

MURDOCK

By Journal Field Representative

Herbert Unland of Eagle was a business visitor in Murdock Wednesday afternoon.

W. T. Weddell, who was taken to a Lincoln hospital some weeks ago, still continues very poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Robson of Belfast were guests over the week end of Mrs. Robson's father, E. E. Ganaway.

Mrs. Henry Heineman has almost completely recovered from her recent operation at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln.

Merle McKay, of near Elmwood, was in Murdock Wednesday, having some work done at the blacksmith shop of J. H. Buck.

George Trunkenholz, president of the Trunkenholz Oil company of Eagle and Lincoln, was a business visitor in Murdock during the past week.

J. H. Buck has been feeling poorly as a result of the heat and long hours in the shop, but was better by the end of the week and continues on the job.

L. Neitzel spent last Monday at the Menonite camp meeting at Weeping Water. He reports a deep spiritual atmosphere prevailing and large and appreciative audiences.

Mr. and Mrs. August Ruge, son Daniel and daughter Miss Ruth left last week on a two weeks' vacation trip. They will visit the Black Hills and Yellowstone National park.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gorthey and son Russell, accompanied by the Louis Schmidt family, went to Omaha Sunday to see Miss Irene Gorthey. The entire group enjoyed a picnic supper in Elmwood park and stayed for the community sing.

Retiring from the Farm
Conrad Wehrlein and wife, who have resided on the home farm northwest of town for many years, are retiring from the farm after this season and have bought a place in Murdock, which they will occupy after the first of the year, when their son is to take over management of the farm.

The place they purchased is occupied by Mrs. Clara Kroh and daughter, Pauline, who will live there until the first of the year.

Many Attend "Stir-Up" Days
Last week Ashland put on its annual "Stir-Up" Days celebration and a large number from Murdock and vicinity were present. C. I. Lonf, a local orchestra player, was over for the two days and assisted in providing music for the entertainment of the crowds.

All speak well of the fine entertainment that was provided at this two day fun fest.

Roaming the Sandhills
L. Neitzel left Wednesday for a two weeks' stay in the Sandhill country at the Fred Lowe ranch, which is located partly in Grant and partly in Cherry county. Mrs. Lowe is Mr. Neitzel's granddaughter.

Had a Unique Exhibit
Keith Boyd, employee of the Nebraska Power company, had a most unique exhibit at the Ashland "Stir-Up" showing the contrast of times gone by and our modern day era with electricity serving mankind in many ways. One phase of the exhibit depicted the changed method of coffee making—first the old coffee grinder or "mill" that was used to grind the berries after they had been roasted in a pan on the kitchen stove. The ground coffee was then boiled, and the white of an egg dropped in to settle the grounds. Today the housewife measures an exact amount into her electric coffee maker and has the finest coffee ever known within a few moments' time.

Also in the exhibit was a contrast of washing methods, with the old fashioned wash tub and board alongside a late model electric machine.

Truly electricity is man's greatest servant—working long or short hours as occasion demands and exacting but a few pennies in return.

Home from Eastern Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stock and Mrs. J. A. Boyd returned home last week from a trip to Indiana, where they visited relatives. Mrs. Boyd enjoyed a very pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Reed who makes her home in Indiana.

Moving to Omaha
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer are soon to move to Omaha to make their home, after having lived here about a quarter of a century. Recently Mr. Schaeffer discontinued his employment here to engage in work as a carpenter at Bellevue, and now they are moving to Omaha, which is not only nearer his work, but affords better opportunities for the children in the educational field.

Their many friends regret to lose the Schaeffer family from this community, but wish them well in their new home.

Accepts Position on Coast
Raymond Beach, who has been the manager of the Engle lumber yard in Murdock for some time, has resigned his position and is departing for Chico, California, where he has accepted a position with the Chico Lumber company being employed in the same yard as his brother, Roy, with whom he will make his home.

The new position is at a nice increase over the one he held here. With a head-start in the business at such an early age, Raymond should go a long ways in the coming years. Best of success to you in your new position, young man.

John Woods made a trip to Clarinda last week for a truck load of coal from the mine there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ohm came over from Elmwood to do some papering in the farm house of R. P. Hobsons which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Walters.

L. R. Stanley was in Omaha on business Monday, returning home by way of Fort Crook, where he was able to get a good view of the new bomber plant now under construction and which he figures must be costing a tremendous sum of money.

