Death of P. A. McCrary, an Old Time Resident

Dies at Home in South Part of City—Ill for One Week Altho in Poor Health for Some Time.

Patrick Alexander McCrary, 62, a resident of Plattsmouth since 1905, died Sunday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock, after a period of failing health, the last week of which has found his case very serious.

The deceased was born at Carbondale, Kansas, August 8, 1878, son of John and Bridget Ann McCrary. He spent his youth in the community of his birth and on May 1, 1897 was married to Erma V. Renner in Kansas.

He was the father of eight children, four of whom, Justus Floyd, Cecil Dale, James Loran and William Douglas, have preceded him in death.

Those who are surviving are John Allen, Houston, Texas; Artina Davis, Los Angeles; Merle D. Burbank, Calif. and Mrs. George Privitt of Bigelow, Missouri.

There were also three grandchildren. He was one of a family of eight children, three of whom are surviving, they being Mrs. Sarah Bull, Comanche, Oklahoma; Mrs. Jane Brammer of Arkansas City, Kansas and James McCrary of Plattsmouth.

Funeral of P. A. McCrary. The funeral services of Patrick Alexander McCrary were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets, a group of the friends who had known him for many years, gathering to pay their last tributes of respect.

Rev. H. D. Butts, of Bigelow, Missouri, a friend of the family of Mr. McCrary, conducted the religious services at the home and brought a message of consolation.

Frank A. Cloldt gave two numbers during the services, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Sometime We'll Understand." E. H. Wescott being the accompanist.

The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery and the pallbearers were selected from among the old neighbors, they comprising Charles Daniels, Albert Stokes, Floyd Woods, Clarence Akeson, Henry Klingner and Homer Sylvester.

RECOVER STOLEN BICYCLE

Tuesday Chief of Police Guy Long recovered a bicycle stolen from a local boy some time ago and which proved to have been taken by two other lads of the city.

The bicycle had been taken from the home of the owner and until a few days ago no trace was found of the wheel. It seems that the boys taking the bicycle had first intended just to go for a ride and later decided that they might dispose of the cycle.

Mrs. Wm. Holly is Laid to Rest Here Saturday

Services Conducted at Omaha Mortuary at 10 a. m. Saturday with Burial in Family Plot Here

Last rites for the late Mrs. Mary Holly, 70, wife of William Holly, were conducted at 10 a. m. Saturday morning, April 12 at the C. C. Haynes mortuary in Omaha.

A large group of the relatives and friends of the Holly family attended the services and many of them came to Plattsmouth for the burial service.

Rev. P. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Holy Angels church in Omaha, officiated at the prayer service and delivered the sermon. Holly Logsdon, grandson of the deceased, served as acolyte.

Pallbearers at the funeral were Joseph Novotny, Omaha, Harley and Joseph Buttery, Mike Wurga, Jack Soucie, Lincoln, and Raymond Nejedley, Creighton, Nebraska.

Obituary. Mary Nejedley, born on August 27, 1870, was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nejedley.

The deceased was born in Moravia, Czech-Slovakia and when she was about four or five years old she accompanied her parents, two sisters and a brother to America, where they desired to live the remaining days of their life.

The Nejedley family came to Nebraska and first settled in LaPlatte, where they lived only a short time. Later they came to Plattsmouth, where Mr. and Mrs. Nejedley resided until death.

It was on May 29, 1890 that Miss Mary Nejedley and William Holly were united in marriage. They were married in the St. John's Catholic church in Plattsmouth with Rev. John Carney, pastor, officiating.

For many years Mr. Holly was a clothier in this city, and was formerly a leading figure in the business life of the city. However, in 1922, the Hollies moved to Omaha, where they had since resided.

Mr. Holly was employed as night man in the Central high school and held this position for many years until his retirement a few months ago.

Five girls and one boy were born to Mr. and Mrs. Holly—Mary, who died in infancy, W. R. Holly, Plattsmouth, Miss Besse, Mrs. Mark Logsdon, Mrs. C. A. Young, Omaha, and Mrs. Melvin Davies, who is in California at this time.

In addition to their immediate family they reared Stanley (Nejedley) Holly, who was the son of Mrs. Holly's only brother. It was with their foster son that Mr. and Mrs. Holly had made their home.

Mrs. Holly had been in failing health for many years. Although she had not felt well during the last few days prior to her death, her condition was not considered serious.
