

Alvo News

Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook were shopping in Lincoln Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dimmitt and son spent Sunday in Greenwood.

The neighbors gave the Hoffman family a farewell last week before they left.

The Will Hoffman family moved onto a farm near Homer the first of the week.

Ronald Hall and family were callers at the Jess Williams home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mabel Winn and son Ralph and Mrs. Ruth Taylor were Lincoln visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Leo Peters and son Floyd and Mrs. Lincoln Dimmitt were in Alvo Sunday evening.

Elmer Rosenow received a shipment of garden seeds this week. It will soon be garden time.

William Mickle was able to be out Thursday and made a trip to Elmwood Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lennox Williams and Rose Lee spent Saturday night in Omaha, returning home Sunday morning.

Mrs. William Hoffman was honored with a handkerchief shower at the project club meeting Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bornemeier and son Dick and Mrs. Davis were Sunday dinner guests at the A. B. Stroemer home.

J. B. Elliott, Jr., local hardware and implement dealer, received a carload of farm machinery during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otley of Waverly helped Mr. and Mrs. Morrell Robertson move onto the Lefe Mullen farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Olson of Havelock, who are moving to California, spent Sunday at the Jesse Williams home.

Mrs. E. P. Tinker spent the week end at home. Mrs. Tinker will leave Monday evening with a shipment of new spring dresses.

Earl Hermance went to Lincoln Wednesday, where he entered a Lincoln hospital to undergo an operation on one of his eyes.

Miss Margaret Stroemer was home over the week end. Her roommate was also a guest at the Stroemer home over the week end.

Mrs. John Schlooff entertained guests on Wednesday evening at a Weavever aluminum supper. Mrs. Schlooff has had four such suppers.

Darlene Clark, who had to undergo an appendectomy a couple of weeks ago, is home from the hospital and is reported to be feeling much better.

The neighbors gave Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hollenbeck a shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Mabel Winn. The couple were married just recently.

Mrs. Davis, at the local Rock Island station, reports receipt of several shipments of clover seed for farmers in this vicinity. A sign that spring is just around the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Heier are moving this week to a farm near Murdock. Mr. Heier is formerly of the Murdock vicinity, so this move is a sort of homecoming to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klyver of Lincoln were helping Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Heiers to get ready to move. The little granddaughter returned home with them to stay until the Heiers family gets moved.

Several of the neighbors helped Will Hoffman move. Those who went to Homer were Paul B. and Junior Johnson, Elmer Klyver, Jesse Williams and Henry Dietmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Althouse and children took Mrs. Hoffman and small children to Homer.

Little Janette Rueter was in Elmwood Thursday afternoon to have the wounds dressed that she received last week when bitten by a dog. She has a very bad cheek yet. We reported last week that Janette was able to return to school, but the child is not able to go back to school yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Edwards entertained a group of young folks at their home at a bridge party Wednesday evening. There were several tables of bridge. The entire group had a most joyous time and a very delicious lunch was served as a climax to the evening's events.

Pass Through Alvo

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyatt, formerly of Alvo passed through on the Rock Island en route to Ada, Minnesota, where a brother of Mrs. Wyatt is very ill following an operation. Mrs. Wyatt's mother, Mrs. Hastings, is also ill and will undergo an operation on one of her eyes.

Mrs. Davis had the opportunity of seeing and talking to Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt.

Mrs. Hammel was hostess to the church ladies society meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mesdames Marion Kellogg, Stella Weichel, John Weichel and Sherell Fifer assisted.

Mrs. Nickel was in charge of the devotions.

Mrs. Velde presided over the business meeting. The carpet committee reported that they had purchased the carpet for the church.

Hostesses served gingerbread and coffee.

Celebrate 30th Anniversary

Friends and relatives from Omaha, Weeping Water and Avoca as well as locally came to the Simon Rehmeier home Sunday with well-filled baskets for a bounteous meal in celebration of the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Rehmeier. About 85 guests were present to offer best wishes and to enjoy a pleasant day.

Friends of this well known couple join in offering their best wishes.

Teachers Re-Elected

The entire teaching staff of the Alvo schools were re-elected at a recent meeting of the board.

Passes Away

The little twelve-year-old son of

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown of Wabash and nephew of Mrs. A. B. Stroemer, passed away Tuesday night at an Omaha hospital.

Mr. Brown called Mr. Stroemer from Lincoln Monday night to come to Lincoln and take him to Omaha, which he did, reaching there about 2:30 in the morning. Mr. Brown had understood the boy was being taken to a Lincoln hospital and so hastened there, only to learn his mistake.

The boy was very ill and nothing could be done for him at the hospital, his death following some hours later.

Flower Club to Re-Open

Tuesday the Flower club members will re-open their club for the year with a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hansen.

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS

From Saturday's Daily—

March 8, 1941 marks the ninth anniversary of the Coryell Station in Plattsmouth and this morning Ernest C. Giles received congratulatory messages and a colorful bouquet of snapdragons from the Coryell organization, including L. L. Coryell, Sr., and L. L. Coryell, Jr., of Lincoln.

MANLEY

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. John Carper were over to Plattsmouth and Omaha looking after some business matters one day last week.

The board of directors of the Manley Grain Co. were holding their regular monthly meeting, considering only routine business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coon of Loup City arrived in Manley late last week and have been visiting at the home of George Coon, Fred and Grover Laurensen.

