

MANLEY

By Journal Field Representative

The free movie show last Monday night was exceptionally well attended.

W. J. Rau drove to Lincoln last Monday, being called there to transact business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleischman visited last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Gade and family.

Mrs. Clarice Salsberg of Omaha was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haws, a number of days recently.

Mrs. Richard C. DeLes Dernier of near Elmwood has been a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Davis, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Auserwald were called to Omaha one day last week, where they visited friends and looked after business matters.

Mrs. Henry Snell was a guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grosser, Friday evening, July 4th.

Mrs. Andrew Schliefer was hostess at one of the rather frequent teas—often referred to as "galloping teas"—at her home one day last week.

The Neighborhood Pinocle club of the vicinity of the Chilson school house, was entertained Sunday at the Frice Dean grove. Six couples were present and all enjoyed an excellent time.

Glen Buck and friend, William Bourke, while returning home from a trip to Plattsmouth to register a change in license for the new car of Mr. Buck, stopped in Manley for a brief visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Minford and daughter Janice and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth.

Henry Fleming, son of Paul Fleming of near Manley, volunteered for service in the United States army and was inducted into the service at Fort Crook, which has now become a sort of clearing house for soldiers—in and out. At time of our last information it had not been determined just where he would be assigned for his year—or more—of training.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haws spent the Fourth at the home of their son, Virtus Haws and family at Clay Center, Kansas, going down Thursday night and returning home Sunday. Mr. Haws says crops are good all the way to Clay Center and that wheat in that vicinity is yielding well, the average being around 25 bushels to the acre, as compared with 35 last year. Corn and oats are doing fine and there is every indication of good crops this fall.

Entertained Friends
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilos entertained a number of friends at their home last Saturday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Minford and their little one from North Platte, who have been spending their vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Ragoss and the Clifford Cooper family.

Crash at Intersection
Two cars came together at an intersection. One of them was driven by Mrs. Ehlers, with four children accompanying her. As a result of the impact, the four-year-old son of Mrs. Ehlers was bruised about the face and head and it was feared a concussion might have occurred. As it was, both eyes and much of his face became black and blue from the bruises he received.

Celebrates 86th Birthday
C. E. Mockenhaupt, who has been confined at home for several years being cared for by his daughter, Miss Sue Mockenhaupt, who is a graduate nurse, passed his 86th birthday last week. Among the guests were Mrs. John Arrias, who was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Louis Hite, both being from Lincoln.

Mr. Mockenhaupt received many beautiful greeting cards and letters, which cheered him greatly. He has lived in and near Manley for many years, acquiring a number of farms.

His son, P. A. Mockenhaupt, and three daughters were over from south of Alvo to visit him.

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

Darlene Hollenbeck was a Sunday dinner guest at the Emmett Cook home.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Kearney were visitors at the Rev. Lind home Monday.

Darlene Hollenbeck spent a few days visiting home folks this last week end.

Kenneth West has been visiting home folks from St. Louis during the past week.

Lloyd Hinkley of Bethany has been a visitor at the Lee Coon home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodge Caygill are back from California to live in our midst for at least a time.

The executive board of the W. S. C. S. are meeting with Mrs. Elden Mendenhall this afternoon.

Business called Josiah Mears to Lincoln last Tuesday forenoon, and he also enjoyed visiting with relatives.

Merle Lind spent Sunday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Lind. He is working in the Orthopedic hospital at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lamb of Lincoln were guests last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lamb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene.

Alice Engelking received the medal at the contest at the Christian church sponsored by the W. C. T. U. All contestants did fine work.

The Milo Frisbee family took in the circus at Lincoln Monday night.

Miss Nora Eveland is visiting Elmwood relatives and friends. She spends her winters in Long Beach, California.

LeRoy Cook had the misfortune of having two fingers badly hurt. It happened while using his tractor on the farm.

George Eidenmiller was in Lincoln last Tuesday morning, looking after some matters of business. The family accompanied him, enjoying the ride and a brief stay in the capital city.

