

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

MRS. R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

MURDOCK

By Journal Field Representative

John H. Buck has been kept busy long hours each day, keeping up his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmidt and daughter Miss Geraldine were business visitors in Lincoln Monday.

Howard Pool of near Wabash has purchased a new tractor for use in carrying on his farming operations.

Everett Lindell and wife were in Lincoln last Tuesday, where Mrs. Lindell called on friends while Mr. Lindell transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Work and sons of Omaha were guests last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Work's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool.

Mrs. C. A. Besack spent a number of days in Omaha last week, where she was a guest of two of her daughters and their families.

Fred Harshberger, manager of the Murdock lumber yard was in Lincoln last Monday evening, where he visited his son and daughter.

Edward Knaube of near Nehawka was visiting his friend, Carl Meier-Jurgens, near Murdock, and both went to Omaha to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben stock show.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buck were at Eagle one night last week, where they enjoyed a visit at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Muenchau.

Gust Gakemeier was shelling and delivering corn to the Murdock elevator, getting the cribs emptied and ready for the new crop which he is about to start gathering.

Mrs. R. E. Norris and a Mr. Denison, state Red Cross worker, were in Murdock Tuesday to consult with Mrs. Henry A. Tool relative to the work of the American Red Cross in Cass county.

Miss Ella Atchison of southwest of Elmwood was a guest last Tuesday at the home of her friend, Mrs. A. J. Tool and also had the pleasure of meeting a number of other friends while in Murdock.

The Ladies Aid of the Murdock Evangelical church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Zabel, with Mrs. Otto Miller as co-hostess. Activities for the fall and winter season were planned at this meeting.

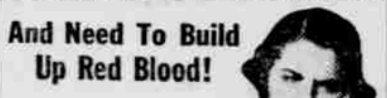

Mrs. Una McHugh will be hostess at a tea to be given at her home on October 21st for the completion of payment of the costs of the new roof which was recently placed on the M. W. A. hall, wherein the Royal Neighbors hold their meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Besack and Mrs. Hannah McDonald were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bradford at Carlton, Nebr. The three ladies are sisters and their hosts were the parents of O. E. Bradford, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Tool.

Mrs. Jacob Johansen, who conducts the Murdock cafe, has been quite ill the past three weeks and has been staying at the country home of her daughter, Mrs. Leo Rikli, who is taking excellent care of the mother. Mr. Johansen is kept busy looking after the restaurant and is aided

YOU GIRLS! 13 to 25 Who Suffer DYSMENORRHEA

And Need To Build Up Red Blood!

If pain and distress of functional monthly disturbances make you feel weak, dragged out, pale, cranky, nervous at such times—try Lydia Pinkham's Compound Tablets (with added iron). Pinkham's Tablets not only relieve monthly pain (cramps, headache, backache), but also help soothe nervousness due to such cause. Their iron helps build up the haemoglobin of red blood cells, and thus aid in promoting a more refreshed and vigorous bloodstream—more strength and energy. Thousands of women report remarkable benefits by taking Lydia Pinkham's Tablets. Get a bottle today from your druggist. Follow label directions. WORTH TRYING!

by Mrs. A. H. Ward, who is doing the cooking and serving.

Here from Idaho on Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were at Lincoln last Sunday, where they were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wolfe. The ladies are sisters.
Then on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe came over for a visit at the Wolfe home, being accompanied by Mrs. Lelia Fifer, of Nampa, Idaho, who has been their guest during the past few weeks.

MANLEY

By Journal Field Representative

The Altar Society of St. Patrick's church held a largely attended meeting at the community hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heil. The ladies are sisters.

Station Agent Art Franks of the Missouri Pacific was in Weeping Water Wednesday, where he transacted business.

Mrs. Sadie Bourks, of Lincoln, a cousin of Mrs. G. E. Rhoden, spent several days at the Rhoden home during the past week.

Edith Salsberg of Omaha has been spending a few days here at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haws, during the past week.

Mrs. Andrew Schliefert was hostess to the Manley Extension club at a largely attended business meeting that was climaxed with refreshments.

William Lau, well known Manley resident, arrived at his 62nd birthday during the past week and received the congratulations of his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth and Mr. and Mrs. Thorvold Hanson went to Omaha last Sunday to attend the opening day performance of the Ak-Sar-Ben stock show.

Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water attended the card party given by the Altar Society of St. Patrick's church and also visited her friend, Mrs. Herman Rauth.

Word was received here Monday evening of the death of George Stoll at his home in Plattsmouth. The Stolls formerly resided in this vicinity and were well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleischman were at Ashland last Sunday, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Edward Cochran. The deceased lady is an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Fleischman's daughter, by marriage.

Mrs. Louis Buskirk, who underwent a major operation at an Omaha hospital recently, is reported making very satisfactory progress toward recovery. The folks were at the hospital Sunday to see the patient and found her feeling much better.

