From Monday's Daily—
Guests at Broken Bow—
 Mrs. Arthur Kopp and her father-in-law, August Kopp were at Broken Bow, Nebraska as week-end guests of Ralph and Helen Maddox, the latter a daughter of Mr. Kopp.

Party Marks Birthdays—
 Saturday, March 8 was Mrs. Timus Pombert's birthday and Friday, March 21 Mr. Bomberg will pass his natal day. A surprise birthday party was tendered them at their home Saturday evening. Friends from Iowa, Omaha, and this community attended. Many of their relatives were present. The group enjoyed the evening in dancing. A popular Omaha accordion player who plays for occasions here frequently is Bill Bartek, who assisted in providing good music for the event. The birthday cake was arranged for by Mrs. Frank Sweeney. At a late hour a luncheon was served to the forty or more in attendance.

Coffee Attracts Visitors—
 Mesdames Timothy Kohoutek, Ross Bourne, Loren Todd, Ernest Janda and John Kubicka comprised committee members who served a coffee luncheon in the basement of the Holy Rosary church Sunday afternoon between 3 and 6 o'clock. The ladies prepared a lunch appropriate for the Lenten season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fogerty and family of Lincoln, and Mrs. John Pokorny and son of Omaha were listed among the out-of-town guests at the affair. With the weather against them, the ladies netted a reasonable amount for the Altar Society's treasury.

Announce Marriage—
 Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Grosshans announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Elaine to John Vincent Stapp of Nebraska City, son of Mr. John L. Stapp of Platte City, Mo., on March 15, 1941, at the Melrose Methodist church in Kansas City, Missouri. Rev. M. L. Koch officiated at the ceremony.

The couple was attended by Mary Virginia Lewis and Elbert Ross of Platte City, Missouri.
 They will be at home to their friends at 115 1st Ave., Nebraska City.

Girls Guild Meets—
 The first meeting of the Girls Guild of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church which was organized February 28, 1941 under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Horskak, was held Sunday, March 16 at Rev. Samuel G. Schick's home, Miss Betty Jean Schick being hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Marguerite McClintock. Owing to the absence of the devotional leader, Phyllis Kaffenberger, the devotionals were omitted. However, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

The minutes of the organization meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Nola Meisinger. The treasurer, Mary Jean Tschirren had no report. Roll call was responded to by eight members who told of a good deed performed during the past month. Three new members were added to the roll—Norma Jean Siemers, Marlon Baker, and Rose Mary Steppat.

During the meeting it was decided to learn about the migrants. Pictures were brought by the girls who later classified them under different headings such as pet scenes, health, etc. They are to be sent to the migrant children for use in scrap-books.

The music leader, Miss Betty Jean Schick, gave the history of two songs. They were "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." They were sung at an appropriate time. Rose Mary Steppat and Kathryn Tschirren, in charge of the entertainment, conducted the game "Truth or Consequences." In this Rose Marie Wiebusch won the prize. A game to guess the titles of songs was enjoyed and Betty Jean Schick was the winner. Visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Otto Pitz, president of the Women's Guild, Vivian Warner, Rose Marie Wiebusch.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Imogene Schick.

The meetings are to be held once a month and the girls plan to follow a Golden Deed plan. Vice president of the group is Virginia Hoffacker. The next meeting is to be held at Rose Mary Steppat's home on April 20. New members are always welcome to make the organization grow and be a success.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Many Attend Dance—

The young people of the community last evening enjoyed one of the most pleasant social events of the season, the St. Patrick's day dance at the American Legion building.

In decorations and favors the St. Patrick's theme was carried out and added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The Ken Miller radio orchestra furnished the music for the dance and with Bob Burch, KOIL radio singer as the vocalist for the band. The dance was sponsored by Ralph Timm and Muriel Jones who provided a most pleasant evening for the dancing public.

Club Members Sew—

Not only do quilting bees or feather-stripping parties dominate in Plattsmouth but sewing clubs are popular at this time.

