

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

MRS. R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

MURRAY

By Journal Field Representative

W. O. Troop was a business visitor in Plattsmouth Saturday.

John A. Davis was a business visitor in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Earl Merritt is hoping soon to be able to return to work, after a three weeks' siege of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles drove to Nebraska City Sunday, where they visited with friends and enjoyed a fine dinner.

James Earhardt, not being able to pick corn during the latter part of the week due to the storm, went to Plattsmouth Saturday to look after some matters of business.

Lee Nickles and sister, Miss Etta, of Plattsmouth came down Sunday for a visit at the home of their cousins, Alfred and Miss Bertha Nickles, where a fine dinner was served.

Although there was some window soaping, pranks played on Halloween this year were of a harmless nature, due in part to the bad weather that prevailed, with a heavy snow storm throughout the evening.

Glen Kreaker, who lives with his father, Jacob Kreaker, west of Myrard, was in town Monday morning securing some materials for the placing of a floor in one of their hog houses and for the doing of some other improvements on the farm.

Enjoyed Halloween Party

There was a very enjoyable Halloween party at the Murray hall last Friday night and Billie Wehrlein took his cat along and turned it loose to prey upon the rodents, and with great success. As a result of the feline's activity, Billy won the first prize.

A. G. Long Badly Hurt

While working on a corn elevator, a portion of the machine fell, striking A. G. Long on the shoulder and back, knocking him to the ground with such force that he was rendered unconscious. A doctor was called to render first aid and he was then put to bed where he has since remained as it was found several of

PULLETS and HENS FOR SALE

I have some very fine Austro White Pullets and White Leghorns for sale. Hens are now laying and the pullets to lay soon. Write or see me on farm 4 miles west and 1 mile south of Murray, Nebr.

MRS. W. O. TROOP
Postoffice: NEHAWKA

MOVIE NEWS IS AT ITS BEST IN THIS GREAT SHOW!

GEORGE FISHER

HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

Hear Him at

1:15

Every Sunday Afternoon

PRESENTED BY
Mar-O-Oil Shampoo

★ ★ ★

KOIL

1290 on Your Dial

Weeping Water

By Journal Field Representative

Mrs. John Jorgensen and Miss Mayme Hillman were over to Lincoln last Friday looking after some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham were in Omaha last Tuesday with a truck load of produce. Meanwhile, the station was being looked after by Anton Jorgensen.

Edward Freeman has been feeling very poorly of late and one morning last week caused much concern when he had an exceedingly severe spell with pains in his chest and lungs.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Root was made happy last Sunday when there was born to them a very fine nine-pound baby boy with the young man and his mother doing nicely.

Mrs. Frank Dean has been having a siege with the flu and has been kept to her home and bed for a number of days. However during the past few days she has been feeling much improved.

Oscar Zimmerman of the Farmers State bank of Avoca was in Weeping Water last Tuesday morning looking after some business and was consulting with Floyd — u, manager of the electric light office.

Mrs. Eugene Ludwick departed last Sunday for Loreta, where she is spending a week with her folks. The Ludwicks made their home at Loreta before coming to Weeping Water to engage in the blacksmithing business.

W. O. Scheve of Murdock was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday and was looking after some business. Mr. Scheve is a hard worker and has grown an excellent crop of corn, and a fine herd of full-blooded cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole will in a short time depart for California, where they will make their home for the winter. They will be taken out in an auto by one of their sons. Mr. and Mrs. Cole have two daughters making their home in the west and with whom they will stay.

Uncle Louis Pillsbury

Uncle Louis Pillsbury, 86, who has been making his home in Weeping Water for the past ten years, coming here from Murdock, where for a number of years he was engaged in the shoe repairing business. Before that he was for a time making his home in Omaha. After coming to Weeping Water he secured apartments in the building east across the street from the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker, where he resided until his condition from failing health necessitated his being cared for and for a time at the Rest Haven apartment, cared for by Mrs. Raines, when it became necessary for her to leave for a time, he then was taken to the Laurel hotel where he passed away Monday morning about 4. The funeral was had on Wednesday and interment had at Oakwood cemetery. He has a brother living in Weeping Water and a daughter in Iowa. The daughter was here to attend the funeral.

