The family of C. W. Hoback were dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor last Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Davis former resident here, came down from her home in Omaha to visit relatives and friends over the week end.

The H. W. Griffin family was at Plattsmouth Sunday, guests at the homes of Mrs. George Wincott and Ella Arnold, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin.

Miss Ruth Morris, who is a student at the Peru Normal school, was home over the week end, returning Sunday evening, when she was taken down by her brother, Bernard Morris.

Louis Burbee and family departed last week for northern Minnesota, where they are enjoying a few days' vacation fishing in the lakes of the North Woods, where the temperature is not so high.

Mrs. E. B. Chapman, who has been sick for some time, continues very poorly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Wells, notwithstanding the fact that everything possible is being done for the patient.

The Lester Shumacher family was at Louisville Sunday, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Greene. The two families were close friends when the Greens lived in Union and both enjoyed the visit.

Miss Marylin Applegate, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Applegate, who has been enjoying a visit of some seven weeks at home, returned to her school at Beatrice, being taken over by her mother, Mrs. Applegate.

D. Ray Frans, wife and son Jimmie, who just recently arrived at his sixteenth birthday, were in Nehawka Sunday to attend the celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McReynolds.

Victor Clarence and Loy Clarence, who have been in the wheat district of western Kansas with their disc sharpening machine during the past two weeks, arrived home last week. They report good crops in that part of the country and enjoyed a fairly remunerative trip.

Mrs. R. N. Opp and son Robert were in Omaha last Saturday, doing some shopping and visiting friends.

Mary Beckner was a visitor in Omaha last Friday, looking after business matters. While she was away, Mrs. Ora Guerra was looking after matters at the bank.

Members of the Methodist Ladies Aid met at the church for a combined business and social afternoon, climaxed with a delicious luncheon.

Harold Dysart, of Kansas City, was a visitor over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Dysart, and attended the funeral of the late Charles Arn, who passed away last week.

Rev. J. T. Sawyer, pastor of the Union Methodist church, was at Council Bluffs the latter part of last week, where they visited for a time at the home of Mrs. Sawyer's folks.

Rev. Sawyer and wife were visitors in Plattsmouth Monday, where they purchased some odd pieces of furniture at one of the county seat stores.

Ellis LaRue of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union Friday of last week, being a guest of his mother, Mrs. Millie LaRue and also visiting with a number of his friends here. Members of the Ladies Aid of the Baptist church met last Friday, and in the coolness of the basement of the church enjoyed the afternoon quilting, later partaking of a fine lunch.

Services at Methodist Church Services at the Methodist church this coming Sunday will be Sunday school at 10 a. m. and preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Sent the Worshipers Inside The rain which came to Union last Sunday afternoon and evening was very welcome, but it drove the worshipers from the union meetings into the Methodist church, instead of holding their services in the open as heretofore. Rev. Cottingham of Nebraska City gave the discourse, while a quartette from Omaha gave some very pleasing renditions of the familiar hymns.

Married at Rockport, Mo. Miss Margaret Crawford of Union and Harold Kearney, living a short distance south of Nehawka, were united in marriage at Rockport, Mo., late last week. They will be at home on the farm where Mr. Kearney is engaged in farming, over the line in Otoe county south of Nehawka, after August 10th.

Card of Thanks We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all who by their many acts of kindness made the burden of grief less in the loss of our beloved brother Charles Arn, and to those who sang at the funeral and for the floral tokens of honor, to the minister and to those who sang at the funeral.—The Dysart Family and other relatives.

Home from the West Miss Lanna Barbara, who with Mr. and Mrs. Worth of Nebraska City have been touring the west for the past two weeks and who visited with Paul Davis at San Lois Obispo, California, where he is stationed in the army, arrived home last week. She reports Paul is enjoying army life and has just received a promotion which pays him considerable more money.

Departed for the West Coast Mr. and Mrs. Joe Banning left last Wednesday over the Union Pacific from Omaha for Los Angeles, where they will visit for a short time and then go on to Long Beach for a visit. While there, they expect to meet Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters, who are touring the west. Mrs. Peters is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Banning, and with whom they will return to Nebraska in a week or so. While in the west, Mr. and Mrs. Banning will visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor, a brother of Mrs. Banning.

