

Nehawka By Journal Field Representative

Earl Gregg was a visitor last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein.

A special Mother's day service was held at the Methodist church Sunday by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Lenker.

W. H. Orendorf of near Dunbar was a business visitor in Nehawka Monday, doing some trading at the Sheldon store.

Henry Wessell, who has been ill for a long time and who spent some time at an Omaha hospital continues very poorly at his home.

Lloyd Schmedake, teacher in the Nehawka schools, was a visitor at Newman Grove last Sunday, spending the day at the home of his parents.

Herbie Kunz, the blacksmith, says business has been very good and he is kept on the go long hours each day in order to get caught up with his work.

Mrs. John O. Yeiser and daughter, Miss Suzanne, of Omaha, were visitors here Sunday at the home of Mrs. Yeiser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Sturm.

Walter Wunderlich and son Jack drove to Almsworth last Saturday to transact business, remaining there for a couple of days and returning home Tuesday.

John H. Steffens, who has been drawn as a member of the federal grand jury, went to Lincoln Sunday to be on hand for the convening of court Monday morning.

Claude Hopenberger, of Avoca, was a visitor in this vicinity, looking after the sale of hybrid seed corn for the firm he represents. He says an awful lot of hybrid seed is being sold this year.

An athletic program is to be given Friday evening at the auditorium for the benefit of the athletic department of the Nehawka schools. All who are interested in school athletics are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens were at Leeton Mother's day, spending the time with Mr. Steffens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens. The father has been poorly for some time, but was somewhat improved when they were there.

Lee Farris, of near Union, was a caller in Nehawka, coming to get his listers sharpened here. While here he paid a thin dime for a tiny porker that weighed only about 3 pounds, taking it home with him with the intent of raising it to a full sized hog, and we opine if anyone can do it, Lee can, for he surely knows how to raise fine porkers.

To Give Baccalaureate Sermon Rev. Small, pastor of the United Brethren church of Nehawka will deliver the annual Baccalaureate sermon to the 1941 graduates Sunday evening. The school year will close Wednesday and a large crowd is expected to attend the commencement exercises.

Alumni Banquet Saturday Alumni of the Nehawka schools will hold their banquet at the auditorium Saturday evening of next week. The Busy Workers of the Methodist church will serve the banquet, which is an assurance of some good eats.

Married at Plattsmouth Sunday Miss June E. Frans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Frans of near

Union and Sterling R. Ross, son of To Hold Picnic Wednesday The school year in Nehawka will close this coming Wednesday with a school picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ross, northwest of Nehawka, were united in marriage last Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse in Plattsmouth. Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride has been engaged in teaching the Factoryville school southwest of Union, while the groom is engaged in farming with the father northeast of Nehawka.

The young people will make their home on a farm in the neighborhood of their home.

Visited Friend at Avoca Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and the children were at Avoca last Sunday, where they visited at the home of Fred McGrady, a cousin of Mr. Miller, who has been ill for a long time. Following their visit at the McGrady home they called at the Sturm home and came home on a road north of highway No. 34, in order that Mr. Miller might look at some work that was asked to be done on one of the county roads.

NEHAWKA SCHOOL PROGRAM

The honors night and rural school program at the auditorium of the Nehawka high school drew a large audience Tuesday evening. Chairman of the rural school program was Mrs. Lora Loyd Kieck, Cass county superintendent of schools. Superintendent E. C. Stinbert acted as chairman of the honors night program.

"May First in the Greenwoods," playlet by group, District 28, Heebner school (Beatrice Beverage, teacher.)

Song, "We've Got the Mumps," by group, Dist. 50, Phillip school (Osa Marie Bodeker, Verona Jerabek, teachers.)

(a) Rhythmic Band Section, Dist. 51, Oxford School (Kathleen Schafer, teacher) by group; (b) Songs, Morning Hymn and Nonsense song, Doris Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, May 15th By L. Neitzel, Mardock, Neb.