Home on Furlough.

Frank Freeman, who is in the service at Buffalo, Oklahoma, secured a furlough, and came to Weeping Water to visit with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman and with the other relatives and friends. In order to visit with Frank Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nickles who also reside in Oklahoma, came to Weeping Water to visit with Frank during the vacation. The mother, Mrs. Edward Freeman, whose birthday fell last Sunday, November 2nd, made an occasion for celebration in connection with the visit of the son, and a family gathering was had at the Freeman home.

All of the members of the family were present including Frank and mother, who were guests of honor.

Thomas Walling Company

Abstracts of Title

Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

BUILD NOW

You may never have another year when you can borrow ninety per cent of the cost of your home!
We are in the Defense Area and that is why you can borrow so much now!

E. J. RICHEY
LEMBUR COAL PHONE 125
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBR.

Earl Freeman and family of Avoca, East Lawther and wife of Weeping Water, Charles Freeman and a number of other brothers and sisters.

In departing at the close of the very happy day, best wishes were extended to Frank who is soon to return to camp and to the mother on her 57th birthday.

To Make Home in West.

Mrs. J. M. Ambler, who has been making her home in Weeping Water during the past summer, having a daughter making her home in Los Angeles, concluded she would make her home with the daughter and last Tuesday morning departed for Omaha where at midnight she departed for Los Angeles on the streamlined limited train of the Union Pacific.

Had a Severe Experience.

Miss Mayme Hillman, who conducts the cafe, was desiring some goods to use in the dinner, and stepped on a chair to reach some edible and reaching up, even stretching on tip toe lost her balance and fell to the floor with great force. In her fall she received a sprained wrist and a twist of the small of her back and numerous bruises. The next morning, however, still very sore, she went on with the work at the restaurant.

Making Home in Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groat, the former a veteran employee of the Missouri Pacific railroad, being employed by the road for over fifty years, serving a number of years as section foreman here and at Elmwood, was retired two years ago on a pension. They went then to Lincoln where they made their home until recently when they came to Weeping Water to make their home. They are at the Rest Haven apartment house and hotel. Both Mr. and Mrs. Groat are in excellent health and are being cared for there. After a long and arduous life filled with real hard labor, they are entitled to a few years of rest and peace.

To Meet Next Sunday

The Cass County Christian Fellowship association will hold their next meeting at the parlors of the Methodist church at Union at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The guest speaker will be Dr. Charles B. Herbert, district superintendent of the Omaha district of the Methodist church. The music for the occasion will be provided by the Rev. Gerald Gardner and wife of the Elmwood Christian church. All Christians are cordially invited to be present and enjoy this wonderful meeting.

Enjoy State Convention

Mrs. W. D. Lenker and Mrs. Earl Oldham arrived home from the W. C. T. U. state convention at Kearney Saturday afternoon, having enjoyed the convention immensely. Mrs. Oldham was elected delegate to the national convention to be held at Birmingham, Alabama with Mrs. Lenker as alternate.

ENTERS U. S. SERVICE

Bernard A. Jackson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson of this city, yesterday enlisted in the United States army air corps at the Omaha recruiting office.

The young man expects to leave Wednesday for Wichita Falls, Texas, where he will undergo training and where another Plattsmouth youth and friend of Bernard, Beryle Shultz, is now stationed.

The young man is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1939 and since then has been employed in various capacities in this city.

He also enjoys the distinction of being a son of a World War veteran, his father having been active in the American Legion here and is a former commander.

NO USE

Putting Off
Putting On THAT

New Overcoat

You know you need it and present qualities cannot be duplicated!

Be sensible and buy it now. All wool, priced as low as—

$19.50

WESCOTT'S
Where Quality Counts

UNION ITEMS

By Journal Field Representative

Mrs. Martha Lynn, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is now some better.

Mrs. A. L. Becker was quite ill several days during the past week, but is now improved.

Mrs. A. M. Hargus visited friends in Nebraska City Monday and also did some shopping there.

D. Ray Frans was busy getting his storm sash up Monday afternoon, as it seems cold weather is on the way.

The condition of Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary is little changed from last week. She is being cared for by a cousin.