A fine rain visited this vicinity last Tuesday. It was not general, however, as Shorty West, who made a trip to Omaha during the forenoon reports there was very little or no rain encountered beyond Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Greene were in Omaha last Sunday, where they were guests for the day of the Ehlers family and Sunday evening returned home, coming via Lincoln, where they stopped for a short visit with other friends.

Roasting Ears Soon Gone
Alex Miller planted some early sweet corn that matured into early roasting ears this past week, and there were enough so that many of the people hereabouts were able to get a taste, but that was about all, for the supply was soon exhausted. Uncle Alex has more on the way, however, and soon there will be enough to supply everyone.

Getting Along Nicely Now
Miss Gertrude Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Minton V. Wood, who has been home from the hospital following an operation for a severe attack of appendicitis on June 16, is making good progress now toward complete recovery.

Working on Bellevue Houses
Theo Thimzan, brother of Matthew Thimzan, has gone to Bellevue to work with his brother in the construction of a large block of houses for defense workers in the new Rehart addition to that town. This and another house construction project for Bellevue is making things hum in the old college town.

Wheat Bins Empty Now
The wheat bins that contained much sealed grain from last year and prior years, have all been emptied as the grain was shipped to market, and it is expected they will remain empty during the summer, as the wheat crop here has been very poor. However, when fall comes, with present prospects, it looks like there will be ample corn to refill the bins and then some.

Attended Fine Stock Show
Silas League, who is employed by Willard Clapp on the farm, was at Seward last week with some of the Hereford cattle belonging to Mr. Clapp, which he exhibited, winning several firsts and champion ratings. One of them, a pure white Hereford bull, was carefully groomed by Mr. League who is very capable when it comes to getting stock ready for show purposes, and the animal drew a first and champion award. It is quite likely it will be exhibited at the Chicago show later this year.

Says Ground Very Dry
W. W. Coatman, who has been working for Clement and Stuart in the building of some fences for their cattle feeding lots, says the ground is very dry down a little way, as they have found in the digging of the post holes.

Visited in Old Missouri
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor and the mother of Tom, visited over the week end at Morrison, Mo., going to spend a short time with a daughter, Mrs. Kitsu Depte and husband.

Held Community Sing
From the band stand located near the southwest corner of the drug store, a community sing was held last Wednesday evening with Bud Clements as master of ceremonies. He got out the trusty scythe and cut the weeds, putting the ground in shape for the placing of the seats.

The event was very successful and we would not be surprised to see it repeated at frequent intervals during the summer season.

Held Joint Installation
Several weeks ago officers were elected by the I. O. O. F. and its auxiliary organization, the Daughters of Rebekah. Last Tuesday evening a joint installation of the new officers was carried out at the regular meeting place and with a good attendance present.

A group of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs came over from Weeping Water and enjoyed the hospitality of the local lodges.

A feed followed the initiatory ceremonies, and a cordial invitation was extended the Elmwood folks to attend a similar ceremony there in the near future.

Weeping Water
Special Journal Correspondence

Mrs. J. W. Mendenhall has been very ill at Lincoln General hospital during the past week.

Rev. John L. Kemp returned Tuesday from Colorado, where he spent the past month attending a summer school for ministers at Sylvan Dale, near Estes ark.

Joseph L. Corley is at Bryan Memorial hospital, in Lincoln, where he underwent an operation Thursday morning. Latest reports are that he is gaining rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Towle and son John, arrived here from their home in California Wednesday for a two weeks' visit and to look after their real estate here.

A group of Red Cross workers met Friday afternoon in the basement of the auditorium and prepared work for the Red Cross workers at their meeting to be held Tuesday afternoon.

Ninety boys and girls from Weeping Water were enrolled for Red Cross swimming lessons at Louisville last week. Mrs. Harry Wheeler was in charge of the group and did a fine job of it.

Thomas M. Archer, new company commander of the CCC camp, was transferred here from Seneca, Kansas. He succeeds R. L. Dudley, who is awaiting orders to report for duty with the S. U. army.

