

Weeping Water

By Journal Field Representative

The patent siding that has been on the hamburger stand is being replaced with the good old fashioned wood siding.

Mrs. J. R. Shannon and Mrs. H. A. Millen left for Fremont Wednesday morning to attend the state P. E. O. convention.

Harry A. Williams of Elmwood was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday and enjoyed meeting with his many friends in this vicinity.

George Domingo, who has been confined to his home and bed for a number of weeks, suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is reported as improving.

Tony Sudduth was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday, where he was delivering produce and on his return brought back a load of poultry feeds and poultry appliances.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan have both been very poorly and confined to their home for a number of days during the past week, but of late have been showing some improvement.

Miss Rosemary Murphy arrived here from Evansville, Indiana, this week to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Murphy. Dr. Murphy is a medical officer at the C. C. Camp.

While working in the quarries near Weeping Water, Earl Cole sustained a severely sprained ankle, which has caused him to have to use a pair of crutches in order to get about.

Earl Oldham was in Omaha with a load of hogs and cattle for Marion Spangler and some produce for himself, and on his return brought back a load of feed for some of the farmers.

Will Poynter and Robert Doty, who left two weeks ago to see the world, went to Las Vegas, New Mexico, where they hoped to secure employment, but found nothing to do there and so returned home.

P. H. Miller, who has been feeling rather poorly, has been kept to his home during the past week on account of an affliction of one of his knees. He is only able to get about with great difficulty, but manages to keep going.

Elizabeth chapter O. E. S. Kensington was entertained Tuesday afternoon at Hotel Rest Raven dining room by Mrs. Clair Wolfe and Mrs. R. C. Peterson as hostesses. The afternoon was spent in a comfortable for the Masonic Children's home at Fremont.

Ellis LaRue and little daughter, Patty, were in Union for a visit with Mrs. Millie LaRue, mother of Ellis and grandmother of Pattie. Mrs. A. J. Mullman, wife of Dr. Mullman of Adel, Iowa, and a sister of Mr. LaRue, was also there for a visit at the home of the mother.

Water is being installed in the building east of the Cole garage, which has been purchased by Mrs. Henry Snell and is being transformed into a modern residence. Another room is being added for a kitchen. This will make the Snells a very convenient location, being only a few doors west of their produce station.

Mrs. A. H. Jones, who is Noble Grand of the Rebekah Assembly, and a large number of the members of the assembly were over to Elmwood last Wednesday, where they attended the district meeting of the Rebekahs. Aided by her drill team, Mrs. Jones put on the initiatory work, which was one of the features of the convention.

Eldora Avenue is a busy place these days, with workmen preparing the street for paving, building storm sewers, and in some places lowering the street. The surplus dirt is being hauled to the street which runs south past the Christian Science church and is being used to fill in that street, which is a much needed improvement.

Sigveid Jensen, owner of Riverside Gardens, is one of the busiest men in town these days, as everyone wants their spring shrubbery at the same time and some trees were winter killed and have to be replaced. Every one has watched closely to see whether their trees and shrubs were alright, or not, but most were found to have survived the sudden freeze of Armistice day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wiles, who are located at Amazonia, Mo., where they are engaged in conducting a stone quarry, learning of the illness of Mr. Wiles' sister, Miss Isabel Wiles, who is in a Lincoln hospital, hastened to the Nebraska capital city to see the sister, and after calling on her, came via Weeping Water to visit relatives here briefly before continuing on home Friday. Among those visited were William Spangler and wife, Troy Wiles and family and

Mrs. George Wiles, as well as a number of others.

Visited Friends Here

Mrs. A. H. Jones was a visitor in Lincoln at the home of her son, Clifton Jones and wife. On her return home she was accompanied by F. A. Robbins, of Chicago, brother of Mrs. Clifton Jones, who had been visiting in Lincoln and who remained here for a few days before continuing on to his home in the Windy city.

Death of Mrs. Harvey Browne

Mrs. Harvey Browne passed away at their home southwest of Louisville, last Sunday, after a short illness. Funeral services were held at the Weeping Water Christian church of which the deceased was a member, being conducted by Rev. F. H. Snow, the new pastor of the church, on Wednesday afternoon. Interment was in thine Avoca cemetery.

The Browne family resided at Avoca before moving to this vicinity, and only this last winter moved from here to the farm southwest of Louisville where her death occurred. In her passing, Mrs. Browne is survived by the husband, four daughters and three sons.

Last Meeting Until Fall

Mrs. S. Ray Smith was hostess to the last meeting of the Friendly Ladies for the Spring season. A very enjoyable time was had by all and a worth-while program rendered. The club will resume its regular meetings in September.