Mrs. Nels Madson and her mother, Mrs. McCarroll, together with Mrs. L. R. Upton were visiting in Omaha Friday of last week.

A Halloween party was held at the Banning hall last Saturday evening, sponsored by the members of the Ladies Auxiliary.

The Methodist church ladies, who recently leased the Stine building and fitted it up as a community hall, are using it today for the serving of their dinner and supper.

George Clarke has been enjoying a furlough from his service with the army at San Antonio, Texas, and is visiting in Union, but will leave before the end of the week.

Miss Edith Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wolfe, who has been attending a musical school in Lincoln, completed her course there last week and returned home Saturday.

Henry H. Becker made a business trip to Omaha Monday and on his return, brought back a load of goods. He stopped in Plattsmouth briefly to look after business matters while en route home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Banning and son Lucian of Union, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters, of Nebraska City were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning, of Alvo.

Mrs. Mary Johnson of Weeping Water visited relatives and friends in Union several days last week, being a guest at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker and Mrs. Martha Lynn while here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin and daughter Ruthann and Lester Schumacher and family were guests at the George Winscot home in Plattsmouth last Sunday and enjoyed visiting with Grandmother Griffin, who is staying there for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Rily McFarland were also guests during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lindsey, who are living in California, have been visiting here for a short time while Bud is enjoying a short vacation from his work in an airplane factory. Previous to going to work there, he completed a term of enlistment in the U. S. Navy.

Oliver Schiber, past commander of the Union American Legion post, who was thrown from a donkey at a donkey ball game some weeks ago and suffered a broken wrist, is getting along nicely, but still has to favor the injured hand.

Found the Going Tough

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clarence started for Omaha Friday with a load of produce, and when they had gotten part way they found the going very bad. When they met a conveyance coming this way, Mrs. Clarence returned home, but Vic continued on and finally got to Omaha about six o'clock in the evening. It was eleven that night before he got back home.

To Spend Winter in Omaha
Mrs. Esther Bryan, sister of Mrs. W. N. Birritt, has accompanied her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hammerstrom to Omaha, and will spend the winter there with them. She had been visiting at the Birritt home for some time and the Hammerstroms came down from Omaha Sunday for a brief visit and take her back with them.

Extension Club Meets

The Union Extension club met last Friday at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. Pen Anderson. The co-hostesses were Mesdames Ted Sanders, B. W. Schafer and George Paulos. An excellent program had been prepared and a very fine social hour was enjoyed and not the least pleasurable feature was the fine lunch that was served at an appropriate hour.

Married at Nebraska City

Recently at Nebraska City was celebrated the marriage of Miss Casel Blivens of that place and Charles Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clarke, of Union. Both the bride and groom have a host of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes for their success and happiness.

Attended Red Cross Dinner

Miss Mary Becker was in Omaha last Tuesday, where she was present at a dinner meeting of American Red Cross workers at the Fontenelle hotel. Plans were discussed for the forthcoming roll call, which opens on Armistice day and will continue until Thanksgiving.

Roland Schlichtemeier Promoted

Frank Schlichtemeier was looking after business matters in Union last Monday and said they had just had a letter from their son, Roland, who is working in an airplane factory at St. Louis, saying he had been promoted to serve as foreman over a crew of twenty men and will hereafter draw a considerable increase in salary.

Attended Good Roads Convention

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning went to Grand Island last week where Mr. Banning attended a good roads meeting, and on conclusion of same they drove on to Broadwater, where they visited at the home of friends. Mr. Banning says the snow that fell in this part of the state passed them up, as there was no snow fell at Broadwater.

Married at Kansas City

Miss Betty Clark, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke, was united in marriage to Teddie McGuire of that place. Following the wedding, the newlyweds departed for Detroit, where Mr. McGuire has a position in an airplane factory and where they will make their home.

Attended Family Gathering

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Land and daughter Nancy Jane, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Harris and Mrs. Maggie Gunn drove to Kansas City, Mo., where they met Mrs. Gunn's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Redhair and other relatives, including Private Robert Redhair of the Army Air Corps Division, who is stationed at Kansas City for the present.

