From Monday's Daily—

Mrs. Crosser Visits Here—
Mrs. Fannie Crosser, who is now residing in Omaha, was in Platts-mouth Easter Sunday and visited with friends.

Guests at Ferrie Home—

Easter Sunday luncheon and dinner guests at the E. J. Ferrie home yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christ-wisser.

Bulls Have Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Loy and son, Donald and Mrs. Frank Curry of David City, Nebraska were Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bull and family. Mrs. Loy and Mrs. Curry are sister and mother respectively of Mrs. Bull. Accompanying the David City guests to Platts-mouth was Jo Ann Bull, who spent her vacation with relatives out there.

Spend Easter in Omaha—

Mr. and Mrs. William Swatek and daughter, Wilma, with Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson of this city, were guests Easter day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Spaustat and family in Omaha. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Swatek and Stephen, of Lincoln.

Joint Birthdays Celebrated—

Today was a memorable day for Mrs. Anna Lillie and her nephew, Chris Schlegel. Mrs. Lillie passed her eighty-third birthday while Mr. Schlegel was eighty years old. Both live together.

In courtesy to the guests of honor, a foursome dinner party was enjoyed at the noon hour today. Others present were Miss Marie E. Kaufmann and Mrs. Theodore Miller, nee Bertha Frey.

Guests at Wiles Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gopen, Mrs. Oscar D. Gopen and children, Richard and Lois Gopen, Platts-mouth; Mr. and Mrs. James Jean, Mrs. Maria Jean, Helene Gopen, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wiles, Murray, and Grace Louise and Stephen Wiles, who are home from the University of Nebraska for the Easter vacation, were dinner guests Easter Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles. The dinner was served at the Wiles' lovely country home. The remainder of the day was spent in visiting among the group.

Surprise for Mrs. Meisinger—

Sunday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Herman Meisinger and the event was made the occasion of a very pleasant dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard, parents of Mrs. Meisinger. The members of the family had attended the services at the Myrard U. B. church where Dennis Howard Meisinger had been baptized, the parents then going on to the Howard home. Here a group of the relatives to the number of thirty-five gathered to enjoy the occasion and to congratulate the guest of honor on her natal day.

Club Met Last Week—

Mrs. Clarence Cotner and Mrs. Louis Swoboda won the prizes at the party given by Mrs. Edgar Glaze recently when she entertained the Traveling Eight Card Club. Mrs. Wilma Aylor was a guest.

Robbins-Blookwaller Nuptials—

Miss Bernice Robbins of Ogallala, and Glenn Blookwaller of North Platte, were united in marriage last evening at Judge A. H. Duxbury's home. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Farmer. Mr. Blookwaller is Mrs. Farmer's brother.

Celebrated Anniversary—

Easter Sunday marked the fifty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Ramage, long time residents of the city and numbered among the highly honored residents of the community. The day was featured by a large family dinner served at the farm home of their son, Alvin Ramage and family south of this city. The marriage of Mr. Fred T. Ramage and Miss Alice Oliver occurred in this city on April 13, 1882.

at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oliver, who resided at that time in the brick residence at Fifth and Vine streets, where the postoffice is now located. Father H. B. Burgess, rector of the St. Luke's church performed the ceremony.

The members of the family present at the dinner party were: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meisinger, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yerck and daughter and Fred H. Ramage, of Seward, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Ramage and daughter, Mrs. Mollie and daughter, Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ramage and son, Robert, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Ramage.

Platts-mouth Teachers to Wed—

On Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brazda of West Point, Nebraska announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their only daughter, Miss Lorene Alice, to Leonard H. Flora, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Flora of Page, Nebraska. There will be an early June wedding at St. Mary's church in West Point.

The announcement came as a clever surprise to close friends gathered at the Brazda home to celebrate Miss Lorene's birthday which occurred on that day.

The announcement was very cleverly arranged, proving a real surprise to the party gathered for the birthday dinner. Just before the dinner the group was enjoying a radio program which was suddenly stopped while a recorded news bulletin was announced and played on the phonograph. This was the recording of the voices of Miss Brazda and Mr. Flora making the announcement of their forthcoming marriage. The record was arranged by John Paul of the Platts-mouth schools, who served as the announcer.

