

SOCIAL

From Monday's Daily—

Entertained at Dinner— Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Cummins and family of Omaha were in the city Sunday to visit for the day with Mrs. J. M. Roberts, sister of Mr. Cummins. The occasion also was the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Mr. Cummins observed with a very delightful dinner party at the noon hour.

Douxie-Burkel Wedding—

On Saturday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Val Burkel occurred the marriage of their son, Robert David Burkel and Miss Dora Helen Douxie both of Chicago. The wedding was very simple. Rev. J. C. Lawson, pastor of the First Methodist church, read the marriage vows, the ring service being used in the nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall, old friends of the groom and family and Mr. and Mrs. Burkel were the witnesses.

The newly wedded couple departed Sunday morning for Chicago where they will make their home and where Mr. Burkel is in the employ of the baggage department of the Burlington railroad, being in service with the railroad for a great many years.

Legion Auxiliary Meets—

The American Legion Auxiliary met Friday afternoon at the Hotel Plattsmouth with a very fine attendance altho the face of the King Korn Carnival made the session necessarily short. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Besior, Mrs. John E. Turner, Mrs. William Kraeger, Mrs. Robert Cappell.

The ladies discussed the plans for the district convention that will be held at Syracuse on October 7th. The local unit has been invited to conduct the memorial program at the convention.

The class county conference will be held at Nehawka in two weeks and the Plattsmouth unit expects to send a large delegation.

It was voted to send $3.50 to the U. S. Veterans' hospital for their Christmas gift shop.

The unit is hopeful that the membership campaign can be completed by the time of the district meeting.

The musical program was omitted and will be heard at the next meeting on October 17th at the home of Mrs. A. H. Duxbury.

Dance a Huge Success—

Plattsmouth's King Korn Carnival culminated with a Bohemian dance, held Saturday evening at the American Legion hall, sponsored by Mrs. Marie Gradoville of this city. It wasn't until after 9:30 that guests began arriving by the dozens and around 11 p. m. the ballroom was jammed. Not only did local people attend but many were there from other states and cities. Young people predominated. The Red Raven orchestra played the ever-popular Bohemian tunes, and some of the orchestra personnel brought their wives and other relatives and friends. The crowd was estimated at 300.

In charge of ticket sales was Mrs. Gradoville. Richard O'Donnell and Frederick Bruce were in charge of the pop. John Gradoville and Miss Dolores Gradoville were chairmen of the entrance committee and Mrs. Gradoville's other daughter was in the checkroom. The entrance committee members were assisted later in the evening by two other gentlemen, one of them being Mrs. Gradoville's nephew, William O'Donnell, Jr.

Guests at Toman Home—

The John Toman, Sr. family were pleasantly surprised Sunday morning when a group of jolly young people came from Mitchell, South Dakota, to make an over Sunday visit. The party consisted of Miss Anna Jo Toman, Miss Caroline Kissell, Eugene Toman, Arnold Toman, Emil Kissell and Jerry Kissell.

Visit at Dwight—

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Kalina and son, Lieutenant Edwin Kalina, were visitors at Dwight, Nebraska, Sunday. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kalina and family, the former being brother of Cyril. Lieutenant Kalina is leaving Wednesday for Ft. Ord, California, to join his outfit, the 17th infantry.

Californians Arrive—

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith and two children, Sharon and Robert of Santa Monica, and Mrs. Harold Vincent and two children, Leona and Dorothy of Los Angeles, are in Plattsmouth as guests of relatives.

Mrs. Vincent and her children will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vincent, parents of Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Markham, the latter a sister of Harold. Later on they expect to go to Missouri, where they will be guests of Mrs. Lee Swift, mother of Mrs. Vincent, and grandmother of the Harold Vincent children.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will spend their time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith as well as other relatives.

Both families will have the pleasure of meeting their old friends, and they expect to be in Nebraska about thirty days. They arrived here Saturday in the Smith auto.

Georgia Guests Here— Coming all the way from Savannah, Georgia, to visit with relatives and friends in Nebraska and Iowa were Mr. and Mrs. Alec Duccini and son, Terry. Today they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Janda at 15th and Pearl streets. Mrs. Janda is Mrs. Duccini's aunt.