Sixtieth Anniversary Observed

The Girl Reserves are celebrating their sixtieth anniversary all over the United States this week and the Weeping Water chapter began the week by all attending church at the Congregational church Sunday morning in a body. Other activities are going on this week. The climax will be a "Silver Tea" to be held Saturday afternoon at the high school.

Mrs. George Wiles, as well as a number of others.

auditorium. Mrs. Harry Wheeler is their sponsor and Mrs. Clair Wolfe assistant sponsor.

Miss Isabel Wiles Home

Miss Isabel Wiles, who has been seriously ill at the Lincoln General hospital the past two weeks, has so far recovered that she was able to return home on Sunday, being accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. William Spangler, who went to Lincoln after her. Although considerably improved, she is still far from being strong and robust. Her many friends are hoping she may soon regain her health.

Kept Very Busy Now

Eugene Ludwick, who recently built a new blacksmith shop, had it about completed when the rush of spring work came and has been on the go long hours of the day ever since in order to keep up with his work. He is well located in his new building and has things arranged to turn out work promptly.

A Novel Clean Up Idea

Tuesday morning of this week, strangers coming into town from the north might have wondered at seeing a band of hobos busily at work at the curve of the road which leads down the hill. A closer inspection, though, would have revealed the fact that it was the members of the Weeping Water Garden Club, who had been invited to a hobo party at seven o'clock Tuesday morning and were advised to bring their garden tools with them. A bonfire was built and coffee was made, hobo style, breakfast was eaten and all went to work cleaning and planting.

In a short time much had been accomplished at that particular place and every one had a grand time while doing the work.

The Garden club will have their annual plant exchange Friday evening at the Legion Auxiliary Hall.

MURRAY

By Journal Field Representative

Mrs. Belle Frans of Union and her son, R. E. Frans, were visiting at the John Frans home Sunday.

Mrs. Dovey Asche is having the interior of her country home redecorated. Earl Merritt is doing the work.

Edward Lewis of Union and Frank Dugay of South Omaha were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt.

Harry M. Knabe and small son, John, were in Murray Monday, coming for some material to be used in the erection of a garage.

The Murray Social club met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Howard Jacobs, with a fine program, social hour and delicious luncheon.

Victor Wehrlein and family and Robert H. Bestor and family were at Syracuse last Sunday, where they guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Troop.

C. R. Troop of Plattsmouth was a visitor at the home of his brother, W. O. Troop, where he was assisting with the dipping of a herd of swine which they are feeding in partnership.

James Gruber, of the Murray lumber yard, assisted by John Frans, were building a hog house for the Glen Boedeker farm east of town which is managed by Frank Cottingham.

Anderson Lloyd departed for the west a few days ago and will make his home somewhere in Idaho, as he thinks he will like the country out there and has hopes of being able to secure employment.

Parker Chriswiser, who has been staying at Twin Falls, Idaho, the past few months, returned and has been visiting with his mother in Plattsmouth and his brother, Rae Chriswiser, southwest of Murray.

Everett Spangler, who is in charge of a government office at Webster City, Iowa, administering the farm program, was home over the week end, returning to his work in the Iowa city early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles were in Plattsmouth Sunday, taking dinner at the hotel there and calling on friends. As both work at the lumber yard office during the week, they aim to get away on Sundays and enjoy their meals out.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and little daughter were in Elmwood last Saturday, where they visited at the home of Mrs. L. A. Tyson, mother of Dr. Tyson. Also present was another son, Silas Tyson, who resides in Omaha, where he is employed as a bookkeeper, and who always visits the mother over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, of Elmwood, visited over the week end in Murray at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCulloch. They moved to Elmwood some time ago in order that Mr. Smith might take instruction in harness repair and shoe rebuilding work from Paul Hazen, who operated a shoe shop there. Now, Mr. Hazen has closed his place of business in Elmwood and moved to College View and the Smiths are anxious to move to the Lincoln suburb in town in order that he may continue his schooling in this trade, but so far have been unable to find a home there.

Surprise for Mother

Miss Dolly McCulloch gave a very pleasant surprise last Saturday in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Harry McCulloch. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wohlfarth, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gruber, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCulloch, Miss Dolly McCulloch and M. A. McCulloch.

Attended Funeral at O'Dell

Louis Fredrick and wife and Mrs. Fred L. Hill were at O'Dell Tuesday of this week, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Johanna Janseen Duis, mother of Mrs. Rev. A. Leutz. Mrs. Duis had passed away while visiting at the Leutz home in Cass county, the remains being taken back to her home at O'Dell for burial.

Home from the West

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burton, who have been visiting for some time at Santa Monica, in company with the parents of Mrs. Burton, arrived home the middle of last week and then departed for the northern portion of the state, where they visited with relatives for the remainder of last week and a number of days during this week.

