

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

James Wade who has been poorly for some time, was better this last week and able to get about some.

Kenneth McBride took Mrs. Addie Fleischman to Lincoln Monday, from where she took a train for Washington state, expecting to spend the summer there with her daughter.

Mrs. Belle Coadley, the former Belle Hullah, has completed her work as a teacher in an outstate school and is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hullah.

Mrs. Monte Meadows, of Omaha, a sister of Mrs. Herman Penterman, came down for the alumni banquet on Friday of last week and visited with friends and relatives here from Friday until after Sunday.

Albert Kuntz, who recently moved to a house in the northwest part of town, suffered a rib fracture when he fell through the register opening of the hot air furnace. As a result he has been crippling around for a number of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fisher, who reside near Alvo, were in Elmwood last Tuesday, doing some trading and also calling on the doctor to have the cast changed on their baby. The little one has been wearing a cast since she was six months of age.

Mrs. S. J. Moore, of Omaha, formerly Miss Langhorst, of Elmwood, and her daughter, have been guests here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Langhorst. She enjoyed attending the alumni banquet and meeting many old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wood were visiting last Sunday at Weeping Water at the home of their son, Stanley Wood and family, where all enjoyed a very pleasant time. The main attraction was the little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Penterman and Mrs. Morris Penterman, accompanied by Mrs. Monte Meadows, who has been visiting in Elmwood at the home of her brother, Herman Penterman, were down to Otoe last Friday, where they spent the day visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Edward Penterman, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for some time, departed last week for her home at Carroll, Iowa but will stop at Rockwell City first for a brief visit. They formerly lived there, where her husband was engaged in business several years.

Darlene Hollenbeck returned to her work Sunday afternoon after a number of days spent at home. The Misses Betty Buccannan and Jo Small, friends of Darlene at the University, spent Decoration day with her and all returned to their exams at the University of Nebraska.

Here for Alumni Banquet

County Treasurer John E. Turner and family and Attorney J. A. Capwell and family of Plattsmouth were among the large group of former Elmwood high school graduates who were here for the alumni banquet a week ago Friday night.

Entertained Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Clements had as guests at their home on Memorial day, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Turner and family of Ashland, the N. D. Bothwell and Orest Cook families, Oscar S. Turner, B. I. Clements and wife and their daughter, Miss Alice.

Venturing in Turkey Business

Henry Vogt is planning on raising some three thousand turkeys this summer and is receiving the "poult" this month. A lot of patience is required in the care of the young birds until they get started, but there is said to be a right nice profit for the successful raisers.

Many Old Grads Return

Some 226 former students of the Elmwood high school were assembled at three community building Friday evening, May 30th. It was the largest crowd ever to attend an event of this kind in Elmwood. A fine banquet, prepared in the newly outfitted kitchen of the community building was thoroughly enjoyed by all. After the meal, came a well arranged program. Supt. L. S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth schools was to have been the speaker, but at the last moment was prevented from coming, and Milo Price, Plattsmouth postmaster, formerly a teacher in the Plattsmouth schools, took his place and delivered a splendid address.

Some splendid selections were rendered by the male quartet composed of Alfred Bornemeier, Paul Rueter, Alvin Rueter and Howard Vogt, to accompaniment played by Lucile Vogt.

There was also a marimba solo by Norman Leger and a vocal solo by Margaret Cook, accompanied by Darlene Hollenbeck.

Everett Jackman was the toastmaster, and the following spoke: William Aetehson, "Welcome." Response by Arlin Krause. Charles Miller, "Remembrance." Marjorie Stark Miller, "Reunion." S. L. Clements, "Rededication."

Will be Near Neighbors

Two Elmwood girls, Misses Phillis Greene and Betty Clements, plan to attend summer school at Madison, Wisconsin, where they will have the company of each other in a strange city far from home.

Flies Home for Alumni

Charles Aldrich, son of Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, the well known Nebraska authoress, arrived in Elmwood one day last week, coming to attend the alumni banquet and visit his mother. He flew from New York to Lincoln, this being the second plane he has owned. He has been flying for quite some time, unbeknownst to folks here. At Lincoln he was met and brought on here in a car.