Depart for California
Ralph Dorr and his sister, Mrs. Frank Buell entrained to Big Springs, Nebraska, where they were joined by another sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Perry, all driving to the west coast in the Perry car. They planned on a very pleasant trip and will see many sights of interest in the west.

Government Corn to Chicago
The government has had a quantity of sealed corn here for several months, but is now having it shipped to Chicago. Frank Marshall loaded out one car a few days ago and other shipments will follow until the supply is all gone.

Home from Pleasant Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Munford arrived home last week from a most enjoyable western trip that took them into the Black Hills country of South Dakota and on to the states of Wyoming and Colorado. They found a cool and pleasant climate and saw many sights of interest.

Guests at Howard Browne's
Clifford Browne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Browne, left a few days ago for Wauneta, where he is a guest at the home of his uncle, Howard Browne and family. He accompanied his aunt, Mrs. A. B. Stromer, they driving out together.

Early News is Important
The Journal has received a more lengthy account of the recent church day at Coryell park, participated in by Elmwood church folk, than was run last week, but due to the lateness of its arrival is unable to print the same. The story last week covered the gathering quite thoroughly.

Many Attend Ashland Celebration
Many of the people of Elmwood and vicinity were at Ashland last week, where they enjoyed the annual festival there which is known as "Stir-Up" days. All speak well of the entertainment provided and the manner in which the large crowd was handled.

Strive for Greater Efficiency
It has been and still continues to be the practice of the Elmwood fire department to get out at frequent intervals and make a run for an imaginary fire, as in this way they are able to gain greater efficiency and test their ability to cope with

Elmwood

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hollenbeck and Darline called at the Shelley home Sunday evening.

Joy Miller was busy last week putting water in the house, which is a great improvement.

Mrs. Ralph Keekler of Weeping Water was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Greene, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mabel Harrington and her daughter of Lincoln were guests of Elmwood friends Sunday.

Jane Shreeve, Darlene Hollenbeck and Joyce Brown were all guests of home folks over the week end.

Fire destroyed a barn and contents at the Mrs. P. Marshall place last week. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Norman Miller, wife and son, Norman, Jr., of Chicago, have been visiting friends and relatives in Elmwood during the past week.

E. M. (Deanie) Jardine, of Lincoln was in Elmwood Tuesday looking after business for the insurance company he represents.

The P. N. G. Circle met at the hall for their August meeting. A covered dish lunch was served and a very good time reported.

Emil Holke and mother were at Weeping Water last Tuesday, where they looked after business and visited friends for a short time.

There has been a taint of gas in the air on Main street, and the gas company investigated to learn the cause, finding a broken pipe. In order to get at it, they had to remove some 25 feet of pipe and replace it with new.

Joe Stokes, of Waterbury, Nebr., has been visiting relatives and old friends here during the past week. He was a guest at the John Stokes home southeast of town, also of Alex Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Rockenbach and Frank Stokes.

Bruce Quellhorst, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Quellhorst, came up from Fort Riley, Kansas, where he has been stationed as a member of the U. S. army, to spend Sunday with his folks before the departure of his regiment for Louisiana to engage in army maneuvers.

Minton Wood is now operating the Trunkenholz filling station that was formerly operated by Marion McCrorey. Clarence Ohm will work for Mr. Wood in the operation of his regular trucking business. Neither Mr. McCrorey nor his assistant, Albert Kuntz have decided what they will do.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lamb of Lincoln spent the week end with Mrs. Lamb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene. They were en route home from Madison, Wisconsin, where they had visited Mrs. Lamb's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Curran Shields. Another sister, Mrs. Denice Janssen of Buchanan was a guest at the Shields home at the same time.

Editor George Blessing was among the editors from Cass county who attended the meeting at Grand Island last Monday to hear plans of the big navy advertising campaign in Nebraska discussed. Other papers represented were the Nebraska Enterprise, Weeping Water Republican and the Plattsmouth Journal. The ads are to be started this week in every newspaper in the state.

The Sidney boys have put on one of the best rodeos ever offered there, but found the attendance a little below par this year for some reason or other. Their show is known far and near and they attract top-notch talent of all kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Webb and Donnie drove over for a part of the program.