Radio Meeting at Louisville Victor Clarence and family were at Louisville last Sunday attending the Southeastern Amateur Radio association convention and picnic that was being held there. Representatives were present from four states, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

Celebrated Birth Anniversary A surprise birthday party was held on Mrs. Frances Dukes at her home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Sunday, July 27.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Edmisten and daughter, Donabelle, of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Edmisten and family, of Nebraska City; Mrs. Martha Pickering and family, of Union; Mrs. Mary Garrans, of Union; Mrs. Alice Pickering, of Union, and daughter, Evelyn, of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dukes, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Younkey and family, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reis and family, of Coon Rapids, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Dukes and family, of Council Bluffs; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Chambers and family, of Omaha; Milton Booth, of Council Bluffs; Joe Dare, of Union; Miss Ruth Pollard, of Nehawka, and Alva Kennison, of Nebraska City.

A very pleasant time was had by all. Funeral of Charles Arn The funeral of the late Charles Arn of Union, was held last Saturday at the parlors of the Union Methodist church and was conducted by Rev. T. J. Sawyer, pastor of the church.

The deceased man was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, October 26, 1865, and passed away at the home of his niece, Mrs. Fuesener, near this village, Wednesday morning, July 24, at the age of 75 years, 8 months and 28 days. His parents located in the state of Ohio when he was a child of one year, and there they remained until the year 1885, when he was 21 years of age, at which date they emigrated to the state of Iowa, where his parents continued to reside. Deceased went to California in 1907, where he continued to reside until five years ago, when he located in Tyler, Texas. Some three years ago he came to this town and from that time made his home with his sister, Mrs. Dysart.

Charlie united with the Lutheran church when a boy of thirteen and remained a member of that faith to the end.

Most of his life was spent in the boot and shoe business, in which trade he was an expert. Quite early in life, Brother Arn sustained an injury which left him a permanent cripple, however, he was that sort of person who never gave up, hence overcame his handicap, and never thought of himself, but was always interested in the happiness of others. This happy trait followed him to the last hour of his life. Just a few hours before he passed, he was planning for the joy and happiness of a loved niece, whom he had planned to visit the day of his going. Brother Arn had a happy faculty of making friends, and once he made one he never lost him.

Deceased had three living brothers, who are David, of Atlantic, Iowa; Harve, of Chicago, and George W. of Barrington, Ill. One brother, William, passed away at the age of 25. He also has five living sisters, who are Mrs. Luce, of Fairbury; Mrs. Cook, of Pueblo, Colorado; Mrs. Harris, of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Mrs. Dysert of this community and Mrs. Smith of Guthrie, Oklahoma. One sister, Mrs. Gardiner, passed away on April 4, 1938.

Returns to West Coast George Towle of Long Beach, California and wife, with their son John as driver, departed last Monday morning for their home after having spent some three weeks visiting at the home of his old friend Theod Davis and wife, they all having enjoyed the time spent here. They also visited many other relatives and friends in the county.

They usually spent three months in their visit here but this time Mr. Towle had some pressing business in the west which refused to wait. They are to change their residence when they arrive in the western city.

Visit Friends in Weeping Water The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Michelson was made a merry place over the week-end when they received as their guests Miss Lillian Petersen, Mrs. Dewey Keisingberger and Harry Nelson, all coming from their home at Sioux City. After a very pleasant visit here the guests went on west where they will visit at several other places before returning home.

Young Man Very Poorly Earle Wiles, son of Earl Wiles, some time ago suffered a wound on one of his knees, which seemed to cause a very serious sore almost immediately. The wound became so serious that he was taken to the Lincoln General hospital for treatment. The wound was infected and difficult to treat, but he has shown some improvement.

Visits with Parents Here. LeRoy Embury, who has been in the service for some time as a member of the marines, having obtained a furlough, came home last week and has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Embury, and with his friends in Weeping Water. He departed for his station in the south Monday morning of this week.

At Work in West. Luther Womack who with the family departed for Los Angeles a number of months ago and was unemployed for a time has with his son Franklin Womack secured employment in the Southern Pacific railroad shops, being employed in the coach department and are liking their work very well. Their address is 614 West 17th street, Richmond, Calif.

Accepts Burlington Position Mrs. Mabel Allsman, who has been visiting at the home of her brother G. R. Finger and family for some time past left last Tuesday for Norman, where she is taking over the Burlington station which she will have charge of, she being a proficient operator and station executive. Mr. Allsman, husband of Mrs. Mabel Allsman, was a station agent for 27 years and with his passing, a position has been offered the wife.