Home from Omaha Sunday

Miss Bertha Nickles, who underwent an operation on one of her eyes, returned home Sunday from a two weeks' stay in an Omaha hospital and is much improved. Her brother, Alfred Nickles, has also been in Omaha receiving treatment, likewise returned home and is feeling much improved.

Many Pleased with Pictures

When the Murray State bank was host to its former clients recently, the women folks and others were not able to be present and see the farm movies, largely in color, taken on the different farms in this vicinity, and many requests were heard for a second showing of the pictures, which was arranged for last Saturday night and drew a very large crowd, all of whom appreciated the courtesy of the bank in being privileged to see the pictures.

Feeders' Day Saturday

Last Saturday was Feeders' Day in Murray and a large number of farmers were on hand to learn about the new methods of feeding live stock for greatest gain. John Campbell, of Chicago, a well known authority on farm management and livestock raising, was the principal speaker and gave some very interesting information. His address and those of other speakers were listened to with much interest.

Prof. W. W. Derrist of the Agricultural college at Lincoln also made a very able address on proteins and various combinations of feed.

Used Farm Machinery

A. L. Carper of the Murray Hardware has an ad in the Journal calling attention to used farm machinery and horses for sale. Read this ad, and call on Mr. Carper if in need of anything in this line.

New Residence Going Forward

Good progress is being made in the construction of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Morris, which is being built by Joseph Bauer, of Union. The Morris family are now making their home with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meader south of town, and will continue to reside there until their new home is completed and ready for occupancy.

Passes Another Mile Post

George Park reached his 75th birthday last Sunday, having been born on April 21, 1863, at Trenton, New Jersey, where he lived until he was five years old and then came to Iowa with his parents. He remained in Iowa until he came to Nebraska some forty years ago. All of this time has been spent in Cass county. It was here he was united in marriage to Miss Addie Wyley, and to this union there were born three children, two girls and a boy. The children, all of whom reside in Omaha, were home to assist in celebrating the occasion. They are Mrs. Herbert Kidwell, a nurse at Nicholas-Senn hospital, who was accompanied by her husband, Mrs. Dessen Dahl, whose husband is an officer in the army and stationed at St. Paul, Minn., assisting with the training of conscripts and was unable to be here with her, and the son, Carl Park.

A fine dinner was enjoyed and a very pleasant time had by all. Mr. Park is one of the best of citizens and has a large number of friends who will join in extending congratulations.

Celebrates Birthday

The family of N. C. Deles Dernier enjoyed a family gathering at his home in Murray Sunday, April 20th when they met to celebrate his birthday. A covered dish luncheon was served at one o'clock which everyone enjoyed to the utmost. The lovely birthday cake was baked by Margaret, Mr. Deles Dernier's youngest daughter.

The guests left late in the evening wishing him many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Armstrong, Gerald and Charles of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Woody White, Sandra Ann, and Miss Pearl Deles Dernier of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Applegate, Dixie Lee and Ricky, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Deles Dernier of Murray.

Christian Church Notes

C. A. Hunt, minister

There will be preaching next Sunday, April 27. You are invited to attend.

There were 69 in attendance at Sunday school last Sunday as compared with 103 on Easter.

The Sunday school sent a case of eggs to the Child Saving Institute at Easter time.

They have begun redecorating the church inside. Hope to be through by Sunday.

The Junior choir lead the music at Sunday school.

We're selling a lot of rubber stamps these days and the reason is the low prices. Get your stamps at the Journal office.

UNION ITEMS

By Journal Field Representative

Mrs. Marian Pendley arrived home from Lyman, Colorado, last Friday evening.

Frank Bauer and sister Miss Anna were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong.

Paul Applegate went to Murray Tuesday for the purpose of shearing a number of sheep in that vicinity.

Edward Henderson had the misfortune to cut the end joint from one of his fingers while cutting corn stalks.

W. H. Marks was looking after business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday, driving over to the county seat in his car.

James Dysart was at the lumber yard Monday making and painting screens for the house so as to be ahead of the flies.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Comer were in Weeping Water last Monday, where they visited friends and looked after business matters.

Mrs. Cora Hathaway, who has been ill at her home and confined to her bed for a number of days, is reported some better at this time.

Miss Opal Yonkers, clerk in the Union post office, visited friends in Nebraska City, Glenwood, Iowa and Council Bluffs over the week end.

Dewey True, who has been residing in town, moved last week to the Pull house in the country, where they will make their home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Comer were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snodgrass, where all enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner.

Miss Norma Yonkers was fourteen years old on Monday of this week, and was receiving the congratulations of her school mates and friends. She attends the Union schools.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McCarrill and Addie Amos were in Plattsmouth the greater part of last week, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCarrill.

