They are visitors at the Joseph Safarik farm home, Mrs. Vinduska has been here two weeks. She is the mother of Mrs. Safarik, Mrs. Bezdek and John Vinduska.

Hanes-Hike—

Grace Hanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hanes of Springfield, Neb., and Burdette Hike, Cedar Creek, were married Wednesday, August 6th by Rev. A. J. May, pastor of the Methodist church at Springfield.

They will make their home three miles east of Cedar Creek on Harry Meisinger's farm, which Mr. Hike has been operating.

Visit Local People—

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burgett, of Plymouth, Michigan, have been here for a visit at the home of Mrs. Catherine Nolting and other of the relatives, they departing Saturday for their home. Mrs. Burgett is a cousin of the Nolting and Bern families in this part of Cass county. This was their first visit west and they enjoyed very much the visit with the relatives and viewing the rich farming country of this part of the west.

Omahans Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wooster and three sons of Omaha, were in Plattsmouth yesterday and stopped at the Joseph Novotny home for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Wooster and family, visiting here from Clinton, Missouri. Jim and Mat, brothers, had not seen each other for some time. The James Wooster family expect to return to Missouri this week.

Entertains at Slumber Party—

Miss Alice Jayne Grosshans entertained a group of girl friends on Saturday evening at the home on South Chicago avenue, the event honoring Mary Louise Walton, of Onawa, Iowa, a house guest. The ladies had a very pleasant time and in the morning enjoyed a delightful breakfast that had been arranged for them. Those who participated were Mary Helen Dill, Aileen Reed, Shirley Jacobs, Wilma Swatek, Shirley Mason, Vivian Warner, Rosemary Stuppatt and the hostess and guest of honor, Miss Grosshans and Miss Walton.

To Take Charge of Ball—

For the second consecutive year the Plattsmouth Junior Woman's club members are to have charge of the ball, which follows the coronation ceremonies during the King Korn Karnivals. The coronation this year will take place on September 17, the opening date of the four-day King Korn Karnival. Although no committees have been announced, chairmen for the various posts have been selected.

Miss Helen Smetana is to be chairman of the ticket sales; Miss Edith Solomon, decorations chairman; Miss Ruth Patton, advertising chairman. The coronation this year promises to be one of the most brilliant events ever held in the history of the Korn Karnival. The queen this year will be chosen from among the many young ladies in the city, while the king is to be a rural product.

Ramel-Bressman Nuptials—

At a ceremony performed in the parsonage of the First Methodist church at 1 p. m. yesterday, Miss Lucille Ramel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Ramel of Plattsmouth, and Paul Bressman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bressman, Sr. of Bellevue, were married. Rev. James C. Lowson officiating. Donald Bressman, who came from California to be his brother's attendant, arrived a few minutes before the ceremony. Miss Maxine Ruble served as bridesmaid. A dinner party followed at the home of the bride's parents. In addition to the bridal party there were present Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bressman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Bressman, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Bressman, Sr. and family and the groom's paternal grandparents, all of Bellevue; Mr. and Mrs. "Gene" Ruble of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Art Gesche and son, Maynard of LaPlatte.

The bride was graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in 1940. The couple will reside at Bellevue.

From Tuesday's Daily— Feted at Dinner Party—

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lancaster and son, Neil were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood and family, who reside near Cedar Creek. In the afternoon they visited with a group of other friends in that vicinity.

Here from Lincoln—

Dr. E. Glenn Callen, present supervisor of the merit system in Nebraska, and William McDermet of Lincoln, were in Plattsmouth Monday and visited with a few of the court house officials. Mr. Callen was here in the interest of the forthcoming examinations, announced recently by the merit system. Applications and details concerning these examinations may be obtained at the Cass county assistance office or the employment office at the court house. August 25 has been set as the deadline for all applications.

Announce Coming Marriage—

Mrs. Albert James Cooper, of Santa Monica, California, is announcing the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Miss Verla Jeanette Thompson to Mr. Edwin Andre Roman; the ceremony will take place on Tuesday, September 2, 1941 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Little Chapel of the Dawn, Twentieth and Arizona streets, Santa Monica.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roman, former residents of Plattsmouth.

Sailor to Return Tomorrow—

Jerry Halter, United States navy youth, is to leave tomorrow for San Pedro, California, where he will board his ship, U. S. S. San Francisco. Jerry and other members of the crew are to leave for Pearl Harbor, Honolulu Sunday.

An airplane machinist mate, third class, Jerry has been in Nebraska on a short furlough. In Lincoln he was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Halter; while in Plattsmouth he visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wheeler, the latter an aunt of the navy boy. Not only did he visit with the Wheelers but had the pleasure of being Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nielsen's guest. The young man has been in the navy three years.

Sunday Jerry was an honored guest at a picnic party, tendered him at the Robert Patterson home. A large group of relatives and friends attended.

From Wednesday's Daily— Announce Betrothal—
