

State Releases 1,800 Quail in Southeast Area

Birds from 8 to 10 Weeks Old Released in Johnson, Pawnee, Nemaha, Richardson.

Release of 1,800 quail from 8 to 10 weeks old in Johnson, Pawnee, Richardson and Nemaha counties was started on Sept. 15 by the State Game Commission as part of the quail restoration project under the Pittman-Robertson Act.

The Game Commission is now raising quail at the new state game farm source have been small.

The birds were released on 42 areas in the four counties which have been fenced and planted with cover and feed. Parts of sixty-two farms are taken in by the areas set aside for quail.

Nebraska and Iowa will have the same hunting and fishing agreement relative to the Missouri river for another year, announces the Nebraska Game Commission.

The Nebraska Game Commission has made an agreement with the federal fish hatchery at Crawford for 80 per cent of its output for distribution in Nebraska waters.

Up to Sept. 15 the Game Commission had distributed 120,000 trout so far this year and last week started the distribution of 15,000 more secured from a federal hatchery in Missouri.

Release of the second batch of pheasants raised on the 62 co-operative pheasant units in the state is now under way.

All of these birds are banded and the State Game Commission requests all hunters killing birds with bands on to notify the Commission in the State Capitol, Lincoln.

Fishing in Rock Creek Lake north of Parks is good, according to information received by the State Game Commission.

bass up to 5 1/4 pounds are being caught.

Pheasant hunting out of season is costly and a number of Nebraskans found that out recently. Courts are co-operating with the State Game Commission to make the breaking of state game laws an offense not to be laughed off.

Illegal possession of pheasants in closed season: Johnny Chris Johansen, North Platte, fined $30.00 with $5.00 costs and 20-gauge shotgun confiscated; Albert Chris Haddock, North Platte, fined $30.00 with $5.00 costs and 12-gauge shotgun confiscated; Ray Butterfield, Anselmo, fined $20.00 with $6.50 and .410-gauge gun confiscated; Donald Lairmore, Beatrice, fined $10.00 with $4.80 costs; Arthur Mock, Plainville, fined $10.00 with $4.70 costs; Mike F. Gaughen, North Bend, fined $20.00 with $4.80 costs and shotgun confiscated.

Fishing without a permit: Georgia Drahotka, Humphrey, fined $5.00 with $5.00 costs; Helen Pelchrad, Leigh, fined $5.00 with $5.00 costs; Exie R. Brown, Palisade, fined $5.00 with $3.50 costs; Frank Lawrynowicz, Omaha, fined $5.00 with $4.80 costs. Using borrowed fishing permit: Mike Kerscher, Omaha, fined $5.00 with $4.80 costs.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MOELIZE THEIR SERVICES FOR DEFENSE

Mrs. C. R. Caley, state president of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, has released the following for publication:

"Women of today are facing the greatest challenge of all time; that of helping to defend democracy and our way of life. Belonging to a federated club this year should be considered a responsibility as well as a privilege.

"All programs should be EDUCATIONAL. Factual information should be given so that each person attending has a concrete conception of what we are attempting to do.

"LEADERSHIP implies many things, such as supplying leaders from your club for youth clubs, Sunday school and church leaders. Our nation was founded by men and women who believed in the freedom of religion and who had sublime faith in their God and the power of prayer.

"By SERVICE I do not mean lip service. Our General Federation is launching a defense program. Our state will fall in line in November under the new administration. Each club should have a defense committee, whose purpose now should be to enlist all women in your community and to sew or knit for the Red Cross, also arrange for a home nursing course.

"FRIENDLINESS, a word almost forgotten in our mad rush hither and yon. Have you called on that woman who moved into your neighborhood? Let us do away with procrastination and substitute FRIENDLINESS.

"The ending of man's history is in a holy city, New Jerusalem. But what calamities and tragedies, suffering and misery are recorded, between the beginning and the end. Indiscribable are the woes that men have suffered, rivers of tears have been shed, because of sin. Men have labored but failed to reap because of the curse on the earth.

"The refiner's fire will destroy all the filth of sin, there will be no trace of sin found on the new earth. The dwelling place of the redeemed is a city. We do find in the city more wickedness than in any other place; there are the slums and the underworld characters; not so in the holy city. This city is from God, come down from heaven, prepared for a holy people.