"Broadening Christian Horizons" Saul's Conversion Acts 9:1-16

This is the beginning of a new epoch for the church. The "uncircumcised men," as the apostles were called, had spread the Gospel through Judea and Samaria; now it was to be carried to "the uttermost parts of the world." This required a special trained, well qualified and fully endowed man. God always has his man ready when needed. Moses and Joseph are good examples; John the Baptist, also. And when God needed an ambassador to the gentile world, Saul of Tarsus had been in training for fifteen years in Jerusalem. Living with his sister, who was married and had a son; studying in the school where Gamaliel was a teacher. He also had graduated from the Pharasaic School of Theology, with high honors, a very zealous and pious church member, who took his religion very serious until he became a fanatic. He did great missionary work for his church to keep it pure and clean, and in his zealously went so far as to consent to imprison those who differed with them, and even to consent to have them killed. His attitude towards those who followed the "New Way" is pictured as "breathing threatenings and slaughter." (He had seen blood at Stephens' death and it had stirred his animal nature to an unusual high degree). He seemed to be an untamed blood-thirsty animal. If this man, of passion, learning and natural endowment as a leader could be brought under control and subjection under the yoke of Christ, and harnessed to the Gospel Chariot, what a power he would exert in furthering the Kingdom of Christ.

All the necessary potentialities were inherent in Saul of Tarsus. Now we come to the crisis in this man's life. His worldly training is complete. God knows what Saul can do. Will the grace and power of God be able to tame that wild nature? Will it yield to Christ? Will it be easily brought under the yoke of Christ?

The conversion of this man has been the theme of many a Sunday school lesson, of innumerable discourses, much discussion and many volumes by eminent writers. So a great deal of time need not be spent on details in the Sunday school class. Stress should be laid on the sentence: "He is the chosen vessel." God made the choice, not Saul. A vessel is a container to hold liquid substance; it can also be a duct through which liquid flows. The remarkable change that took place in this man, when he met with Jesus, should be encouraging to any man without Christ, that there is hope for him. Another lesson must not be overlooked and that is that without this experience which we call conversion, no one can claim to be a Christian. That does not mean that every conversion must be like Saul's; but the change must take place, like the life of this man. We are sorry that it is no more fashionable to have conversions of this sort.

The mourner's bench of former days assisted many into the kingdom; it was a great help and as they "prayed through," could give as clear a testimony as did Saul of the change of heart and life by the grace of God. Now Saul was ready as a chosen vessel to be "filled with the Holy Ghost." And that is what God does to any soul that surrenders all to him. An empty vessel God can fill—but it must first be emptied; all the filth of a sinful life washed away by the blood of Jesus, made fit for the Master's use; then it can be filled with all the "fulness of God." As a duct God can use this soul to send streams of living water to bring life and refreshing aid to dying souls, revive them, to the praise of God.

As we follow this man through his wonderful life, read his epistles, visit his churches wherever he went, the grace of God flowed through him and brought peace, joy and gladness into hearts and homes and cities. May we mention here also the change that has taken place in Damascus, where he went to arrest and persecute the Christian, and how they feared and trembled at the mention of his name; but after he had preached Christ to them, they assisted him to escape and save his life. And straightway he preached Christ. There was the evidence of his conversion. And so it was in former years, the new converts brought their companions to Christ; they wanted them to share their joy with them. Thus the work went on. Those days seem to have passed. But a good housecleaning from all the worldly pleasures and desires, and a great infilling of the Holy Ghost would bring a great revival to the church. If our preachers and teachers were all chosen vessels filled with the Holy Ghost, the revival would soon be on.

Home from the West P. H. Miller has returned home from Seibert, Colorado, where he was a guest at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson. Mr. Miller says the country out there is infested with tumble weeds and the wind blows them into great piles, while the seed is scattered all over the country. Mr. Miller arrived in Lincoln Saturday night and was met there by his son, James, and family, who took him to their farm home near Douglas, bringing him home the following day.

