

Nehawka

By Journal Field Representative

J. H. Steffens was in Lincoln the past week as a member of the federal grand jury.

The Nehawka schools are closing this week with a picnic for the patrons, teachers and scholars.

George Lopp was looking after business matters in Murray Monday, meeting a number of friends while there.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hibbard of Nebraska City were guests Sunday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich.

Jack Wunderlich, who is a student at the University of Nebraska, spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich.

The extension club made up of members from this vicinity, gave a very much appreciated program at the Nehawka church last Friday which was well attended.

George Trunkenholz, president of the Trunkenholz Oil company of Eagle and Lincoln, was in Nehawka Saturday afternoon looking after business matters at their local station which is managed by G. E. Hoback, and visiting with friends.

J. A. Lyon and wife who conduct a store in Nehawka, left the business in charge of other members of the family and drove to Pisgah, Iowa, last Friday, where they looked after business matters, remaining till Sunday afternoon, when they drove home.

The Nehawka Braves, as the 1941 baseball team is known are to play a team from Plattsmouth here this coming Sunday.

The team played their first game last Sunday with Murray as their opponents and played bang-up baseball, eleven innings being required to determine the winner. Murray won by a score of 9 to 8.

To Occupy New Home Soon
The new home which Contractor John Alwin is building for Stacy Niday and wife, just outside the village limits of Nehawka, is nearing completion, with Wm. Obernaulte busy with the plastering. After this, comes the finishing touches by the carpenters and painters and the new home will be complete and ready for occupancy.

In Honor of Visitor
A large group of relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ross last Sunday, with Mrs. Ralph Stander, formerly of Louisville, who is here from her home in Kansas for a visit, as the honor guest. A fine dinner was served and the day spent in most pleasant manner. Among present were the family of Dan Anderson, Ernest Ahrens, Albert Anderson and family, Mrs. Bevela Stander of Louisville, the family of Fred Marquardt of Avoca and the family of Alfred Anderson of Omaha.
Mrs. Ralph Stander and Mrs. Ross were both Andersons before their marriage.

Visited New Bomber Plant
Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Lundberg, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dodson were guests at the home of Mrs. Alva Dodson Sunday, where a fine dinner was served. In the afternoon they went to Fort Crook to look over the site of the new bomber plant, but found the grounds closed to visitors so could not see a great deal of the work that is going on. They found traffic on the highway very heavy and special highway patrolmen stationed throughout the area.

To Work in East
Howard Gregg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg, who graduated from a technical school and returned to Nehawka last week for his marriage to Miss Ruby Ruhga, accompanied by the bride were in Weeping Water last Thursday where they were honor guests at a dance. It was estimated there were more than five hundred guests. The newlyweds were also present at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Gust Ruhga, parents of the bride, last Sunday. A number of relatives and close friends were present.

Early Monday morning they departed for Baltimore, where Howard is to accept a position in one of the large bomber assembly plants.

Suffers Severe Leg Injury

While at work in the blacksmith shop, H. W. Gregg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg, suffered a wound in one of his legs recently. Just as it was getting so he could use it nicely, he engaged in a ball game last Sunday, playing against the Murray team and as he was sliding into home base, suffered a gash from the shoe spikes of one of the opposing players. With two wounds, his condition is not the best, but he manages to stick to the job and get his work done.

Paving Prospects Brighter

Surveyors were in town last Friday running lines and establishing grades for the paving project here, which has been hanging fire for a long time. There are a number of blocks to be paved, running from the railroad tracks north to the school house, and from the auditorium east one block.

Present indications are that the contractor, who has been doing a lot of paving in Louisville, will move the equipment here as soon as that work is completed and the job will be carried on as a WPA project, with the contractor furnishing equipment and supervision. Material costs are largely furnished by the property owners in the district, with some being contributed by the government. The cost of the equipment, supervision and engineering will also be largely borne by the property owners, with the government paying all WPA labor costs.

Commencement Day

The past few weeks have been indeed busy ones in the lives of Senior class members, with parties, banquets, picnics, sneak day and various other activities. The weeks of activity were climaxed with the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening and graduation exercises Tuesday evening, when the young men and women were given their diplomas attesting satisfactory completion of the course of study laid down for accredited high schools.

As principal speaker for the graduation ceremonies, school authorities considered themselves fortunate in being able to secure the Hon. Robert (Bob) Simmons, chief justice of the Nebraska supreme court. He gave a most worth-while address in which he outlined the responsibilities that face our young men and women of this age and offered valuable advice on how to overcome difficulties that may be met along life's highway.

So, now, with the delivering of the diplomas, the school year comes to a close. Pupils in the lower grades will enjoy a three months rest before tackling anew the problems of the classroom, while those who have graduated will face life's sterner problems. Some will pursue their education further in higher institutions of learning, some will teach in rural schools and others will go forth in search of a job and the opportunity to make their way in the world. It is both a pleasant and a sad occasion—this day of parting with the old friends and classmates.

