By Journal Field Representative

A. C. Long has completed planting his corn crop.

Clarke Churchill began working morning. He has worked there before.

Harold Gregg, who recently went to Baltimore to accept a position in a munitions factory, writes that he is well pleased with his work there.

Callers at the E. M. Ruby home Sunday were Mrs. Daisy Foltz of Omaha and Daisy Dawson, also of Omaha. They are cousins of the Rubys.

Albert Johnson of near Nehawka was a business visitor in Murray last Monday morning, looking after some parts for some of his farming machinery.

Mesdames George Lindsay and Paul Applegate of Union were visiting in Murray last Monday, calling at the office of Dr. R. W. Tyson, and with other friends in Murray.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson were in Elmwood Saturday evening, visiting at the home of the doctor's mother, Mrs. L. A. Tyson, who has been rather poorly, but is better now.

Mrs. Allie Hughes, who visited friends at Plattsmouth for a few days, returned home last week and has resumed her work as cook at the home of her brother, Harvey Gregg.

While plowing his potatoes, William Sporer allowed the plow to catch in a hill of the spuds and to his surprise out rolled a spud as big as a walnut, indicating an early yield.

W. L. Seybolt was called to Lincoln as a member of the federal grand jury in this district and during his absence Mrs. Seybolt was looking after business at the service station.

Mrs. Hazel Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg and Miss Doris Gregg, both of whom are employed in Lincoln, were guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg Sunday.

Memorial Sunday brought many to Mt. Pleasant cemetery, who were led in praise of the appearance of the burial grounds which are under supervision of a caretaker and have been cleaned up wonderfully well.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper and family were very much surprised to have their sister-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Cooper and daughter, Beverly from San Francisco, Calif., visit them last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cooper of Lincoln were also visitors.

A large crowd attended the memorial and cabin dedication service at the Young cemetery Sunday, an account of which appears elsewhere in this paper. During the ceremonies, an Omaha lady, Mrs. M. L. Van Cleve fainted and was taken from the crowd until revived.

Dr. R. W. Tyson reports the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Spangler the fore part of the week, and later in the week of another girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Patterson, who live over near the Missouri river. All concerned are doing nicely.

Martin Sporer and family, after attending Bible school at the Christian church Sunday, invited William (Dad) Sporer to accompany them on a picnic. They found a suitable grounds north of the Platte river bridge on highway 75 near LaPlatte, and afterwards drove around the Fort Crook grounds, where the new hanger assembly plant is being built, but were unable to gain admission to the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dray of Syracuse were attending the closing exercises of the Nehawka school, as was also their granddaughter, who is working in Lincoln and had come to be present at the graduation of her brother, Don Rutledge. The party was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dinges of Alvo. Mrs. Dinges being a sister of Mrs. Robert Troop and aunt of Don Rutledge, who was graduating.

Attended Funeral in Kansas
Lester Shrader, Mrs. Vernon Gish and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spangler, who went to Parsons, Kansas, to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Leonard Morray last week, arrived home on Saturday.

Plan Children's Day Program
Arrangements are being made for a Children's day program to be given at the Christian church on Sunday, June 8th. The public is invited to this program, which will be given in the evening. Mrs. Margaret Brendel and others connected with the Bible school are in charge of the arrangements and rehearsals.

Visited at Auburn Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hauptman and daughter came here Saturday evening from their home at Lincoln and visited over night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher. Sunday, with the Brubachers and their daughter, they drove to Auburn for a visit at the A. C. Lash home. Mesdames Hauptman and Brubacher are sisters, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lash. They were pleased to find Mr. Lash, who has not been feeling well for some time, greatly improved.

Mr. Brubacher says crops down that way were looking fine, except wheat, which is quite spotted.

Visited at Shickley Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drucker and little daughter Joy made a trip to Shickley last Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Drucker's folks. They returned home the same evening.

Mr. Drucker says it is very dry here and the corn which was recently planted is not coming up and will have to be replanted. En route home he counted empty houses along the highway, finding fifteen apparently abandoned farms in a distance of 23 miles. They were surprised, however, to note the large number of cattle in that country.

Viewed New Homes in Omaha
Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles went to Omaha Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader, the four of them driving out through Dundee, where a considerable number of fine new homes are being constructed. They found several that were open for inspection and enjoyed going through them and observing all the new things in home construction and convenience.

While near the University hospital they ran upon Richard Brendel, who has been working there as an interne and enjoyed visiting with him. He was well pleased at having gone thru his first obstetrical case most satisfactorily. He is to leave there soon for service in the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln.

Wins Recognition and Uniform
In a contest for greatest results in the sale of oil, carried on throughout the state by Sinclair, W. L. Seybolt was one of the winners and received a Sinclair serviceman's uniform, complete with the Sinclair insignia thereon. Besides the uniform, he was well pleased at the recognition given his ability to sell the products of this company in such a small place.