The members of the congregation of St. Patrick's Catholic church and many friends were gathered at the community hall Sunday to enjoy the fried chicken dinner that was served. As a result of their efforts, the ladies received considerable revenue to aid in carrying on the church work.

Harold Krecklow and Chester Elsenauer, who lives at Murdock, have been painting the buildings at the C. B. Barkhurst estate farm, as well as building a new porch at the home. They have been working at the job about three weeks and have it almost completed.

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hollenbeck were in Plattsmouth last Thursday on business matters.

Harry A. Williams and Albert Bronn were looking after business in Lincoln last Tuesday.

Miss Ella Atchison was a guest at the home of her friend, Mrs. A. J. Tool of Murdock one day last week.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle and daughter, Mrs. Floy Buell were visiting friends and doing some shopping in Lincoln last Wednesday.

Harry Weichel, who resides between Elmwood and Alvo, was a business visitor in Elmwood last Wednesday.

Marion McCrorey has been suffering from an attack of flu and was confined to his bed a number of days. He is reported feeling better.

James Wade of Elmwood was in Lincoln last Tuesday, where he had some business matters to look after and was also seeking some medical advice.

Pete Lynn, the decorator and paperhanger, has just completed decorating the apartments of Josiah Meirs and has made the place look very neat as a result.

Mrs. Charles Spohn, who has been receiving treatment at a Lincoln hospital, is showing good improvement, and was allowed to return home during the past week.

Mrs. George Blessing, Sr., came over from her farm home west of Murdock on Wednesday to pick up news items and otherwise assist her son, George Blessing, Jr., get the paper out.

John Wood trucked a load of horses to the community sale at Syracuse for William Holka. Minton Wood went out to help load the animals and while he was away Albert Kuntz looked after business at the service station.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, former residents of Elmwood, who have been living in Lincoln, recently returned to Elmwood and have moved into the property recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rosenow.

Since Robert Acton and Doan Stark accepted positions in Wisconsin, the hardware store here has been without a plumber and specialty man. W. W. Coatman has accepted the position and has been working there the past two weeks.

Wm. Atchison was looking after business matters in Murray and Plattsmouth one day last week and enjoyed meeting a large number of acquaintances at the county seat.

Henry Mollen, for a number of years a shoemaker in Elmwood, but for the past two years a resident of Eagle, was under the impression he was five years younger than the records which he has just found among old papers reveals him to be. So the three score and ten—or seventy—has jumped to 75, instead. When we get along that age, the years pile up all too rapidly without having them jump five at a time.

Greenwood

Special Journal Correspondence

Miss Grace Maher was home over the week end. She is employed in Lincoln.

Johnny Gomerdingier was called to work at the Havelock shops last Thursday.

Mrs. Ronald Florence visited her mother, Mrs. Mabel Newkirk, last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Glenn Peters and daughters, Joan and Dale, were in Lincoln on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Schroeder, of Lincoln, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schroeder.

Mrs. T. Swanson of Davey spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Rolland Cameron and family.

Mrs. Nannie Coleman left last Saturday for Underwood, Iowa, to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Schuster.

Mrs. Roy Rbeard was taken to Nicholas-Senn hospital in Omaha on Wednesday. Latest reports say she is better.

The Dorcas Society was entertained at the church last Friday with Mrs. H. Brehm and Mrs. D. Clouse entertaining.

The Deal-a-Deek Pinnacle club met Thursday night with Mrs. Jim Armstrong at her home. A very pleasant time was had by all.

Mrs. Charlie Dyer is substituting in the public schools to fill the teaching assignments made vacant by the resignation of Coach Le Prevost.

Mrs. Mabel Newkirk, Mrs. Charlie Dyer and Mrs. N. O. Coleman were hostesses last Friday night when the L. C. C. held their first night party of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rouse were in Plattsmouth Wednesday on business.

Earl Holka of McCook spent Saturday night and Sunday at home with his parents.

Seventeen girls were guests at a birthday party Saturday afternoon at the R. Burks home in honor of the 11th birthday of Virginia. Games were played and refreshments served.

Alvo News

Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hardnock were in Lincoln Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Klyver of Lincoln visited her mother and sister Thursday evening, remaining over night.

Miss Dorothy Skinner was home to visit her folks a couple of days this week. She is working in Ashland.

Mrs. Charles Jordan came up from near Omaha to care for her mother, who was injured in a fall Monday morning.

Mrs. Howard Nickel has been making frequent trips to Ashland, where she is having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams and Grandma Bruner, Henry and Miss Martha Dittmer were Lincoln visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Fifer, Mrs. Klyver, Mrs. Homer Cook, Mrs. Maybelle Winn and Mrs. Earl Bennett drove to Lincoln to attend a pinochle party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Klyver on Wednesday afternoon.