Mrs. Duccini has been in Nebraska approximately two weeks, visiting with her mother, Mrs. Louis Janda and her sister, Mrs. Edgar McGuire and family in Omaha. Mr. Duccini is employed in government service. The Duccinis expect to leave Nebraska this week, bound for Iowa, where they will visit with Mr. Duccini's relatives.

Today Mrs. Janda entertained the Duccini family at a lovely roondo dinner party.

They also enjoyed visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Allan McClanahan. The latter is Mrs. Duccini's cousin. Mrs. Duccini has another cousin who resides in Plattsmouth, Mrs. Theodore Yelick.

Guests at Patton Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Franks and Mrs. Alma Ramey, of Chickasha, Oklahoma, Mrs. Julia Thomas, mother of Mr. Franks and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Betts, of Omaha were weekend guests at the home of Robert H. Patton and family. Mrs. Ramey is a sister of Mr. Patton and the other members of the party old time friends.

Mrs. Enearl Entertains—

Omaha women were well entertained and very much pleased with Plattsmouth's coronation ceremony. "Omaha has nothing to compare with it," say these young women.

On Wednesday Mrs. Frank Enearl, who works at Natelson's store in Omaha, entertained her co-workers at the Hotel Plattsmouth. The ladies enjoyed a very good chicken dinner which was beautifully served by the hotel. Mrs. Enearl had for a centerpiece, a bouquet of American Beauty roses which she gave to the girls on their departure.

After the dinner the ladies witnessed the coronation ceremony. They were very much surprised and pleased with the beauty of the affair and the precision with which it was staged. All agreed that Omaha had nothing to better it.

Those present at the dinner were the hostess, Mrs. Enearl, Miss Pavlik, Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Guffey, Mrs. Alsasser, Mrs. Huber, Miss Altman, Mrs. Binkley, Mrs. Lagler, and Mrs. Franklin of Omaha; and Mrs. Rhoden of Murray.

Honored on Birthday—

Mrs. Jennie Frans, member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, passed her eighty-third birthday on Sunday and has spent her years in this county in the Rock Bluff and Union communities. She has attended the Baptist Sunday school for over 50 years and is a charter member of the Union church.

In honor of the event the aged lady was honored guest at a dinner at the Hotel Plattsmouth on Sunday. Others here were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frans and son, Jim, Mrs. Belle Frans and Mrs. Myrtle Swan of Union.

The party visited in Sarpy county for a short time and enjoyed a birthday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frans at Union.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Return to New York— Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Adams and son, Douglas, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Hudson, left for their home in Schenectady, New York this morning.

Honor Departing Family—

This noon Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wescott entertained at their home for their pastor and family, Rev. and Mrs. James C. Lawson and daughters, Ruth and Helen. The Lawson family have been neighbors of the Wescott family who regret to see them departing. The Lawson family leave Thursday for their new home at Wymore.

Fifty Years Old—

Louis Ward Egenberger observed the passing of his fiftieth birthday anniversary yesterday with a 6:30 p. m. dinner, served at his home at 637 Vine street. In addition to the honored guests there were present members of his card club: Carl Ofe, E. H. Bernhardt, Dr. W. V. Ryan, Dr. L. S. Puelik, George Jaeger and Herbert Schuetz. The gift that "Louie" received from his guests was unusual and appropriate.

Back in Indiana—

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Minniear, who have been in Plattsmouth as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Grassman and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Minniear, are now back in Lafayette, Indiana. The couple left late Saturday evening and word received by relatives here this week revealed they arrived there safely. Mr. Minniear resumed his duties Monday at the Fairfield Manufacturing company. During their visit here they were entertained at family dinner and picnic parties. Their chief delight was that they were able to be here for this year's King Korn Carnival.

C. D. of A. Luncheon—

The Catholic Daughters of America has resumed their evening meetings, the summer months having been observed by two covered dish picnic parties. The first fall social meeting was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Hermie Svoboda with Mrs. Elmer Bennett and Mrs. Hermie Kubicka as associate hostesses. Games of pinocle were enjoyed at which Mrs. Elmer Webb and Mrs. John Bergmann were winners. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Dorothy Svoboda and Mrs. Theodore Svoboda.

