

Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Sr., Dies Early This Morning

Pioneer Lady Called to Final Rest at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha—Ill for Many Years.

The community of Murray was profoundly shocked today when it learned of the death of Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Sr., who has been a patient at the Clarkson hospital over two weeks. The deceased lady underwent a major gall stone operation a week ago and at her advanced age of 71 she was able to withstand the operation as well as possible. She was, seemingly, showing signs of recovery but a sudden relapse late Wednesday afternoon proved fatal to her and she entered into rest at 3:20 a. m. today.

Elizabeth Crabtree was born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Crabtree on February 9, 1874 in Osceola, Missouri. It was in Missouri that the deceased spent her younger days.

Miss Crabtree was united in marriage to J. A. Wilson and the couple spent the major portion of their years in farming. They farmed in the vicinity of Rock Bluff for over thirty years. Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wilson retired and settled in Murray, where Mrs. Wilson spent her declining years. Grandma Wilson entered the hospital on her seventy-first birthday. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wilson had the pleasure of celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

In addition to her husband, she leaves to mourn her death eleven children: Albert of Wahoo; David of Sedgwick, Kansas; Kie, Craig, Colorado; Wayne, Osceola, Missouri; Levi of Dunbar, Nebraska; F. T. Wilson of Murray; Mrs. Rena Crump, Selling, Oklahoma; Mrs. Russell Wilson, Omaha; Mrs. Walter Johnson, Omaha; Mrs. Herbert Beins, Sedgwick, Kansas; and Mrs. Roy Beins, Mynard, Nebraska. One daughter preceded the mother in death. Also surviving are 45 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; two brothers, John Crabtree of Colorado, and Philip Crabtree of California; two sisters who reside in Missouri.

Mrs. Wilson's body was brought to Plattsmouth and is at the Sattler funeral home.

VISIT AT RED CLOUD

Mrs. John Jordan and little niece, Carol Ann Sylvester, have returned from Red Cloud, Nebraska, where they visited with Mrs. John Boom, mother of Mrs. Jordan. They accompanied Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Redden, of Omaha, the latter also a daughter of Mrs. Boom.

Ralph Barthold of Crystal Lake, at Sioux City, Nebr., has been visiting at the P. J. Wheeler home the past week. Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Halter of Lincoln were also visitors for the day Thursday. Mr. Barthold was looking after his property interests while here.

Death of Edward P. Lutz, Long Time Resident

After Long Period of Failing Health Former Merchant and Community Leader Passes Away.

Wednesday evening Edward P. Lutz, 72, a resident of this city for the past fifty-seven years, died at his home in this after a long period of failing health. In the past few months he has been very serious but his case became critical yesterday morning and he failed to rally, passing away a few hours later.

Edward P. Lutz was born in St. Jacob, Illinois, December 18, 1868, spending his boyhood in that section of Illinois where his parents had been early day residents. In 1882 the eldest brother, George, came west to locate in Plattsmouth and in May 1883 Mr. Lutz with his brother, John came to this city and have since made their home.

On November 25, 1892, Mr. Lutz and Miss Kate Zuckeweller were married here in Plattsmouth and established their home.

For more than thirty years Mr. Lutz was engaged in the retail business here, having as his partner for years his brother-in-law, Henry Zuckeweller, they operating one of the largest business houses in the city.

For a period of more than fifteen years Mr. Lutz served as the secretary of the Plattsmouth Loan & Building association, making a fine record of efficiency and financial management in the institution. He later was compelled by his failing health to give up this position and has since led a retired life.

Mr. Lutz was one of the leaders in the community life, both in business and civic affairs, serving for several years as a member of the city council from the third ward.

There is surviving his passing the widow, two sons, Edward J. Lutz of this city and Paul I. Lutz, of Chicago, and three grandchildren. There also survives four brothers and one sister, George Lutz, Louisville, John and Mike Lutz of this city, Fred Lutz of Murray and Mrs. Paul Roesner, of Lincoln.

Mr. Lutz was a member of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. The body is at the Sattler funeral home where services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. S. G. Schick, of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church officiating. The interment will be at Oak Hill cemetery.

HEAR MAGAZINE REVIEW

The Rotary club Tuesday held their luncheon at the dining room of the Hotel Plattsmouth. Dr. R. P. Westover was the leader and the members had a very complete review of the "Rotarian," official magazine, by Searl S. Davis.

A number of visiting Rotarians were also attending the pleasant luncheon.

More Than Just Quality and Style in BETTY ROSE

You Too will Get the Same Satisfaction from Wearing Them the Stage-Screen Stars Do.

Glamorous women choose Betty Rose Coats and Suits.

Glamorous and scintillating Yvette the beautiful young singing star of the NBC network and the Camel Caravan program, whose voice and blonde loveliness are taking the country by storm, says: "I want clothes with a dramatic quality that give me a 'LIFT' when I put them on. That is the main reason I have chosen several Betty Rose coats and suits for my new spring wardrobe."

You, too, will enjoy the same satisfaction as Yvette when you wear a new Betty Rose coat or suit priced at $12.95 to $19.75. There's more than just style and quality—a certain something that distinguishes them as the aristocrats of all moderate priced garments.

New spring Gage hats priced at $2.95 and up, will also enhance your appearance. We also have a nice selection of hats at $1 and $1.95.

New spring Munsing hosiery with those extra miles of wear, priced at 79c and $1 a pair. Munsing Nylon hosiery at $1.35 a pair.