Karl Sutton returned to Tacoma, Washington, the fore part of the week after having enjoyed a few days' visit here with relatives. He went from here to Fremont to visit two of his sisters and to McCook to visit his brother Paul and family.

Carl D. Ganz has been on the go the past couple of weeks, attending a bankers convention in Chicago during the week of Sept. 29 to Oct. 4, and then the latter part of this week, as president of the Nebraska Bankers association, was in Omaha to preside over the annual convention sessions of that organization, which he has served most faithfully during the past year.

Observe Rally Day
Rally Day was observed by the local Sunday school Sunday. The primary folks came up stairs and furnished part of the service and the older folks furnished the rest of the service. A large crowd was present. Dr. Story sent a young man out from Lincoln to hold church services.

Undergoes Operation
Mrs. Will Sutton of Chappell is in a Lincoln hospital where she underwent an operation for goitre last week. She is reported to be getting along very well and will soon go out to Mrs. Arthur Klyver's for a few days before going home.

Missionary from Borneo
Dr. Barkly was responsible for bringing some interesting entertainment Tuesday evening to the Stew. art hall. The missionary present was in Lincoln for the missionary convention being held there this week. He had colored pictures that he had taken during his three year stay in Borneo. They were very interesting and educational.

Exchange Homes
Henry Miller and Joe Parsell exchanged homes very recently. Monday the two moved. Mr. Miller is closer to town now and that makes it much more convenient for him. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parsell will have more land and they plan to have chickens and more garden. They are both getting nicely settled again.

Suffers Broken Arm
Mrs. Bailey had the misfortune to break her arm Monday morning as she stepped out onto the porch to get the cream and milk. It was her right arm and the break was a very bad one. She was able to set up

Greenwood

Special Journal Correspondence

Miss Grace Maher was home over the week end. She is employed in Lincoln.

Johnny Gomerdingier was called to work at the Havelock shops last Thursday.

Mrs. Ronald Florence visited her mother, Mrs. Mabel Newkirk, last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Glenn Peters and daughters, Joan and Dale, were in Lincoln on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Schroeder, of Lincoln, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schroeder.

Mrs. T. Swanson of Davey spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Rolland Cameron and family.

Mrs. Nannie Coleman left last Saturday for Underwood, Iowa, to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Schuster.

Mrs. Roy Rbeard was taken to Nicholas-Senn hospital in Omaha on Wednesday. Latest reports say she is better.

The Dorcas Society was entertained at the church last Friday with Mrs. H. Brehm and Mrs. D. Clouse entertaining.

The Deal-a-Deek Pinnacle club met Thursday night with Mrs. Jim Armstrong at her home. A very pleasant time was had by all.

Mrs. Charlie Dyer is substituting in the public schools to fill the teaching assignments made vacant by the resignation of Coach Le Prevost.

Mrs. Mabel Newkirk, Mrs. Charlie Dyer and Mrs. N. O. Coleman were hostesses last Friday night when the L. C. C. held their first night party of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rouse were in Plattsmouth Wednesday on business.

Earl Holka of McCook spent Saturday night and Sunday at home with his parents.

Seventeen girls were guests at a birthday party Saturday afternoon at the R. Burks home in honor of the 11th birthday of Virginia. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rouse were in Plattsmouth Wednesday on business.

Earl Holka of McCook spent Saturday night and Sunday at home with his parents.

"Wonder How It Works . . ."

FIRST SHIPMENTS of American-made lend lease guns to help defend Asia against the Axis threat have reached these tough Sikhs, members of a famous North Indian race of fighting men in the service of Britain. Loss of the rich rubber and tin supplies of India, Malaya and Burma would be a blow not only to the war effort of Britain and her fighting Allies in the war against Hitler, but to the American defense program as well.

Alvo News

Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hardnock were in Lincoln Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Klyver of Lincoln visited her mother and sister Thursday evening, remaining over night.

Miss Dorothy Skinner was home to visit her folks a couple of days this week. She is working in Ashland.

Mrs. Charles Jordan came up from near Omaha to care for her mother, who was injured in a fall Monday morning.

Mrs. Howard Nickel has been making frequent trips to Ashland, where she is having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams and Grandma Bruner, Henry and Miss Martha Dittmer were Lincoln visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Fifer, Mrs. Klyver, Mrs. Homer Cook, Mrs. Maybelle Winn and Mrs. Earl Bennett drove to Lincoln to attend a pinochle party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Klyver on Wednesday afternoon.

Karl Sutton returned to Tacoma, Washington, the fore part of the week after having enjoyed a few days' visit here with relatives. He went from here to Fremont to visit two of his sisters and to McCook to visit his brother Paul and family.

