hog houses; 45-bu. self feeder; brooder house; new electric brooder stove. Full set blacksmith tools.

Terms of Sale

$10 and under, cash. Six months on amounts over $10 on bankable note drawing 8% interest from date of sale. Settle before removing goods!

HENRY J. THIELE

SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily— Entertained at Dinner— New Year's day Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen enjoyed a very delightful New Year's dinner at the Jacob's cafe.

From Friday's Daily— To Leave Sunday— Mrs. August Wahl and three children, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drucker, plan to leave for their Eustis, Nebraska home Sunday.

Watch-Night Party— One of the largest watch-night parties Tuesday evening was the one that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rhoades and family entertained at.

The Rhoades' guests that evening were Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Lester and daughter, Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Finnefrock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly and family, Emma and Mary Mendenhall, Eva Nell Mendenhall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lushinsky, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chandler and son, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson and family, Mrs. Gertrude Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reno and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Worthan.

SOCIAL CIRCLE MEETS

From Saturday's Daily— Mrs. Minnie to Arrive— Expected to arrive with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Minnie tomorrow is Mrs. Harley Minnie, who intends to spend two weeks with home folks.

Visitor to Leave— Miss Janet Tighe of Omaha, who has been visiting the past week at the home of Irene LaHoda, will depart Sunday for her home so she can resume her studies Monday at Tech high school.

Hostess at Pinochle— Members of the Bi-Monthly pinochle club met at the James Holy home this week, where they were entertained by Miss Mary Holy.

MEETING IN LINCOLN SUNDAY

From Saturday's Daily— Elmer Webb goes to Lincoln tomorrow morning for an all day session of the Legislative committee of the League of Nebraska Municipalities, of which he is chairman.

Legislative bills which the League is interested in having passed this year have all been drafted by George Mann, legislative bill drafter, and are to be studied for final approval, as well as plans made for securing active support for the measures by the more than 400 member cities and villages.

The bills are drafted to conform with instructions given the Legislative committee at the Scottsbluff convention of the League held in October, and contain provisions which the member cities believe will make for better local government, being largely amendments to existing laws.

From Saturday's Daily— This morning William Sidwall, retired Burlington veteran, was in the city to renew acquaintances among the old time friends who are still residents of this community.

RAILROAD VETERAN HERE

From Saturday's Daily— This morning William Sidwall, retired Burlington veteran, was in the city to renew acquaintances among the old time friends who are still residents of this community.

RIGHTLY or WRONGLY

Nowadays, a good appearance implies success and ability. Ownership of a good looking suit—far from being a luxury—is a business and social necessity. We are selling—

SUITS

Tailored Specially for You $22.95 and Up

Ready Mades - $15 Up

WESCOTT'S

CHURCH WOMEN MEET

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

During the business session the announcement was made of a missionary tea for the last of January and a colonial tea to be given by the Naomi circle during the week of Washington's birthday.

Mrs. T. B. Farmer, Mrs. L. S. Devoe and Mrs. Ed Thimgan were elected to missionary offices.

Two visitors, and prospective members, were introduced to the society. Mrs. C. M. Bull, whose husband is with the telephone company and Mrs. H. G. Frey, whose husband is a Burlington employee at the local depot.

Mrs. Edgar Glaze had charge of the devotions and the very interesting missionary lesson was given by Mrs. Don Seiver, the topic being "Home Missionary Work in Regard to Health."

The lesson was followed by a social hour with refreshments served by the following members of the Gleaners circle: Mrs. James Mauzy, Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom, Mrs. A. H. Duxbury, Mrs. Beverly Sutton, Mrs. T. B. Farmer, Mrs. Robert Mann, Mrs. Jennie Whalen, Mrs. Agnes Moore, Mrs. Stella Persinger, Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. W. Senf.

CHANGE DATE OF HOLDING CO. ASSESSORS' CONVENTION

W. H. Puls, secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska County Assessors Association, was in Lincoln this week on business connected with the making of final arrangements for holding the annual convention.