Mrs. Glen Stratton was taken to Bryan Memorial hospital Wednesday. She underwent a major operation Wednesday morning from which she has rallied and her condition has been reported as being very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Gutte Strandboze and little daughter of Long Beach, California, are visiting Mr. Strandboze's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strandboze and Mrs. Strandboze's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Thomas.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church made plans at their meeting last Wednesday for the dinner to be held July 26 in connection with the county-wide Wesleyan Rally day which is to be held in their church. Dr. A. V. Hunter, formerly a Weeping Water man, and now Wesleyan field executive, and Chancellor Benjamin F. Schwartz will be out-of-town speakers.

Young Folks Enjoy Party
Little Richard Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gibson, entertained seven of his small friends at a dinner and theatre party Wednesday evening of last week in honor of Jerry Bowers, who will leave Weeping Water soon with his mother to make their home near Rollo, Missouri, where her father, Harold D. Bowers, is stationed in the army. The eight young people had dinner at the Hayes Pastry Shop and then were taken to the Chief Theatre. Mrs. Gibson acted as chaperon.

Closing Dining Room
Mrs. Edward Dowleh a closing her dining room at Hotel Rest Haven and will move to Omaha about the twentieth of this month to be with her husband, who is employed as an automobile salesman.

This popular eating place will be greatly missed in the community. Mrs. Raines, owner of Rest Haven, will use the dining room as a dormitory, as she is getting the house filled and needs more room for the old people who are boarding with her.

Wolcott-Hauseman
Miss Elizabeth Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd P. Wolcott, of Weeping Water, and Lawrence Hauseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hauseman, of Syracuse, were united in marriage on Thursday afternoon, July 10, at five o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends at the home of the bride's parents.

The ceremony was performed in the living room of the Wolcott home, using the fireplace as a background. This was banked with pink, lavender and white gladiolus.

The bride was attired in her going-away costume of brown and beige, redingote style, and the groom also wore brown.

They were attended by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolcott, of Hebron. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John L. Kemp, pastor of the Weeping Water Congregational church, of which the bride is a member.

The bride is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school and of Coty college at Nevada, Missouri, and has been employed as a bookkeeper at the First National Bank since her graduation from the latter school. She is the granddaughter of two of Weeping Water's earliest pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Wolcott, who arrived here from Ohio in 1857, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hitchman, who came here from Pennsylvania in the late eighties.

Mr. Hauseman has been employed at the CCC camp here for the past four years and is well known in this community.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hauseman, and three daughters, Katherine, Virginia and Francis, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolcott, of Hebron, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fowler, of Wilbur.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Estate No. 3568

To all persons interested in the estate of Abraham Hamburger, deceased, both creditors and heirs, you and each of you are hereby notified that on the 2nd day of July, 1941, W. C. Soennichsen and Nora Soennichsen filed their petition in the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska, alleging that one Abraham Hamburger also known as A. Hamburger, a resident of St. Joseph, Buchanan County, Missouri, died on the 25th day of March, 1878, leaving a last will and testament, which said instrument was on the 25th day of March, 1878, admitted to probate at the Probate Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, a copy of such last will and testament and the probate thereof duly authenticated, is produced herewith.

That the said Abraham Hamburger died seized in fee simple title in and to the E½ of Lot 6 in Block 35 in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, and that the petitioners, W. C. Soennichsen and Nora Soennichsen are interested in said real estate as purchasers of the fee simple title thereto.

Petitioners pray that a decree of said Court be made and entered, allowing said instrument as the last will and testament of Abraham Hamburger, deceased. That regular administration of said estate be dispensed with and decreeing that said estate was devised to Dina Hamburger, widow, Yette Siegel, also known as Henrietta Siegel, who were sole devisees and that subsequently said devisees conveyed said premises to prior grantors of these petitioners and that said estate is not subject to inheritance tax.

Said petition will be heard in the County Court room of Cass County, Nebraska, in Cass County, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 1st day of August, 1941, at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Dated this 2nd day of July, 1941.
