Frowning to SEE!

The faces of many attractive and intelligent women are marred by faulty eyesight. As they read, or play cards, or look at anyone, they unconsciously furrow their foreheads in an effort to see better.

Work and read easily; save yourself from unnecessary frowns and fatigue. Have your eyesight examined periodically—corrected when necessary.

Catholic church was one of the most successful missions held in this church in the recent years. Each mass and evening service has found large and attentive audiences.

Rev. Cyril Ernst, C.P.P.S. of Carthage, Ohio, has been the preacher at the church at the special services, bringing strong and forceful messages on the teachings of this church and the responsibility of the members.

Great zeal was awakened in the membership by the messages that have proven most inspiring to the Rt. Rev. George Agius, pastor of the St. John's church.

At the closing service Sunday night there were a large group of the priests of the Plattsmouth deanery present including Father Albin Bauer and assistant, Father Gung, of St. Mary's church, Nebraska City; Father Charles Bauer of St. Benedict's church, Nebraska City; Father E. C. McFadden, of Syracuse-Avoca; Father Brombach, of Julian; Father James Hennessey of Manley; Father John Kane, of Palmyra.

St. Paul's Church Holds Mission Service Sunday

Large Congregations Present at the Service Both Morning and Evening at Church

From Monday's Daily—

The 1941 Mission Festival of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, was conducted in Plattsmouth yesterday with services in the morning and afternoon. The mission is an annual event, and it brings a large group of the congregation and friends together for joint services and social gathering.

Rev. E. H. Nussmann, pastor of the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church at Hamburg, Iowa, was the principal speaker at the morning service which began at 10:30. His wife was also here for the mission.

At the noon hour the ladies of the church served dinner to a big crowd. In the absence of Rev. Walter F. Kieker, his son, Walter, Jr., addressed the congregation at the afternoon service. Mrs. Kieker, likewise, was here with her husband.

The singing during the day consisted of two anthems—"God Speed His Word" and "Be Strong in the Lord." Mrs. Willard Sherman was the accompanist.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES

In the office of the clerk of the district court Saturday afternoon a number of cases were filed, among them the following:

City of Plattsmouth vs. Fred and Anna Heisel and R. L. Kent, for tax foreclosure on lots 1 and 2, block 12, Young & Hayes addition. This is to clear the record as to the taxes.

Another action was that of William Ellsworth Rosencrans, vs. Clayton Rosencrans, in which the plaintiff asks an accounting with the defendant. The petition states that the plaintiff was presented with $200 time of birth by his grandfather; by agreement with his mother and the defendant the amount was to be preserved and added to by gifts. It is alleged that in 1931 the amount had accumulated to $1,000. The plaintiff became 21 years of age on October 21, 1940, and that request has been made for an accounting of the fund. It is prayed that the court make order requiring the accounting by the defendant.

An action for divorce has been filed by Erna Melerderks against William Melerderks. The petition states that the parties were married on September 6, 1910. The cause of the action is that of cruelty.

LOCAL HUNTING PARTY

While other hunters seek the elusive game in the north and west part of the state, a party of local nimrods enjoyed their sport along the Missouri river where they secured a few squirrels but little duck shooting. In the party were Ray Becker, register of deeds, Mike Allen, Bob Walling and "Mac" McKissick of Omaha.

Job's Daughters at Presbyterian Church Sunday

Fine Turnout of Members of Bethel No. 24 Headed by Their Honored Queen at Services.

From Monday's Daily—
The morning service at the First Presbyterian church Sunday was marked by the attendance of the members of Bethel No. 24, Job's Daughters, headed by their honored queen, Miss Maxine Nielsen and other officers of the Bethel.

The young women made a very attractive picture with their gowns and official regalia as they occupied the seats of honor in the church auditorium. Dr. H. G. McClusky had prepared a sermon appropriate to the day, "The Secret of Faith—The Secret of Beauty," which was very much appreciated by the large congregation.

The choir of the church gave as a special number, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountain."

At the close of the service the members of the Job's Daughters closed with a very impressive ceremony and kneeling sang one verse of "Nearer My God to Thee."

CARD OF THANKS

To all of my friends who sent me cheerful convalescent cards, lovely flowers and other miscellaneous things during my stay at an Omaha hospital, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude.—Miss Adeline Vinuduska.