There were eighteen guests at the dinner and colored motion pictures were later taken of the group and the lovely birthday cake and table decorations.

Both are teachers in the Platts-mouth city schools. Miss Brazda is a graduate of St. Mary's college in Omaha and was formerly grade music supervisor at Bancroft, Nebraska. Mr. Flora is a graduate of Wayne Teachers college and is the high school music supervisor here.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Guests of Miss Wallengren—
Miss Virginia Beverley and her friend, Miss Betty Westberg, who are attending the University of Nebraska, were visitors in Platts-mouth during the Easter holidays. They were guests of Miss Hilda Wallengren, aunt of Miss Beverley. The girls left here today.

Bi-Monthly Pinochle Club—

Observance of Holy Week made necessary the postponement of the Bi-Monthly Pinochle Club party last Thursday. Instead the girls assembled at Mary Holy's home last evening and enjoyed nine games of cards before lunch was served. Mrs. Elmer Lohnes was a special guest. Helen Smetana and Mrs. Frances Horsak won the prizes.

Pennsylvanians Honored—

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom entertained a number of relatives at an Easter Sunday dinner at their large, lovely home on High School hill. The party was in the nature of a family reunion as Bert and Rudolph Jacobson of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania were honored guests. The Pennsylvanians are sons of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Jacobson, Louisville couple, and brothers of Mrs. Sundstrom. Bert and Rudolph came to Platts-mouth Friday from Rolla, Missouri and remained in Cass county over the Easter holidays. They left for the east today.

Other relatives at the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larson and son of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Yosta Davis and family of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Jacobson of Louisville.

Hold Birthday Dinner—

Mrs. Edith Hoback gave a very delightful birthday dinner at her home at Union in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Glen Hoback and Donald Becker. The dinner was very lovely and featured a birthday cake that had been prepared by Mrs. Henry H. Becker for the event. All joined in their best wishes for many more such happy events. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, Nehawka, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Becker, Donald Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoback, Oscar Hoback, Edith and Gale Hoback, Barbara and Donald Anderson.

City Attorney Addresses Society—

J. Howard Davis, city attorney, spoke before the women of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Monday afternoon, when the society was entertained at Mrs. C. C. Westcott's home. Mr. Davis addressed the ladies on the topic "Laws in Regard To The Liquor Traffic In Our City." A number of the members who attended were served a lunch following the afternoon meeting.

Junior Woman's Club—

A short declamatory program and a musical number made up the entertainment at the Junior Woman's club meeting last evening, which was held at the Hotel Platts-mouth. Misses Catherine Anthes and Elva Johnson were committee members. Participants in the program are students at the Platts-mouth high school.

"The Country Belle," a humorous reading, was given by Barbara Lamphear. Mayola McCarrall gave "The Successful Season" and Emma Reine Topfiff offered the reading "Bobby Shaftoe." To the accompaniment of Maxine Graves, Laverne Rice sang the solo number "The Big Bass Viol."

At the business meeting the forthcoming Junior Woman's club banquet was discussed. May 12 is the date set for the event. Mrs. Ronald Wherry of Tecumseh, will be a guest and initiation of new officers is to take place at that time.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Birthdays Celebrated—
In courtesy to Miss Darline Jensen, Omaha, whose 16th birthday occurred yesterday, and Frank Boetel, who will be 57 Friday, April 18, a large birthday party took place at the Claus Boetel home last evening. Besides the host and hostess twenty-seven filled the Boetel home, where an evening of enjoyment was spent.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. John Boetel, Mrs. Zelma Gochenour and two boys, Vernon and Geny, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hiner and son, Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore and children, Alma, Lucille, Sylvia and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adkins, Mrs. ozina Ripple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cheval and children, Delores and Frank E. Frank Boetel, Platts-mouth; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jensen and daughter, Darline, Mrs. Andrew Lovestead and Wilber Boetel of Omaha.

St. Paul's Circles Entertained—

Tuesday members of the three circles of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church assembled for their April meetings.