Carl Cross was at the lumber yard to secure materials for the repairing of a wing to the driveway at his mother's garage which is being rented to Ernest Rath, and will be occupied soon.

While William Craig was at Rosale for a visit, his 80th birthday occurred and his many friends of Rosale and vicinity gave him a rousing birthday party on Friday of last week.

Little Lucille Clarence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clarence, was ten years old last Saturday and in honor of the occasion had a number of her young friends as guests at a birthday party.

Mrs. Emma Barritt has been ill at her home and her son, Dr. Barritt, who is located in Nebraska City, was calling on the mother a number of times. She is now reported as considerably improved.

Mrs. A. M. Hargus received a letter from her friend, Miss Gussie Robb, who is located on the west coast, telling of fine spring weather out there and that the flowers are now in full bloom.

Edward Lewis was visiting in Murray last Sunday and was called to Plattsmouth Monday to look after business matters. He has joined the Journal's family of readers by subscribing to the Semi-Weekly.

H. W. Griffin, who has been struggling with an attack of flu, was able to get out again last Saturday, but is looking pretty peaked. He was in Omaha Monday, but was just about worn out from the trip.

Mrs. Marjorie Wampole of Ellensburg, Washington, writes to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoback that they are enjoying spring in the northwest with a profusion of flowers and nice warm summer weather.

Mrs. John Erwin and Mrs. Winnie Crawford were hostesses to the members of the Methodist Ladies Aid last Friday afternoon. The ladies spent the time in quilting and also enjoyed a social hour, with a delicious luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters of Nebraska City entertained the following guests last Sunday at their home: Mrs. Henry Peters and daughters, Evelyn and Leatha, of Talmage; Mr. and Mrs. Theo Harms and son Teddy of Manly.

Mrs. A. L. Becker, Mrs. Henry H. Becker, Mrs. Glen Hoback and Mary Becker were visiting friends in Omaha Monday afternoon and evening. While Mary Becker was away, the bank was looked after by Mrs. Ora Guerra.

Mrs. Santa True, who has been in poor health the greater part of the winter, and has been kept to her home and bed most of the time, is being much better and was able to come to town for examination and to receive treatment.

A. L. Becker and Otto Ehlers, who have been feeding cattle, have their ready for market and last Sunday night, with the aid of H. H. Becker and Ray Becker began carting them to Omaha to the stock yards to have them on the market there Monday morning.

Grant Hackenberg, who is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rihn, has been having some trouble with one of his knees, which has been quite lame, but since the beginning of the week he has been showing improvement and is getting along much better.

Paul Davis, who is in the army and located at Camp Rosa Rublee, California, writes to friends in Union about camp life and saying he would prefer life on the farm, but is glad to do his part in the defense training program and that they are really getting intensive training.

Master Harold Gabelman, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gabelman, arrived at his birthday anniversary and was honor guest at a birthday party attended by some fourteen of his young friends. Games were played and refreshments were served. Best wishes were expressed to Harold for many more happy birthdays.

Getting Ready for Class Play

The members of the Senior class of the Union school are preparing for their class play which is to be given May 2nd. They are studying hard to learn their parts and holding frequent rehearsals. In addition to this, the Junior-Senior banquet is scheduled for May 9th, just a week later, and this is giving members of the Junior class plenty of work. It is hard to realize, but only about one more month of school remains.

Home Extension Club Meets

The Woman's Home Extension club met at the home of Miss Margaret Crawford on April 9. This was a social meeting and the last regular meeting this spring. The club has decided to meet once a month for the summer.

A delicious luncheon was served and a good time was had by all.

Union Methodist Church

Sunday, April 27th

Church school at 10 a. m. Carl Cross, superintendent.

Morning worship at 11. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Charles B. Hankins, D.D., district superintendent of the Omaha district, of our church. Everyone should make an effort to be with us at that hour.

The Epworth League will meet at 7:15 for their evening study.

Evening service at 8. Theme: "Seeking a New Wife." This is the second in the series of five messages depicting a very interesting Biblical drama; it is an ancient love story. Do not miss any of these remaining lectures.—J. T. Sawyer, pastor.

COAST GUARD ON RIVER

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—The mighty Mississippi river has claimed many lives, but the "Father of Waters" will be safer in this area from now on, for Memphis yachtsmen have organized a unit of the U. S. coast guard, known at the Memphis Flotilla, it is a part of the St. Louis district.

Merchants! We can supply you sales slips at a lower price than you have been paying. Prompt service direct from one of the largest concerns in the business.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

You will be using your car a lot more during the spring and summer. So

WHY NOT INSURE IT TODAY

When you drive without insurance you run the risk of losing all you own in one accident. It may only take a split second!

Call or See

INSURANCE AND BONDS
DUXBURY & DAVIS
PHONE 16
PLATTSMOUTH