Moving to Lincoln Mrs. Erving Drake of Friend has been visiting here during the past week, while her husband gets the household goods moved from Friend to Lincoln, where they will reside in the future. Mrs. Drake was formerly Miss Esther Johnson and has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Edna Johnson, as well as at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson and her brother, Art Johnson.

Children Home Mother's Day Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew and son Lawrence had the pleasure of having the other three children and their families home on Mother's day. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Duchanau of near Nehawka and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sudduth of near Murray, and their respective families. All three ladies are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Askew.

Purchased Wisconsin Heifers I. L. Markland, who has been in the dairy business for a number of years, went to Detroit for a Ford truck which he has purchased to use in his business. En route home, he came by way of Waukesha, Wisconsin, which is in the heart of the dairy country, and there purchased a load of fine heifer calves which he brought home with him, with a view to renewing his supply of milk cows. He arrived home this week.

Has a Beautiful Lawn Richard Keckler, postmaster, has a beautiful lawn at his home, which shows the effect of much work and attention to getting it started. He is using one of the new lawn mowers that operate with an electric motor and are made at Louisville and finds it possible to get over the lawn and keep it trimmed in quick time with this machine. The drouth years have killed out

Weeping Water By Journal Field Representative

O. C. Hinds and Harold Meyers went to Nebraska City early Sunday morning to play golf.

Gerald Jourgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jourgensen, who is a student at the University of Nebraska, spent the week end at home.

William Sheehan of Manley was looking after business in Weeping Water last Tuesday and enjoyed renewing acquaintance with many old friends here.

Earl Oldham, the trucker, was in Omaha Tuesday morning, delivering produce. George Edgmon was looking after the produce station during Earl's absence.

L. A. Wiseman installed a new cash register in the tavern, which he placed on a not-any-too-stable counter, and when it opened there much vibration, giving rise to the belief it was overloaded with money. L. A. said this was not true, and he must have been right, for a brace under the counter was all it took to stop the vibration.

Joe F. Knoflicek, of Plattsmouth, who is salesman for the Bankers Life Insurance company of Lincoln, was in Weeping Water Tuesday calling on prospects. Joe is a hustler for business and just now is in a contest with agents in other districts for top honors and a bonus on most business written. He is cutting a regular weekly ad in this paper.

Mother's Day at Clifford Cooper's Thomas Edgmon and wife of Leavenworth, Kansas, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper of Weeping Water. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Edgmon and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby. All enjoyed the excellent dinner which was served.

Fail to Muster Quorum At the meeting date for the city council this week, only a portion of the members appeared and there was not enough besides the mayor to transact business. One of the members had gone to a ball game and another had work of his own to attend to, so could not come. So the meeting was postponed for another week.

Subscribe to The Journal

many of the fine lawns and this one stands out as a fine example of what can be done by perseverance, adequate moisture and hard work.

Made in Cass County Alfred Tuck is demonstrating a new type of lawn mower which is propelled by a one cylinder gas engine and will cut weeds and grass of any height. The machines are being manufactured at Louisville and if desired can be furnished with an electric motor for power instead of the gas engine.

To Honor New Citizens Attention is called to Citizenship day this coming Sunday, May 18, and the program honoring new citizens which will be held at the auditorium here at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Further details regarding this event, which is being arranged by Mrs. Norris, will be found elsewhere in today's paper. Also an announcement to new citizens from the Plattsmouth American Legion post. It is hoped that a large audience will attend this program.

EAGLE Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams and E. P. Betts were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Busker of Lincoln.

Mrs. Myrtle Robertson spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Alice Feintinen of Elmwood. Mrs. George Uerrich of Los Angeles, California, arrived in Lincoln last Saturday and will make an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Longman and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rothenbach and sons visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rothenbach, Sr., last Sunday.

Harry Boyd of Beatrice called at the G. H. Palmer home on Monday of this week.

Mrs. E. H. May and son Ormond of Walton visited friends in Eagle last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stall and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frohlich and daughters motored to Plattsmouth last Sunday and spent the day with Del Tyson, father of Mrs. Stall and Mrs. Frohlich.

Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horn were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Charles of Lincoln.

Eugene Muenchau of Weeping Water spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy and children of Omaha and Mrs. Laura Gillespie of Kansas City spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter moved last Thursday into the property owned by Rudolph Umland.

Miss Jean Marie Stewart, who attends school in Lincoln, spent the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hudson and Mrs. Anna Earl were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Earl last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Colbert of Louisville, Kentucky, visited Mrs. Colbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gerhard and other relatives a few days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffmeister and daughter of Weeping Water were guests last Sunday evening at the William Hudson home.

Mrs. T. M. Peterson, Norma Mae and Roland, Mrs. Glenn Kiser and sons and Loren Wachter of Lincoln visited Mrs. Mary Wachter last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Laura Gillespie of Kansas City arrived last Thursday and visited until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith. Laura is attending Central Business college in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood and daughters visited Mr. Scattergood's parents at Osceola, Iowa, last week end.

Guests at the L. W. Piersol home last Sunday were Mrs. Milford Axe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Piersol and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Piersol and family and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Piersol and sons.

MIAMI BEACH RESTRICTS BUILDINGS TO 14 STORIES

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UP)—This resort city has placed a ban on skyscrapers, limiting the height of buildings to 14 stories.

The city council passed the height limitation ordinance as a safety measure in event of a hurricane striking the island city.

The 1940 census report showed Miami Beach's population increased from 6,494 to 28,012 in the last decade.

UNION ITEMS By Journal Field Representative

Horace W. Griffin was a business visitor in Nebraska City Monday afternoon.

A. R. Case, Plattsmouth produce dealer, was a visitor in Union Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Banning, parents of Mrs. Peters.

The Ackley truck line made two trips to Omaha Monday, taking stock to market. They report being busy most of the time.

Frank and Anna Bauer were in Plattsmouth Sunday, where they attended the Cass theatre and witnessed "Gone with the Winds."

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Becker and family were in Plattsmouth Sunday evening, where they attended the show, "Gone with the Wind."

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor enjoyed calls from a number of their friends Sunday. Rev. Taylor is not feeling well and enjoys the visits of old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell McQuinn were in Plattsmouth Sunday, spending the day at the home of Mrs. McQuinn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sent.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans and their son, Jimmie, with Mrs. Jennie Frans, mother of Ray, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rue H. Frans.

A May Pole festival, with the appropriate unwinding of the ribbons will be one of the features of the closing exercises of the Union schools on Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallis Banning of Lincoln arrived in Union Saturday night and visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. Banning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clarence were called to Nebraska City on business Monday afternoon and during their absence the produce station was in charge of Miss Irene Crawford.

Fred Miller of Nehawka was a visitor in Union Monday afternoon, coming to secure some material for the county with which to build concrete spillways along the roadside.

Miss Iola Roddy of Omaha and her friend, Miss Taylor, were visiting in Union, guests at the home of Miss Iola's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McQuinn. They returned to the metropolis Sunday evening.

Mrs. A. L. Becker and daughter, Mary Becker, were in Plattsmouth Tuesday, where Mrs. Becker was having some dental work done. Mrs. Ora uerra was looking after business at the bank during the absence of Mary Becker.

Rev. J. T. Sawyer, pastor of the Methodist church, accompanied by Mrs. Sawyer, were at Auburn Monday and Tuesday, where they attended the district meeting of the Bible School Association of Southeastern Nebraska.

The Junior-Senior banquet took place last Friday night and was a great success with members of the Senior class and the Board of Education as guests of the Juniors. Mothers of the Junior class members served a very delicious meal.

J. B. Roddy, of Nebraska City, who is recovering from his recent illness, was a visitor in Union Friday, calling on his son, Eugene, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Roddy of Fremont were also there, making the day a most enjoyable one.

