MURRAY

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cisney were shopping in Plattsmouth Saturday evening.

Mrs. Esther Rhoden was a guest of her friend, Mrs. William Gorder, in Plattsmouth, last week end.

W. G. Boedeker, president of the Murray State Bank, was called to Texas last week on business matters, arriving home Friday.

Speaking of the wheat crop down that way, Mr. Sturm said it will yield from 20 to 25 bushels per acre, and the quality is very good.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and daughter, Beverly Ann, were visitors in Plattsmouth Sunday, guests of Mrs. Edward Brubacher, mother of Gussie.

Charles M. Meade, who is farming the Mrs. Gilmore place, has an exceptionally fine field of corn which is about ready to be laid by, being very free of weeds.

Ben Noel, who last week passed his 63rd birthday anniversary, was busy Monday doing some repair work on tractors for Virgil Sudduth and Joseph C. Wheeler, so they could get to work plowing their corn.

W. L. Seybolt was called to Avoca Monday and not having any means of getting back, Mrs. Seybolt and Mrs. Brendel drove over after him, having some one else look after the service station until their return.

Victor Wehrbein was cutting his wheat last Monday afternoon, being assisted by his father-in-law, W. O. Troop and some of the neighbors.

A crew of surveyors from Texas was working east of Murray last Saturday surveying a line for another new pipe line, through which gasoline and other oil products are to be pumped to Omaha from the southern oil fields.

William Spangler, who has been employed by the Norfolk Packing company at Plattsmouth, driving to and from the county seat, has secured living quarters in the Anheuser-Busch building at Plattsmouth and he and his wife are now living there.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Comstock of Plattsmouth were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brendel. The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Comstock were schoolmates at the University of Nebraska at Dr. Richard Brendel, when all made their home with Mrs. Brendel there.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Davis, who are best known as "Meek" and "Hattie," were here from their home in Lincoln early Monday morning, calling on old friends and acquaintances and looking after business matters connected with property interests in this vicinity. They called on John A. Davis and also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis.

The demand for canned foods as a national defense aid is spurring a great many housewives to put up all possible. The Pleasant Hill club, west of Murray, met last Wednesday and made a real session of it, canning a large amount of vegetables.

George Nickles and wife were in Omaha Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader, who have just returned from a trip to the west coast given them by the company for whom Chester works.

Mr. Shrader is a nephew of Mrs. Nickles. They found other guests at the Shrader home including Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kelsey of Shenandoah, Iowa, also Myron Reese and daughter Joan of Shenandoah, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yant of Omaha.

Ships Cattle to Market
Frank Dill of north of Mynard was a business visitor in Murray Monday, and in conversing with the Journal field man, told of shipping some 54 head of cattle to Omaha during the past week, when he struck a very fine market, with the price he received ranging right up near the top for the day.

He also marketed a number of head of hogs, which brought equally good prices.

Mrs. Ray Dill to Hospital
Mrs. Ray Dill who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to Clarkson hospital in Omaha last Saturday, where she was placed under observation and is receiving treatment. Friends hope she will be able to return home in a short time much improved.

Wind Causes Some Damage
At an early hour Monday morning a severe wind storm struck this part of the county, accompanied by a very light rain. While no great amount of damage was done, numerous trees were blown down. One of these, a large shade tree on the O. A. Davis lawn, another near the bank had the top blown off and one in the W. L. Seybolt yard was leveled to the ground.

Returned Home Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole, of Brule, who were called here a number of times on account of the illness of Mrs. Catherine Perry, coming at the time of her death a fortnight ago and remaining during the past week, left last Sunday morning for their home, expecting to reach there by night.

Undergoes Operation
John Schafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Schafer, who has been feeling poorly, was taken with a severe abdominal pain, and the family physician was called who ordered him removed to the hospital. The young man was hurried to the Clarkson hospital in Omaha, where he underwent an emergency operation for the removal of his appendix which was the cause of his trouble. He rallied very nicely and has been doing fine. Doctors predict a speedy recovery.

"STITCHING SISTERS"

The regular meeting of the "Stitching Sisters" was held at the home of Dorothy Clarence on Friday afternoon, June 13. The meeting was called to order by the president, Margaret Crawford. The pledge of allegiance to the American flag was given. The roll was called and answered by naming a kind of material. The minutes were read, corrected, and approved.