Among the many sewing clubs included the Stitch-It, a guild which has been in existence since January, 1941. Most of the members of this club live in the south part of the city. Mrs. L. E. Lancaster entertained the guild at the H. O. Dooley home last week. Guests and members present were Mesdames Carl Dooley, Fred Hafke, Max Bowman, Olive Skinner, Vera Harter, Earl Shanholtz, Kenneth Ferris, H. O. Dooley, Ray Baird, Arabelle Rouse, Miss Lunetta Falk, Miss Jean Johnson and the hostess, Mrs. L. E. Lancaster. Mrs. Walter Steinkamp, who is a member, was unable to be present. The club membership is twelve.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Degree of Honor Meets—

The members of the Degree of Honor were very pleasantly entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Ofe, on North 4th street, who was assisted in entertaining and serving by her daughter, Mrs. Alice Hafke. The greater part of the time was spent in the business session that was followed by a social hour of entertainment much enjoyed by the ladies.

Dainty refreshments were served at an appropriate hour to complete a most enjoyable time.

Entertains Circle Members—

With so many activities scheduled for this week and next Naomi Circle members of the Methodist church found it necessary to conduct their March meeting Tuesday, March 18. Mrs. Joseph E. Wiles was hostess and her associates were Mrs. Howard Wiles, Mrs. J. A. Capwell, Mrs. Blanche Price, and Mrs. Fred Armstrong. For the program Miss Elizabeth Wiles sang the musical reading "You'll Get Heaps o' Lickins." Ruth Westover was the accompanist. Miss Ruth Westover entertained the ladies with a piano solo. Two Bible quizzes were conducted. Tentative plans to conclude the circle year with a covered dish luncheon in June were discussed.

Vivian Warner Surprised—

Although her birthday occurred Monday, March 17, Miss Vivian Warner was more than surprised last evening when a group of girls motored to the Wallace Warner farm home with the intention of celebrating Vivian's birthday. Guests at the post-birthday party were Alice Jayne Grosshans, Wilma Swatek, Aileen Reed, Mary Helen Dill, Dorothy Jean Turner, Jacquelyn Wetenkamp, Shirley Jacobs, Shirley Mason, Mary Alice Ault, Rose Mary Steppat, Helen Hatt, Betty Mae Hutchinson, Rose Janca, Helen Warner and Helen Smetana. The young ladies played games and Mary Dill, Shirley Jacobs, Dorothy Turner, and "Jackie" Wetenkamp won prizes. The honored guest's aunt, Mrs. Leonard Terryberry baked the birthday cake. Vivian's birthday falls on St. Patrick's day and Monday she was twenty years old. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

St. Paul's Circles Meet—

The three circles which comprise the Women's Guild of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church were entertained at the homes of their respective members last evening.

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. Samuel G. Schick, Mrs. Schick and Mrs. Elsie McClintock were hostesses to members of Circle 1. Sixteen members and one guest attended. Circle 1 has taken up the study of the "Bible," and members first read the Bible, then discuss it. A luncheon followed the study; green and white served as the color scheme.

Mesdames Ed Barker, Fred Tschirren, and Carl Hoffacker entertained eleven members and one guest in the parlors of the church. The topic for Mrs. Gilbert Storm's devotionals was "Heights." Final plans for the social circle has arranged for were discussed. Miss Kathryn Tschirren was a guest.

THERE ARE REASONS WHY HINKY-DINKY'S PRICES ARE ALWAYS LOW.....

1. HINKY-DINKY buys direct from producers and manufacturers, eliminating "in-between" profits. The savings thus realized are passed on to you in the form of lower prices.
2. HINKY-DINKY'S large volume of business makes possible a minimum profit on each item. You will find that our prices on every item are low—every day in the week.
3. It is not our policy to sell merchandise below cost. However, we will meet such prices if advertised by others.

And remember, every item purchased at HINKY-DINKY must satisfy you 100 per cent or your money will be cheerfully refunded. Our customers can save without taking chances on unknown brands of doubtful quality. - - We feature advertised brands - - brands you know.