"Fenner, who has practiced in North Platte for the past 25 years, said he would continue his general practice in osteopathy and surgical diagnosis.

Calf Club Winners at Plattsmouth Norma Schafer of Nehawka showed the Grand Champion 4-H club steer at the Korn Karnival held at Plattsmouth the past week. She is a sister of Lyle Schafer, owner of the Nebraska State Fair Grand Champion Angus steer. Norma's animal was a Shorthorn. Gerald Hall of Elmwood exhibited the grand champion dairy heifer, an Ayrshire with reserve going to Eldon Oehlerking of Elmwood on a Jersey. The reserve champion beef was a Hereford steer owned by Betty Schafer of Nehawka.

Thirty-five 4-H club calves were shown at the Plattsmouth Korn Karnival from Cass and Sarpy counties. M. L. Plack of Lincoln who judged the classes commented very favorably on the quality of the show. Art Wetenkamp of Plattsmouth was in charge.

Winners of the various classes are: Hereford Steers—1st, Betty Schafer, Nehawka; 2nd, Elmer Iske, Plattsmouth; 3rd, Jimmy Lively, Sarpy county; 4th, Virgil Streich, Greenwood.

Shorthorn Steers—1st, Norma Schafer, Nehawka; 2nd, Grant Neitzel, Murdock; 3rd, Grant Neitzel, Murdock; 4th, Viola Maass, Sarpy county.

Jerseys—1st, Eldon Oehlerking, Elmwood; 2nd, Henry Irons, Jr., Elmwood.

Home demonstration clubs in Cass county will start their club year with a demonstration called "Healthful Lunches for School and Home."

Four methods of providing a hot lunch for school will be discussed. How to make a delicious cake made of whole wheat flour, spices, nuts and raisins will be demonstrated. The "Lincoln Cake," either warm or cold, will be welcome either on the table or in the lunch pail.

Any group of women who wish to organize themselves as an extension group may do so by writing for enrollment blank 20-G at the county extension office.

Outstanding 4-H Letter Miss Evelyn Wolph, Nehawka, one of the state's outstanding 4-H club leaders was given recognition the past week by the National 4-H Club News.

Miss Wolph wrote a letter on the subject, "What Idea Have You Found in Club News Which Has Moved to Make Your 4-H Club Program Better?" Her letter was published in the September issue of the National 4-H Club News.

Buff boys and girls in Cass county will be picking over calves soon. They'll be looking for the animal that, they hope, will be the grand champion at their county fair, the Nebraska state fair, Ak-Sar-Ben, or some other great 4-H club show.

Of course, there can be only one grand champion at each show. And, it's only the top two or three baby heaves at each show that will sell at figures much above market value. So, some advice from L. L. Frisbie.

To Check Motorists Captain C. J. Sanders of the Nebraska Safety Patrol states that motor vehicle drivers in the vicinity of some thirteen selected points will be stopped on the road and their operator's license checked to see whether or not they have expired.

Those whose licenses have expired will be given five days to obtain new ones before charges will be filed. A fine not to exceed $100 may be imposed for operating a motor vehicle without an effective operator's license.

Specific points at which these checks are to be made will not be divulged. Captain Sanders would only say that the coverage would be state wide.

NEW N. Y. A. PROJECT

The Cass Soil Conservation district has made arrangements for an N. Y. A. project in which boys will be selected to assist the district technicians in running engineering instruments, doing drafting work, assisting in the establishment of soil conservation practices on farm land and in clerical and typing work.

Boys that are eligible for N. Y. A. work are those that are between the ages of 17 and 25, and have graduated from high school or have been out of school for at least a year or more.

Anyone that is interested in putting in some time up to 80 hours per month at these types of work should report to the Soil Conservation district office at Weeping Water between 1 and 4 p. m., Monday, September 29. During these hours, an N.Y.A. representative will supply additional information and will interview prospective applicants.

ROYALTY AT NEBRASKA CITY NEBRASKA CITY, Sept. 24 (UP)—Crown heads from four different Nebraska "kingdoms" will attend the opening of the Nebraska City Apple Festival Thursday night.