Carl D. Ganz has been on the go the past couple of weeks, attending a bankers convention in Chicago during the week of Sept. 29 to Oct. 4, and then the latter part of this week, as president of the Nebraska Bankers association, was in Omaha to preside over the annual convention sessions of that organization, which he has served most faithfully during the past year.

Observe Rally Day
Rally Day was observed by the local Sunday school Sunday. The primary folks came up stairs and furnished part of the service and the older folks furnished the rest of the service. A large crowd was present. Dr. Story sent a young man out from Lincoln to hold church services.

Undergoes Operation
Mrs. Will Sutton of Chappell is in a Lincoln hospital where she underwent an operation for goitre last week. She is reported to be getting along very well and will soon go out to Mrs. Arthur Klyver's for a few days before going home.

Missionary from Borneo
Dr. Barkly was responsible for bringing some interesting entertainment Tuesday evening to the Stew. art hall. The missionary present was in Lincoln for the missionary convention being held there this week. He had colored pictures that he had taken during his three year stay in Borneo. They were very interesting and educational.

Exchange Homes
Henry Miller and Joe Parsell exchanged homes very recently. Monday the two moved. Mr. Miller is closer to town now and that makes it much more convenient for him. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parsell will have more land and they plan to have chickens and more garden. They are both getting nicely settled again.

Suffers Broken Arm
Mrs. Bailey had the misfortune to break her arm Monday morning as she stepped out onto the porch to get the cream and milk. It was her right arm and the break was a very bad one. She was able to set up

AVOCA

By Journal Field Representative

Monte Lum was called to Nebraska City Monday to look after business matters.

Bobbie McDonald was in Omaha Monday evening, going up to buy an electric refrigerator for the store.

Miss Arline Earhardt of near Manley was a guest of her friend, Miss Rosemary Stock, Manley.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Carsten and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith went to Omaha Tuesday to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben live stock show.

Bobbie Hallstrom has been nursing a boil on the side of his face, that is very painful. However, he is continuing his work at the bank.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Thomas and daughters, Ailene and Nadine, of Shenandoah were here Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late W. H. Bogaard, father of Mrs. Thomas.

Earl Freeman and wife were at Union Monday evening, being called there by the death of Mrs. Isaac Dye, aunt of Mrs. Freeman. Later in the week they went back to attend the funeral on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Nutzman have received a letter from his son, Carroll, age 22, who has been in Honolulu three years and now advises that he is manager of the cookie department of the Williams Baking company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt and children, accompanied by Mrs. Caroline Marquardt drove to Russell, Iowa, to spend Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hill, who moved to the Tall Corn state last spring from the vicinity of Beaver Crossing.

Takes His Lot Cheerfully
Fred McGrady, who for many years conducted a blacksmith shop in Avoca, has been in poor health for a long time, having to close his shop and remain at home and in bed a great deal of the time. Just now he is slightly better and on sunny days is able to get down town and meet some of the old friends, which he enjoys a great deal. On our last visit to Avoca we met Fred, who was in his wheel chair on the sunny side of the shop, accompanied by his wife, who saw that he got around.

Attended Funeral at Nehawka
Among those from Avoca who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Nicholas Opp at Nehawka last Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frazen, all old friends of the deceased.

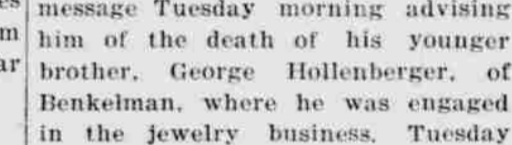

Advised of Brother's Death
W. A. Hollenberger received a message Tuesday morning advising him of the death of his younger brother, George Hollenberger, of Benkelman, where he was engaged in the jewelry business. Tuesday evening he had received no further news about the demise of the brother or what funeral arrangements were being made, but though burial might be at Geneva.

Dies at Home of Daughter
W. H. Bogaard, former postmaster here, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. Z. Thomas, at Shenandoah, Sunday. Mr. Bogaard had been in poor health for some time and recently went to Shenandoah to reside with the daughter and family. He continued to fail and Sunday his condition became very critical, resulting in his death.

The body was brought to Avoca for funeral services, which were held Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. M. Kokjer. The Men's club sang "Abide with Me." "Day is Dying in the West" and "Going Down the Valley." Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Domestic production of steel will total 81 million tons this year, the largest amount ever produced by any country, the Department of Commerce says.

DON'T LET CONSTIPATION SLOW YOU UP
When bowels are sluggish - when you feel irritable, headachy and everything you do is an effort - do as millions of folks do. Chew FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing gum laxative. FEEN-A-MINT looks and tastes like your favorite gum - you'll like its fresh mint flavor. Simply chew FEEN-A-MINT at bedtime - sleep without being disturbed - next morning gentle, effective relief. You'll feel like a million, full of your old pep again. A generous family supply of FEEN-A-MINT costs only 10¢.

10¢

FEEN-A-MINT