Many at Circle Meeting—

Among the twenty-three persons who filled the Charles Ault home Tuesday afternoon, when Circle 3 of the St. John Altar society conducted a meeting, there were eight guests—Mrs. Philip Born, Mrs. John Hadraba, Miss Julia Svoboda, Hermie Svoboda, Mrs. Carl Ulrich, Mrs. Charles Petersen, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Oscar McDonald, Murray; Mrs. Robert McDonald, Avoca. Associate hostess was Mrs. Emil Koukal, and assisting the two ladies in the serving were Miss Mary Alice Ault and Betty Ann Paris.

In addition to the business meeting the members resumed their Study Club session. Card and Chinese checker playing followed, and prizes went to Miss Julia Svoboda, Mrs. Ruth Koukal, Mrs. Henry Starkjohn and Mrs. John Bajek.

Musical Tea Program—

The program for the Plattsmouth Woman's club Musical Tea Friday afternoon, between the hours of 2:30 and 5 p. m., has been arranged and completed. Any woman interested in Woman's club work is cordially and especially welcome to come to the Hotel Plattsmouth Friday afternoon. The program:

Ted Brunson, Louisville's child prodigy in music, will play a group of violin compositions.

Mrs. Willard Sherman, who holds a master's degree from the Conservatory Paeini, Lucca, Italy, will play the piano.

The newly-elected president, Mrs. Lowell S. Devoc, will make announcements in regard to Red Cross and First Aid classes for the coming year; also a special national defense committee will be appointed in line with the general federation setup. There will be a preview of the year's program by the program chairman, Mrs. A. H. Duxbury.

Other committees for the year will be read.

Shower for Mrs. Lagerstrom— A group of relatives went together and tendered Mrs. Chester Lagerstrom a bridal shower at the Eagles hall in Plattsmouth, Sunday, September 21. Fifty or more guests were present at the afternoon party, a number of them coming from Omaha to attend.

Miss Darlene Holoubek sang two solo numbers to the accompaniment of Mrs. Oliver Meisinger. Games were played and Mrs. Edna Buechler and Miss Vivian Terryberry won prizes. Guests also wrote recipes, which were submitted to the bride, of the luncheon. Mrs. Lagerstrom and a number of Mrs. Lagerstrom's close friends assisted in the serving of the luncheon. Mrs. Lagerstrom was the former Marie Alexen.

HINKY-DINKY BIGGER SAVINGS at HINKY-DINKY Your friendly HINKY-DINKY STORE offers you high quality foods at prices that provide bigger SAVINGS! Beef Roast, Hamburger Steaks, Pork Chops, Frankfurters, Bacon, Minced, Baked Cheese, Prunes, Soup, Corn, Pork & Beans, Tomatoes, Salad Dressing, PEANUT BUTTER, Mustard, Par-T-Jel, Cherries, Pillsbury's Best FLOUR, STALEY'S Waffle Syrup, Pillsbury's Sno-Sheen Cake Flour, SPRY, BUTTER-NUT COFFEE, SPARK Granulated Soap, Scottissue, Waldorf Tissue, Scottowels, WHITE KING Soap Toilet, CLOROX, HINKY-DINKY

CASS DRUG ROBERT HALL, PH. G. PHONE 46 502 MAIN Walgreen Agency Drug Store. VALUABLE COUPON 5c LOCKNIT DISH CLOTHS 3 for 10c with coupon. DR. LYONS 25c TOOTH POWDER 17c, LIFEBOUY OR 10c LUX SOAP 3 for 17c, MINERAL OIL Light, White-U.S.P. Pint 23c, DOANS PILLS 47c For Only 23c, FRESH WITCH HAZEL LIMEADE PINT SIZE 26c, MOUTH WASH ORAL FULL PINT 49c, BROMO SELTZER 60c BOTTLE 13c, SYRUP OF FIGS CALIF. 50c SIZE 43c, MAVIS TALCUM 25c TIN 19c, LADY ESTHER FACE POWDER 55c SIZE 39c, 50c MENNENS SHAVE CREAM 39c, 60c TEEL Liquid Dentrifrice 39c, KREML HAIR TONIC 60c 39c, 25 GILLETTE BLUE BLADES 98c, ANEFIRIN NASAL JELLY For Hay Fever Help's Your Breathing! 98c, MODERN DESIGN TWO SLICE TOASTER 1.39, 2-CELL FLASHLIGHT CHROMIUM AND COPPER 49c, COFFEE MAKER 98c, SHINES IN THE DARK LUM-O-LITE 1.98, Small, Powerful SUPER-JUICE EXTRACTOR 1.98