The visiting royalty will include King William Jeffers and Queen Gwendolyn Sachs of Omaha's Ak-Sar-Pen, King R. W. Tyson and Queen Betty Jo Libershal of the Plattsmouth Korn Karnival, King Vern Wray and Queen Josephine Baldwin of the Hamburg Penny Festival and Queen Louise Peterson of the Richardson county fair at Humboldt.

The royalty will witness the coronation of the new Apple Harvest queen.

OSTEOPATH CASE CLOSED LINCOLN, Sept. 22 (UP)—The state supreme court today closed its books on the legal battle between the state and Nebraska osteopaths by refusing to reopen the case for rehearing.

By denying petitions for rehearing, the court reaffirmed its previous decision which held that the state law did not permit Nebraska osteopaths to practice operative surgery.

The opinion said, however, that osteopathic physicians and surgeons could legally administer anaesthetics and practice obstetrics.

state 4-H leader, is especially to the point.

"There should be more emphasis than ever on the proper buying of calves, because of the high prices of feeding and foundation stock," Frisbie says. "See that the calves are bought right and are of the right kind. Feeder calves should be bought so they can be sold profitably as meat animals when the 4-H project is finished. Buy right, feed right; and sell right are the three 'rights' that still determine the success, financial and otherwise, of a club project.

Cass county boys wishing help in locating calves should inform their county agent.

TO STOP MOTORISTS FOR PEEK AT DRIVERS' LICENSES

Wardner G. Scott, state engineer and director of the Motor Vehicle Division advises the Journal that reports from county treasurers indicate many drivers are delaying the renewal of their drivers' licenses past the expiration date.

Mr. Scott explained that a driver's license is effective only for a period of two years from the date of issuance, and that an expired driver's license is not effective as an operator's license, but such license does authorize the holder to obtain a renewal without an examination until 90 days after the expiration date.

Renewals of licenses are to be made at the office of the county treasurer where the license was originally secured, or, if a change of residence has taken place, at the office of the county treasurer in which legal residence is now claimed.

THE CLOSET OF PRAYER

By REV. G. ST. G. TYNER (Written July 22, 1940)

I wish I were able to fully explain The wonders of the Closet of Prayer. For I know each time that I enter in, God's presence is always there.

I know there is something within the spell That He holds me, while waiting there. There's a peace and love, and a feeling divine, That can never be found elsewhere.

We linger together, my heart with His. It's a beautiful trust that we keep I'm refreshed, and inspired and hushed into awe Like the deep ever calling to deep.

I know that my Lord commands us to pray, And He showed us the way while here. He prayed night and day in the depth of his love, That our souls to His might draw near.

He has given us words, of which He has said: After this manner pray ye, Our Father in Heaven, Thy Kingdom come, Thy Name ever hallowed be.

He gave us the secret of how to find God, By His teaching and practice of prayer, The secret of peace and power and love, With which nothing else can compare.

So seek Him again, if you've not found Him yet. In the beautiful Closet of Prayer, He will hear you, bless you, and fill every need, If you'll learn but to linger there.

NO SHOW DOWN ON JUDGE

LINCOLN, Sept. 24 (UP)—Democratic leaders today denied reports current in Lincoln that a show-down in the appointment of a federal judge to succeed Judge Thomas C. Munger, who seeks partial retirement, is imminent.

A statement in Washington by Henry P. Chandler, director of the administrative office of federal courts, who requested immediate action in filling the Nebraska and 11 other judge vacancies, apparently was responsible for the rumors.

Judge James C. Quigley, Valentine, state democratic national committeeman, before leaving here for Lincoln with W. A. Schall, the party's state chairman, said "no one has put any pressure on us yet."

Quigley, Schall and Mrs. Evelyn G. Ryan, Grand Island, national committeewoman, were appointed a committee to sift applicants. Both Quigley and Schall said the list is not yet completed.

Quigley said he will return to Valentine after today's conference in Lincoln. He plans no immediate trip to Washington, but admitted such a journey is in prospect later.

CROP PRODUCTION GOOD

LINCOLN, Sept. 24 (UP)—Recent warm weather hastened maturity of Nebraska's corn crop and brightened the production outlook, the state-federal division of agricultural statistics reported today.

