Eat Dinner at Mo. Valley.
C. D. Spangler has a brother, John Spangler making his home at Merville, Iowa. With ever recurring year they have celebrated by eating dinner together, one year at Murray and the next at Merville. This time they adopted a different play. Instead of one family and their relatives in one of the towns driving the entire distance they concluded to meet as near half way as convenient, and selected Missouri Valley as the place. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Everett Spangler and family, Mrs. Margaret Todd and son, Dick of Murray drove to Missouri Valley where they met Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, their three sons and families and daughters and families, there being thirty-one in all at the gathering. They selected a park with plenty of shade and water where they all enjoyed a most pleasant visit and ate dinner together.

Now Eighty-five Years Old
Mrs. John Reeder, who is niece of David Exline, who many years ago lived southeast of Murray but now makes his home at Aradia, Calif., was passing his birthday and was sent a card by his niece, commemorating the passing of his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary.
