Mission Services to Start at St. John's Monday

Noted Missionary Will Be Here for Mission from October 12th to the 19th.

From Saturday's Daily—
A week mission is to open at the St. John's Catholic church in this city next Monday and will continue to October 19th, bringing here one of the strong missionary workers of the church.

Rev. Cyril Ernst, C.P.P.S. of Carthage, Ohio, is the priest to have charge of the mission and will bring a vigorous message to the members of the faith and the city in general. The mission will strive to awaken renewed zeal in the Christian life, the need of prayer and sincere meditation on the great truths of religion that they may more fully enter into the life of man and woman. The mission will revive and strengthen the faith of those attending, deepen the foundation hope, intensify the love of God, bring man closer to his fellow beings in the bonds of Christian faith.

The mission will strive to bring those who may have strayed from the folds of the faith to a realization of the glories of the life of the true Christian and bring them closer to God.

Rev. Monsignor George Agius, pastor of the church urges all to attend and invites all non-Catholics to attend and enjoy the series of sermons.

VISITS NORTH PART OF STATE

Phillip Fornoff of this city returned home last night from a week spent in the northern part of the state looking after land interests and visiting old friends. He has a farm in Antelope county that he visited and found the corn crop excellent and the farm under very capable management. While at Plainview Mr. Fornoff was a guest at the Phillip Schafer home with the old time friends.

PARITY PAYMENTS MADE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (UP)—The agriculture department announced today that total payments under the 1940 AAA parity payment program, together with estimates of those remaining to be made, amounted to $210,003,151 on June 30.

The payments were made to growers of corn, cotton, wheat and rice, who participated in the 1940 program in order to adjust the difference between actual and parity prices. Payments and estimates included $64,509,807 for the north-central district, which includes Nebraska.

FALL OUTLOOK GOOD

LINCOLN, Oct. 8 (UP)—Nebraska's fall outlook for all crops is "the brightest in years," the state-federal division of agricultural statistics declared today.

Statistician A. E. Anderson said "good general rains" over the state during the past week had improved the soil moisture situation. Sorghums, alfalfa, pasture, winter wheat and rye received the most benefit.

The report revealed there has been no frost damage in the state so far, except in extreme western counties.

DR. PAUL RITTER ARRESTED FOR AN ILLEGAL OPERATION

LINCOLN, Oct. 11 (UP)—Dr. Paul Ritter, former observer at the Fenner Osteopathic hospital at North Platte, has been taken into custody at Lovington, New Mexico, it was learned today.

Ritter was arrested on a warrant filed by Lincoln County Attorney S. S. Dierichs, charging Ritter with performing an alleged illegal operation.

It was said here Ritter was practicing osteopathy in a small town sixty miles south of Lovington. Dr. Harold A. Fenner, hospital owner, also faces similar charges. He is believed to be in California.