Rosetta Crawford, our citizenship leader, read an article on "Proper Display of the American Flag." We sang a new song "National 4-H Club Pledge" and "Follow the Gleam." The meeting was then turned over to the leader, Mrs. Ivan Balfour, who introduced our home agent, Miss Jessie Baldwin. Miss Baldwin showed us different kinds of materials to use in making slips and also patterns for dresses and suits. She showed many samples of materials suitable for winter-wear and interesting accessories for dresses and suits. She had on display manikins of dress patterns. She had samples of different kinds of buttonholes, pleats, facings, finishes, and ornaments. We were very glad to have Miss Baldwin bring this display to our meeting and we also received much good from the helpful hints she gave us. Mrs. Ivan Balfour, our leader, gave a few highlights of Club Week, which she attended. A club yell for Miss Baldwin was given. Elizabeth Faris brought her slip for display and Dorothy Clarence a dress. Roll call for the next meeting is to be "Helpful Hints," gained at this meeting. Delicious refreshments of ice cream, cookies, and candy were served by the hostess. Visitors at our meeting were Miss Jessie Baldwin, Mrs. Winnie Crawford, Mrs. Victor Clarence, Iola Clarence, and Norma Younker.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Elizabeth Faris on Friday afternoon, June 27.

Ump Stops Battle in Eighth; Platts Winner

Phillips, Hayes, Hit Homers—Pregame Injury Checks Noble, But Hayes, Noble in Relief

By ROBERT "Counting-at-the-Knockdowns" COOK

In exactly 4 minutes, 11 3/5 seconds of the eighth inning an umpire named Gus became definitely disgusted with one William Smith's strictly profane usage of the king's English and halted a simply gruesome ball game by informing Senior Smith that he was to vacate the bench in nothin' flat. This left the Merchants with only eight men so they and Auburn (the opponents) departed midst the combat's smoke and heat with Plattsmouth leading 9-4 on the grace of a great comeback stimulated by home runs on the part of Joe Phillips and Bob Hayes. Joe Noble started for Plattsmouth but was forced to retire after three innings due to an aggravating shoulder injury incurred prior to the game time when some miscellaneous fifth columnist pelted him with the horsehide. Phillips and Petet led the fourteen hit attack with three safeties apiece. Everybody got at least one bingle. Red Gerard went all the way for Auburn and was still in there swinging—with a bat—at the end. Ray, Wilson, and Gerard led the locals at bat with two blows each. Here's a blow-by-blow description of this hectic encounter.

Round 1
Plattsmouth: Cuthrell was safe when Padgett dropped the throw. Hayes doubled to center. Cuthrell taking third. O'Donnell took a drink. Phillips singled to center scoring Cuthrell and Hayes and taking second when Helm started playing handball. Petet stopped Gerard's right hook to the body and took first. Phillips stole third. Smith fanned. Noble popped up to Gerard. 2 runs, 2 hits, 2 errors.

Round 2
Auburn: Noble led with a left jab which failed to find its mark, and Helm walked, later stealing second. Ray hit to right scoring Helm. Genzlinger lined to Toman who picked Ray off first. Ray didn't know there was only one down and said, quote: "Why doesn't somebody tell me things?" unquote. Poggemeyer rolled. Noble to Ault 1 run. 1 hit, no errors. Plattsmouth's round.

Round 3
Plattsmouth: Hayes struck out. O'Donnell popped to Hutto. Phillips singled to left. Petet drove a base hit to right, Phillips galloping to third. Smith flew out to Helm. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Round 4
Plattsmouth: Noble singled between third and short. Ault was safe on Gerard's fumble. Noble to second. Toman sliced one to right. Noble scoring. Ault was nipped at second. Gerard to Genzlinger. Cuthrell skied to Helm. Hayes raced to second when Hutton dropped his high fly. Toman reaching third. O'Donnell was out, Wilson to Padgett. 1 run, two hits, 2 errors.

Round 5
Plattsmouth: Phillips staggered Gerard with a home run into deep. deep left. Joe stumbled at home plate and tore his pants. Shame, Joey, and they were brand spanking new. Petet looped one to Helm. Smith went to second on Wilson's wild heave and stole third. Noble fouled to Wilson. Ault fouled to Helm. 1 run, 1 hit, 1 error.

Round 6
Plattsmouth: Toman lifted to Hutton. Gerard worked his way in close and struck out Cuthrell and Hayes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Round 7
Plattsmouth: O'Donnell tripled to left garden. Wisebrook lost Phillips' popup and Joe was safe as O'Donnell scored. Petet singled to right. Phillips moving to second. Smith struck out. Hutton dropped Noble's fly but tossed out Phillips at third. Ault doubled to center bringing in Petet. Toman whiffed. Gerard was now counting on his brains and deception, but a good lug of rye and a couple of breaths of fresh air would have done him a lot more good. 2 runs, 3 hits, 1 error.