EXTENDS GRATITUDE Mrs. Earl Carr wishes to take this means of expressing her wholehearted thanks to all those who sent her flowers, pretty cards, letters when she was confined at the Anton Kani hospital at Omaha. These expressions helped to pass the time away quickly.

Will Soon Visit in Buffalo Mrs. Carl Nickles is soon to make a trip to Buffalo, N. Y., to see their son Frank Nickles and wife who make their home there where Frank is a sheet metal worker on airplanes. Frank writes he is enjoying his work and that both himself and wife like making their home in the east.

Enjoyed Visit in Old Home Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickles, who reside a few miles west of town, departed for a visit with old time friends in the south. They had in mind visiting with a son in southern Missouri, and wrote him they were coming, asking if he and wife would be home and after waiting sufficient time for a reply, when they were some fifty miles away supposed by reason of no reply to their letter the folks were away from home and so didn't go there.

They first stopped at Dunnegan, Mo., where they visited with Mrs. W. T. Nickles, mother of Mr. Nickles, whom they found in good health, notwithstanding her advanced age. Tuesday they visited at the home of J. W. Wallard. Here they found as on all their trip the crops were fair. They visited with some cousins living just over in Kansas, near Maple City, Kansas and from there they went to Iawhuska, Okla., where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Endicott, old time friends. At Eskridge, Kansas, they visited with an old time friend. In all they traveled during the five and one-half days 1,700 miles and they say every minute of it was enjoyed. They also visited a cave which was very peculiar, as they went in a skiff, with their guide as rover of the boat. As a general thing the cave was but twelve to fifteen feet in width and the ceiling averaged ten feet high, although there were some places where it expanded to hundreds of feet and the ceiling sometimes fifty feet high. On the sides the water there were shoulders of mud in many places many feet deep. They arrived home last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rough and Miss Agnes Rough, a sister of Arthur were in Lincoln last Sunday visiting relatives for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger were over to Nehawka last Sunday where they were attending the reception of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McReynolds.

J. W. Partridge was in Murray and Plattsmouth last Monday, having business to look after at both places.

M. G. Churchill of Murray has been decorating a house of J. W. Partridge.

Theod Davis, in order to know the happenings of Cass county and what the people are doing has had his name placed on the Journal subscription list an dis to receive the news twice a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Willis from over near Cedar Creek and their son Robert were in Weeping Water last Tuesday looking after some business for the forenoon. They formerly lived north of town.

Bert Barden of Wcbash was looking after business in Weeping Water last Tuesday, and was saying that he had received a work card that was putting him back to work in Weeping Water on the sewer system.

Jack McQuinn who has been visiting with friends over on the other side of Murray for the past week, returned the last part of last week. Jack says the corn over in the eastern part of the county is an excellent crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis LaRue were in Union Friday of last week where they were guests for the day at the home of Mrs. Millie LaRue of Union, mother of Mrs. Ellis LaRue. They also visited with a number of friends while there.

Miss Ethelyn Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Johnson has been quite poorly and was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln for observation and treatment. At the hospital it was determined she required a major operation which was given and the patient is doing nicely since.

Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick has been rather poorly for some time and has been kept to her bed a great deal of the time. Before she became so ill they made a trip to Greenwood to visit her father who is also sick at a nursing home there, they both feeling quite poorly. They are hoping for improvement soon.

Funeral of Charles Arn The funeral of the late Charles Arn of Union, was held last Saturday at the parlors of the Union Methodist church and was conducted by Rev. T. J. Sawyer, pastor of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein were Plattsmouth shoppers last Saturday.

Phillip Keil last Sunday delivered a feed grinder to the home of John Tyson, who lives over the line in Otoe county.

Shrader Rhoden, salesman for the Ford garage at Plattsmouth, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles drove to Nebraska City last Sunday, where they called on friends and had dinner at one of the hotels.

Victor Wehrbein and wife were at Nehawka last Monday, looking after business matters. They were accompanied by W. O. Troop.

Mrs. Nell Wehrbein and little granddaughter, Nellie Jean Lloyd, of Plattsmouth were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap and daughter, Margaret, age 11, of Coldwell, Idaho, arrived in Murray and have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brendel.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles were in Nehawka last Sunday, attending the open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McReynolds, who were celebrating their silver (twenty-fifth) wedding anniversary. Nearly 400 in all called on them during the day.

Mrs. Thomas Jennings, who has been sick for more than two years and not able a greater part of the time to be out of the house, is showing good improvement and is now up and about the house a considerable part of the time, even being able to get the work done about the home with the aid of help.