Statistician A. E. Anderson said sorghum crops had improved since a week ago. He forecast a heavy yield, except in local western areas where fields suffered frost damage.

Recent high temperatures eased farmers' apprehension that sorghum might not ripen before frost, but Anderson warned that there still was a possibility of severe damage from "early cold weather."

Grasshoppers were said to have damaged wheat in southern and eastern sections. In the central districts, the pests were reported to have stripped alfalfa and rye fields.

DO FINE WORK

A group of men who have worked hard during the four days and nights of the King Korn Karnival has been Sheriff Joe Mrasek and the members of the regular and special police provided by the city.

The proof of their effective work was in the fact that no accidents occurred and traffic problems were handled fast and efficiently despite the large crowds and the heavy traffic that moved through the city both day and night.

The officers are to be very highly commended by the faithful adherence to their duty that produced a 100 per cent record of efficiency.

Will Extend Scope of Defense Moves Over the State

Committees Similar to That of Cass-Sarpy and Douglas to Extend Over the State.

LINCOLN, Sept. 24 (UP)—A tightly-knit organization to cooperate with the national civilian defense committee was described today by Executive Secretary Wade R. Martin as the next goal of Nebraska's advisory defense committee.

By Nov. 1 Martin hopes to have 13 regional organizations functioning in the state to coordinate all defense activity. In each region, he said, the organization will revolve around a chairman and vice chairman.

Regional committees will be patterned after the organization named in April in Region No. 1 consisting of Sarpy, Cass, Douglas and Washington counties.

The original regional committee, headed by Chairman W. C. Fraser, Omaha, included six other members. Seven members probably will be named on each of the other 12 committees, Martin said.

The executive vice chairman announced he would confer with Gov. Dwight Griswold before announcing the probable plan of selecting regional committee chairmen and members.

For cities and towns where municipal defense groups already have been organized, Martin said the regional committee would serve as inter-city "coordinators."

Through the regional groups, the advisory committee hopes to perfect plans for civilian aircraft observation service, police mobilization and fire defense. Martin said more than 1,000 persons already had registered through the American Legion for the civilian aircraft warning service.

State Sheriff L. D. Mengel is in charge of the police mobilization and State Fire Marshal Raymond L. Crosson is directing the program for statewide fire defense.

Here's how the regional setup will group the counties: Region 1—Cass, Sarpy, Douglas, Washington; Region 2—Platte, Boone, Madison, Stanton, Pierce, Antelope, Knox, Boyd, Holt; Region 3—Cedar, Dixon, Dakota, Wayne, Cuming, Thurston, Burt; Region 4—Scotts Bluff, Banner, Kimball, Cheyenne, Morrill, Fox Butte, Garden, Deuel, Grant; Region 5—Perkins, Keith, Arthur, Hooker, McPherson, Lincoln, Thomas, Logan, Dawson; Region 6—Blaine, Custer, Loup, Garfield, Wheeler, Valley, Sherman, Buffalo, Hall, Howard, Greeley, Hamilton, Merrick, Nance.

Region 7—Colfax, Dodge, Polk, Butler, Saunders; Region 8—Sioux, Dawes, Sheridan, Cherry, Brown, Rock, Keya Paha; Region 9—Chase, Dundy, Hayes, Hitchcock, Frontier, Red Willow, Furnas, Gosper; Region 10—Phelps, Harlan, Franklin, Kearney, Adams, Webster, Clay, Nuckolls; Region 11—York, Fillmore, Thayer, Saline, Jefferson, Gage; Region 12—Seward, Lancaster, Otoe; Region 13—Johnson, Pawnee, Nemaha, Richardson.

Martin said the state committee was cooperating with the national civilian defense group through the seventh area office in Omaha in charge of Col. Edward L. Wilbur, formerly of Lincoln.

He listed these as major accomplishments of the state committee since it was organized by the last legislature:

1—Promoting legislation for creation of zoning and housing authority and state guard.

2—Creating regional committee No. 1 to handle housing, labor, transportation, health, recreation, sanitation and zoning problems in Douglas, Cass and Sarpy counties.

3—Conducting Nebraska's aluminum recovery campaign.