Originally set for January 17 and 18, the date of the meeting has been changed to Wednesday and Thursday, February 19 and 20. A resolution adopted at last year's meeting at Fairbury provides that conventions be held in Lincoln each year in the future.

Mr. Puls is also a member of the association's Legislative committee now busy with the preparation of bills to be sponsored by the association at the forthcoming session of the legislature. The committee is to meet next week and Mr. Puls will be back in Lincoln for that meeting.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

From Thursday's Daily— Mrs. R. A. Bates this afternoon received the sad message announcing the death of an aunt, Miss Mary Lotz, 83, at the family home at Lockport, Illinois.

BOOKS FOR SCHOOL LIBRARY

The response to the call for books for the Plattsmouth school library has brought a very good response for which Superintendent L. S. Devoe and his assistants are very appreciative and can still use any donation made of books for this very worthy cause.

SHOWS SIGNS OF RECOVERY

Hubert Lee, 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cappen, Weeping Water, has shown satisfactory improvement within the last twenty-four hours. The little one was taken ill the day after Christmas, an illness that developed into pneumonia.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to the many good friends and neighbors our heartfelt appreciation of the many thoughtful and comforting expressions of sympathy in the death of our beloved husband and father— Mrs. C. J. Melsinger and Albert.

EXTENDS APPRECIATION

Joseph M. Sedlak, who returned from the Clarkson hospital, wishes to thank all of his friends and co-workers who sent him beautiful remembrances or visited him during his hospitalization period in Omaha.

HEARS FROM OLD FRIENDS

Miss Anna Heisel of this city has received cards from a number of old friends of many years standing which will be interesting to many of the older residents who will recall the parties well.

Miss Iva Treshman of Camas, Washington, writes that her sister, Miss Emma Treshman, a teacher in the Plattsmouth seventh and eighth grades schools some thirty-five years ago, has passed away. Miss Treshman died about a year ago but this is the first opportunity the sister had of reaching any of the old Cass county friends.

Mrs. Emma Wright Dean, who was a guest here of Miss Heisel several times is now at Bellflower, Calif., where she is ill with the flu at the home of a sister, Mrs. Sally Thomas. She sends regards from the old time friends.

HOLD IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

The New Year's eve services at the First Methodist church in this city proved most impressive and a striking farewell to the old and welcome to the New Year. The services opened at 11 o'clock in the evening by an organ prelude by E. H. Westcott, organist, the church being lighted with candles that lent a soft and restful atmosphere to the scene, the soft music of the organ lulling the worshippers to restful meditation as the service proceeded.

REUNION OF BROTHERS

For the first time in 27 years the Mrasek brothers—Frank, Jim, and Joe of Nebraska, and John of Oklahoma, were able to be together. The happy reunion took place this week at Pocosset, Oklahoma, where the Nebraskans were guests of John Mrasek. However, their visit was very brief, and they returned yesterday.

APPEALS CASE

In the office of the clerk of the district court an appeal has been filed from the justice court at Louisville. The case is entitled the State of Nebraska ex rel Village of Louisville vs. John Shogren. The defendant was charged with disturbing the peace and was found guilty by the Louisville court. Attorney C. S. Wortman of Ashland appears in the action as the attorney for the defendant while the Village of Louisville is represented by Attorney George Mann of Lincoln.

BIRTH OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Henry, who reside on the residence property on West Oak street formerly occupied by Fred Prohaska, were made happy Monday, December 30, when a 7 1/4-pound boy was born at their home. The parents have named the infant Larry Lee. Larry Lee is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Austin of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henry, Sr. of this city. Mrs. Henry was the former Margaret Austin.