ENJOYING HUNTING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gorton of this city were out in the vicinity of Creighton Sunday to enjoy pheasant hunting. They motored to Omaha to join a party of friends for the trip to the north part of the state.

HERE FOR FUNERAL SERVICE

There was a very large number of the relatives here and at Cortland Saturday for the last rites for Mrs. Mary Sydebotham who had passed away Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Johnston at Cortland.

The services at Cortland Congregational church were conducted by Rev. Albrecht, while at the grave here at Oak Hill cemetery, Rev. J. W. Taenzler of the First Christian church had the services.

Among the relatives here were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lane, Newton, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. VanBuskirk, Rev. and Mrs. Albrecht, of Cortland; Ruth Johnston, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leaders, Omaha; Kyli Lane, Des Moines; Frank Johnston, Fort Knox, Kentucky; Charles Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Shepherd, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnston and son, Yutan; Mr. and Mrs. Bell McHale of Omaha.

WITH UNIVERSITY SINGERS

Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, director of the school of fine arts at the University of Nebraska, announces the selection of fifty-six students for the University Singers. These were made after first semester tryouts at the university.

Among the group selected for this musical organization is a Plattsmouth girl, Miss Mary Jean Knorr, who will be a first alto in the Singers.

RETURNS TO HOSPITAL

W. O. Reeves of this city, who has been at the U. S. Veterans' hospital at Lincoln for the past few years, was home the last week for a few days. Mr. Reeves enjoyed his first visit home for sixteen months as his physical condition is very grave. He was taken back to the hospital Sunday.

Death of George Lloyd, 81, an Old Resident

Pioneer Cass County Man Dies at the Austin Rest Home Following Stroke—Funeral This Week

From Monday's Daily—
At 7:30 last evening there passed away from this earth an old and loved resident—George I. Lloyd, who died at the Austin Rest Home following a stroke which he had suffered around 4:30 p. m. yesterday. Mr. Lloyd had been ailing for approximately a year and it has just been three months that he was confined to the Austin home. Previous to that time he had resided in Murray with his son, Anderson, who moved to Colorado a short time ago. Mr. Lloyd is well known in Murray. There is left to mourn his passing three daughters, Mrs. Frank Marler of Murray, Mrs. Roy Cole and Mrs. Frank Dill of Plattsmouth; one son, Anderson Lloyd of Bennett, Colorado; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren. His three daughters were with him at the time of his death.

HUNTING PARTIES

One of the hunting parties Sunday was that of Carl Schneider, E. W. Burdick, Walter Tritsch and Rudolph Iverson, hunting in the vicinity of St. Edward, Nebraska, former home of Mr. Burdick.

John and George Blotzer were among the hunters out in the north part of the state Sunday to search for the elusive pheasant.

Another of the hunting parties comprised Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sedlak, Frank Secoy, Fred Messer, Robert Howe, Elizabeth Wiles and Helen Trotter. The party were guests at North Platte of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNeal and the men of the party enjoyed the hunting in that locality.

RECEIVES OUTSTANDING HONOR

Corbin J. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sevil S. Davis, was on the dean's honor roll at Kemper Military School, Boonville, Mo., for the first grade month. This is an outstanding scholastic honor as the roll requires one to be in the group above 87 and takes in less than 18 per cent of the corps.

The young man was one of the high ranking students and athletes of the local high school.

WED AT METHODIST PARSONAGE

Saturday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage occurred the marriage of Arthur Smith and Bessie Mae Olson, both of Winterset, Iowa. The marriage was performed by Rev. L. W. Bratt, the pastor of the church. The wedding was witnessed by Miss Marjorie Shearer of Peru, Iowa and Mrs. Bratt.

VISITING WITH HOME FOLKS

Floyd Shanholtz, who is now stationed at Camp Grant, Illinois, arrived home Saturday for a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shanholtz as well as with the many old friends. Floyd has been located at Camp Grant where he has been taking special schooling as part of the medical corps courses. He is expecting soon to be sent to another station for active service.

Another son of the Shanholtz family, Beryle, is now at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he had his induction into the army and is being prepared for assignment. He is expecting to be sent to Wichita Falls, Texas, for training in the air corps.