They enjoyed visiting and a very nice picnic dinner at Swope's park. Charles Redhair, who is attending business college at Chillicothe, Mo., was also able to be present at the family gathering.

Phone printing orders to No. 6.

Nehawka

By Journal Field Representative

The Harry Bucholz family came over from Avoca last Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Bucholz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger.

The Hoback Service Station was unloading a shipment of gas for the station here and the one they operate at Union last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McReynolds and Miss Lanna McReynolds were at Lincoln Monday of this week, where they looked after matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chriswisser of Union and Mrs. Cattie Chriswisser of Elmwood were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chriswisser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens were in Omaha last Sunday, where they visited their son and daughter, Laverne and Maxine, who are attending school in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son Kenneth visited at Lorton last Sunday with the parents of Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, remaining to enjoy an excellent supper before returning home.

Work Attracts Spectators

The work of placing the large sewer pipe under the railroad tracks required a ditch three feet wide and some seven feet deep and attracted a crowd of spectators who were curious to know how the job could be done. Sections of the pipe were riveted together as it was pulled thru the opening by a truck.

Complete North Sidewalk

The new sidewalk along the north side of the street, which is a part of the WPA improvement project, has been completed and is as nice a looking stretch of sidewalk as one will find anywhere. Three spaces have been left at the curb line, each two feet square and a hundred feet apart. At these points base will be laid for the electrolite lighting posts, to be set later. These will further enhance the beauty of Nehawka's principal business street.

Played in the Mud

The Cornhuskers have nothing on our stalwart young football players, for on Monday they too played on a muddy field much like the one at Manhattan, Kansas, last Saturday. Their opponents were the team from Union high school. The game was won by Union 5 to 3.

Made an Excellent Report

Mrs. Albertson was a delegate from the Nehawka Methodist church to the Cass County Bible School association convention which was held at Eagle last Tuesday, and was accompanied by a number of local Bible school workers. Rev. and Mrs. Small of the United Brethren church were also among those attending from Nehawka. They report a very fine meeting, but not as large an attendance as in former years. Last Sunday at the Bible school hour, Mrs. Anderson made a complete report of the doings of the convention, including the fine addresses, reports and discussions, giving her impressions of the meeting in such a pleasing manner that those who were privileged to hear her almost felt they had been at the convention.

Subscribe to The Journal

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
DOUBLE FEATURE
Red Skelton, Conrad Veidt and Ann Rutherford in
'Whistling in the Dark'
Meet the Funniest Man You Ever Saw!
John Perry and Roger Price in
'Bullets for O'Hara'
Exciting Drama of the Underworld,
Also 'King of the Texas Rangers' Serial
Matinee Sat., 2:30; Nights, 7 and 9:30.
Adults, 28c; Children, 11c, inc. Tax

SUNDAY - MONDAY
Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour in
'Road to Zanzibar'
The Funniest of All Their Big Hits!
COMEDY, CARTOON and NEWS
SUNDAY MATINEE, 2:30
Nights, 7:00 and 9:15
Matinee, 28c and 11c, inc. Tax
Nights, 33c and 11c, inc. Tax

TUESDAY ONLY
BARGAIN SHOW
Fine Bargain Show for Armistice Day
Barbara Stanwyck and Henry Fonda in
'The Lady Eve'
Every night a first-class laugh every second.
Also Comedy and Orchestra Recel.
Matinee at 2:30—Night Shows, 7 and 9.
Adults, 20c; Children, 11c, inc. Tax

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY
DOUBLE FEATURE
Buddy Vallee, Ann Miller and Rosemary Lane in
'Time Out for Rhythm'
and Brian Aherne and Kay Francis in
'The Man Who Lost Himself'
Two complete shows at 7:00 and 9:30
Adults, 28c; Children, 11c, inc. Tax

A PRUDENT INVESTMENT

Is what may be said of Home ownership . . . started with Home Savings . . . and completed with a Home Loan!

Our Easy Monthly Payment
Direct Reduction Loan Plan

shortens the term required to complete payment, and avoids share payments, and makes Home Ownership easy and profitable!

Let Us Tell You More about It

Neb. City Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n
Chartered and Supervised by U. S. Government