VISITING IN CHICAGO

Arthur Salerno is now enjoying a visit with his sister, Mrs. Joseph Serra and her family, and with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Warthen in Chicago. Mr. Warthen is a brother of Mrs. Salerno. The local man left last week for Chicago, where he also underwent medical treatment. Chicago is the old home of the Salerno family.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

Rev. J. C. Lawson and wife were at Ceresco, Nebraska, today where Rev. Lawson was called to perform the funeral services for an old friend and former parishioner, Mrs. Gross. Rev. Lawson was pastor of the Methodist church at Ceresco for a number of years prior to coming to Plattsmouth.

LEAVE FOR THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Jacobs and daughter, Peggy, of Paxton, who have been here for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobs, departed New Year's for their home after the Christmas holiday.

VISITING IN THE CITY

Charles Farris, who has been located at Lincoln, is here for a visit with his brother, Walter Farris and the many old time friends.

NEW YEAR WEDDINGS

Judge A. H. Duxbury fittingly started the year 1941 by having the opportunity of joining the lives and hearts of two young couples.

The wedding of Marvin A. Barrling of Fremont and Marie Doris Laudenklos of Dodge, took place at the office of the judge in the court house Wednesday morning. County Treasurer John E. Turner and County Commissioner George L. Farley were pressed into service as the witnesses.

Later New Year's day at the Duxbury home occurred the marriage of Richard Warnke and Anna Mae Yanney, both of Omaha. They were accompanied by Abe and Nora Yanney who served as attendants.

WORD OF APPRECIATION

It is with the deepest gratitude that we extend to our numerous friends and neighbors who expressed their profound sympathy by the kind acts shown us at the time of our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and devoted father. The many floral tributes attested the high regard shown our loved one. Above all, we thank all who sent personal calls, convalescing cards, or letters to him during his period in the hospital. To all, who in any way assisted at the time of the funeral, we wish to express our heartfelt appreciation.—Mrs. Philip Keil and Children.

REUNION OF BROTHERS

For the first time in 27 years the Mrasek brothers—Frank, Jim, and Joe of Nebraska, and John of Oklahoma, were able to be together. The happy reunion took place this week at Pocosset, Oklahoma, where the Nebraskans were guests of John Mrasek. However, their visit was very brief, and they returned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mrasek of Grant, Nebraska, went on to Omaha to visit their daughter, Helen and her husband.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

From Thursday's Daily— Mrs. R. A. Bates this afternoon received the sad message announcing the death of an aunt, Miss Mary Lotz, 83, at the family home at Lockport, Illinois.

BOOKS FOR SCHOOL LIBRARY

The response to the call for books for the Plattsmouth school library has brought a very good response for which Superintendent L. S. Devoe and his assistants are very appreciative and can still use any donation made of books for this very worthy cause.

SHOWS SIGNS OF RECOVERY

Hubert Lee, 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cappen, Weeping Water, has shown satisfactory improvement within the last twenty-four hours. The little one was taken ill the day after Christmas, an illness that developed into pneumonia.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to the many good friends and neighbors our heartfelt appreciation of the many thoughtful and comforting expressions of sympathy in the death of our beloved husband and father— Mrs. C. J. Melsinger and Albert.

EXTENDS APPRECIATION

Joseph M. Sedlak, who returned from the Clarkson hospital, wishes to thank all of his friends and co-workers who sent him beautiful remembrances or visited him during his hospitalization period in Omaha.

HEARS FROM OLD FRIENDS

Miss Anna Heisel of this city has received cards from a number of old friends of many years standing which will be interesting to many of the older residents who will recall the parties well.

HOLD IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

The New Year's eve services at the First Methodist church in this city proved most impressive and a striking farewell to the old and welcome to the New Year. The services opened at 11 o'clock in the evening by an organ prelude by E. H. Westcott, organist, the church being lighted with candles that lent a soft and restful atmosphere to the scene, the soft music of the organ lulling the worshippers to restful meditation as the service proceeded.