TO TAKE UP SCHOOL WORK

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Neuzil, who have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bestor, parents of Mrs. Neuzil, departed Thursday for Hordville, Nebraska. Mr. Neuzil is the principal of the high school at that place, where he has been for several years past and Mrs. Neuzil also had taught in the high school for a number of years and is urged by the board of education to continue her work.

any and all situations.

Last week Milo Frisbee piled up some rubbish near his home and ignited it. When the bonfire was going well, the alarm was given and the chief timed the run to see what the boys were doing in the way of getting on the job. Unaware of what was being done, they raced to the scene, which was reached in just five minutes—a very good record.

Elmwood has a fine volunteer fire department and the boys are on their toes all the time looking for ways to improve their service.

Getting Ready for School
The school buildings in Elmwood have been put in first class shape for the opening of the school year. Just recently, in line with the requests of the government, the school board has put in a winter supply of coal, thus assuring against shortage later in the year.

The faculty this year will consist of F. J. Wells, superintendent; Miss Elsie Kuntz, primary grades; Jean Buckhart, fourth, fifth and sixth grades; Lena Zlab, seventh and eighth; Rosalind Neitzel, Doris Land and Clarice Miller, high school.

Emil Rosenow will continue as the caretaker, firing the furnace and looking after other similar work.

All are looking forward to a most successful school year.

Home from Western Trip
The group of Elmwood and Murdock people who left a couple of weeks ago for the west, arrived home this past week and say they enjoyed the trip immensely.

The group consisted of Mrs. Emily Gonzales, cashier of the American Exchange Bank in Elmwood, and the James Mills family of Murdock.

They spent some time at the home of Ralph Reeve and family at Craig, Colorado. Mr. Reeve being a brother of Mesdames Gonzales and Mills. At Colgate, Colorado, they also visited for a short time with another brother, Rodger Reeve and family.

From Friday's Daily—
To Sponsor Supper—
At the meeting of the Gleaners circle at the Methodist church parlors yesterday afternoon, the members planned to sponsor an ice cream supper on the church lawn next week. Mrs. John V. Hatt has been appointed chairman of the affair.

Honorary Tea—
Mrs. Perry H. Murdick, II, Benton Harbor, Michigan visitor in Plattsmouth, and Mrs. E. H. Wescott entertained informally at an afternoon tea Thursday, honoring Mrs. Fay Chase Martin, who is to leave for Chicago in a very short time. Only out-of-town guest at the tea was Mrs. Mason Wescott of Wilmotte, Illinois.

Over-Night Guests—
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Glathart, who are residents of Kansas, arrived in Plattsmouth yesterday and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Johnston at the Herold Apartment 10, Unit D. The Glatharts and the Johnstons are old friends, and the former were on their way to Iowa and decided to pay the latter a visit while en route to the neighboring state.

Mildred Hall Entertains—
When the Dorcas circle members met for this month's meeting Thursday at the Methodist church parlors, discussion centered around the annual covered-dish luncheon, to be held next Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. Hostesses for yesterday's gathering were Mrs. Phillip Harrison, Mrs. William Carr and Mrs. George Hall.

For the program Miss Mildred Hall sang four numbers: "Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, "The Star" by Rogers, "The Luxembourg Garden" by Manning and an old English folk song, Miss Thelma Kruger was her accompanist. Miss Hall also gave a reading.

Jacobson-Ludwig—
North Branch Lutheran church was the scene of a fan early evening wedding Monday, August 18 when Rev. George Bergstraesser united in marriage Miss Flora Mae Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobson, Jr., Syracuse, to Otto Ludwig, Avoca. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock.

Attendants were Mrs. Raymond Jacobson, Miss Dorothy Stutt, Raymond Jacobson and Herman Ludwig.

The bride's gown was white organza with a sweetheart neckline. She wore a fingertip veil and carried white roses. Her attendants wore blue marquisette and pink chiffon and had wrist corsages.

Miss Viola Marie Genthe sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony, with Frederick Bartling playing her accompaniment. Mrs. Bergstraesser played the processional and recessional.

A wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents was attended by the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig are living with the young man's parents for the present.

Return from Honeymoon—
Thursday evening at 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ketelsen, who were married in Omaha on August 15, returned from a 1,500-mile trip that took them into Iowa, Minnesota, Canada, North Dakota and South Dakota, thence back to Nebraska.

Leaving Omaha the couple spent
