Retriever Trials at Platte River Attract Many

Many Entries from All Over State and This Part of the West Shown in Tests.

Saturday and Sunday the Platte bottom north of this city was the chief point of attraction for retrievers and their owners from all sections of the state and from all parts of the middle west.

The winner of the open all age championship of the sixth annual retriever trials was Michael of Glenwood, six-year-old Labrador owned by Jerry Angle of York.

Angle's dog thus becomes the first Nebraska-bred dog to win a field championship. It was not exactly a surprise; but it was a worthy victory, scored over some of the best handlers in the country.

Angle handled the dog himself in the three strenuous series, which started in the morning and lasted until 4.

Michael Easily Handled

He was fortunate in that Michael needed little direction. Only he and P. T. Ch. (field trial champion) Rip completed the first and most arduous series. In this two ducks were put into the Platte 150 yards away from the blind.

The Platte is running swiftly these days. The other 13 entries failed to bring in the second duck, which by then had gone several hundred yards down the stream.

For the second series, on land, Judges Ferd Bunte of Chicago and Art Walsh of Milwaukee, called back eight dogs. It was a double pleasant retrieve. All eight finished.

Third test was a three hundred yard pheasant retrieve. All eight finished.

Third test was a three hundred yard blind retrieve of one pheasant. There was no gunshot, and the dog had to follow the handler's arm waving to locate the bird.

Sketch of Life of Willis Holmes, Now Deceased

Former Resident Here and Whose Funeral Services Were Held the Past Week at Glenwood

Willis Rae, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holmes, was born in Independence, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1891. He attended the public schools there and as a young man entered the field of retail merchandise. It was while he was in Waterloo he met Grace Dalton and in 1915 they were married.

Soon thereafter they located in Plattsmouth. It was here that both their daughter, Jeanne and son, Winston were born. During his years of residence here he was quite active in the affairs of the Masonic order, being a past worshipful master of the Plattsmouth lodge, and also a former member of the Eastern Star chapter here. He was a member of the Methodist church and took an active part in its activities. Always interested in youth he made friends readily with young people and during the more active years of his life gave freely of his time to assist in the work of various young peoples organizations.

He moved from Plattsmouth to Villisca, where he managed a retail store for seven years, going from there to Jefferson, where he was manager of the A. S. Bradley store for three years. About four years ago, Mr. Bradley made him manager of the Glenwood store.

His health failed within a year, causing his voluntary retirement from active business. During the past three years he has been confined much of the time to his home. He passed away Sunday, April 20, at the age of 50 years.

He is survived by his wife, son, Winston, daughter Mrs. Verris Hubbell and her little daughter, Dixie Ann of Glenwood. His mother, Mrs. J. C. Holmes of Independence, Ia., also survives him.

The body was laid to rest in the Glenwood cemetery.

Those present from a distance at the funeral services were A. J. Holmes, Cedar Falls; Judson Holmes, Independence; Arton Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Don Karr of Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dalton, Edgar, Neb.; Mrs. Emily Mains, Miss Ina Dalton, Mrs. Dennis Kilbane, Miss Vivian Parker and Mr. and Mrs. George Winslip, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Osborne of Corning; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gary and Mrs. Harold Todd of Villisca; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moyer, Ruben Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moyer and Mrs. John Ray all of Percival; Mrs. Ed Lutz, Mrs. Helen Heinrich, Mrs. Wiley Sigler, Mrs. Rae McMaken, Mrs. Will Evers, Mrs. Don Seiver, Miss Clara Weyrich, Miss Alice Hiatt, Roy Knorr, Hilt Wescott, all of Plattsmouth.

OMAR Wonder FLOUR Enriched with Vitamins and Iron

The better than ever Blue Ribbon flour—plus the three health factors Uncle Sam asked for in flour!

- Vitamin B₁ (thiamin)—the "pep vitamin"—Essential to turn fats and starches to energy instead of fat, to proper growth in children, to healthy appetite and sound, steady nerves.
- Nicotinic Acid—the Pellagra-Preventive vitamin—No more "acid" than orange juice and definitely not to be gained by smoking, this is a necessary life-giving vitamin of the B complex.
- Iron—the mineral that helps build healthy, red blood.