Celebrate Birthdays.
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper entertained at a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of their two sons, Clayton and Holland. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ruby and daughter, Charmaine, of Shenandoah, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Elrod, Denton, Nebr., Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Mickle and son, Wayne, Denton, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ruby, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Dietrich, Nebraska City; Mrs. Nettie Amick, Weeping Water.

NEW BOOK AT LIBRARY
Plattsmouth public library patrons will be pleased to know that "Out of the Night" by Jan Valtin, is now on the pay shelf at the library, and many persons will be anxious to read the new edition.

"Out of the Night" is a ruthless autobiography. The author makes no apologies. He does not spare himself. Without mercy he remains true to himself to the end, for he bares his life without sentimentalities, and in doing so he has given us a book which is as terrifying as the world he depicts and as revealing as the human pen can make it.

Excerpts from this book have been printed in the Readers Digest and Life magazine.

Nehawka
By Journal Field Representative

In a ball game between Nehawka and Union, the Union team won by a score of 11 to 8.

Bruce Rosencrans of Plattsmouth was in town Monday, preparing to take over the work of timekeeper on the WPA paving job here, which is to start soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Road and their daughter Miss Caroline, who reside at Burr, were here to attend the annual banquet and visit with friends over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son Kenneth went to Lorton Sunday to see Mr. C. Steffens, father of Mrs. Anderson, who has been quite ill for some time, but is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kuntz entertained a number of friends at their home in Nehawka Sunday. Included among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henning Johnson and children, the Martin Ross family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geringer.

Mrs. Carl Stone and son Westley came up Saturday night from their home in Nebraska City to attend the alumni banquet. Mrs. Stone remained for a visit with friends and to attend other functions connected with the close of the school year.

Visited in Iowa and Missouri :
Clifford Trotter, wife and family took a trip of several days' duration last week that included stops at Elmo, Mo., and Riverton, Iowa. Mr. Trotter had business to look after at both these towns and also enjoyed meeting a number of old time friends, as he was in business there for some time.

WPA Work in Quarry
A large number of WPA workers and a number of them from Plattsmouth, arrived in Nehawka last Monday to quarry stone for the paving project of the streets of Nehawka. With the acquiring of sufficient stone the work will be started, which has been deferred for some time because of one thing or another.

Memorial Day Doings
The Memorial day was observed by the American Legion when they in the first place marked the graves of the soldier dead. The Legion and Auxiliary members gathered in the hall and also members of the Boy Scouts and marched to the cemetery to decorate the graves. Judge Carter of the supreme court was the speaker of the occasion, and paid a very high tribute to those who gave freely of their lives that liberty might not perish from the land.

Alumni Banquet Great Success.
At the alumni banquet of the Nehawka school held last Saturday night, there were plates laid for over a hundred banqueters, who met and enjoyed a very fine supper, served by the Busy Workers of the Methodist church. Many short addresses were made by former students of the school who had left school life and gone out into the world and have achieved success in their chosen vocation.

MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The Mynard Community club will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, May 30, at 8 o'clock, in the United Brethren church basement.

The program will be patriotic and educational. We were able to secure President Rudy C. Mueller, an outstanding leader in the field of aviation, as our speaker.

Mr. Mueller is president of Frye Aircraft company of Nebraska. He has since 1928 been very active in aviation in the middle west. For several years Mr. Mueller was office manager of the Mid West Aviation Co., and from 1935 to 1939 was manager of the Omaha Municipal Airport. He has served for the past three years as governor of the N. A. A. for State of Nebraska, and in addition the last two years been president of the North Central States Aviation Conference, which comprises Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wyoming and Wisconsin. He is also chairman for the state of Nebraska for the National Aviation Training Association. As president of the Mueller Flying Service, he has conducted two contracts of the Non-College Civilian Pilots Training Flight Program.

The Frye Aircraft company of Omaha has recently trained and placed seven hundred men in the aircraft industry. The training given in this institution is thorough and sound.

I am sure you will be interested to learn more about our fastest growing industry, aviation. Then here is your opportunity to hear a man who is a leader in this field.

Remember the date, May 30, at 8 p. m., in the church basement. —Westside Program Committee.

CALLAHAN CHEFS ORGANIZE
Six girls met at the home of Mrs. Alvin Backmeier May 23 to organize a cooking club. The following were elected officers: Marjorie Neiben, president; Naomi Jean Brunkow, vice president; Joyce Stock, secretary-treasurer; Phyllis Gray, news reporter and pianist; Ferne Backmeier, song leader and Lois Jean Reed, cheer leader.

It was voted to name the club the "Callahan Chefs." Following the meeting chocolate fudge was served.

We have many hopes for this summer and will welcome new members. The next meeting will be June 5th at 2 o'clock at the home of