Mrs. Bernard Klingler and Mrs. Lorene Urish entertained fifteen members and one guest of Circle 1 at the former's home last evening. Mrs. Faye McClintock is the chairman and Mrs. Samuel G. Schick led the devotionals. Following the business meeting games were played.

Five guests—Mesdames Edward Dress, Ordell Hennings, Frank Parkening, John Meien and George Formoff—and nine members composed the crowd at the meeting of Circle 2, which took place at Mrs. Ed Tritsch's home at 2:30 p. m. Associate hostess was Mrs. Lester Meisinger. Mrs. Olga Storm's devotional topic was "Importance of Words." Following the business session the ladies played games and Mrs. Lena Tritsch and Mrs. Storm won the prizes.

At the home of Miss Sophia and Elizabeth Kraeger fourteen members of Circle 3 and a number of guests were entertained. Guests were Mrs.

John Glaze, Mrs. John Brookhouser, Mrs. C. C. Cotner, Mrs. Fred Kaffenberger, Mrs. James Holmes, Mrs. Carl Engelkemler, Mrs. Robert Fitch, Sr., Mrs. Oscar Gopen, Sr., Mrs. Hilda Coffman, Dicky Glaze, Marian Baker. Following the business session the jolly group enjoyed a Look and Learn program. Mrs. Otto Pitz was devotional leader. Associate hostess was Mrs. C. F. Glaze.

Navy Boy and Sister Honored—

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Winscot entertained a number of relatives at an Easter dinner at their home.

The dinner was in the nature of a family reunion, as Arley G. Griffin, C.C. Std. of the U. S. S. Sims and Mrs. John Moore of Tulsa, Okla., were here. The visitors are brother and sister of Mrs. Winscot, and son and daughter of Mrs. E. M. Griffin.

Arley has been visiting here 10 days, leaving for his duties Sunday night. Mrs. Moore remained until Tuesday. Other relatives at the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin and daughter of Union, the former being a brother of the visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schumacker and family of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McFarland of Union, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffin of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffin of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin of Platts-mouth, Mrs. Ella Arnold and children of this city.

Evening Trip—

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kruger invited a number of the friends to enjoy a late afternoon voyage down the Missouri river and return, a trip that all will long remember for the many attractive scenes along the great bluffs of the river, scenes that many of the group had never had the pleasure of seeing. The party embarked on "The Hoover," engaged in the river work at this point, for the trip down the river. The ladies of the party had provided the necessary items for a delicious luncheon which was served on the boat and the appetites whetted by the river breezes enjoyed very much the repeat. Those who enjoyed the trip were Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Soen-nichsen, Mary Rosencrans, Mrs. Everett Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ptak, Louis Lohnes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, the former engineer, Mr. and Mrs. Kruger, and Ralph Buchanan. The trip covered the distance to the site of old Rock Bluffs and return.

MANY ATTEND DANCE

Over one hundred couples were in attendance last night at the American Legion building to enjoy the music of the Rhythm Aces, local group whose gladsome melodies have pleased many large dancing groups. The dancing continued until late with the crowd remaining until the last to take full advantage of the first post-Easter dance. There were many here from Nebraska City as well as Sarpy county to join in the pleasant occasion. The orchestra hopes to have a number of engagements before the close of the school year.

HERE FROM LONG BEACH

From Tuesday's Daily—
Glenn Mullis, an old time Platts-mouth resident, now living at Long Beach, California, was here today for a short time. He came here to look into the matter of his birth certificate which was necessary to secure from family records and issued under the Nebraska law. Mr. Mullis is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Mullis, being born here and spent his younger years in the community. He has in recent years been making his home on the west coast.

HERE FROM KANSAS CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mason and son, Clarence, of Kansas City, Missouri, were here over Sunday. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bridgewater and Mrs. Maggie Mason, parents of Mr. and Mrs. Mason.

TO GIVE DANCE FRIDAY

The Monsignor M. A. Shine council of the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a post-Easter dance at the American Legion building on Friday evening. The dance will feature the music of Charles Kucera and his popular band.

SPENT EASTER AT SPENCER

Miss Margaret Bauer, school teacher, was in Spencer, Nebraska over the Easter holiday as guest of Mrs. Christine Loomis and Mrs. Dora Storjohan.
