Nurse Proves Self Heroine of Auto Accident

Mrs. Arthur Riebe of Ashland Has Close Call from Death in Accident—Nurse Saves Life

Mrs. Arthur Riebe, of Ashland, was very seriously injured Sunday in an auto wreck on the highway two miles west and two miles south of South Bend. She was riding in her car which was being driven by her husband, the car going west on the road which is toward the bottom of a long hill.

There had been a quantity of gravel dumped on the road and which was still loose and caused the Riebe car to get out of control of the driver and Mrs. Riebe was thrown into the windshield as the car wrecked, her throat being lacerated and bleeding profusely.

George Wallinger and his son-in-law Clarence Willis, were working in the cornfield on the Kleiser farm adjoining the scene of the accident and hurried to render assistance.

Miss Carrie Kleiser has been under the care of a trained nurse for some time and the nurse was notified of the accident and hurried to the scene and with clips was able to close the lacerated arteries and stop the loss of blood as far as possible, Dr. Clark of Ashland had been called and giving aid at the scene had the patient rushed to the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln.

Reports from the hospital this afternoon are that Mrs. Riebe is "fair" and had a restful night.

The prompt work of the nurse in the emergency had a great part in saving the life of the patient.