Ben Neoll was in Omaha last Sunday, where he went to see his friend, Alfred Gausemer, who is at a hospital there. He was accompanied by Harry McCullach. They found Mr. Gausemer resting quietly but very hot and tired. Mr. Gausemer is getting anxious to get back home and it is thought that he will soon be able to do so.

Here from the East Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ruby, of Flint, Michigan, arrived in Murray one day last week and have been guests at the home of James E. Gruber, visiting here for a number of days and then departing for Kenesaw, Nebr., where they are visiting relatives and friends, and will visit at other places before concluding their vacation and returning to their home in Michigan.

To Spend Three Weeks in West Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker were in Omaha Saturday evening, going to meet their daughter, Miss Jane, who arrived from Ohio, where she is at the head of the musical department of one of the leading schools in the Buckeye state, and was coming home for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Boedeker and Miss Jane departed early this week for the west, going to the Teeton mountains to spend some time and then will return via Estes park, for a brief stay in that vacation rendezvous. In all they expect to be gone about three weeks.

FIRST ALUMINUM BROUGHT IN From Monday's Daily—L. E. Williams brought in the first consignment of scrap aluminum from towns out in the county today. It was added to the county-wide pile being established at the E. J. Richey lumber yard until Friday when it is to be trucked to Omaha and become a part of the state-wide pile.

There was 350 pounds in the lot received from Louisville at noon today. Further reports will follow of turn-ins from day to day so that each community may be given credit for the amount it contributes.

WORKING IN OREGON Edward Bayly, who has been employed at the BEX for approximately seven years, left Plattsmouth Saturday evening and is now located at Portland, Oregon. At Portland he is employed at the Union Pacific railroad shops. Mrs. Bayly and daughter, Melba remained here and will continue to live here until early fall, when they expect to join the husband and father in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayly had just purchased the Anton W. Vetasnik home at 725 South 10th street a few weeks ago.

Back to United States Earl Troop, who has been with the government, working as operator of a drag line on some excavations at the Canal Zone, where he has been since the first of the year, due to the illness of his wife has returned to the states, coming by boat to Galveston, thence to Fort Worth, where his wife has been located. He expected to remain for three years, but on account of the poor health of the wife, concluded to return.

He says it has been raining all the time since he went down there some seven months ago. Writing about his trip back to the states, Earl said that at Galveston he saw porpoises that jumped as high as ten feet from the water.

Mr. and Mrs. Troop are staying at Fort Worth for the present and he has not decided just what he will do.

Fellow Member Greatly Missed At the session of the Murray Christian church Bible school last Sunday, there were 85 members present. Although the number was very encouraging, there seemed to be a sadness hover over the session as it was but two weeks ago that the annual meeting had been advanced a few Sundays in order to give a farewell to James Hoschar, who was a faithful and regular attendant at the sessions of the Bible school. He and his father, L. C. Hoschar, had gone west in the search of improvement in James' health, and it was there that he had passed away, being buried here last week.

Everyone present at the Bible school felt the absence of this faithful member and a sadness fell over the entire school.

Charles Sands Slightly Improved Charles Sands, who has been sick at his home and confined to his bed since the day after Thanksgiving, is slightly better at this time. He has been cared for by his brother, John, and Mrs. Ray Burton, his faithful nurse, who has remained constantly at the home to care for the patient.

Cuts Arm while Shoeing Horse One of our well known farmers, having a horse to be shod, tackled the job last Sunday, and managed to get the job done, but not without mishap. The horse was a fractious animal and flounced around a bit, so that a protruding horseshoe nail became caught in the thick flesh of his arm and cut a deep gash that required the services of a doctor. The injured man is getting along nicely now and the wound is expected to be fully healed soon.

Steffens Family Celebrates A week ago last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson there was a gathering of the Anderson and Hart families, with all enjoying the fine dinner and picnic. Then this last Sunday, there was held a Steffens dinner and reunion at the same place. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Steffens and this was their turn to celebrate. Twenty-one were present when they sat down to the very delicious and abundant meal.

Paving Going Forward The paving of the streets of Nehawka has been going forward at a good rate of speed. The main street proper, which extends from the intersection near the auditorium east has been completed and on Tuesday of this week the intersection near the auditorium was completed. This work was being finished up when the writer was in Nehawka Monday. It was not known just which would be tackled next, the lead to the south running to the Missouri Pacific railroad tracks, or the one to the north, extending as far as the Nehawka central school building.
