Interesting Address on China
Mrs. O. E. Reynolds, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, was listened to with the greatest of interest Wednesday afternoon, when she appeared before the Woman's Association of the Congregational church and spoke interestedly of her year spent with her son, Paul Reynolds, in China. She spoke of the love of the Chinese people for their homes, of their dislike for war, and of the fineness of their character. She gave as the reason of the invasion of China by Japan, the crowded condition of Japan and the vast areas in China, outside their walled cities, which is uninhabited but used for agricultural purposes by the city dwellers. The second reason is China's vast wealth of coal and jade. These the Japanese people covet.

Proceeding her talk a business meeting was held, when money was voted to help defray expenses for two young people of the church to the state conference to be held at Crete early in June, where they will receive training so they may return home and assist in the church's vacation Bible school, which opens in June.

Gibson, of Weeping Water, and Jack Gillman Hays, son of Mrs. Benjamin Hays, of Guide Rock, were united in marriage Thursday evening, May 15, at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. John L. Kemp, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Betty Woolcott sang "I Love You Truly."

As a background for the ceremony a large doorway had been filled in with screens, bunched with spruce and iris, and flanked on each side with large potted gardenias.

The bride and groom were attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harley K. Thurstund, with her nephew, Richard Gibson carrying the wedding ring on a satin pillow. Mrs. Paul Fowler, of Wilbur, was at the piano playing softly during the ceremony. Following a reception at the home the wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Edward Dowler at Hotel Rest Haven.

Mrs. Hays is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school and of the University of Nebraska. Mr. Hays is employed at the CCC camp here. Immediately following the dinner the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Weeping Water.