Baccalaureate Sunday Night

Rev. Small pastor of the United Brethren church here and the one north of town, gave the baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the Nehawka schools Sunday evening. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the words of wisdom spoken to the graduates by the able pastor.

UNION ITEMS

By Journal Field Representative

Victor Clarence took a truck load of produce to Omaha Monday.

Inventory of the stock of goods at the McCarrroll store was taken last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCarrroll attended the show at Plattsmouth Sunday evening.

Mrs. L. R. Upton entertained the Bridge club at her home last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ivan Balfour went to Weeping Water Monday to address a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

George Paulus, who has been employed at the Gilbert Edmonds garage, has accepted a position as truck driver, hauling stone.

Mrs. Ora Guerra was in Lincoln last Sunday, going to visit her brother King Clarke, whom she found considerably improved.

Mrs. Ella Arnold of Plattsmouth and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffin last Sunday.

C. E. Morris was looking after business in Plattsmouth Monday. He was feeling quite poorly last Saturday, but was better the first of the week.

The extension club of the Union district met Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz, south of town, for a very enjoyable get-together.

Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary, who is visiting at the home of a cousin at Arkansas City, Kansas, writes that she is enjoying her stay there very much.

Frank Baur and Ben Anderson were at Nebraska City last Sunday, visiting with friends for the day, and were also guests of Jack Roddy while there.

A. L. Becker had a shipment of hogs on the Omaha market Friday of last week. The market has been up lately and he received a very satisfactory price.

Otto Ehlers was in Omaha last Monday with a load of hogs, which he has just completed fattening on the farm and found a ready market for the porkers.

A pleasing feature of the closing days of the Union schools was arranged by the teachers in the form of a May pole, with many colorful ribbons to be unwound.

Donald Hoback who is at Hamilton Field, San Francisco, writes that he is feeling fine and enjoys his work very much. Don sent a very pretty decorated box of candy to his mother, Mrs. C. W. Hoback, for Mother's day.

Sam Vanderpool, who has been in the employ of Gilbert Edmonds, is arranging to start a service station near the Becker building, which is the present location of George Stites' implement house.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keedy of Ashland were visiting relatives and friends in Union Sunday. They resided here a number of years ago and it was a great treat to them to come back and visit their relatives and old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoback were guests at the home of Glen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoback, last Sunday. Later, Mr. Oscar Hoback was taken to St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City for observation and treatment, as he has not been in the best of health for some time.

Move to Fort Crook

When C. H. Whitworth bid in the station at Fort Crook recently he was unaware that acceptance of same would require his moving there immediately, but such is the case and the Whitworths have accordingly moved there, finding inadequate living quarters available, but obliged to accept things as they are until better accommodations can be provided. Their many friends are sorry to see them remove from Union.

Birthday Celebration

Miss Kathleen Balfour arrived at her sixteenth birthday anniversary last Saturday and was honor guest at a birthday party at the home of her parents, which was attended by twelve of her girl friends. Her mother, Mrs. Ivan Balfour, served delicious refreshments.

Chas. Atteberry at Hospital

Charles Atteberry, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to the Veterans' hospital near Lincoln last Saturday for observation and treatment. Mrs. Atteberry was over Sunday to visit him.

Visited Here Sunday

Peter Tyson, Lair Latta and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Menke, all of Blair, arrived here early Sunday morning, visiting for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning and then going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds for dinner and to spend the rest of the day.

Very Enjoyable Address

Rev. Thomas J. Sawyer, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered a splendid baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the Union high school Sunday evening. The church was packed with parents and friends of the graduates.

Dust Cloud Causes Wreck

While Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson were driving along the highway northeast of Union, clouds of dust from an adjoining field were blown across the highway, rendering visibility very poor. Seeing a car approaching, Mr. Wilson pulled his car sharply to the right to provide passing room and was precipitated into the ditch by the road side.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were bruised and shaken up, but no serious injuries were sustained. The car was badly damaged.

Reception for Newlyweds

A reception in honor of the newlyweds, Erwin Ross and Miss June Frans, was given at the church by the Ladies Aid. The young couple were united in marriage about ten days ago. All who were present report a most enjoyable time.

NEWLY DESIGNED DIVE-BOMBER FOR U. S. NAVY — Buffalo, N. Y.—Shown here is the powerful, new, two-place, all-metal low-mid-wing dive-bomber devised in answer to the U. S. Navy's demand for a "super" dive-bomber that will greatly outperform any airplane of its type in America or abroad. Designed to operate from aircraft carriers, it is powered with a 1700 h.p. engine, equipped with a three-bladed electric propeller, has wing "slots," is unusually well armed, and will transport a much larger bomb load (inside the fuselage) at higher speeds for much longer distances than any existing dive-bomber type in the world. It is expected to increase greatly the striking power of the Navy.