REUNION OF BROTHERS

For the first time in 27 years the Mrasek brothers—Frank, Jim, and Joe of Nebraska, and John of Oklahoma, were able to be together. The happy reunion took place this week at Pocosset, Oklahoma, where the Nebraskans were guests of John Mrasek. However, their visit was very brief, and they returned yesterday.

HERE FROM LINCOLN

From Friday's Daily— This morning James F. Begley and Charles Ledwith, young Lincoln attorneys were in the city to look after some business in the county court. The two young men, graduates of the law college of the University of Nebraska, have been very successful in their law partnership in Lincoln.

Mr. Begley is the son of the late Judge James T. Begley, judge of the second district for twenty years, while Mr. Ledwith is a son of the late John Ledwith, one of the best known members of the Nebraska bar.

TO ATTEND MEETING

From Saturday's Daily— County Judge A. H. Duxbury will be at Fremont Sunday to attend a meeting of the state relief commission of the American Legion of Nebraska, of which he is a member this year. This will be a meeting of the entire committee, the first held since Judge Duxbury was selected as a member. It is held at Fremont, home of Dr. Buchanan, medical representative on the commission.

From Thursday's Daily— Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles, Miss Bertha Nickles and Alf Nickles of Murray, were dinner guests of Miss Etta and Lee Nickles New Year's day.

BURLINGTON VETERAN DIES

From Saturday's Daily— Niles P. Ackerman, 98, veteran Burlington railroad master mechanic, died today at the home of a son in Lincoln. He came to the United States from Sweden in 1870 and moved to Plattsmouth in 1886. Eight years later he went to Lincoln. Three sons and a brother survive.

LAND, FARM and RANCH BARGAINS

FOR SALE Poland China boar, Richard Holtenbeck, Weeping Water. j6-2tv

FURS & HIDES

Skunks, large prime. $1.50 Musk Rats, lge. prime. $1.15 Civets, large prime. .40c Raccoons, large prime. $3.50 Mink, large prime. $8.00 Medium Size Mink. $6.00 Small Size Mink. $4.00 We will Buy your Unskinned Furs. Hides, 40 lbs. down. .8c Hides over 40 lbs., lb. .6c Horse Hides, good cond. .54

WE NEED A LOT OF POULTRY Watch for Prices Each Week Truck Service

A. R. CASE

Phone 199 or 268-J

SOENNICHSEN'S BLACK & WHITE

WE DELIVER — PHONE 23 AND 24

P-G Soap advertisement with image of soap box and price 25c.

Yellowstone Hominy advertisement, 3 for 25c.

Lady Luck Matches advertisement, 6 Box Carton 15c.

Red Acorn Sweet Corn advertisement, 3 for 23c.

Peanut Butter advertisement, 2-lb. Jar 23c.

First Prize Peas advertisement, 3 for 29c.

COMET California Sardines advertisement, 10c.

Economy Wide Mouth Jars advertisement, 79c.

Pancake Flour advertisement, 10c.

Tomato Catsup advertisement, 19c.

QUEEN'S CHOICE FLOUR, 48-lb. bag. $1.09

YELLOW or WHITE Pop Corn advertisement, 25c.

SUN-RAY GRAHAM CRACKERS, 2-lb. caddy. 17c.

Wisc. Brick or American Cheese advertisement, 49c.

FRANKS Kraut advertisement, 25c.

GOLDEN Syrup advertisement, 45c.

SHURFINE Beverages advertisement, 25c.

DELICIOUS APPLES, home grown, bushel. $1.25

ORANGES, large Navels, 200 size, doz. 35c

FLORIDA JUICE ORANGES, per dozen. 23c

GRAPEFRUIT, Seedless, 112 size, doz. 29c

SWEET POTATOES, Porto Rican, 4 lbs. 25c

JONATHAN APPLES, 5-lb. bag. 25c

FIRST PRIZE Pork and Beans advertisement, 10c.

SHURFINE Pancake Flour advertisement, 5c.

PORK STEAK, per lb. 17 1/2c

PURE LARD, 1-lb. cartons. 4 for 29c