The Senior class of the Union high school enjoyed sneak day Tuesday of this week, going to Lincoln. They were sponsored on the trip by the school superintendent, who saw to it that their visit included plenty of places of interest in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Banning of Alvo drove to Union last Sunday and visited relatives and friends. Accompanied by Miss Pearl Banning, they then went to Nebraska City and Peru, later returning this way and continuing on from here to their home at Alvo, after a full day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Balfour and daughter have been enjoying a visit from their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Farrow, of Los Angeles, who are en route to Detroit for a new car, which they expect to drive back to the west coast. After a few days here they continued on to the auto metropolis of the nation.

Mrs. Ella Arnold entertained at her home in Plattsmouth last Sunday in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin. Others present included her sister, Ruth Anne, her grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin of Plattsmouth and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schumacher and children of Union.

Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary departed Wednesday on the Missouri Pacific Eagle for Arkansas City, Kansas. She will spend a ten day vacation there with relatives.

Last Sunday being Mother's day, made happy by a visit from their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burr Stanley, who drove down from their home at Wayne to spend the day.

Attend Church Services Mrs. George Everett with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gobelman and son, were at Nebraska City Sunday. They attended the Mother's day services at the Latter Day Saint's church.

Spent Mother's Day Here Mrs. A. L. Navaux and daughter, Joan, were Sunday guests at the Elmer Withrow home southeast of Union. Mrs. Navaux is a sister of Elmer and daughter of C. E. Withrow, of Patuxenta. Their mother passed away a year ago, but they spent the day together in memory of her.

Honored Mother Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stites and daughter, Gwen, of Omaha, enjoyed spending last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Edwin Terrell, of Avoca, mother of Mr. Stites. Mr. Stites, while operator of the elevator here, resides in Omaha.

Children Home on Mother's Day Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roddy were pleased to have their three children and families home last Sunday. They are Robert and family, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dixon, of Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wessell, of Nehawka. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

Missionary Ladies Meet The Missionary Society of the Baptist church met last Thursday at the home of Miss Eleanor Easter. The business session was followed by a program, with Mrs. Charles Garrison as the leader. The ladies also enjoyed a social hour at which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Ask Property be Set Out The town board has been advised by D. O. Dwyer, attorney for W. B. Banning, that a conference is sought with the city dads to discuss the matter of setting considerable of Mr. Banning's property here outside the incorporated limits of the town. Just what action will be taken on the request is not known at this time.

Installed as Temporary Operator Edward F. Stava has been assigned as temporary third truck operator at the Missouri Pacific station here in place of C. H. Whitworth, who recently bid in the station agent job at Fort Crook. There have been few bids for the job here, which under seniority rules is available to older men in the service.

Inspected New Home Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris and their children, Miss Ruth and Bernard, who is employed in Omaha, went to Murray Sunday to inspect the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Morris, which has been under construction for some time and is now ready for the plasterers. From there they went to Ashland for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Morris. Returning home late in the afternoon, they drove to Nebraska City in the evening to witness the May Pole ceremonies there, thus putting in a full day.

Enjoyed Mother's Day Dinner At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker in honor of Mother's day last Sunday, there were gathered a number of members of the family to pay tribute to mother and to celebrate the day together. Those present included all the children, with the exception of John P. Becker and wife of Plattsmouth. The children and grandchildren made up a large family circle.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Becker and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoback, Miss Mary Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ehlers, daughter Evelyn and an infant daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Becker and daughter, Mary Anna, and County Register and Mrs. Ray Becker of Plattsmouth.

NOBODY expects to be in an accident—but nevertheless the number of automobile accidents is increasing every day. The only safe way is to carry complete insurance protection.

Searl S. Davis OFFICES: 2ND FLOOR PLATTS. STATE BANK BLDG.

Your Car and Your Future If you should have an accident with your car that results in a judgment being rendered against you for damages, your earnings for the next several years may be spent and gone. Can you afford to run the risk? Insure Today with DUXBURY & DAVIS INSURANCE AND BONDS PHONE 16 PLATTSMOUTH