Nicholas Becker Buried Here

Mr. Becker, better known as "Nick" Becker, who formerly resided in and near Elmwood, but who moved to the west, passed away some days since in the west and was buried in the Elmwood cemetery last Monday. Mr. Becker was a brother of Mrs. Charles Froelich.

Memorial Day at Elmwood

Memorial day was fittingly observed in Elmwood with an address at the American Legion community building, followed by a procession to the Elmwood cemetery where the rest of the ceremonies took place. The parade to the cemetery was led by Miss Jean Adair Bothwell as majorette, followed by the band, the American Legion with their colors and firing squad, the Daughters of Rebeah and the I. O. O. F.

At the cemetery, graves were decorated and the firing squad fired a salute to the dead, with taps blown to end the ceremonies.

There were many visitors from out of town, as well as a large number of home folks, who are wont to turn out each year to pay tribute to the soldier dead of our nation.

Trying Two Hybrids

Charles Spohn has plowed up his 50 acre wheat field on which the stand was very poor and planted two different kinds of hybrid corn in the plot. Mr. Spohn, who recently suffered a broken leg, is now fully recovered and able to get about with all the alacrity of a younger man.

Vacation Bible School Closes

Vacation Bible school in Elmwood closed last Friday. This was held at the school building, with F. J. Wells, superintendent of public schools, acting as dean. The children were from all of the churches in Elmwood and surrounding territory. The enrollment exceeded seventy.

The advisers of the school were

Rev. C. H. Lind, Methodist pastor, and Rev. F. H. Stevens, Evangelical pastor. The beginners were under the direction of Ethel Langhorst and Adele Kunz; Primary, Mrs. Harry Linder and Adella Buell; Juniors, Mrs. Leonard Klemme and Edna Fleischman; Intermediates, Mrs. Jessie Creamer and Mrs. Walter Oehlerker; Supervisor of Art, Mrs. Robert Acton; Director of Music, Geraldine Leus; Pianist, Corrine Lind.

In conjunction with the closing of the school, a program was given on Sunday evening at the Christian church. Short talks were given by Supt. Wells, Rev. Lind and Rev. Stevens.

Numbers were given from each department of the school. The program closed with a light dramatization. Mrs. V. H. Clements handled the solo work with Mrs. Creamer at the piano.

Everyone enjoyed the program and feels that this has been a great asset to the community.

MURDOCK

By Journal Field Representative

Miss Edith Lee of Council Bluffs was a visitor in Murdock, guest of Mrs. Henry Heineman, and at the home of William Rikli.

Fred Buell and Edmond Guiltorf have purchased some new hay carrying apparatus that will enable them to handle their hay with greater ease.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Murdock Evangelical church met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Zabek, one of their fellow members.

E. E. Ganaway, the shoemaker and repairman, has engaged in the manufacture of pocket books as a side line and has been able to dispose of a number of these keepers of the family budget.

Henry E. Carsen, manager of the Murdock elevator, who has been ill for several weeks, has been showing good improvement of late and was able to return to work at the elevator last Monday.

Mrs. Verda Perry, of Brule, a sister of I. C. McCrorey, has been visiting at the home of her brother and family in Murdock for the past few days and will also visit at Plattsmouth and Murray while here.

E. E. Ganaway was enjoying a visit from his daughter, Mrs. O. H. Robson of Belfast. Others present at that time included the family of Orley Brinkman and Anderson Dose, making a goodly number present to enjoy the Sunday dinner.

On Thursday the ladies of Murdock were meeting at the home of Mrs. Merle Gillespie, where they honored Miss Dorothy Gorthey with a pre-nuptial shower. Many of the friends were present and presented many very nice gifts as tokens of their esteem for this fine young lady, who is soon to become a bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Buck and their son of Grand Island were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of his parents, John H. Buck and wife of Murdock. Other guests at the Buck home that day were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Munchau and the children, as well as Henry Brookmueller of Waverly, father of Mrs. Buck, as well as Frank Coleman and mother from Greenwood.