Round 8
Plattsmouth: Cuthrell sizzled one past Ray for a single. Hayes hit a home run into center field, scoring Cuthrell ahead of him. Gerard was groggy and barely able to stay on his feet. O'Donnell grounded, Ray to Padgett. Phillips lined to Helm. Petet singled off Ray's foot, knee, glove, and anything else that got in the way. Smith singled to left. Petet taking second. Gerard grabbed and held—the resin bag. Noble singled to center scoring Petet but was out on the road to second Hutton to Ray. 3 runs, 5 hits, no errors.

Round 9
Plattsmouth: Hutton was safe on Ault's bunt. Fullerton forced Hutton at second. Phillips to Hayes. Fullerton took second on a wild pitch and Gerard came to bat. Gerard was tottering helplessly on his pins, as the umpire, obviously riled at Smith's jibes halted the uneven contest, and Plattsmouth was the winner in 4 minutes, 11 3/5 seconds. Hayes was the winning pitcher.

Round 10
These two teams will meet in a grudge return match Sunday according to rumors. Every loyal fan is herewith requested to render the Merchants by bringing decayed vegetables, left over firecrackers, and any other weapon capable of inflicting damage.

STITCHING SISTERS MEET

The regular meeting of the "Stitching Sisters," 4-H winter clothing club, was held at the home of Elizabeth Faris on Friday afternoon, June 27. The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Elizabeth Faris. The pledge of allegiance to the American flag was given. The roll was called and answered by telling something that Mrs. Baldwin, our county home agent, had showed at our last meeting. The minutes were read and approved. Our citizenship leader, Rosetta Crawford, read an article on "How to Display the American Flag with Other Flags." Three members gave a dialogue on safety, "Building a Fire." The club sang "Song of the Open Country" and "Aul Lang Syne" and also gave a club yell. Kathleen Balfour demonstrated many different kinds of seams she had made. Each of the club members who went to Humboldt to judging school reported some interesting fact that she had particularly learned. Each girl told how many garments she had made since the clothing project started. Elizabeth Faris displayed a dress and coat she had made over. The meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Ivan Balfour. We discussed underwear and dress materials. The leader showed us how to slip-stitch and also how to apply French bias. We discussed patterns suitable for the individual girl. Plans were made to make money to be used for the members to go to camp.

Roll call for our next meeting will be name colors suitable to the individual girl. Delicious refreshments of home made ice cream, cake and iced tea were served by the hostess and her mother.

The next meeting will be held at Rosetta Crawford's home, July 8.

Plattsmouth Lady Meets Many Friends on Coast

Mrs. John E. Schutz Guest of E. L. Spies Family and Enjoys Many Fine Outings in West.

Mrs. John E. Schutz returned home Monday from a delightful outing spent on the west coast where she was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Spies and family at Ontario, Canada, who took Mrs. Schutz on many interesting tours over that section of the coast country.

The trip west was made by train and took Mrs. Schutz through the great Royal Gorge as well as the Feather River canyon.

One of the experiences that Mrs. Schutz recalls was the fact that each morning she was able to go out into the grove at the Spies place and gathered her own oranges for breakfast which to a Nebraskan was a great novelty.

Another of the incidents that Mrs. Schutz will long recall is the visit to the Glendale mausoleum, one of the noted places on the coast. Here is a great art glass window of the Last Supper and is presented with a lecture, the whole being truly impressive.

She also visited the Douglas plane factory to view as many interesting features as the regulations would permit.

Mrs. Schutz had arrived at her destination in time to attend the Cass county picnic at Long Beach where she met many of the old time friends and acquaintances, among these the members of the A. N. Sullivan family, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Asa Snider, and Mrs. W. B. Elster, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mauzy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindeman and many others who had once made Plattsmouth their home.

The Spies family are very happy and enjoy their home very much at Ontario.

JUNIOR LEGION DROPS ONE

The American Legion junior baseball team was at Glenwood Sunday to play the regular team of that place, with the result the Legion team gave the Iowans a run for their money to drop a 6 to 4 decision.

Nelsen opened on the mound for Plattsmouth with Ed Gradoville and Eldon Vroman also taking a shot at the hurling.

The team showed well through the game and is keeping in the best of shape for the district tournament to be held at Lincoln in July.

BACK HOME AGAIN

Mrs. Kate Oliver Morgan, who has been making her home in Omaha for several years, is now "back home" and among her many friends. Mrs. Morgan has purchased one of the late type Schultz "Nomad" type trailers that she has had installed on the west portion of her lots near the residence on North 6th street. This will make a much more pleasant home and cooler in every way during the summer season.
