

RETURN FROM THE EAST

Henry Jacobs and Jack McCarthy, of this city, returned home Tuesday evening via bus from a short visit in Philadelphia and New York City with relatives and friends. They had accompanied Mrs. Robert Jacobs and children, Bruce and Karen, east where they joined their husband and father, Robert Jacobs. The Plattsmouth men had a pleasant time in visiting with Robert and John Jacobs as well as Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Eneari and family and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shibly, relatives of Mr. Jacobs.

While at Philadelphia the visitors enjoyed a trip to New York City to look over the points of interest in the great metropolis and especially the waterfront where many great liners, warships and other vessels made a very interesting picture to the visitors from the central west.

ATTEND CHURCH MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning a group of the local ladies, members of the Women's Society of Christian Service, were in Omaha to attend the district meeting held at the St. Paul's Methodist church.

Among the members from the local group attending were: Mrs. L. S. Devoe, Mrs. W. L. Heinrich, Mrs. Edgar Newton, Mrs. R. B. Hayes, Mrs. A. H. Duxbury and Mrs. J. C. Lawson.

TOURNAMENT LOOKS GOOD

It is very evident that the Plattsmouth Journal is read by sports fans in other territories, for Kid Graves has received word from several out-state and a couple of Iowa amateurs, who state that they want to enter a fall amateur boxing tourney in Plattsmouth.

There is no certainty that Plattsmouth will have a "simon-pure" tournament this fall, but if the efforts of Mayor Lillie and Waldemar Soennichsen as well as Kid Graves and the desires of some of the local boxers are effective enough, our city will be host to a lot of fight fans from all over this and some of our neighboring states, about September.

Some of the local boxers are so confident that Plattsmouth will have a fall amateur boxing tourney, that they have purchased some equipment in order to be ready when the bell rings, opening the "scrap" season in Plattsmouth.

Any local individual, who is a member of any incorporated organization of this city and would like to see amateur boxing shows staged here may realize their hopes, if they'd get in touch with "Walt" Soennichsen and talk the matter over with him.

Local fans want it, local boxers want it, and it would be a worthy project to bring out state boxing followers into Plattsmouth to see the bouts, and so why not provide the opportunity to advertise our city?

ROTARY HEARS OF TRAVELS

From Tuesday's Daily—
The Rotary club had the pleasure of having as their guest speaker at the noonday luncheon today, John Kirtley of the Kirtley Lumber Co. of Nebraska City. The talk was in the nature of an illustrated travelogue and was one that held the closest attention in the vivid descriptions by Mr. Kirtley of many places of interest and the motion pictures of the colorful southern republic. The speaker had been a visitor in Mexico on four separate occasions and was well versed in the City of Mexico and other large places where he had made his principal stops. It was truly instructive as well as pleasurable.

Arthur Troop was chairman of the program.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

The announcement has been received here of the death on April 30th at New York City, of Edgar G. Gyger, 73, a former Plattsmouth resident. Members of his family were among the early settlers in this community and made their home here for a great many years. An older brother, William Gyger was for many years with the firm of Dewey & Stone, pioneer Omaha furniture wholesalers. Later the family moved to New York and where Mr. Edgar Gyger died. There are surviving a brother, Charles and a sister, Frances Gyger Bittinger, of Los Angeles. The Gyger family will be recalled by the older residents, being very close friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock of this city.

WILL MAKE ADDRESS

Dr. R. Foster Patterson, of Tarkio, Missouri, head of the department of history of Tarkio college, has accepted the invitation to deliver the oration at the cornerstone laying of the new grade school building.

The acceptance of Dr. Patterson is very pleasing to the committee in charge of the ceremonies as it brings as the speaker one who has been most familiar with the Plattsmouth school as member of the faculty for a number of years, as well as the Masonic grand lodge of which he was grand orator.

VISITS WITH OLD FRIENDS

From Tuesday's Daily—
Pollock Parmele, of Lincoln, who was at Nebraska City on business Monday, was a visitor here last evening. He was a guest of the W. C. Soennichsen family for a short time. Joe Chapman, IGA salesman of Lincoln, also a former Plattsmouth resident was here to call on the Soennichsen store.