Not National, but Local Defense

We saw a notice posted in one of the business houses of Murdock stating there is pending an ordinance to assess a special dog tax on all dogs maintained or harbored within the village limits. This is not a National defense measure, but purely one of local defense, and a good one at that, as it may result in a reduction of the canine population of the town.

Teas Still in Vogue

Although the new roof has been placed on the R. N. A. hall as reported in this department last week, there still remains a little matter of some $45 to be raised in order to complete payment of same. So for some little time, at least, teas will still be in vogue in Murdock and the next one is to be held Tuesday, June 17. Do not forget the day and be present with your dime . . . or quarter if you can spare one.

Shower in Murdock

Predictions are for a shower in Murdock on Tuesday of this week. That may sound like a little long range prediction, but we are reliably informed it will occur. We refer to a shower in honor of Miss Dorothy Gorthey at the M. W. A. hall, by fellow members of the R. N. A. lodge. This is to precede the wedding of Miss Gorthey, which will take place during the present month.

Had Enjoyable Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool report a most enjoyable visit over Memorial day and the week end at the home of Mr. Tool's mother, Mrs. Leah Tool at Ackley, Iowa. They always aim to get there for Memorial and Thanksgiving day visits at the home of the mother. Mr. Tool says crops are looking fine in that portion of the state of Iowa they traversed while on their trip.

Visited Here Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyer and their son and daughter of Sioux City, were visiting in Murdock last Sunday, being guests at the homes of Mrs. August Panska and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool, parents of the elder Meyers.

Truck and Auto Collision

Dick McDonald, driver and Fred Basse, his riding companion, were injured in a collision of their pick-up truck and the car of a traveling salesman a week ago Monday. The wreck occurred at the juncture of highways 1 and 50, known as the Manley corner. A man named Burns and residing in Lincoln was the driver of the car. He suffered a badly cut knee and was taken to Plattsmouth by officers who were called to the scene to investigate the cause of the wreck.

The pick-up truck was owned by Paul Stick and the boys driving it were both bruised and injured. Mr. Basse suffered a broken shoulder in addition to his bruises and Mr. McDonald suffered most severe bruises, although investigation showed no bones broken.

EAGLE

Special Journal Correspondence

Shirley and Darlene Hiatt spent the first of this week with relatives at Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Alice Pentiman of Elmwood is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Robertson and Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Slosson and Sara Lee of Waltham visited in Eagle during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Axe of Lincoln visited Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Houston on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Winkler and family and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Crandell and Eldon with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fleischman enjoyed a picnic at York Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, who taught in the Eagle schools several terms, were in town Monday. Mr. Miller taught music in Colorado during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allen and Jack of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. George Althouse, Inez and Clyde, were dinner guests of Mrs. S. E. Allen and Mrs. R. B. Morgan last Friday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wright on Memorial day were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hite of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mick and Mrs. Cora Van Scoye of Lincoln.

Eagle High Commencement

The annual commencement exercises of Eagle high school were held at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening, May 28. The class was composed of fifteen young men and women of whom Lois Jean Lytle was president, Robert Ronhovec, vice president, and Ronald McWilliams, secretary-treasurer. Besides the officers, the other class members were Wilma Fischer, Dorothy Frohlich, Donna Belle Judkins, Lucille Henriksen, Maxine Maahs, Lucille Mayer, Elveng Norton, Velma Peckham, Everett Rockenbach, Betty Scattergood, William Wheatley and Lucille Winters.

Betty Scattergood delivered the salutatory and Lucille Henriksen the valedictory. J. E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, was the principal speaker, having as his subject "What We Ask of Peace."

Supt. P. D. Pyle presented the eighth grade diplomas, the Senior diplomas and scholarships, and Frank Olson, commander of Nash-Jensen post, American Legion, presented the Legion Citizenship award. Rev. Metzger delivered the invocation and the benediction. Madelyn Franks played the processional and recessional.

Your order for Job Printing will receive prompt attention here.