Mrs. Wm. Lau, living over west of town, who has not been in the best of health for some time past was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln where she is under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gade and their daughter Deloras of Ashland were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Gade, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flaischmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Salland were visiting for over the week-end at their parents' home, enjoying a very fine visit and returning in time to take up their school work last Monday morning.

Miss Leona Darveaux, housekeeper at the St. Patrick's parish house, has been taking a vacation of two weeks and was guest of relatives at Rulo, where she makes her home and returned to Manley last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bogenrief were presented by the stork with a very fine baby girl, with the mother and little lady doing very nicely. This makes P. A. Mockenhaupt grandfather and C. E. Mockenhaupt a great-grandfather.

John Arras and wife, Louis Hite and wife, both families making their home in Lincoln, were visiting in Manley for over the week-end and were guests at the home of C. E. Mockenhaupt and daughter Sue, Mrs. Arras is sister of Mrs. Mockenhaupt, which added much to the pleasure of the very delightful visit.

Celebrated 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Carper, both pioneers of Cass county, who make their home on a farm a short distance from Manley, where John F. Carper, their son, now resides, were married sixty years ago last Sunday. They with the family and intimate friends ate a delicious dinner at the Carper home in Lincoln. Those there assisted in making the day one of pleasure for the two Nebraskans who have struck many a hard blow to make Cass county and Nebraska the veritable garden it is. Among those who were over to Lincoln to extend greetings, congratulations and best wishes were their son John F. Carper and family and many friends from the Manley community.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my thanks for the many kindnesses extended during the illness and at the time of the passing of my beloved husband, David D. Brann; to those who sang at the funeral and to Rev. W. D. Lenker for the comforting words; to all who in any way sought to contribute to his comfort and to soften our sorrow.—Mrs. Minnie Brann.

FROM SAND TO SNOW FOR A SOCIALITE—Sun Valley, Idaho—Mrs. John Jacob Astor, the former Ellen Tuck French, of New York and Newport, usually found disporting on the sands of Bailey's Beach, is caught by the cameraman ascending one of the ski lifts at Sun Valley where she is vacationing.

HOLLYWOOD CELEBRITIES—New York City (Left) Gene Tierney as she arrived from the coast. The socialite film star came East to secure the consent of her father to her marriage to Robert Sterling, film actor.

(Right) Los Angeles—Rita Hayworth, actress, wearing a hat of gray felt with a dark box stitch trimmed with green, red, and yellow coque feathers. The bag has matching feathers.

NEW IDEAS FROM THE WEST—Los Angeles—(1) For patio wear Connie Foster uses authentic Indian symbols hand painted in red and black on a dress of natural colored fabric. The blouse is turquoise blue, the girdle hand-wrought silver. (2) Edward Stevenson brings South American flavor to the riding habit. The gaucho trousers are navy wool, the shirt canary yellow, and the suede bolero kelly green accented with silver buttons. (3) Edith Head copies the tied-at-the-waist shirt of little Mexican boys for this spectator sports dress. It is of white Bianchini suede crepe with a hand-knitted pull-on of rayon blue wool.

MODERN CARRIE NATIONS—Fort Madison, Ia.—A hatchet and hammer raid on approximately 400 nite clubs near here have earned a mother and daughter the distinctive title as "Carrie Nation" of the modern times. Mrs. W. L. Browning and her twice divorced daughter, Mary Critchfield, entered various nite clubs and swung their hammers and hatchets with vigor on dice tables, glass bars and offending slot machines.

DESSERT THAT'S SURE TO HIT THE SPOT—The hostess or housewife who is seeking a delicious new dessert that is not rich or creamy would do well to take a leaf out of Pepsi-Cola's new free Hospitality Recipe Booklet, and serve the pineapple sherbet illustrated above. To serve six use one twelve-ounce bottle cola beverage, 2 cups shredded pineapple, 1 cup water, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1 tablespoon gelatin dissolved in 1/2 cup cold water, 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Boil sugar and water five minutes, add dissolved gelatin and other ingredients. Cool. Pour into freezing tray.

DESIGN FOR A BUFFET SUPPER—Bottles of oil, vinegar and condiment are set to the left for making a dressing when the big center bowl is filled with salad greens. Even the duraglas coffee container with flat screw top is handy for making coffee at the end of the meal. The setting is cool and festive. Modern American crystal in the boldly fluted Concord pattern sparkles in the light of the tall white candles. The roses and paper napkins are pink accents against the patterned green and white cloth. Only the meat, bread and salad greens need to be brought out when company comes.

ARMY CHAPLAINS CONFER—Fort Dix, N. J.—Ministers of three faiths, serving as U. S. Army Chaplains here, confer on religious and morale services for soldiers at the big cantonment in New Jersey. They are: (L. to R.) Chaplain John Duignan, Catholic Minister, who is head chaplain at the Post; Chaplain Buttenbaum, Protestant Minister, and Chaplain Bernard Segal, who is Jewish chaplain at the Fort.

OFF THE RECORD—New York City—(Left) Fiorello H. LaGuardia, versatile Mayor, in the role of a grocer during the performance of a skit written by His Honor designed to help educate New York grocers in the operation of the Federal food stamp plan. (Right) But is all in fun as Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward, retiring commandant of the Third Naval District, playing the part of a shipwrecked sailor, is inducted into the Circus Saints and Sinners Club of America during luncheon ceremonies.

STAR ATHLETE OF 1940—New York City—J. Gregory Rice shown with the James E. Sullivan Memorial Trophy after it was presented to him as the outstanding amateur athlete of 1940.
