We Can Help You Solve the Problem of Wearing Apparel thru Continued Low Prices

No question about it! All this speculation about what national defense and rearmament is going to do to prices in this country is fast becoming a major topic of conversation. Girls in the stores and offices, farmers around the elevators on Saturday, wives over chicken wire... all are wondering and talking, and they are anxious to do something about it.

We are in a position to give you a lot of help at the present time in children's and misses wearing apparel. We quote here a few of many money-saving items.

Bemberg sheer dresses, $3.95 to $6.50. Panama cloth by Nelly Don, $3.95 to $6.50. Nelly Don volles, $1.95 to $6.50.

New slacks suits, $1.95 to $5.95. See these before you buy.

Play suits at $1.95 to $5.95—another fine value group.

Hosiery that is smart, new and famous for wear at 69¢ and 79¢ a pair.

Just received a beautiful assortment of summer hats. Your choice for only $1.00.

And so on, we could continue to enumerate item after item on which our low prices save you money. But the story can best be expressed in few words: "No price increases here... until absolutely necessary." For low prices and personal shopping service, you won't go wrong by coming to—

LAYMEN HAVE SERVICE

Sunday the First Methodist church had their service conducted by the lay members of the church, Rev. J. C. Lawson being at Ceresco for the homecoming service at that place.

The work of the Women's Society of Christian Service was told by Mrs. Edgar Newton, president of the Federation. The new organization is one that combines the foreign and home missionary society and the aid society.

J. Howard Davis, the church treasurer, told of the business affairs of the church and the management necessary to keep the organization in operation.

Judge A. H. Duxbury gave the congregation the detailed work of the board of stewards and the need for the contact of the stewards with membership of the church.

DRAW A LARGE CROWD

The KMA country school, popular radio and stage show, was enjoyed Monday night by an audience that filled the American Legion building and the general verdict was the show was one of the best that has been presented. A dance followed the show.

The show was sponsored by the American Legion Junior baseball team and a very neat sum will be realized to apply on the cost of equipment and training.

ATTEND HOME DEMONSTRATION CONFERENCE

Mrs. Roy Cole, Mrs. J. R. Reeder, and Mrs. Edgar Newton, of Plattsmouth; Mrs. Lowell S. Devoe, of Lincoln, and Miss Evelyn Borne, of Bulette, Wyoming, attended the convention of the Nebraska Council of Home Demonstration Clubs at Hastings, Nebraska.

The Cass County Chorus participated in a massed chorus program Thursday afternoon, and 183 voices, representing ten or more counties, was heard. The program was transcribed and Saturday afternoon it was broadcast over WOW at 1 o'clock.

Thursday evening the Cass County Chorus presented "Meeting to Music" as a special feature for the Fun Feed. Over 400 people attended the banquet and program which followed. The chorus members were entertained over night and attended the final session of the convention Friday morning.

Miss Borne, Mrs. Newton's niece, returned to her Wyoming home this afternoon.

HOLD BLIND BOGIE TOURNEY

Sunday the members of the Plattsmouth Golf club held a blind bogie tournament at the course west of the city. The golf course this year is the best that it has been for the past six years and in ideal condition for the enjoyment of the members.

Breakfast was served for the members desiring it at the L. L. McCarty home near the course and made a most happy opening of the playing. The bogie was from 66 to 75 with the members. Clem Woster had the lucky 66 in his play and others winning in the bogie were Dr. W. J. Snyder, Louisville, J. W. Holmes, Carl Christy, James F. Pegley, Robert Wurl, Dr. R. P. Westover, Irwin Inman, Louisville, C. F. Crawford, Bud Blair, Louisville, Milo Farney, Don Pittman and L. L. McCarty, were in the bogie numbers.

The club plans another of these on July 13th with breakfast and a blind bogie, with Chris Lien and James Begley in charge.

FIND MRS. SEDLAK BETTER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton and family, Michael Sedlak, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert R. Lang, Mrs. Jarvis Slayton and small daughter, were in Omaha Sunday afternoon and visited at the Methodist hospital with Mrs. Michael Sedlak, mother of Mesdames Lang, Fulton and Slayton. They found Mrs. Sedlak, who is there for a rest and treatment, cheerful and better.

Previously Matthew Sedlak, a son, was at the hospital Saturday and found the mother resting comfortably and feeling improved.

Masonic Body Holds Session at Omaha This Week

Red Cross of Constantine Meets at Scottish Rite Temple—W. A. Robertson Attends

The sixty-ninth Imperial Conclave of the order of the Red Cross of Constantine, organization of high ranking Masons, was held in Omaha this week and attended by some 250 members and their wives were in attendance at the sessions and the social features arranged for the ladies' entertainment.

The conclave was held in Omaha this year in compliment to Dr. H. A. Senter, retiring grand sovereign of the empire of the west.

This is one of the most exclusive Masonic orders, the lodge having but twenty-eight members in Nebraska at this time.

Guests included two other grand sovereigns in North America, John A. M. Taylor, of Toronto, Canada, ranking officer of the Canadian lodge and Albert T. Hanby, of Philadelphia, ranking officer of the empire of the east.

William A. Robertson, grand commander of the Knights Templar and member of the order of Constantine for several years was in attendance with Mrs. Robertson at the sessions and the very pleasant socials and luncheons.

ANNIVERSARY OF PIONEER

Sunday was the eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mary Wolf, a pioneer resident of Cedar Creek, in which community she has spent the greater part of her long and useful life.

The birthday was featured by a picnic dinner arranged by the members of the family and served at the home of Mrs. A. O. Ault, a daughter. Here all but one of the children were able to gather with the mother and spend the passing hours most delightfully, while many of the grandchildren and great grandchildren were also joining in the festive time.

Mrs. Wolf came from Germany with her parents who settled in Eight Mile Grove precinct and where she has since made her home. The children and their families who were present were Mrs. Simon Clark, Mrs. George R. Sayles, John F. Wolf, Plattsmouth; Mrs. A. O. Ault and Mrs. W. H. Lohnes, Cedar Creek. Mrs. Emma Hoppell, of Bayard, Nebraska, was unable to attend.

ENTERTAINS CHURCH GROUP

Sunday Miss Barbara Gering was hostess at a noonday luncheon for Bishop Howard R. Brinker of the Episcopal church, members of the vestry of the St. Luke's church, Mrs. J. M. Roberts, organist and Canon and Mrs. W. J. H. Petter. The luncheon was much enjoyed and permitted a conference of the church heads following the confirmation services. Those who participated in the pleasant event were Mr. and Mrs. Rea F. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritsch, Miss Dora Fricke.