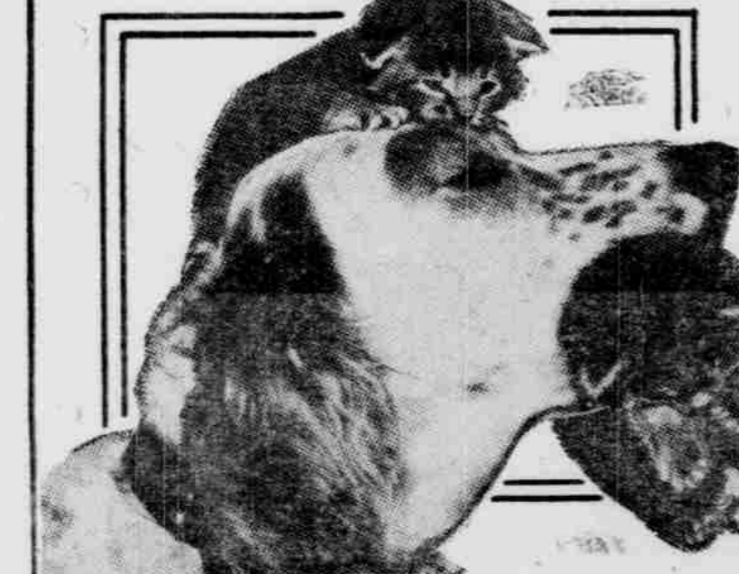

NOW IT'S TAPE IN GLASS

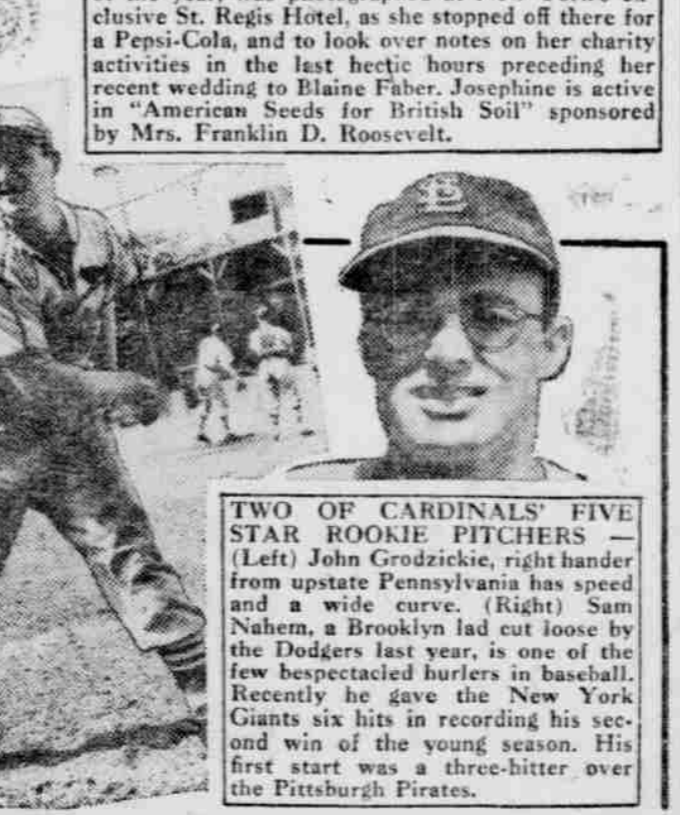

Fibre glass adhesive tape, with a pressure-sensitive coating, has been perfected by the Industrial Tape Corporation of New Brunswick, N. J. The woven glass textile backing is the same one developed in recent years by the glass companies and finding steadily increasing uses in many industries. Devising a suitable adhesive coating and a method of applying it has hitherto represented a problem. The new product will have a number of uses in the electrical industry and for insulating other than electrical. The tape is manufactured in rolls in the full width of 40 inches and then cut into any desired widths.

Beautiful Josephine Johnson, society's glamour girl of the year, was photographed at New York's exclusive St. Regis Hotel, as she stopped off there for a Pepsi-Cola, and to look over notes on her charity activities in the last hectic hours preceding her recent wedding to Elaine Fisher. Josephine is active in "American Seeds for British Soil" sponsored by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

THEY GET ALONG—Bell, Calif.—Lady Linda, English setter dog owned by Mrs. Clara Smurr here, carries one kitten while another hangs on. The dog took over care of four kittens in a feud with Hi-Ho, Mrs. Smurr's cat, but when two died from lack of nourishment she realized her mistake and gave up custody. Now everything is harmony at the Smurr household.
